

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 547

"Buahahahaha!" The Chief of the Venomous Gator Clan let out laughter. His laughter filled the swamp, "You are not the first to say that but the Gator Tribe is still standing still,"

"Because you have never met me before, son. Today is the day that the Gator Tribe perished. Come at me!" Tang Shaoyang motioned toward the Chief of the Venomous Gator Clan to come at him with his right hand. The laughter had stopped and the green-skinned gator was about to get provoked by his cheap provocation until a deep voice echoed through the swamp.

"Stay there, Roni! He is purposely provoking you. I thought I agreed with the sentiment that the Gator Tribe will never perish but we need to be careful. I don't want to win with the price of your life," The group of the green gators split up, creating a path for five gators to walk.

The Silver Steel Gator, Obsidian-colored Gator, Dark-brown colored Gator, and two Golden-colored Gators. The group of five walked through the path with the golden-colored Gator who led the group until they reached next to Roni, The Chief of the Venomous Gator Clan.

"I am the Chief of the Gator Tribe, Goldier. Are you perhaps The Tyrant?" The Golden-colored Gator opened his mouth.

At the same time, the other gators from the other four clans gathered together with the gators from the Venomous Gator Clan. The swamp was now filled with gators. Various kinds of gators gathered in the swamp, blocking Tang Shaoayang's path.

"The Tyrant?" This was the first time that he heard such a term. But that kinda fitted with what he had been doing in the Gigante Forest lately. He had been attacking many tribes and forced them to join the empire, "That's not bad actually,"

"I thought The Tyrant is a human. It seems my information network still needs some work. How could they get it wrong for such basic information," Goldier continued with his deep voice. Even though Tang Shaoyang did not tell him directly, he could tell that the enemy's leader was right in front of him, The Tyrant.

"There is nothing wrong with our information network, Brother. The Tyrant is a human but there is an ability of bloodline that allows them to transform based on their bloodline. I bet The Tyrant is using that ability right now," The Golden-colored Gator next to Goldier informed.

"I see. Does that mean The Tyrant has a Dragon Bloodline?" Goldier observed Tang Shaoyang's outer appearance. No matter how he looked at it, he believed that the one in front of him had similarities with a Dragon even though he never saw a dragon before.

"Maybe, I am not sure either..." The Golden-colored Gator scanned Tang Shaoyang from the top to bottom, "Maybe you are right, brother. The reason he is confident to fight us is because of his bloodline. We indeed have to be careful,"

"Are you done? How long do I need to wait for your open discussion?" Tang Shaoyang took out the Dragon Destroyer. After that, he cast [Basic Detection] on the five newcomers.

Tang Shaoyang's blood was boiling when he saw all their levels. Especially for Goldier, he could not see the level because the Grand Chief's level was too high for him. This was the first for a long time that he failed to see the level.

Goldier looked at Tang Shaoyang's back. Looking at Aki and his other subordinates before he looked at Tang Shaoyang, "Are you sure that you will fight alone? You might have a chance if you and your subordinates come together,"

"You guys are truly wasting my time. If you don't want to come, then I will come at you!" As he said that, Tang Shaoyang summoned all the spirits. Nineteen spirits manifested in their form out of thin air. The spirit's appearance shocked Goldier.

First, he was attracted by the giant Aereion, but soon his eyes locked on Zaneos and Orlean, "Demon!" Goldier was shocked by the demon's appearance. He then looked toward Tang Shaoyang, "You are working together with demons!?"

"They are under my command, and yeah, it could be considered that we are working together," Tang Shaoyang nodded, "Let's not waste any time. You guys split and face their armies. I will fight these six gators by myself," He was pointing at the six Chiefs in front of him.

Even though Bronson was so reluctant to leave the six stronger individuals he still followed the command. The nineteen spirits split and started attacking the Gator Tribe's force. As usual, Zowen started with her flashy [Thunder Wrath].

Tang Shaoyang immediately floated to the air as soon as he saw the thunder. He was in the water, and he might get hurt too if the thunder spread toward the water.

Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!

And as usual, the girl lost her demeanor when she fought. She was laughing as she burned the gator with her thunder. The nineteen spirits quickly split up the six leaders and their force. Nineteen individuals were pushing back the ten thousand gators.

Roni was not expecting this would happen at all. He turned around and was about to chase after Zowen. The Magus dealt huge damage to their forces. He could not let her continue to do whatever she wanted.

The green-colored gator opened his mouth as a green lump gathered in his mouth, [Venomous Gale]. That was one of his skills. He thought that would be a hit since the mage had her back on him. However, Tang Shaoyang appeared before him, and he also opened his mouth, and cast his skill, [Fire Breath].
