

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 665

"I am not asking you to take me as your wife or mistress. You can treat me as a slave, a toy, or anything. As long as you grant me the power to kill!"

Tang Shaoyang smiled and landed right in front of Viona. He landed smoothly; not even vibration was made as he landed from twenty meters height. He squatted down and raised her chin. Viona's hazel eyes filled with determination as she stopped tearing up; her resolution was absolute. However, Tang Shaoyang easily wavered her resolution with just a single sentence.

"Hah..." Tang Shaoyang let out a chuckle. "The world is truly cruel for the weak. A wife loves her dead husband dearly, to the point she is willing to betray that love for vengeance. The world is crueler than I thought..." 'That's why I have to keep getting stronger, or else the cruel world will come for me.'

Viona's wavered when Tang Shaoyang worded it like that. That was the truth as she gave her body to another man to avenge her husband. She was betraying him for vengeance. 'But I have done nothing wrong. I am not wronged, my husband. He is no longer here. I am a free woman, so that I can do anything with my body!'

Viona gritted her teeth and looked The Emperor in the eyes. She showed him her resolution was not easily wavered. She would do anything for the vengeance.

"Hoho. I think you will give up, but that's not enough to make you give up with that vengeance. Since you are that determined, I actually have a way to make you strong overnight." Tang Shaoyang smiled and looked her in the eyes. "Do you want to make a deal with me, Viona?"

"A deal?" Viona's hazel eyes shone brightly, but those bright eyes filled with hatred and excitement to kill The Revolution Army. "I will do anything to kill the Revolution Army!"

"Oh, but I have to tell you this, woman. I can't grant your wish for Julian's life. Julian's life belongs to my Marshal, a Legend Rank Knight, Alton, the former commander of The Fotia Legion. I think you should know that name if you are a noble of The Lionax Kingdom, right?" Tang Shaoyang maintained his smile.

Viona's eyes shook when she heard the former commander of The Fotia Legion. Of course, he knew the name of the Fotia Legion. It was the legendary and the strongest legion the Lionax King ever had. She was also familiar with the name of Alton as she was also a noble, the knight that reached Legend Rank, one of the strongest individuals in the Ortis Continent.

"Julian was Alton's disciple, and that Julian had taken the Revolution Army from Alton. It's payback time, I guess. So you don't need to worry about Julian. Alton will kill him for you." Tang Shaoyang flicked his finger and smiled at Viona. "Do you still want to make a deal with me? "

"Yes!" Even though she could not kill Julian with her hand, she still wanted to kill the Revolution Army's armies. She was not going to miss this chance because she knew that The Empire was capable of destroying the three kingdoms and the Revolution Army. In the last two days, she had been roaming around freely and managed to see the real power of The Tang Empire. If she did not do it now, then there would be no more opportunity to kill the Revolution Army's people.

"However, before we proceed with the deal. I want to confirm that you can help me to increase my strength." Viona was not that foolish to fall for the trick; at least, she thought so. She had to be cautious because she was weak.

"Alright. It's just a matter of time for you to know about the skill since you want to make the deal." Tang Shaoyang nodded his head. "I have two skills that can help you to grow stronger. I have the skill to summon a spirit that could help me to fight, and I will summon two spirits as your guards. They will disable the enemy for you to kill so that you can level up quickly. The second skill is [Spirit Fusion], which allows me to fuse my spirit into an individual temporarily. By integrating with the spirit, your attributes would be increased by two folds at the minimum, and you will also gain the spirit's skill temporarily."

Viona listened to the man's words. Even though she was raised to be a noble lady who would help her husband manage the territory and treasury, she knew a lot about class, skill, and weapons. Those were also parts of managing territory as she had to put the right person to do the thing for her. She learned a lot about various classes, but she had never heard of this type of class.

"You seem not to believe it, yet you still ask for my help." Tang Shaoyang shook his head and stood up. "Do you want to try it? Fusion with the spirit? I had never tried the skill before since I recently got it, and my people are strong, so they don't need my help."

"Let me try it. Prove to me that kind of skill exists!" Viona got up and looked Tang Shaoyang in the eyes. She would confirm it with her own body if the skill existed or the man just wanted to trick her.

"Good. Let me choose which spirit I should integrate with you. Do you prefer a close combat battle, or do you want to kill the enemy from afar?" Tang Shaoyang looked over at the list of his spirits as he asked the woman.

"I want to kill them with a sword. I want to rip them apart! I want to cut their heads with my swords!" Viona gritted her teeth.

"Close combat, is it?" Tang Shaoyang checked over the list of the Grade S+ Spirits and immediately found the right spirit for Viona. 'Do you want to help this girl, Lilliana?' He chose Lilliana, the Grand Guardian.

—Yes. If that helps you to take her as your woman, then I am willing to help her... Make sure to make a kid with her after the war.
