

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 309

"You know... I am alone... in another world... so... I can't help it..." Tang Shaoyang was sitting across Zhang Mengyao who was looking at him sharply.

Even though it was seven days, it could be said that they had not met for over a month, and it was over two months for Zhang Mengyao. Both could feel the difference in each other.

Tang Shaoyang could feel the sharpness from the girl, and he could also feel the higher level of confidence in her as she spoke earlier. He could not find any weaknesses in her, he did not see the soft Zhang Mengyao anymore. What he saw on her was the new Zhang Mengyao with firm confidence and the sharp aura that always watched the two beastmen on the side.

Kairu and Wen were standing around seven meters away from the battle. For some reason, the two insisted to follow him in this private talk.

"Anyway, let me introduce you to them," he pointed at Kairu, "He is Kairu, and he is Wen. They have sworn to join the empire," he tried to change the topic.

"Talking about the empire, where is our castle?" Kairu blurted out as soon as he realized that they were in some castle or a big capital city or something.

Of course, his random question was ignored. Wen did not bother with his friend while Zhang Mengyao kept her eyes on Tang Shaoyang, "I understand that, but five?"

Tang Shaoyang smiled wryly. The number was indeed many, and it was not what he planned. Elinova was his target, he did not plan to get the other four but they came to him by themselves.

"What about Dragon? Are you interested to hear a story about a Dragon? I met one in the Arkania Continent," Tang Shaoyang had not given up on changing the topic.

Hearing that, he could see her eyes were flickered. He could tell that the girl was interested in the story, "Not only Dragon, even the Gods. Thanks to these fake Gods though, my group was sent back earlier than the designated time."

"Hahh..." Zhang Mengyao let out a sigh and stood up from her chair. She looked toward the two beastmen, "Can you leave us alone?"

Kairu was about to say something but Wen pulled the lion beastmen out with him. The reason he followed Tang Shaoyang to the house was that he found something unusual about the woman. The aura radiated from the woman was different from the others. He found a potential threat from the woman.

Of course, Wen lowered his guard as soon as he found out the woman was Tang Shaoyang's woman, "It seems we are safe as long as we are inside the barrier," the Jade Eagle looked up at the barrier.

"What are you doing? Why do you pull me out? That woman looks strong, it's worth a try to fight her," The Flaming Lion complained as he tried to peek inside through the glasses on the door.

"Stupid! She is our leader's woman. From their conversation, Tang holds high regard for her. We should respect her just like we respect him!" Wen slapped Kairu's broad back

"Excuse me, can you move away from the door?" By then, the two's conversation was interrupted by a female voice. Wen and Kairu looked toward the voice and found a woman with shoulder-long hair.

"Who are you? You are not allowed to enter..." before Kairu could finish his words, a man appeared in front of them. Lu An's movement caught the two beastmen off guard, "It's not up to you to decide! She is the Boss' girlfriend! Move!"

Lu An's hand was at the sword's handle, ready to pull the sword anytime. Meanwhile, his eyes locked on Kairu, his sharp gaze radiated fierce killing intent.

Before the fight could break out, Kang Xue interrupted them, "Alright, stop it. I already heard about you two, and yes, I am your leader's lover. Can you please move aside now?"

Wen placed his right hand on the chest and bowed toward Kang Xue, "We are sorry, please forgive my friend's rudeness," the Jade Eagle pulled the Flaming Lion with him, "Let's stay away for a moment."

Lu An and Kairu exchanged glances, it was as if they were in a staring contest. Kang Xue shook her head, but she was in a hurry so she just left Lu An behind and entered the house.

As soon as she entered the house, Kang Xue heard a hurried breathing and a low moan. She immediately shut the door and locked it from inside. She followed the voice to the kitchen, sure enough, she found the source of the voice.

Zhang Mengyao was half-naked, having her butt faced outward while having his upper half rested on the table. Of course, behind her, Kang Xue saw the familiar man. The man was pistoning quite fast, and Zhang Mengyao immediately lost as she let out a loud moan.

Kang Xue pouted, "Mengyao broke her promise, she said she was going to wait for me," while pouting, Kang Xue started to undress her clothes and walked toward the couple.

They started in the kitchen, to the living room, then the stairs, before finally in the bedroom. It was a wild ride for the three of them.

Zhang Mengyao and Kang Xue raised the white flag after three continuously into the war. Even with their current Stamina, they could not handle the man.

Both girls' breathing was hurried, and their faces were red with bliss. Satisfaction was apparent on their faces, "Now you should know why I took five with me, shouldn't you? If it's only one, she could never satisfy me."

Tang Shaoyang was still riding Zhang Mengyao on her back. The little Shaoyang was still inside her, erected straight still. She felt so full inside her but refused to admit it.

"I actually... d-don't mind to have more sisters..." Kang Xue joined the conversation as she wriggled her way next to Tang Shaoyang and Zhang Mengyao. There was a juicy leak from below there as she made her way to the side, "But I agree that you should seek sister Mengyao's consent before adding a sister into the harem. She is your first."

"How I am supposed to ask for her consent if we are separated by a dimension," he rolled his eyes at Kang Xue before kissing her lips.

"Hummm!" Kang Xue hummed, but then Zhang Mengyao's tired voice rang, "Don't... don't stimulate him more... I can't..." she shook her head at Kang Xue as she started to feel little Shaoyang was getting bigger.

Kang Xue parted her lips and looked toward Tang Shaoyang as she flipped her body and opened her arms, "I can do it for one more round,"

Tang Shaoyang immediately got off from Zhang Mengyao and pounced toward Kang Xue. As soon as the little Shaoyang entered hers, Kang Xue moaned joyfully.

She did not know whether it was because she did not have intercourse for seventy days or maybe Tang Shaoyang was getting better. However, she could feel a big difference. The pleasure was enhanced many times more than before.

Her mind blanked as a surge of pleasure invaded her. Without much thought, she followed his movement and entered the next level of pleasure.

Zhang Mengyao watched the two from the side, she was especially looking onto Kang Xue's face. She could not imagine the girl could make such an expression during the intercourse, 'What about me? Maybe I am also the same,' her face flushed even redder.

In fact, Zhang Mengyao was well aware that this day would come as long as she continued her relationship with Tang Shaoyang. However, it was too fast that five women were with him already this fast.

Rather than angry, Zhang Mengyao was in a state of disarray. She was afraid, afraid of being left behind. She did not want to part with Tang Shaoyang for sure, but she was also afraid that Tang Shaoyang would forget her if someday he met a better girl.

The uncertainty and the insecurity were the main cause why she was a little angry, not because of the five women. While she was in deep thought, Tang Shaoyang and Kang Xue had reached a climax together.

Tang Shaoyang was making sure to release everything inside with no leak before he pulled little Shaoyang out and laid down between the two girls.

All of a sudden, Zhang Mengyao latched onto Tang Shaoyang and asked, "Can you make a promise with me?"

Tang Shaoyang glanced to the side, "What is it?" He wondered what got into her all of sudden.

"Promise me that you will never leave me!" Zhang Mengyao said that with a serious look. He broke into a smile, "Silly girl, so that's what you are thinking. Ok, I promise that I will not leave, or do you want to make an oath instead if you still doubt me? This is something I learned from the Arkania Continent."

"Oath?" Kang Xue joined up as soon as she recovered up.

"Yes, the oath is directly under the system watch. So if you break the oath, you will receive System Punishment. Of course, the punishment should be agreed upon by the involved persons," Tang

Shaoyang nodded, "Usually the oath is made for something serious and fair exchange in equal standing, or a one-sided oath for the slavery."

"Talking about the oath, I remembered Chief Rick told me about the marriage oath? Do you want to try this instead?" Tang Shaoyang turned toward the concerned Zhang Mengyao.
