ARMIPOTENT Chapter 497

The five Dark Vultures rushed toward Tang Shaoyang as their figures blurred. Tang Shaoyang took out his Dragon Destroyed and activated his skill, [Flash Step]. His figure blurred and appeared right in front of one vulture. Tang Shaoyang swung the battle-ax upward as he cast a skill at the same time, [Grand Blast].

Boom!

A blast occurred as one vulture shot upward and hit the ceiling. He did not finish his attack, he turned around and swung his battle-ax at the vulture who just passed him. This time he activated [Thousand Slashes]. The second vulture shot down and crashed at the spot where he was crashed.

Boom!

The other three vultures quickly spread out to make a distance from him. However, Tang Shaoyang was not giving them a chance to recover. In the air, he activated [Mirage Stride]. His figure split into seven, and all the mirage chased after the splitting up Dark Vulture. The mirages caused confusion for the vulture.

Amidst the confusion, the Dark Vultures just attacked what was in front of them, whether they were real or not. The real Tang Shaoyang was in the middle of the three mirages that chased after the Dark Vulture who split into the opposite direction of the two vultures. The real Tang Shaoyang flew higher as the Dark Vulture attacked the two mirages.

As the mirage disappeared, the Dark Vulture realized that the real one was above him. It was too late as [Thousand Blast] was cast on it. The thousand of the battle-ax hit the poor vulture. The Dark Vulture's body and wings were crushed by the [Thousand Blast].

Boom!

The Dark Vulture shot down to the ground and splat into a meat paste. It died instantly.

A barrage of notifications rang in his head. He was surprised, he thought he had killed the first two Dark Vultures, but it did not give him level up. He looked toward where the first vulture got hit by [Grand Blast]. Its head was stuck to the ceiling, he thought it was dead but then he noticed that its feet were still twitching.

He looked at the vulture who got hit by [Thousand Blast]. Even though the body suffered a heavy injury and its wing was torn apart, it was still breathing. The first two Dark Vultures were still alive even after all of that.

"I will save you two for the last then," Tang Shaoyang then looked toward the last two remaining Dark Vultures.

The two Dark Vultures did not regard their lives as they kept charging at him. This time, he noticed there was Dark Energy surrounding the two. The two Dark Vultures folded their wings into their bodies and they started to revolve in the air.

Whoosh! Whoosh!

The two Dark Vultures charged at him. Tang Shaoyang did not stay still. He cast [Slayer Blade], ten crescent blades formed around him, the blades were made of Slayer Energy, giving off a dreadful aura. He sent five blades for each Dark Vulture.

Tang Shaoyang did not stop there, he folded his wings, covering his body with the wing. After that, he chased after the Slayer Blade with his body as he cast another skill, [Deadly Charge]. His figure charged at one of the Dark Vultures.

Boom! Boom!

The five crescent blades exploded as they clashed against the Dark Vulture, stopping their movement. However, the two Dark Vultures screeched in pain as their blood covered the wing. Tang Shaoyang was not done yet as his body charged at one of them.

Bang!

He charged right at the Dark Vulture's head, causing the head to explode. Blood and brain juice sprayed as the body of the Dark Vulture was flung backward.

It was Deadly Charge instead, it instantly died when it was hit by Tang Shaoayang's body. The last Dark Vulture was about to make its escape as it realized that the enemy was too strong. However, Tang Shaoyang's hand was quick as he grabbed the Dark Vulture's neck. At the same time, he finally got to try his new skill, [Slayer Touch].

Slayer Energy covered his right palm and the Dark Vulture immediately screeched in pain as it struggled violently. The struggle did not last for five seconds before it stopped moving in his grasp. The lifeless body stopped moving and Tang Shaoyang saved the body into his inventory.

"Huhuhu… This [Slayer Touch] is quite omnipotent for killing an Ancient Beast within five seconds." Tang Shaoyang let out a satisfied chuckle. He then flapped toward the ceiling to reach the dying Dark Vulture. He reached the Dark Vulture's foot with [Slayer Touch]. The Dark Vulture's body shook wildly before it died.

Upon hearing the notification, Tang Shaoyang stored the dead body in his inventory. He could use the body for the sacrifices later. Five sacrifices were too little or he could sacrifice them for Feera later. Either way worked for him.

"Four Dark Vultures for 25 levels, this is an unexpected harvest for me." Tang Shaoyang let out a chuckle as he flew downward. He was about to kill the last Dark Vulture. However, he was left speechless when he arrived at the bottom.

The fifth Dark Vulture was already dead, it left him just the bone frame of the Dark Vulture with a little kittle who was sleeping next to the frame. Yes, the fifth Dark Vulture was killed by the little kitten and it ate the body clean. A truly little glutton.

Currently, the Infant Dark Predator was sprawled on the ground with its bulging tummy faced upward and it stretched its four limbs out.

"Why would this little guy sleep here? This is dangerous!" Tang Shaoyang was about to kick the little guy to wake it up. However, Rosalie the Flame Queen stopped him.

—Don't! It is currently under growth evolution after killing the Dark Vulture who is much higher in level than it. Don't interrupt the evolution!

Rosalie was panicked as she immediately informed Tang Shaoyang. It would be fatal for the Dark Predator if its evolution was interrupted. Usually, the Infant Dark Predator's evolution would be overseen by their parents. This one was a special case as its parents were not around.

"Fortunately, you said it in time, or else I will wake this little guy." Tang Shaoyang's right foot stopped in the air. He was a few centimeters away from kicking the little guy. As for the last Dark Vulture, he was not upset that this little guy took it from him. He believed there would be more of the Elite Soldier of the Dark Tribe he could kill for levels later.

"Alright, you are the last one!" Tang Shaoyang turned around. The last beastmen, Aki, was still standing at the edge of the tunnel. As their gazes met, Aki turned around, attempting to escape from him.

"There's no way I would let you escape from me! You will be the key for me to conquer the Dark Tribe, my first vassal in this world!"

Whoosh!

He thought the rat beastmen was about to escape from him, but to his surprise, Aki was waiting for him in the middle of the tunnel. Tang Shaoyang was puzzled, he was about to ask for his answer until a splitting headache struck his head.

"ARGHHHH!" Tang Shaoyang clutched his head as he fell to his knees. The scream echoed through the underground space.
