

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 468

"Indeed, my power is still too small to fight against the Pyrolis Kingdom or now to be the Lionax Kingdom," Tang Shaoyang nodded his head. This was just a random guess but worth a try.

To his surprise, he saw a change of expression on Rosalie's countenance. He seemed to hit on the point, 'Is it the Pyrolis Kingdom or the Lionax Kingdom?'

Of course, it was not so random. The thought crossed in his head as he remembered Crystal's story. Her household was betrayed by the kingdom she served. He thought this Queen was related to this Pyrolis Kingdom or maybe the Lionax Kingdom since both were summoned with the same sacrifices.

Who knew that Rosalie was connected to one of them. At least, that was what he thought upon noticing the change in her.

"How do you know!?" Rosalie snapped out from her gentle and seductive appearance into a lioness. Her beautiful face twisted into fury, though she still had the charm. It did not affect her beauty, at all.

Her body steamed red as her smooth white skin released hot air. Her soles started on fire and it changed the surroundings' temperature, it kept rising.

"What about if I get you another name? Crystal the Frost Knight, do you know her?" Tang Shaoyang told her about Crystal to find out whether the two were related or not.

"Crystal?" Rosalie the Flame Queen paused when she heard the name.

"Crystal, the knight from the household that uses Frost Sword Technique, do you know them?" Tang Shaoyang added more information.

Rosalie the Flame Queen's eyes widened in shock. She seemed to recall whose Crystal was or maybe she recalled the household. No matter what, this was interesting for him.

"If you related to them, then I might have a way to solve your grudge," he added with a smirk. With this, it should be easy to establish a contract with her. Though it was easier to beat her, he did not beat a woman unless she was his enemy or on the battlefield, or on the bed.

"How do you know about Crystal?" Rosalie was alarmed and shocked at the same time, "Does she survive from the rebels?" She asked Tang Shaoyang urgently.

'Jackpot, both are closely related.' He could tell that both related closely because of the urgency under her tone. She was worried and concerned when she asked him about Crystal, 'Not only do I have a Divine Body, I also have a Divine Luck.'

"No, even though she survived from the rebels, it's been a long time... No, with a high Vitality, we can live long. She might be still alive if she survived," Rosalie muttered by herself.

"Why don't we make the contract and meet with Crystal? You can ask her directly," Tang Shaoyang smiled.

Rosalie's face brightened when she heard that, "Does that mean Crystal is still alive? Where is she? I want to meet her, right now!"

"Sadly she is dead, but you can meet her spirit though," Tang Shaoyang shook his head, telling her the bad news.

"I guess it's fine," Rosalie let out a dejected sigh and walked toward Tang Shaoyang, "Alright, little man. I will agree to make a contract with you." She was about the same height as him. The magical circle created above her forehead, indicating she was willing to establish the contract. She did not even care about the other conditions.

"You are not going to question me about the resurrection?" Tang Shaoyang looked weirdly at the Flame Queen. He thought the spirit was more excited about being resurrected, but it was not the case.

"I don't have high hopes for resurrection, maybe that could be a bonus later. But meeting Crystal makes it worth it to be your Contracted Spirit. Let's form the contract and let me meet Crystal." Rosalie the Flame Queen said impatiently. She was excited and also nervous at the same time. He could tell that from her voice.

Tang Shaoyang shrugged and put his palm on the magical circle. The circle grew brighter before Rosalie's figure exploded into bright red particles. After that, the bright red particles entered his forehead.

[You have established a contract with Grade A Spirit, Rosalie the Flame Queen!]

Tang Shaoyang nodded satisfyingly as his armory of spirits increased. He was about to fly back to Ningbo City until he heard a furious cry from his head.

—Man! You are a LIAR! Where's Crystal?!!! I don't see her here!? Did you sacrifice her for levels?

Rosalie the Flame Queen called out Tang Shaoyang furiously. She was not expecting to get scammed by Tang Shaoyang. She was angry without thinking that much as she felt that she was being deceived.

"Calm down, will you? Crystal is in the city. I summoned her through my skill, [Spirit Manifestation]." Tang Shaoyang rolled his eyes while scratching his ears even though the voice came from inside his head. She was too loud as she lost her bearing as a nobility.

—Then summon me as well. I can fly you back to the city. That way, we can reach the city faster. Quick sum-

Her voice was cut midway as Tang Shaoyang walked in the air using [Sky Walk]. Rosalie was shocked that Tang Shaoyang suddenly flew into the air.

Tang Shaoyang smirked, "You are not the only one who can fly. If you can fly, I can also."

—How is this possible? Spirit Contractor does not have a skill that could make you fly. You are not using [Spirit Integration] as well. Unless you got a skill scroll for flying skill?

Rosalie was astonished and she seemed to be more familiar with the Spirit Contractor Class. This was another surprise for him.

"Wrong, it's my second class' skill," Tang Shaoyang explained, "I have a skill called [Sky Walk]. It says walking, but it is basically no different than flying."

—No way, how can you don't have resurrection skills if you have reached Epic. You are Liar, you can't deceive me twice, Man!
