

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 603

Zara ignored The Green Sky Serpent as she rushed toward Tang Shaoyang's side. She was panicking inside. However, before she could reach the core of the explosion, a colossal figure came out of the explosion.

"Hahhh..." She released a relieved sigh at the sight of the black dragon. She was so scared when The Green Sky Serpent attacked the energy sphere. It seemed the transformation finished in time.

Fwoosh!

Even though he was in the energy sphere, he sensed everything that happened outside. As soon as he came out of the energy sphere, he immediately rushed toward the Green Sky Serpent.

Tang Shaoyang hovered above the Green Sky Serpent and spoke. "I will not let my people die within my watch." He gripped the Green Sky Serpent by the neck and threw the giant away from the Kirin... He would not let this snake kill his future mount.

Suvan was not expecting a tremendous force would throw him away like that. He crashed onto the cliff wall and the ground was shaking from the impact. The Green Sky Serpent immediately flew up and looked in Kirin's direction. His eyes widened in shock at the sight of the black dragon.

'What is this? Where does this black dragon come from?' The Green Sky Serpent was confused with the current development. Another Dragon just popped out of nowhere, as if Dragon was a common creature. It was an Adolescent Golden Dragon before, now it was an adult Black Dragon.

'This is not good for me. I have to face the Black Dragon and also the angel. I should leave this place immediately.' The thought of leaving this place crossed in the Green Sky Serpent's mind. He then glanced at the Dark Tribe's force.

The hundred of Dark Tribe's elite force was clashing against the dozens of creatures summoned by the male human that suddenly appeared. The elite force of the Dark Tribe could not even push the enemy force.

Suvan shook his head. This elite force was useless as they could not even dominate the enemy with fewer numbers. The situation was truly hopeless for them.

The Green Sky Serpent then glanced at Igor. The Abyss Sabre was fighting against the demon swordsman. Both were exchanging blows equally. He noticed something weird about the demon's sword technique. He observed the demon swordsman briefly before he looked back at the black dragon.

'Talking about the human, where is he? There's no way he can survive my attack, right?' The Green Sky Serpent looked to the side where the explosion was. Instead of finding his target, he met with the icy gaze of the angel. In the next second, the angel disappeared from his sight.

The sudden disappearance gave him a sudden panic for a moment before he sensed the angel's presence from below. Suvan directed his mana onto his scale, forming a layer of protection.

Sure enough, Zara came out of Suvan's shadow as she slashed her sword toward the lower belly of the Legend Ranked Beast. The sword was coated in black energy. The sword grazed against Suvan's protection, but she failed to break the protection. She did not stop there, of course.

Zara followed up with her skill. She held the sword downward as the pitch-black energy covered her sword. She then slashed her sword upward toward the Green Sky Serpent's lower belly.

[Death Slash].

The sword passed through the protection and also the Green Sky Serpent's body. The slash passed through, not breaking the protection or cutting the Green Sky Serpent's body.

Suvan blinked his eyes as he felt nothing, even though the sword passed through his body. Three seconds later, then he felt an excruciating pain at the part where the sword passed through.

"GRAARGHHRRR!" The Green Sky Serpent screamed in pain as his body curved upward. The dozens of meters long of the serpent were flung upward as the scream echoed through the forest.

The sudden scream caused the battle between the Dark Tribe and the spirits to a halt. Everyone was looking in the same direction, looking toward the Guardian Beast who got blasted to the sky.

Zara looked up with the same icy gaze. She was not done yet with her attack. As the Green Sky Serpent was flying in the air, she activated her next skill.

[Death Sword Domain]

Hundreds or even maybe thousands of pitch-black swords formed around the Angel of Death. The sword had the same shape and color as the sword in her hand. She directed all the swords toward the Green Sky Serpent.

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

The Green Sky Serpent had not overcome the pain over a sword, but countless same swords were speeding up toward him. He never experienced this kind of pain before. The Legend Ranked Beast's mind blanked for a few seconds. He sobered up again when the countless swords were right before his face.

Suvan tried to swing his tail to block the incoming sword. However, his effort was futile as the black swords passed through his tail and shot toward his head.

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

Hundreds or maybe thousands of pitch-black swords passed through Suvan's tail and head. After a moment of silence, The Green Sky Serpent's agony scream filled the forest. At the same time, the Green Sky Serpent's body flew up even further. Everyone came to a halt as everyone looked at the Green Sky Serpent, who was slowly becoming a dot in the dark sky.

With that kind of body, it became a small dot in the sky. It was a clear sign that the gigantic beast was so high in the sky. Igor was struck with confusion as he saw this. The Green Sky Serpent was a figure that most of the beast and beastmen revered. One of the strongest in Gigante Forest, but it was defeated this fast.

Igor then looked toward the Angel of Death before he glanced at the black dragon that hovered above the Kirin. At this moment, fear and terror struck him. He realized that he and his tribe were in the worst predicament. If The Angel could defeat the Green Sky Serpent, then they were nothing in front of her.
