

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 621

"You should not be concerned about them, old man. Your opponent is me." Tang Shaoyang did not wait for the old man to get ready as he rushed toward the old man. The same as before, he did not use any skill, and it was his pure speed after [Attribute Shift].

Unlike Allan, Alton did not throw away his shield even after the Bloodline Transformation, and he raised his shield and clashed against the battle-ax.

Dang!

As the battle-ax hit the shield, it created a massive shockwave. Tang Shaoyang was surprised that the old man did not budge even a little under his attack. 'Even though he may not raise his Strength to Legend as his rank, Alton's strength should be around Ancient Rank or even Myth Rank. Legend is still Legend, after all.'

"Don't forget about me!" Allan rushed around to Tang Shaoyang's back and attacked from behind. Allan was aware that they might be in a dire situation from how strong this man's force was... The best move was to kill the leader, and they would win the fight.

Tang Shaoyang saw Allan through the [Spirit Eyes], but he did not make any countermeasure. Of course, he was not testing if his body was strong enough to receive a blow from Primordial Rank Knight, and it was because he trusted Zaneos and Bronson to have his back.

Sure enough, Bronson and Zaneos appeared on his back. Bronson reflected the spear upward with his reavers. The Executioner easily changed the spear's direction to the air. At the same time, Zaneos drew his sword out. The spaces around Allan split open as blades came out from the space. The blade slashed toward Allan from all directions.

"What is this weird power?" Allan was flustered as the weird power surrounded him. However, his experiences on the battlefield did not disappoint him as he immediately collected himself. He discharged his mana from his body and formed the wolf's head, covering his body from head to toe.

The blades hit the shield, but the sword failed to break it. However, Allan's shield was cracked all over. A gentle touch might break the sturdy shield that managed to block dozens of Zaneos' swords. Allan did not give a second thought as he immediately backed away from the demon and undead.

"You are from the Underworld!?" Allan pointed his index finger at Tang Shaoyang and accused Tang Shaoyang. "You work together with this damned creature!?" He was an old knight that survived through the Great War against the Demon. He was well aware of how scary the demon could be, but this was the most frightening he had encountered so far.

The Demon could affect the space around him and attack him from that space, which meant the attack could come from anywhere, and if he was careless, he might lose his life here.

At the same time, Alton glanced at his friend before looking back at the man in front of him. 'Working together with the demon? That's not possible as demons will not listen to anyone but their lord.'

In the Great War, they had tried to work together with the demon. Working together, meaning they wanted to coexist with the demon, but the demon refused to coexist with humans. The endless war exhausted the human race, but the demon thought otherwise. They did not want to share the territories with the human race, and the demon wished for absolute authority over Lukan.

In other words, Alton did not believe that the demon was willing to work together with a human. Unless the man in front of him was a demon. 'No, he is not a demon. While the demon also has a bloodline, their bloodline is different from the one human's bloodline system.'

Alton was in deep thought until a rumble that followed by thunder struck down. He raised his shield again and blocked the thunder. The electricity spread out through his shield to his armor, stiffening his body.

The thunder kept striking down at him, but it could not break his defense at all. He also easily dispersed the stiffness from the thunder. He furrowed his brow slightly and met Tang Shaoyang's gaze.

'That's it? Has he gone all out yet? I think he is a Legend Rank, but to think he could not even break my basic defense.' Alton looked at Tang Shaoyang cautiously. 'Or is he still testing me?'

At this moment, he heard the buzzing sound of the electricity. Alton looked up and saw a giant sword made of lightning right above him. It was just one sword at first, then the sword multiplied. Within thirty seconds, the swords multiplied to thirty swords.

'I have to dodge this...' Alton did not dare to block this one. He was about to move away, but he soon realized he was locked up in a lightning cage. He took three steps forward and slashed his sword at the lightning cage. Of course, he imbued his mana into his sword to break the lightning cage.

However, as soon as his sword touched the lightning cage, the lightning cage struck him from all directions. "Urghhh." He grunted as he endured the barrage of lightning on his body.

Tang Shaoyang did not give Alton a chance to avoid his Thunder Judgment. It was not a skill, but he named this attack with Thunder Judgment. He copied the Templar Knight's skill, while their sword made of brilliant light, his sword made of lightning.

As Alton was trapped in the lightning cage, thirty lightning swords descended toward him. Thirty explosions of lightning swords shook Gigante Forest. The Beast Coven's people screamed for their leader, but they were getting swept away by the shockwave of the explosion.

The lightning burst out in all directions, burning everything on their path. Zara had to cast a shield to protect everyone behind her. As the lightning explosion was still raging, the crimson flame swirled out. The flame revolved from the spot where Alton was standing, and the flame tornado was getting bigger and bigger.

At the same time, the flame sucked in the lightning, creating a firestorm. After all the lightning sucked into the firestorm, a figure came out from the firestorm. Of course, Alton came out of the firestorm, but he was a different figure now.

His body turned into a flame, blazing fiercely. The only thing that did not turn into a flame was his black horns, and it remained black-golden in color. His shield and sword turned into a flame, and he did not resemble a human anymore.
