

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 591

Tang Shaoyang called Roan afterward. The old man was not alone. Carl and Tristan were with him. As soon as Roan entered the room, he received a piercing glare from Ashley. The girl had not forgotten yet about the female attendant.

It was fortunate for Roan that they had a more important agenda. Ashley said nothing, despite the glare she had for Roan. The old man also played smart by playing dumb in front of that obvious glare.

Tang Shaoyang told him to gather the knights and get ready to march into the Gigante Forest. He told him about the destination and the plan. Roan said nothing about the plan, but Tristan disagreed with Tang Shaoyang's reckless plan.

"We can't let you fight the dangerous Guardian Beasts by yourself, My Lord. We have to go together." Tristan had the same mind as Ashley. It was not the time to split the force. At least, that was what he thought until he saw the two spirits.

Different from Ashley, who had to ask the spirit, The Epic Rank knight could feel that these two spirits' aura. Maldros and Orlean's presence silenced Tristan's complaint. There was nothing to say when his Lord had summons that were stronger than him.

"I have more spirit, and four of them are stronger than them, and over twenty spirits are at the same level. Going alone is our best bet. If I can't defeat Kirin or the Green Sky Serpent, then I can escape. You will be a burden if you follow me." Tang Shaoyang was blunt with his words.

Not that he wanted to hurt the knight's pride, but that was the truth. The Epic Rank was not something special to him, while the kingdom would do anything to have Epic Rank Knight in their force.

"Also, I have that guy as well." Tang Shaoyang pointed at the Golden Dragon at the corner of the room. The Golden Dragon was in its mini size, eating the fresh meat along with Greed. Despite his mini size, it did not hinder the Golden Dragon from eating. Wrath ate a lot and faster.

Tristan had nothing to say when his Lord pointed at everything he had. The Epic Rank Knight had heard about the Golden Dragon. However, hearing it and seeing it directly with his own eyes were totally different. Even though the Golden Dragon tried to suppress its aura. Tristan could feel the ferocious aura from the beast.

"It's decided. You three will assist Ashley to lead the main army to the Beast Coven's territory. Get the knight ready, and we will depart in half an hour!" With that being said, the three knights bowed their heads and left the room.

An hour later, Tang Shaoyang arrived at his base in the forest. He said it was a base because Aki truly built a fortified base. There was a ten meters tall wall surrounding the base, and all the tribes he had conquered lived in the same base now.

Tang Shaoyang was genuinely surprised because he was away for four days, and they made a fortified base. It was also not just an amateur's creation, but a fine base as well. Aki and Lauri bowed their heads, but soon their eyes focused on the Golden Dragon on his shoulder.

Yes, he had Greed on his right shoulder and Wrath on his left shoulder. They made his shoulders into their territory. "Oi, don't daze around like that. Tell me, how do you build this base?"

The Dark Tremor Beastmen snapped out of his daze and looked toward his Lord. He processed the question and replied immediately. "It's not us who built the base, but the Dwarves!"

Tang Shaoyang's eyes shone when he heard the last word. He asked Aki to search for the Dwarves. He was not expecting them to find the dwarves this fast. No matter what, this was good news. He secured a way back to Earth. Now he could focus on the fight.

"No, I can bring my army as well. If they fight stronger monsters, they can get stronger quickly." He muttered in a low voice.

"Where's the dwarf? I want to meet them." Tang Shaoyang was eager to meet the dwarves. He heard a lot about the dwarves from Lu An and Yu Shun. Both told him about the dwarves' specialty and characteristics.

They were small, usually portrayed with a thick beard or something with their deep voice. Crafting was their specialty. They could build almost anything that related to crafting, from a weapon to a building.

"They also want to meet you, My Lord. Let me lead you to them." The eight meters gate opened as he brought the knights with him inside the base. As soon as he entered the base, he heard cheers from the beastmen and a welcoming howl from the beasts.

They called his name and praised him. With his current Sense, he could tell that this was genuine. They did not do this under Aki's order. He could feel their excitement when they greeted him.

Tang Shaoyang was surprised for a moment, then he glanced at Aki with a frown. This rat beastmen's class was Mind Control. This guy could use his skill to control the masses to flatter him.

Seeming to read what was in His Lord's mind, Aki shook his head. "I do nothing to them, My Lord. I swear with my life. They are doing this because they are grateful to you, who have created a home for them. Now they don't have to fight each other for food, nor do they have to fight to defend your house. They are grateful that you provide them a place to call home."

In the end, whether it was the beast, beastmen, or humans were the same. They just wanted a place that could be called a home that did not let them starve. The home that protected them from the danger outside.

"You don't do anything, My Lord. However, your name scares away the potential danger that threatens them..." Aki continued.
