

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 553

Roan's eyes gleamed in excitement for some reason. When his Lord was not even an Epic Rank, he was far stronger than the two Epic Ranks. He could not imagine if his Boss reached the Epic Rank.

"What do you want to know about the Trial of The Epic, my Lord? I will tell you everything I know about the Trial of the Epic," Roan bowed his head.

"I want to know everything you know. Tell me everything like what you do within the Trial of The Epic. How does it go with the trial? Will I get transported to a separate dimension to take the trial or will my body just stay here? Will something like divine lightning strike me?" Tang Shaoyang mentioned a bunch of things.

"Then I will tell you everything I know about the Trial of the Epic. First, yes, you will get transported in a separate dimension to take the trial. Second, from the information I have gathered before I take my trial, all the trials are the same. You will be facing seven waves of monsters. Each wave will get stronger. However, each individual has a different difficulty for the trial. I don't know what determines the difficulty for each individual.

"Third, while the trial has seven stages you can go further to get a better reward. But the monsters will get stronger as we go further. Fourth, You have to be careful if you want to go to a further stage, My Lord. If you die in the trial you will really die. Five, there are four different rewards if you finish the trial: Talent, Awakening your Bloodline, Second Class, and Random Equipment with the lowest grade is Epic. That's everything I know about the Trial of the Epic, My Lord," Roan told everything he knew about the trial. Of course, he summarized it short. He did a lot of research in the past before he took the trial.

"I see, the more stages I clear the better reward I will get," Tang Shaoyang rubbed his chin, 'Wait, don't tell me that your previous Master died from the trial, Rosalie?' This should be easy to finish, 'Unless your previous Master died from trying the further stage?' The trial sounded easy for Tang Shaoyang.

—I don't know. I told you that the connection between us cut off. I don't know what happened to him in the trial at all. Maybe he died because he could not use his spirit to fight. What I remembered was that I was ejected out of his spiritual space.

Rosalie replied with a slight high pitch. She seemed to be emotional when he mentioned her previous Master. So far, Rosalie has never told anyone about her previous master. Not the name, the world, nothing aside from that her master died from taking the trial.

—Actually, my previous Master died in the same way as well. He took the path of the Spirit Commander. Just like Rosalie said, the trial was designed for one person, and that person could not receive any help but a weapon and armor. You can't bring anyone with you.

Bronson shared his experience as well. Three spirits had been contracted before. Rosalie, Bronson, and Arkanos.

"What about you, Arkanos? What happened to your previous Master? Did he die from the trial as well?" Tang Shaoyang wanted to know about the Spirit Contractor as well. The class was certainly powerful. He thought they could pass the trial easily but it was not the case.

—No, my previous Master's was quite strong actually. He managed to reach Myth Rank but he died stupidly...

Arkanos did not finish his words, and everyone was waiting for him to finish them. The Ice Blade continued since his Master was waiting for his answer

—he slept with the Empress of one of the strongest empires in his world, and then the emperor found out about his deed. You can tell what happened next. He was being hunted down and caught later on. Then the emperor decided to execute the adultery pair before his people.

Arkanos was quite ashamed when he shared his past story. That was indeed a shameful deed.

Roan looked at his Lord strangely. He had been quiet for some time but there was something that boggled his mind. It was the way of his Lord's thought. He felt it was unnecessary to risk it to get a better reward since he was already strong enough. Safely finishing the trial was the best for him. However, Roan did not dare to say it out loud.

"I see," Tang Shaoyang nodded his head, "I just need to activate the Trial of the Epic, and then there will be portal forms for me that will teleport me to the separate dimensional?"

"Yes, My Lord," Roan nodded his head. He truly did not dare to say anything about the advice. He felt that his Lord knew what he was doing.

"Then tell Selena and Ashley about the trial when they return. How long will it take to finish the trial?" Tang Shaoyang opened his window status. He was about to press the word "Trial" while waiting for Roan to answer.

"Ah, I forgot to tell you about the conversion time. The conversion time should be one day in that separate dimensional is the same one hour in the real world," Roan nodded his head, "And you can only bring weapons and armors, nothing more than that,"

"Alright then, I will summon the portal right now," Tang Shaoyang tapped the word "Trial". The word disappeared as something similar to a black hole appeared in front of him. The black hole sucked the table and the chairs in the room.

Roan forgot to tell his Lord to not summon the portal in his room. Now his room was in his chaos. The portal then formed in the room. Two meters tall and a meter wide, about the size of a person.

"Then I will leave the knights in your care, Roan!" Tang Shaoyang tapped Roan's shoulder and smiled at the old man. After that, he walked toward the portal. His figure twisted and sucked into the portal.

Roan watched everything as his Lord and the portal disappeared from his room.
