

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 260

Tang Shaoyang raised his right foot and stepped hard on Aren's chest.

"Kuargh!" The Great Swordsman groaned in pain, only then Tang Shaoyang turned toward the voice.

A woman that looked around her mid-twenties came out from behind the tree. She had red-brownish hair that reached her shoulder and a white robe adorned her body. Her crimson eyes were bright and enticing, with her faultless chiseled cheeks, the girl was a top beauty for sure.

"Don't kill him!" The girl made the request, but Tang Shaoyang merely squinted his eyes at her, "Why not?" As he asked back, he cast [Basic Detection] on her.

Name:???

Race: Human

Affiliation: Adventurer Guild

Class: Cleric

Rank: Gold

Level:88

Skill:???

'Cleric, huh!? Not the dangerous one, but maybe she is just the bait!?' Tang Shaoyang cast [Spirit Eyes] and scanned the surroundings.

He scanned the surroundings but he did not find anyone aside from them. The reinforcement from the city also had not arrived. He was curious why the girl approached him.

"Selena! Why are you here?" Tang Shaoyang heard the man on his feet talk to the girl, 'Oh, the girl is his lover or something?'

"Run! Don't come! I will hold him back!" The man yelled at the girl while holding his right foot. It was not a firm grip, Tang Shaoyang could easily shake the grip, but he just let the man.

The girl called Selena was not listening to the man as she kept approaching them, "What are you doing, Selena? Run, you can't face this monster!"

The girl was looking down at the man and smiled. For some reason, Tang Shaoyang saw that as a joyous smile, 'Am I seeing things? Her friend is caught, why does she seem happy?'

'Aren't they lovers?' He kept looking back and forth. At the same time, [Spirit Eyes] was scanning the surrounding area, but he could not find anyone. Even the assassin of the party was no longer in his range of view.

"I don't expect that one day I will see you on the ground, being stepped on by someone else, this kinda makes me happy," the girl smiled as she spoke to the man.

Her words surprised Tang Shaoyang while it shocked the man too. Aren's eyes widened in shock as he was not expecting to hear those from the girl. He just could not believe it.

"Confused? Wondering why the sweet Selena you knew, changed suddenly?" The girl let out a giggle while looking down at the man, "Of course, you would not know the real me, this is the real me!"

The girl suddenly moved her hand to her neck, she then pulled a layer of her skin. She was wearing a mask, a face was hidden behind her beautiful face.

Tang Shaoyang thought he would see a ruined face behind the mask, but she was hiding a prettier face behind the mask. There was a mole below her corner right eye, adding a sexiness point to her face.

She was stopping five meters away from them. After she pulled off the mask, she grinned at the man, "Do you recognize this face?"

Tang Shaoyang noticed the man's eyes shook, he was shocked to see the girl's face, 'Huuu!? There's an interesting story between them.'

"It seems you still remember this face, wondering how come she's still alive, right?" The girl was straight ignoring Tang Shaoyang as she was having the conversation with the man.

"Of course, the woman in your mind is dead, she is my twin sister!" The woman's face turned scary when she mentioned "twin sister".

"I have been waiting for this chance, a chance to kill you, but you never want to make a move on me despite all the signals I gave you, but finally this chance has come."

After saying that, the girl turned toward Tang Shaoyang, "Sir, can I have his life? Can I kill him? I want his life!" Her sweet voice was cold but she was still smiling at him.

"Why would I give his life to you? I can level up by killing him, and what I can get from giving him to you? In fact, killing you has more advantages for me," he grinned at her.

The woman wavered slightly when he said that. She flinched back, but she regained her confidence back soon as her smile returned to her beautiful face, "I will give you everything, my body, everything. I will be your slave!"

"Do you think you have other choices? It is not like you can escape from my hand, don't you? But again, you are a beauty, but I don't lack beauties. I would rather kill you to level up instead of taking you up as my slave!" Even though he said so, he did not do anything to the girl. He was waiting for her response for some reason as he had other uses.

The smile on Selena's face disappeared, and she was not prepared for this. The beauty trap was the only plan she had, but she could not think that her plan was not working on Tang Shaoyang. She clenched her fist while thinking hard about what she could give to him.

"You are the scheming type, but you can't think of anything to give me. Alright, the deal is off, I will just kill him!" He raised the scythe, he was about to slice Aran's head, but the girl pounced toward his arms.

She was holding his right arm, trying hard to prevent him from killing the man. Not that she wanted to protect him, but she wanted to kill the man with her own hand.

"I will do anything for you, anything. You can even sell me for money. I am a high-level cleric and a beauty on top of that. I can be sold for a high price. You will get more if you put me into an auction!" Selena was desperate to want to kill the man with her hand.

"As I said, I can capture you and do anything I want to you. It's not like you can do anything about that!" Tang Shaoyang shrugged.

"Please, let me kill him. I will do anything for you, but please let me kill him!"

Aren was watching the whole thing with his unbelievable face. He still could not believe that the woman that had been with him for months was trying to kill him.

"Anything is it?" The grin on his face was getting wider as the woman responded with a furious nod. He shook the woman off from his arm, "You can cut off his limbs first for the start, we will talk the deal later."

Selena's eyes brightened up as she took Aren's sword. With a big smile on her face, she cut the man's limbs. She started with his right arm, and she was giggling while the man screamed in pain, "Make sure to heal him so he does not die."

"Don't worry, Master. I also don't want him to die too fast either," she truly cast [Heal] to stop the bleeding before she continued with her sweet revenge. At least, that was what he could tell from the current situation.

He was planning to hunt the adventurers and level up, but he was not expecting a tragic twist like this.