

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 605

Tang Shaoyang watched the battle between Zaneos and Igor from the air. There was a reason for that. He wanted to know how strong Grade SS Spirit compared to a Primordial Rank was. The result was unexpected, as the Primordial Rank could do nothing against Zaneos. The Abyss Sabre died in one attack.

"Did you see that, Jet? I am sorry I can't fulfill my promise to kill The Kirin, but I have killed the leader of a tribe who destroyed your tribe and killed your family. By this point, you should realize that The Kirin did not help you because she was expecting. She was protecting her unborn child from the potential danger."

Tang Shaoyang made a promise to Jet the Abyss Raven to kill the Kirin. At that time, he thought Kirin, the Legend Ranked beast, was not willing to be his pet. It was understandable, since the beast was the apex of existence in this forest. There was no way she would agree to be his pet if not for the circumstances.

The only way to get rid of this obstacle was to kill the Guardian Beast. But the unexpected situation forced The Kirin to form a lifelong pact with him. He felt bad he could not fulfill his promise, but he would not miss the chance to have a Legend Rank Beast as his pet.

There was no reply from the Abyss Raven. He tried to sense the Raven's feelings with their connection only to find out Jet's calmness. Yes, he did not sense disappointment from the bird. "We will chat later. I have to finish my business here." Tang Shaoyang then looked up.

Zara's attack was fatal, but it did not kill the Green Sky Serpent. The green dot in the sky was slowly getting bigger and bigger again. It fell at an extreme speed.

Swoosh! Boom!

The Green Sky Serpent was free falling from the sky and crashed into the forest close to The Angel of Death. She immediately rushed over toward the Green Sky Serpent. The same black swords were floating behind her, rotating slowly. She floated above the Green Sky Serpent and furrowed his brows.

"What is this? Are you pretending to be dead now? I am not done yet!" Zara noticed the Green Sky Serpent was not moving, but she could sense life from the snake. The Legend Rank Beast was clearly still alive. However, she did not receive any response from the snake. It stayed still, not moving.

"Since you want to die, then I will kill you right now!" More and more swords formed around the Angel of Death. She directed all the swords toward the Green Sky Serpent's head. "If one time is not enough to kill you, then I will do it again!"

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

As the swords flew toward the Green Sky Serpent's head, Suvan's green scales glowed brightly. The glow gathered in one spot before it floated into the air. It created a massive glowing green sphere in the sky, and in the next second, the green sphere cracked open. The Green Sky Serpent came out from the green sphere.

"Huh!?" Zara frowned slightly. Her words pierced through the Green Sky Serpent's head on the ground, but there was another Green Sky Serpent in front of her. She then sensed no life from Green Sky Serpent on the ground, but the one who just came out of the green sphere was vibrant with life force.

The Angel of Death did not understand what happened with the situation. "Is that an illusion?" Zara looked at the lifeless body on the ground, but it was an actual body.

"Hehe, are you confused?" Suvan cackled as he noticed the confusion at the Angel of Death. "That's not an illusion. That's my real body. You are right. I am immortal. You can't kill me!" The Green Sky Serpent then opened his mouth as green energy gathered in his mouth. He then shot the green energy at the Angel of Death.

Fwoosh! Boom!

The green energy hit the natural barrier around Zara and pushed her back three steps back. Zara furrowed her brow deeper as she sensed the Green Sky Serpent's attack was getting stronger. Not only did he survive without a major injury from her attack, but the snake was getting stronger as well.

"He has seven lives, so you have to kill him seven times in order to kill him." A female voice entered Zara's ears. She recognized the voice. It was Kalliyan's voice. "However, you have to be careful. He is getting stronger each time you kill him."

Zara's eyes widened a bit when she heard that. Tang Shaoyang was also surprised when he heard that. He did not know that such a skill existed. It was a powerful skill for sure, having seven lives. On top of that, he would get stronger each time he was killed. He desired such a skill.

"Can I obtain that skill? He is not a spirit, so I can't sacrifice him to get the skill..." Tang Shaoyang muttered in a low voice. "What about [Slayer Absorption]? The last time I used that skill on Derekh Malone, I got levels and attributes only. I can try it and use the body to summon a spirit. If I am lucky, I can summon this Green Sky Serpent and sacrifice it to get the skill."

Meanwhile, Zara raised her gaze and smiled. "So that's what happened. Then it should be easy. I just need to kill you six more times." Despite her stunning face, her smile was quite terrifying. Suvan felt a chill in his spine.

Flap!

Zara's wing opened as she floated above the Green Sky Serpent. The shield vanished from her hand as she held the sword with her two hands. The dark sky was getting even darker as thick black energy covered the sky. "I shall punish you for trying to kill the man I love, punny snake! [Death Judgement]!"

A massive sword made of black energy formed right above the Green Sky Serpent. The dreadful aura filled the atmosphere. Suvan was panicking as he sensed death. Yes, he could sense death was coming for him after he died one time.

'I can't die again consecutively like this. I have to dodge the sword.' Just as he was about to escape, he realized he could not move.

"It's too late! You can't escape from my [Death Judgment]! You will die in agony!" The massive sword descended and pierced through the Green Sky Serpent's head. The sword brought Legend Rank Beast down to the ground as the sword pinned its head down on the ground.

Just like that, the Green Sky Serpent died for the second time with its eyes widened in shock. From its eyes, it could not believe that it died just like that. He was an apex figure on this continent, but the angel killed him in an instant.

The Green Sky Serpent's scales lost their luster and darkened. It spread out from the head to the end of the tail. The Green Sky Serpent's majestic figure lost its majestic air.

Meanwhile, Zara the Death Angel was still in the same stance. She was waiting, waiting for the Green Sky Serpent to be resurrected again. She would execute the same skill to kill the Green Sky Serpent for the third time.
