Tang Shaoyang looked at the window status and let out a satisfied grin. 22 Levels from sacrificing the Death Knight, was a big gain for someone who had two classes like him.

Since he reached the third advancement, he mostly leveled from the reward. He got a level from finishing a mini-game. That was how he had been raising his level since his return from the Survival Game.

Now he found another way to level up, he was so happy deep inside. However, he could feel the spirits that were with him right now were quite concerned.

Especially Zowen, she was the most worried spirit amongst the other spirits. He could feel the fear from the magus. She was afraid that she would be the one sacrificed by Tang Shaoyang.

"There's no need for you guys to worry, I am not going to sacrifice any of you!" Tang Shaoyang assured his spirits.

—Kek, You should save that later, My Lord. I want to see the Lightning Bitch getting restless for a couple more days.

Karan immediately followed to tease Zowen. The Orc was at ease because they had signed the contract. He was willing to be contracted and Tang Shaoyang would provide a battlefield for him.

Zowen said nothing in response. Maybe the magus was embarrassed.

Tang Shaoyang shook his head and looked up. Wei Xi was entering the City's Steele building.

"Cao Jingyi has arrived with additional Warriors and Militia Force, My Lord!" Wei Xi reported the reinforcement had arrived.

Tang Shaoyang nodded, "What about Yu Shun? Has he found any survivors?"

"Unfortunately he does not find survivors in Jiaying's perimeter," that was bad news. More than a million people but none of them survived the zombies.

"Get the people ready, we will attack Hangzhou City when Wen returns from Huzhou City," From Jiaying City, there were two routes for them.

Huzhou and Hangzhou, both cities were in the opposite direction. Huzhou was northeast to Jiaying while Hangzhou was southeast to Jiaying.

Hangzhou was a big city, so Hangzhou was for sure one of the eight official cities. As for Huzhou, the chance was small for that city to be an official city hence Tang Shaoyang sent Wen to check Huzhou.

Wei Xi nodded and left the building. At the same time, Tang Shaoyang received a message from Wen.

[My Lord, I don't find Zombie Consort in the city but I have found survivors, and they are fighting against a group of zombies. Should I help them?]

Tang Shaoyang was pleasantly surprised by the news. Finally, they found the living people. He immediately sent his reply to Wen.

[Yes, of course. Gather all the survivors in Huzhou and bring them here!]

*** **

Huzhou City

Wen was hovering above the city. From the air, Wen discovered a group of nine people fighting against dozens of zombies.

The Jade Eagle descended to a building. Even though Lord Shaoyang ordered him to save the survivors, Wen did not want to save them immediately. He wanted to save these people at the right time so they would feel grateful to him.

Six men and three women were fighting the zombies. Each was holding an unusual weapon, four of them were holding fireman axes, another two were holding a baseball bat, and three women were holding tuna knives.

Even though the tuna knife was thin and small, it was sharp enough to cleanly cut the zombie's neck.

"Be careful, stage-3 Swiffer is coming!" Huang Gang yelled to remind his friends as soon as he noticed the swift zombie with four hands.

"Damn! These abnormal stage-2 zombies are giving us a hard time, there's a stage-3 too!?" Another man replied begrudgingly.

"Shut your mouth and focus on the zombies!" A woman yelled back at the man as she wiped the green sticky blood on her cheek.

"Get here, and stick together! Don't get too far from each other!" Another man called his friends to stick together. Swiffer was known for their speed, they had to stick together, trusting their backs to their friends.

The nine people stick together, fending off against the zombies that kept coming toward them. The man with a baseball bat smashed the zombie's head. The head exploded. The man had a high strength to have such power.

As the group was sticking together, the Swiffer was just circling the group. It did not attack them.

"Damn! Since when has the zombie become this smart?" Huang Gang who had his eyes on the stage-3 Swiffer immediately noticed the movement.

Dump! Dump! Dump! Dump!

Suddenly the ground was vibrating, from the steps, the group was immediately alerted. Everyone was looking in the same direction.

Three three meters tall zombies with a big frame and biceps arms were charging at them. The three zombies were the Stage-3 Crusher.

"Damn! One stage-3 Swiffer is enough trouble, now three stage-3 Crushers? We will die for sure if we fight them!" A man cursed out at the sight of the incoming zombies.

"Leave! I will attract the zombies' attention to me!" A man with a baseball bat stepped from the group and told his friends to leave.

"You can't! If we are going to leave, we should leave together! Let's run together!" A female immediately rejected the idea.

"We can't outrun the stage-3 Swiffer! Don't be stupid and run now! I will become the bait!" The man was persistent, "Leave, right now!!!"

The other five men exchanged glances and nodded their heads. This was only their chance to escape from the zombie's chase.

"Huang Gang, Jia Shun, and I will lead the charge. Guo Jiang and Ma Ping bring Liao Zhenya!" A man immediately took over the group's lead and glanced at the two women, "If you want to live, then follow us!"

After that, the man looked toward the brave guy who was willing to be the bait, "We will wait for your return at the base, Zhen Yang!"

The man nodded his head without looking back. He was ready to die in the battle.

However, it was too late as another three stage-3 Swiffers came out from the building that was not far from them.

"Damn! We can't escape now!" Huang Gang noticed the lone stage-3 Swiffer grouped with the other three and cut their escape path.
