

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 475

Tang Shaoyang was standing in front of the Dimensional Gate. It was truly like a gate, eight meters in width and twelve meters in height. Beyond the gate reminded him of the portal used for the Survival Game.

"The size of the gate can be changed by the owner of the gate, but the maximum size should be twenty meters long and twenty meters tall." Commander Ashley said in a cold voice. She was standing next to him along with Zhang Mengyao, Wen, and Prince Kaiden.

Zhang Mengyao and Wen were here to send him. The other girls wanted to follow but he refused. He did not want the dramatic parting.

Tang Shaoyang nodded and turned toward Zhang Mengyao. He was dressed in the armor of the Ashtera Legion, pretending to be one of the Elemental Knights. He hugged the girl and whispered, "I leave the Empire in your hand, My Love," When he said my love, he could feel that her body shuddered.

"Just act like you normally do. Don't try to be romantic," Zhang Mengyao whispered back, "Don't worry, I will protect our home."

Tang Shaoyang let out a chuckle and kissed her lips. The knights and Wen looked away, "Don't bully your Sister Shuang, let her help you to manage the territory."

"I know, we will wait for your return," Zhang Mengyao nodded and parted with him. Tang Shaoyang proceeded toward Wen. The beastman was a little over two meters, almost three heads taller than him, "I will trust my territory in your care as well, Wen!"

"Leave everything to me, My Lord! I will never allow anyone to touch our territory!" Wen responded confidently and firmly.

Tang Shaoyang then put on the helmet and looked toward Commander Ashley, "Let's depart now, Commander Ashley!"

"Don't forget, I am not Ashley Ambrose but Ashley Malone of the Malone Family." Commander Ashley reminded him as they stood in front of the Dimensional Gate.

The plan was to sneak up while giving the gate's guardian false information about Earth. That was the plan so the Lionax Kingdom would not attack the Earth with full force. During this time, Tang Shaoyang would try to do something in their territory to stall more time for his people to get prepared.

Tang Shaoyang nodded as the three surviving Knights stepped forward, Captain Knight Weed, Captain Knight Reed, and Captain Knight Morris. Tang Shaoyang was taking a small role in the legion, the Elemental Knight.

Without saying anything, Commander Ashley stepped into the Dimensional Gate followed by Prince Kaiden, the three Captain Knights, and the Elemental Knights. His vision blacked for a moment before piercing sunray assaulted his eyes. He squinted his eyes slightly as his eyes quickly adapted to the harsh light.

As Tang Shaoyang walked forward, he scanned the surroundings. He was on a big lawn, the backyard of the Malone Family's Residence. His gaze quickly attracted toward a group of knights ahead of them.

Yes, around twenty meters ahead of them, he noticed a big group of knights. He was about to use [Basic Detection] on them, but then he remembered to not do that. It was not allowed to use [Basic Detection] on fellow knights. On top of that, the knights were equipped with a magical tool so the [Basic Detection] did not work.

It raised a question as to why Tang Shaoyang successfully cast the skill before. The reason was because of the system restriction. Entering the new world that just underwent the Game or a weaker world caused the magical tool to fail to work. The System did not allow such advanced tools to work on Earth. That was what Commander Ashley told him.

"Ashley! Kaiden!" The male voice caused Tang Shaoyang to snap out of his daze and looked toward the voice. A man with fancy clothes with luxurious ornaments was rushing toward Commander Ashley.

The man had red-brownish hair, halved to the side, creamy white skin, and blue eyes. The man had a resemblance to Prince Kaiden. There was no need to guess, this man was the Crown Prince of the Lionax Kingdom, Prince Chandler Fergus Kingsley.

The man was about to hug Ashley but the cold commander had her hand forward, "We are in public and also in front of my subordinates!" Her rejection was cold and straightforward, causing the smile on Prince Chandler's face to stiffen. But it quickly changed as Prince Chandler hugged his youngest brother, "Brother! Are you okay?"

"I am not okay! Can't you see how many knights returned with me?" Prince Kaiden's voice was sharp. Causing the Crown Prince to look at the Elemental Knights behind them. A frown formed on the Crown Prince's forehead.

"We will talk about the expedition in another place, can you let my knights head back to their quarters first?" Commander Ashley interrupted emotionlessly.

"Of course, they can go back to get rest," Crown Prince nodded his head and made a way for Commander Ashley. The latter turned around and commanded the knights to head back to the knight quarter. After that, Commander Ashley and Prince Kaiden followed the Crown Prince.

Tang Shaoyang parted his way with the prince and the commander as he followed the three Captain Knights. He was not worried that the young Prince would spill any information about the Earth or him. He had put the harshest restriction on him with the system oath. Even if he had any intention to inform anyone about them, he would be struck with Divine Lightning. An instant death.

Unless the Lionax Kingdom had a way to cancel the oath, then he would be screwed. He would be hunted by the Epic while his home would be attacked by them. Of course, Commander Ashley had assured him that the Lionax Kingdom did not know how to do that. However, who knew, since these people did not even know about gods.

Tang Shaoyang threw the thoughts away and followed Captain Knights. Following the paved path, they soon reached a wide building. It was typical of a medieval building that was mixed with stones and woods.

There were two knights in the same armor as them guarding the door. Captain Knight Morris said something in a whisper to the guard before the guard opened the door.

Once inside the building, Captain Knight Morris led them to a room, "This is your room." After guiding him to his room, Captain Knight Morris left them. Yes, he was not alone as there was another knight who followed him.

Tang Shaoyang nodded and entered the room. It was a room with two beds, but it was not as bad as he thought. He took off the helmet and opened the window to let some fresh air in. Then he sat on the bed.

Selena also took off the helmet and put the helmet away and sat on the bed across from Tang Shaoyang. Between Selena and Arina, Tang Shaoyang chose Selena to follow him. Of course, there was a reason behind that. Selena's level is much higher than Arina who sacrifices her levels to revive Delia.

"We have snuck into the enemy's territory, what now?" The girl looked excited as she asked Tang Shaoyang.
