

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 329

"Hah... Hah... Hah..." her face flushed red as sweat trickled down on her forehead. It was kinda exhausting but it was so satisfying.

Tang Shaoyang wanted to have another round, but he knew that they had more important priority. Searching for the treasure and assisting her to get more levels.

He put her down on the bed and he kissed her forehead. The bonfire made of [Dragon Fire] was still burning, he saw the empty carapace. It seemed she ate first before doing something that bold.

Tang Shaoyang shook his head at her boldness. He was not expecting her to do that, but the deed was done. He would need to take responsibility for that, 'It's okay if it's Li Na, right?' He thought to himself while dressing up and prepared for another meal.

Li Na was not moving for another five minutes on the bed. It seemed he was overdoing it with her, but aside from the happiness, he could not detect anything else from her expression.

While they were eating the ant's legs, he was distracted by Zowen's claim that the girl liked him, "Do you really like me?" He blurted that out of curiosity.

Li Na froze at the question. They had done the deed, the question was kinda too late. She did not know how to respond to the simple question.

'Shoot! Should not have asked that,' he immediately realized that he should never ask this.

"Yes," she replied albeit her voice was low, "I fell for you after our first time," the girl responded honestly as negative thoughts started to haunt her, 'Will he think of me as a slut? What I did is something a slut would do, but I am not that kind of woman. I am doing that because it was him,' she wanted to say that out but her mouth just opened and closed again a few times. No words came out.

"I see," Tang Shaoyang rubbed his chin. He did not forget his experience with Li Na, of course. Because it was a trade, he did not mention that to anyone unless the other person mentioned it first. It was something taboo as she basically bribed him to get the job. He did not want the women flocked to him because of that kind of rumor spread.

"What about men? Do any other men touch you?" He did not realize that it was more like an interview than a casual question to fill their time.

Li Na immediately shook her head vigorously in a pale complexion. She did not want to get misunderstood, "No, I never touched any men! I reserve all mine for you!" She said that loudly, but soon she realized it was inappropriate to say. The girl lowered her head as she was embarrassed again.

'My Divine Body is potent, it will not just give women pleasure, but it can capture women's hearts too,' he was not thinking that much.

He asked that because he just wanted to make sure Li Na had no relationship with his other subordinates. He did not mind if she had men with her before with him, but once she was his, he was not going to let any men touch his women. That was why he asked her.

"Are you worried about sister Mengyao? It's okay, we can keep this secret from everyone," she was determined that even this did not go to the public. She was satisfied as long as the man looked at her. It was such a simple thing but that was enough for her as long as the man responded to her feelings. She did not care about the others.

"Kuhuhu, so the naughty girl likes to have a back street," he chuckled as Li Na jolted awake and shook her head, "Nah, it's fine, we don't have to keep it secret. That's not me, at all. I will take responsibility for what I have done."

"If you finish your food, get ready for the next trip," Tang Shaoyang cracked another leg for him to feast.

The sixth portal was truly the hardest portal compared to the first five portals. It was purely a survival with no assistance from the system. This was the true survival game in Tang Shaoyang's eyes.

Recognized the terrain, locating a safe place, avoiding the poisonous areas, securing the provision for the next day, and learned the dangers that lurked around you. It was a tough survival for the others, but not Tang Shaoyang.

When the swarm came for him, he did not run away. He faced the swarm of the beast, slaughtering them while the others would run away from them. He solved the danger with his brute force.

The dangerous survival game became a boring trip for Tang Shaoyang. It was fortunate that it was Li Na who was in the sixth portal with him, not his random male subordinate.

"Hah... Hah... Hah... Ahhnnn~" in the middle of nowhere, near a small pool, Li Na was holding the tree while Tang Shaoyang rammed her from behind, "T-this is outside... L-let's do it inside the cave of something..." her breathing was ragged while she breathed warm air, "W-what if the others see? Hngg~"

"The others? Who?" Tang Shaoyang's hand was caressing her smooth back while his other hand was playing with her breast, "Don't you remember where we are?"

"Ahhnnn~ Ahhnnn~" she wanted to say something to reply, but it was so amazing that she moaned instead. However, she was shaking her head. She was telling him that she did not know.

Tang Shaoyang pasted his chest onto her back. His mouth was next to her ear before he started whispering, "My little Minx~ we are in the Fallen Land, land of monster and beast. All creatures in this world take us as their natural enemy so they will attack us as soon as they smell us, do you know what it does mean?"

It was hard for Li Na to think while little Shaoyang did the magic inside her. she could barely think let alone talk. She just shook her head in reply while moaning erotically.

"It means there were no humans besides us two," he whispered while licking her ear, causing her to moan deeper, 'Another sensitive spot, huh?' He grinned ear to ear. Exploring Li Na's body and part to find a new sensitive spot was something that caused him to not get bored with the endless fight they had to face every day.

"So there will be no others to spot us, the world belongs to us. We can do whatever we want without caring about others~" Tang Shaoyang increased the pace, pistoning harder. He could feel that little Shaoyang was clamped together with the soft meat, it was a sign the girl would reach the pick. He worked harder and Li Na released a long moan and her body leaned a bit forward.

"Hah... Hah... Hah..." she breathed erotically, they just started, and she knew he would bring her into a new spot and a new position.

Sure enough, he carried her into the pool. The pool was just waist-deep. He sat at the edge of that shallower side and she sat on his lap. She still could feel little Shaoyang twitch inside her. Her big arms held her slim waist before he brought her body up and down.

"This place may not be the best place for a honeymoon trip, but let's have fun while it is just two of us..." hearing the word "just two of us" excited the girl. He was right when they returned later, they could not have such a time again. She had to share him with the others.

Twenty days had passed since Li Na and Tang Shaoyang entered the sixth portal. On the twentieth day, they could feel that the monsters and beasts were coming toward even if they did not look for them.

On the plain, Tang Shaoyang and Li Na were standing side by side. Their surroundings were filled with the bison-like beast with fearful horn's dead bodies. The beast's dead bodies were scattered around.

It was not just a bison-like beast, wolves, venomous snakes, giant scorpion, and even Moon's kind, bears were among the dead bodies.

"Hah... Hah... Hah... Hah..." Li Na was out of breath from battling continuously for almost ten hours without rest. It was a tough battle for her even though it was so easy for her man.

Tang Shaoyang looked at the scattered dead bodies, thousands? Ten thousands? It was too many for him to count manually. He looked at the girl, "You can get some rest here."

Li Na nodded as she was so exhausted to respond to him and flopped on the empty ground. Meanwhile, Tang Shaoyang walked to the sky with his [Sky Walk].

He was walking around in the air to find how many dead bodies were lying in this plain. He was surprised that the plain, especially a thousand meters area around them, was covered in blood and dead bodies.

"Hohoho, we have so many sacrifices here," Tang Shaoyang squinted his eyes. He had encountered many of them, monsters and beasts. He used the beast's dead bodies for Malki and the monster for Karan. Now Karan was C+ Tier Spirit. He was curious about what it felt to integrate with the evolved spirit, but he never had a chance to do that since the swarm was too weak for him.

After walking around, he descended next to Li Na. She was still collecting her breathing from the battle. As for someone who focused her attribute on Magic Power, she had low stamina. Moon was lying behind her, giving her a comfy backrest.

He did not come for her, he was taking the bison-like bodies into his inventory. It was for their provision, he needed food to survive. After taking around third bison-like beasts, he turned toward Li Na.

"I am going to summon a new spirit, don't get surprised by it later," he warned the two before he summoned the new spirit, lest they would be alarmed since the effect of [Spirit Summoning] was always alarming.

After that, he shot a glance at Moon, giving the bear a signal. Moon received the signal and nodded his head.

He then walked up to the air again, twenty meters above the ground. He extended his hand toward the ground and cast the skill.

[Spirit Summoning]

All the beasts' dead bodies instantly dispersed into sinister dark crimson particles. All of them in the thousand meters area. The plain darkened by the sinister particles.

The sinister dark crimson particles, as always, [Spirit Summoning] always alarmed. Even though they had been warned, Li Na and Moon immediately stood up.

The sinister dark crimson particles floated in the air for a few seconds before all the particles were sucked into a direction, creating a six meters big sphere.
