

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 646

Tang Shaoyang asking them to look for the brides was just an excuse. An excuse so he could talk with the two girls. He wanted to know their opinion as well about the request. After hearing Ashley's answer, he turned toward Selena. He quickly realized why the two girls were dressing up. 'Women's intuition is so scary.'

After hearing Ashley's answer, Selena recalled what happened to her in the past. It was the time when she met Tang Shaoyang. Desired by revenge, she gave her body to him. She thought about it, and she realized that she was not in the position to be greedy. The fact that she got rid of the slave status was the best thing that could happen in her life, yet the greed almost blinded her.

Selena smiled and responded with a nod. "I don't mind having two more sisters with us. Moreover, they are quite unique sisters as well." Tang Shaoyang noticed the fluctuation of emotions within Selena. She was upset, and then she became nervous, then she calmed down. That was a weird change of emotions for sure.

At this moment, Crown Prince Virion and Lusha returned to the meeting hall. They were not alone as another two women came with them. Tang Shaoyang's eyes immediately looked at the two girls that came with them. Without a doubt, both were gorgeous beauties despite the unusual features on them.

Even though the two girls were accepting the two girls, he still had to consider this marriage. He was not Yu Shun or Lu An who has easily accepted this type of girl. He was still adapting to the new world. He did not mind having Demon, Beastmen, or even Beast as his people, but taking them as a wife was a different problem. He was troubled if he had to sleep with the bunny girl.

Although the Moonlight Maiden's attire covered her body well, he could see the white fur in her wrist. He was troubled to accept a woman that had a different appearance than a human. Angel was another thing, and he regarded the angel as a human with wings. Not that weird since the angel's facial features were the same as the human.

On top of that, he had seen angel tingy in the movie. Tang Shaoyang could quickly accept the angel with their gorgeous look. However, The Moonlight Tribe was on a whole different level. Not just their wrist covered in fur, but their ears were also totally different from the one he had, the long rabbit ears. He then subconsciously imagined the scenery of her lower region.

There was one time, it was Rumru's subordinate, The Snow Tiger Tribe. The Chief of Snow Tiger offered to marry his daughter, but he refused at that time. That time, he refused the offer outright, without even seeing the Chief's daughter. However, he was now presented with a choice that was hard to refuse.

Tang Shaoyang had talked this out with Alton. Thanks to his new Marshal, he found out that The Moonlight Tribe was in alliance with The Elven. If he wanted to offer surrender, he had to offer both forces, or else the two forces would unite and fight him until the last of their breath. If he refused to marry the bunny girl, there was a big chance The Elven would also refuse to be his vassal.

"We greet The Emperor~" The Elven Elder and The Moonlight Maiden bowed their heads toward Tang Shaoyang.

At the greeting, Tang Shaoyang raised his head and focused on the Elven Elder. He had heard from Yu Shun and Lu An that Elf was a beautiful creature, but he was not expecting to be this gorgeous. 'I should be able to guess it after looking at the Crown Prince Virion.'

The long silver hair, the attractive jade green eyes, and the smile on her lips were complementing to create a perfect look. Looking at the female elf in front of him, he could not help but compare her with the Goddess of Love, Luneia, and Zara, the Angel of Death. Of course, The Moonlight Maiden's appearance was not pale in comparison. Especially her smile, he found out that her smile was mesmerizing.

One more thing, he was a chest-type man. So after looking at their perfect appearance, his eyes fell on their chest. The Elven Elder wore a dress that showed her cleavage. Not the biggest, but it was big enough to satisfy him. Then he found out that The Moonlight Maiden had a bigger chest. He could tell that even though The Moonlight Maiden did not wear revealing attire. He could tell that by the shape of her body. Her chest was bulging out despite her dress. It could be said that the two women were his type, but the bunny ears were still disturbing to him.

As Tang Shaoyang was making his decision, Maldros returned to the meeting hall with Kalliyian. The three meters tall Kirin followed Maldros from behind. The Crown Prince, Elven Elder Aleesa, and The Moonlight Maiden Sylvia looked toward the entrance. The three had their eyes widened in shock at the sight of The Kirin.

Hearing it from Lusha and Kaylin was enough to shock them, but seeing The Kirin directly bow its head and kneel toward Tang Shaoyang stunned them. Aleesa and Sylvia lost their composure at the sight of The Kirin.

"We greet The Great Lord." Maldros and Kalliyian knelt.

"You can return now, Maldros." At Tang Shaoyang's order, Maldros returned to Spiritual Space. "The Crown Prince Virion of The Elven asked to meet you, Kalliyian. He said that he wanted to confirm something from you, and you can answer his question."

"Yes, My Lord." Kalliyian stood up and looked at The Elven Crown Prince. "What do you want to ask, Young Elven?"

Crown Prince Virion swallowed mouthful saliva and tried to calm his chaotic heart. He secretly glanced at The Emperor. Hearing it from other people and seeing it directly with his own eyes were two different things. However, he quickly calmed down and got to the main topic.

"The Elven wants to ask you about The Green Sky Serpent." Virion used 'The Elven' instead of his own identity, meaning his confidence was shaking in front of The Guardian Beast, Kalliyian. From the side, Aleesa frowned at the changed attitude of her nephew. She wanted to scold him, but she maintained her smile when she noticed The Emperor was watching her and The Moonlight Maiden.

"We want to know if The Green Sky Serpent is still alive or dead? We want to confirm this from you directly, The Guardian Beast of Gigante Forest." Virion looked Kalliyian in the eyes.

Kalliyian furrowed her brows and looked toward her Master. Tang Shaoyang waved his hand at her. "I don't mind. You can tell them what happened back then. They are your people in the first place, and they trust you more than me."

"Yes, Suvan is dead. He and The Dark Tribe tried to take advantage of me being weakened from giving birth to my children. They attacked me, but My Master saved me and killed Suvan. You can check my lair, and there should be traces of battle there..." Kalliyān summarized what happened to her and confirmed Suvan's death.
