

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 461

"Hnggg~" a suppressed moan flowed out from her lips. This was their second time but she did not understand how this could be so good. His big thing filled her fully inside. Each thrust would jolt her body into pleasure.

She was facing the bed down with him above her, pounding her from behind, "Isn't this exciting?" He whispered to her from the back.

"W-what do you mean?" She managed to utter that question amidst their deed.

"Your ex-sister-in-law is in the next room and here we are, doing something lewd," Tang Shaoyang whispered with a deep voice. He did not stop his movement, of course.

As soon as he finished saying that, he could feel Little Shaoyang clamped tightly inside Li Shuang. His words just got her even more excited. Her mind went blank as Tang Shaoyang increased his pace. She wriggled in pleasure, holding his hair.

Li Shuang turned her head and met with his lips. She exchanged the passionate kiss as she lost it. She seemed to have forgotten that her daughter was in the next room as unrestrained moans flowed out from her mouth.

Fifteen minutes quickly passed. They have changed their positions three times. Starting from the bed and ending up on a single couch. Her legs circled his waist and her hands circled his neck. She had come two times as it got more intense as they continued.

Suddenly she saw the door opened. Her eyes widened in shock as she saw Zhang Mengyao enter the room.

"Tsk, it was right to get Jiaying to another room," Zhang Mengyao said as she approached them and sat across from them. Her present shocked Li Shuang, but the man just won't stop. Her mind could not think straight, at this point. The pleasure given to her overwhelmed the embarrassment.

Tang Shaoyang could feel that Li Shuang's vagina clamped his Little Shaoyang even tighter. Having sexual intercourse while being watched by another woman excited Li Shuang even more. She overcame the momentary shock as the gust of divine pleasure assaulted her.

Li Shuang lost it. She did not care even if another woman watched her having sexual intercourse. She just surrendered her body to the man and let him do the job.

As it got even more intense, she almost reached a climax again for the third time. When she reached a climax, she could feel a warm liquid poured into her body as well. Both reached a climax at the same time.

Li Shuang did not bother with the protection. It would be best if she could bear his child. It would solidify her position even more. She panted, stabilizing her breathing. She could feel that his penis was still big inside her.

Just she thought they would continue for another round. She witnessed something unbelievable. Zhang Mengyao was standing in front of her, with no clothes, stark naked just like her.

Zhang Mengyao then pasted her body into Tang Shaoyang and smiled at Li Shuang, "You can get rest while I take the baton for you, Sister Shuang."

Li Shuang never expected that one day, she would be in this situation with her gentle yet strict sister-in-law. While she had an ill past with her ex-husband, she had a good relationship with her husband's family, including Zhang Mengyao's father.

Slowly, Li Shuang could feel Little Shaoyang retreat from her private region. She noticed Zhang Mengyao was staring at her private region. She blushed as the girl was too bold.

"Wow, You are amazing, Sister Shuang," Li Shuang did not understand why Mengyao suddenly said. She was too tired to care about the surroundings as she slowly closed her eyes.

Li Shuang's eyelids wavered as she raised to open her heavy eyelids, "Urgh..." she felt the aftereffects of the crazy night. Slowly, memories came back into her head as she recalled everything.

Her cheeks blushed instantly as she remembered what happened last night. She and Zhang Mengyao were, in turn, having a battle with Tang Shaoyang. She had lost count of how many times she had reached climax.

Li Shuang remembered how she did not want to lose against Zhang Mengyao. He came inside her three times as a result and she felt slightly sore down there as she forced herself.

Her body was screaming at her, asking for more sleep but she forced herself to open her eyes. She remembered that today, the city would be attacked by the red-armored people. She was terrified after witnessing the first battle, but she was determined to face it.

Zowen was right. Her man was not the only one who had the ambition to rebuild a country for himself. The clash between people was bound to happen and she had to adapt. Facing and overcoming her fear would benefit her more.

"You have woken up?" Li Shuang heard a familiar voice from the side. She turned her head toward the voice and saw Zhang Mengyao.

Zhang Mengyao was wearing black chainmail and also tight pants. She noticed plate armor next to her. The shoulder part, wrist guards, glove, chest armor, down to the legs part. Everything was black as she started to wear the armor.

"Are you sure you want to follow us? Even though he agrees, I think it's better if you are to stay with Jiaying," Zhang Mengyao spoke as she put on the armor.

"No, I have to face this sooner or later, and I choose to face this now!" Despite the soreness down there, Li Shuang got up, enduring it.

"If you insist," Zhang Mengyao nodded as she took out a new armor from her inventory, "I have prepared the light armor for you. You can have it now or you can take a shower first if you want. You have to be quick though, Wen has found the enemy."

Li Shuang did not bother to take a shower as she wore light armor. Even though Mengyao said it was light armor, it was still heavy for Li Shuang. After that, the two went out of the building. Wen carried both of them to Tang Shaoyang's side. However, Li Shuang's attention was attracted to the red-armored people who lined up, heading toward them.

Hundreds of red-armored knights marched toward their direction. Noticing the enemy's numbers, Li Shuang looked around. She was in the air, she easily scanned the surroundings and she could not find any other people aside from four of them.

"Only four of us?" She blurted out.
