

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 440

While it looked the man did not wear the rubber armor just like the man with a big build mentioned. People tended to believe what he said since that was the plausible explanation why the emergency ax bounced back.

The man with a big build rushed toward Tang Shaoyang. He hacked the ax horizontally, toward the neck. It was just a bare neck, there was no such rubber armor.

Swoosh!

The man hacked with all his strength, hoping to cut the neck with one hack. Yet again, the same thing repeated. The ax bounced back, no, the ax flung away from the man's hand.

At this point, people were in a daze to witness the miraculous scene. The man was invulnerable to the ax for sure. It was a bare neck but the ax still bounced back.

The man with a big build panicked. He could not believe that the ax could not cut the man. In his panicked state, he drew his gun from and directed the muzzle toward Tang Shaoyang's hand.

The man was about to pull the trigger but Tang Shaoyang's hand reached the gun. He held the muzzle with his bare hand and spoke to the man, "I will not allow you to fire the gun. This is too loud, but we can use your scream to lure your leader out."

Tang Shaoyang's hand turned red as the pistol also turned red, releasing hot steam.

"Kharrggghhh!!! The man screamed as he released the gun. He waved his hand while screaming. His palm was scalded because of the heated gun.

Then the man witnessed more unbelievable things. He witnessed the gun being melted in Tang Shaoyang's hand. As if the bouncing ax was not enough to shock everyone, Tang Shaoyang melted the gun within his hand.

The gun was now just a melted lump of metal. It turned into a hot liquid and fell to the ground.

Plop!

The man with a big build fell on his butts, staring at Tang Shaoyang in horror. Only then the man realized that he messed with the wrong person. Was the man in front of him even a human? Such a thought crossed his mind.

"What is this?" Tang Shaoyang smelled something unpleasant. He furrowed his brows and looked down at the man with a big build. To be more specific, he looked at the crotch area.

He then realized that the man with a big build was wetted himself, "You wet yourself?" The voice attracted everyone's attention to the man.

Sure enough, the ground was wet with the man's piss. It was quite a lot so it was easily noticed. Shaking his head, Tang Shaoyang looked toward the man who tried to invite him to join, "You!" He called the man.

Being called out, the first guard opened his mouth. At this point, he realized that the man was not normal. His stomach churned while his heartbeat was racing, but he still managed to utter a word despite stuttering, "Y-ye-yes?"

"Call all the people inside the building. There's something I want to announce, quick!" Tang Shaoyang urged the first guard.

The first guard did not give his reply as he immediately ran toward the building. He did the exact thing as Tang Shaoyang's order.

Tang Shaoyang then turned toward the remaining six guards, "You six!"

The six people immediately straightened their posture, ready to receive the command, "You will be maintaining the crowd, make sure they line up properly!"

"Yes, Sir!" The six guards replied simultaneously.

Now the six guards had become Tang Shaoyang's subordinates. None of them stupid enough to challenge someone invulnerable to a weapon and could even melt a gun.

Meanwhile, Li Shuang was staring at the back of the man then she peeked at the gun that had been melted. She kept looking back and forth between the two, making sure this was not a dream or even a magic trick.

It was a lie if she was not afraid of the man. However, more than afraid, she quickly realized something else. This man in front of her was not just a normal man. He was freaking strong and possessed a power that others did not have.

At this moment, she quickly decided to be affiliated with this man in any way, for his daughter. She wanted her daughter to live in a better environment and this man could realize that. On top of that, he seemed to be fond of her daughter as well.

'Yes, you have to do this, Li Shuang. This is for your daughter. At least, you can do this much for your daughter!'

Quickly, people were coming out of the building. Most of them were disgruntled because their sleep was disturbed, "What is this!? Who told you to gather the people!?"

Of course, there was always someone that was higher in position and questioned the guard. The guard was quite smart to handle the situation as he pointed at Tang Shaoyang. Leaving everything on the abnormal man.

Of course, the guard did not leave unscathed. He got a fierce slap on the cheek and a punch on the belly, 'This much better than being melted like a gun!' That was the unlucky guard thought.

"It seems you are tired of living, daring to make a mess in Vulture Knives Base!" The man approached Tang Shaoyang with a furious visage. He drew two knives from his waist. The knife was longer than a kitchen knife, around fifty centimeters.

But then, the man stopped his steps when he saw the man with a big build on the ground, "Mao Bo? What are you doing?"

The man with a big build's name was Mao Bo. The guy did not respond to the call and the man slapped Mao Bo's back of his head, "Are you crazy? Do you dare to ignore me, now!?"

Only then Mao Bo snapped out of his terror and looked toward the man, "Fifth Boss!?" Mao Bo was alarmed.

The Fifth Boss pinched his nose at the unpleasant smell, "Are you kidding me? Do you piss yourself?" The Fifth Boss kicked Mao Bo's back, causing him to fall, and kissed the ground with his piss.

Despite being treated harshly, Mao Bo still took his time to warn the Fifth Boss, "Be careful, Fifth Boss. He's strong!"

The Fifth Boss sneered back, "He should be if he wants to mess with Vulture Knives!"

"Identify yourself! Does Azure Clan send you? Or is that toothless Shark?" The man questioned Tang Shaoyang sharply while revolving the knife in his hand.

Tang Shaoyang shook his head, "No one sent me! I come from SH City and I am here bringing good news. We have built a proper base in SH City and the city is clear of zombies!" His voice was loud for everyone to hear. His purpose was for these people to hear him.

"We have food! A proper lodging, and also a clean environment. We have an army to protect you from the zombies as well! I am here to bring..." Tang Shaoyang could not finish his words as the Fifth Boss cut him midway.

"Stop! Stop!" The Fifth Boss yelled at Tang Shaoyang, "You dare to poach my people in front of me!? You're really tired of living!"

The Fifth Boss rushed toward Tang Shaoyang with his two knives.
