

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 368

Xu Chen called Tang Shaoyang a cockroach guy because he remembered the rumor that said the man was stabbed a few times but still survived. Many people wanted this man to die, but he was still alive even now.

"Just like Leader Lu said, this man is a skilled fighter that has survived in many fights. It is not surprising that he becomes even stronger now. We have to put that man under a strict watch or else we will suffer," Xu Chen reminded the others.

"We can send a few people to enter the base to spy on them in the disguise of refuge," Major General Shi Yan waved his hand. That was a small problem, he wanted to know more about the individual called Tang Shaoyang than anything else.

"I want to know what kind of man this Tang Shaoyang is, do you know something about him?" The older man shook his head and asked Lu Huang Tu.

"There's one thing that bothered me. Yan Kui said Tang Shaoyang is establishing an empire? I don't think this man is interested in that as he never asked anything to my brother," Lu Huang Tu rubbed his chin.

"I remembered that my brother is having a hard time rewarding this man so he will stay loyal because he rejected everything my brother offered him, so it's weird that he suddenly wanted to build an empire," Leader Lu suddenly remembered the one time that his brother asked him for advice to reward Tang Shaoyang.

"Are you implying there's someone behind this Tang Shaoyang?" Major General Zuo immediately asked.

"That's possible, but I am not sure either. I told you that I don't know much about him, maybe my brother will know more about him," Leader Lu shook his head.

Yes, Lu Huang Tu was Lu Gang's little brother. Lu Gang was taking control of the Dragon Wings in SH City while he was leading the Dragon Wings in SZ City. The brothers had the ambition to take control of the whole underworld in the country.

"What should we do about them, General Shi? Should we attack them and take the base forcefully?" Tong Zedong felt a threat from the man called Tang Shaoyang as he listened to the other leader's discussion.

If Xu Group, the Flame Castle, and the Dragon Wings were a gangster group, Tong House consisted of a martial art group. They gathered together and secured their area before joining the military force.

"That's not necessary," Major General Shi Yan shook his head, "We have our priority, the Survival Game!"

They heard about the Survival Game from Huo Shihong's men who chased after Yu Shin and his girlfriend to the SH City. They met with Tang Shaoyang's group too.

"Lin Duan said that those people survived the harsh Survival Game. They encountered high-level and high-grade beasts, but they managed to finish the game, what does that mean?" Major General Shi Yan asked the people in the room.

"That means those people are powerful, especially that Tang Shaoyang guy. If we fight them now, the chance of us winning is quite slim," Major General Wu Shuan replied as he remembered the event.

Lin Duan and his team described Tang Shaoyang as a monster. It meant the guy was quite frightening.

"Correct! If we attack them hastily without information, it could lead us to our demise. The world changed, gentlemen. The tank we have is quite useless against someone with supernatural power. Don't get too complacent because we have a modern weapon, that weapon will soon become a mere lump of metal," Major General Shi Yan reminded them.

"We will not attack or antagonize them for the time being. Tell your people to not enter the SH City, don't wander around their territory, and provoke them!" Major General Shi Yan reminded Huo Shihong who was in charge of the territory that bordered the SH City.

"I agree with General Shi's plan. We should send our promising men to the Survival Game in our city first. We have mapped the possibility of where the Survival Game would be triggered, let's do that instead!" Major General Zuo Ren voiced his thoughts.

"What about them? Should we send some spies?" Tong Zedong was still concerned about Tang Shaoyang.

"We can do that too, but I have a better plan in my mind," Major General Zuo Ren smiled at the people in the room, "While we focus on the Survival Game, we can direct their attention away from us."

Everyone in the room turned toward Major General Zuo Ren.

"Jia Xing and Huzhou, we have sent people to check the situation in those two cities. We could not find any survivors but a sea of zombies. We can divert their attention to those two cities while we finish the Survival Game," Major General Zuo Ren smiled.

"That's actually a good idea, we can send a letter to invite the leader for a talk. We will work together with them to capture the two cities. However, we will only send the reserve soldiers to help them while our main force will work on the Survival Game," Major General Shi Yan agreed with the idea.

Major General Wu Shuan suddenly smiled too, "On top of that, we can see how strong their army is. We can be prepared and anticipate their power when we will clash against them in the future. Brilliant, let's do that."

The four leaders of the four factions looked at each other. They also found that the plan was quite good.

"It will be better if we can be an ally, and we are ready, we can attack them from inside and out," Huo Shihong voiced out his thoughts as well.

"What about your nephew? I heard your nephew's murderer is in their base? Are you okay with waiting for a little longer, Leader Huo?" Major General Shi Yan asked in a concerned tone.

"I am fine, as long as I can get back the murderer, waiting for a little longer is not an issue," Huo Shihong smiled, "Our establishment's future is more important."

"Alright then, let's gather our main force and start the operation. You, six people, will lead the main force into the Survival Game. I will entertain our delusional emperor," Major General Shi Yan smirked.

*** **

While the meeting proceeded, in the sky on top of the SZ City Establishment, there was a dot moving around.

The dot was hardly detected unless one looked carefully. However, no one would bother to look on top while they were starving.

The dot in the sky was the Jade Eagle, Wen and on top of Wen, Lu An was sitting while watching the one so-called military force establishment.

Of course, the one who was thinking to send a spy was not only these three Generals and the four Leaders. While they were still talking about their plan, Tang Shaoyang sent Lu An and Wen.

"Where do you want to land, Lu An?" Wen asked the young man on his back.

"Let's land there!" Lu An pointed to the less crowded spot.

Wen followed the direction and landed in a narrow street between two buildings. Unlike their base where a wall was installed, people in SZ City Establishment could enter and leave the territory on their own. It was quite easy to sneak into their territory even without Wen's assistance.

"I will gather the information closely, you will watch their territory from the top. If you find something suspicious like there's a massive movement..." Lu An did not finish his words as the Jade Eagle nodded his head, "I know. I will spy on them and report directly to Lord Shaoyang."