

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 674

'I guess you should forget to spank this thing, Viona. You better not be on his bad side.' Viona thought to herself as she watched the small golden lizard turn into a ten meters long Golden Dragon. She found out that the golden lizard was not a lizard but a dragon. Even though she had never seen a dragon before, she was sure the one in front of her was the real one.

"Why are you sitting there, Woman? Hop on, Woman! Bareham Tower is not in this city." Wrath turned his head around and found the woman was sitting on the street. 'I was right. This woman is stupid.' He did not perceive Viona's fear.

Viona snapped out of her shock and nodded her head. She came over as the Golden Dragon lowered his body for her. She was hesitating to touch the dragon scale, but under the Golden Dragon's glare, she forced herself to touch it and climbed on the back of the Golden Dragon. Taking a deep breath, she climbed onto the Golden Dragon's back slowly. It was a lie that she was not anxious. The thing below her was a mythical creature that only existed in the book.

'This is crazy. How can that man have a dragon on his side?' Viona just joined the Tang Empire's military force for a few days. She did not know that much about the details of the force, and that included the fact that the Guardian Beast Kirin was part of the Tang Empire. She did not know that.

"Hold on tight, Woman! If you fall off, you will turn into a meat paste." Wrath playfully warned Viona. Sure enough, Viona went stiff when she heard that and held onto the Golden Dragon tightly.

Fwoosh!

With a flap of his wing, Wrath flew off to the sky. Bareham Tower was not inside the city but at the border of Bareham and Yoram. The tower was built to oversee the territory bordered directly to Gigante Forest before the Lionax Kingdom decided to establish Bareham City next to Gigante Forest. Hence it was called Bareham Tower.

Viona closed her eyes as she subconsciously gripped the scale tighter. She could feel the strong gust of wind hit her face as her long hair fluttered. Nervous and excited, that was what she felt right now. And it was because of the same reason she was sitting on a dragon.

The moment she opened her eyes, they had already arrived at their destination. She was disappointed because she could not enjoy the view from the sky. The twenty meters tall tower came into her sight. 'As expected of a dragon, this guy is so fast.' It was not even five minutes passed, but they had traveled this far.

As she was marveled by the Golden Dragon's speed, Wrath suddenly shook her off from his back. Viona's eyes opened wide in shock as her body fell. She was stunned that she did not even scream. Of course, Wrath caught her in the air and shoved her into the highest floor of the tower.

Only when she fell on the floor of the tower that she scream. "ARRGHHH!"

"What's with that? Your scream is too late." Wrath snickered at the scared Viona. He purposely did that to tease her. It was just a child play for a dragon, but it was enough for Viona to get a heart attack. Everything happened so fast that she barely proceeded with what happened.

Viona looked at the Golden Dragon resentfully, but she did not lash out at the creature. She controlled her emotion not to cuss out at the dragon, and the last thing she wanted was to end up in a dragon's stomach. She then looked around to find the man she looked for, and she quickly found him.

Tang Shaoyang looked at the girl and shook his head. "Have you decided which class you want?"

Viona took a deep breath as she stood up. This time, she regarded the man with more respect and fear. She showed the noble etiquette and greeted him with a bow. "Viona greets Lord Tang Shaoyang. I haven't decided which class is better for me. That's why I want to meet you and ask your and Lilliana's opinion."

That was the main reason why she wanted to meet Tang Shaoyang. She wanted to integrate with Lilliana and asked the spirit about which class suited her more.

"Both are good classes. If you want to ask me which one suits your battle style, none of them is suitable for you." Tang Shaoyang shook his head. "However, rather than looking for a suitable class, it's better to adapt with the class instead. So it does not matter which class you choose. What matters is, can you master the class? Change your battle style based on the class and master it."

Wrath had returned to his mini size and flew to Tang Shaoyang's shoulder. He had two golden scrolls in his mouth, and Tang Shaoyang took the scroll from Wrath. "If you ask my recommendation, then I recommend you take the Shadow Knight. However, since you want to speak with Lilliana too, I will summon her too."

Tang Shaoyang summoned Lilliana through Epic Summoning, and once again, Viona was surprised with the man's ability. Even though she was not someone good at a fight, she had the knowledge of classes and skills. She had never heard of skill like this or even a class related to the spirit thing.

Lilliana smiled as she noticed Viona's gaze and approached her. "He is amazing, right? Even though I should not say this since we are fellow women, you will not regret choosing him." Viona snapped out of her thoughts and looked away from Tang Shaoyang.

"If you want to consult me which class is better for you. I will say to follow his recommendation, but I will explain what those two classes do. From my understanding of Wind Knight, you will have to adapt by fighting your opponent face to face... Relying on your speed, that's how you win against your opponent."
