

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 687

The other knight was stunned as he was not expecting the sudden turn where the man suddenly pulled his friend's hand apart like that. There was a five seconds delay before the knight reacted, but it was too late as a Slayer Blade sliced his body in half.

Tang Shaoyang tapped his forehead when he saw the body sliced into two. "I forgot that I have to spare his life for the Skeleton." He said that as the man below him screamed for his life as he checked the soul counter. "Another Grade B Soul, so the average of the Revolution Army is Grade B Soul. Guess I have to kill four more knights for more souls."

Tang Shaoyang raised his right foot and stepped on the knight below him. The head popped out like a balloon as the juicy thing, and the blood splattered. It happened in fifteen seconds, and the other knights who packed up the supplies stopped their activities and looked at him with their jaws dropped.

"Enemy attack!" Until one of them screamed that they pulled out their weapons. The Archers and Mages immediately retreated to the back as the Knights stepped up in the front. A disciplined reaction from the knight instead of chaotically moving around in panic.

Swoosh!

Zara arrived at the right moment, and she was carrying Viona, who was already in her armor. Maybe it was embarrassing for her to be carried like a kid, so Viona immediately hopped off. She then took out the shield and sword from her inventory and positioned herself to fight. "This..." Viona did not know what to say when she saw the enemy. She looked around, thinking they would have more allies around, but it was not. "Are you sure to fight them with only three of us?"

"Why? Are you scared, little girl?" Zara smiled at Viona.

"Of course not!" Viona immediately denied it.

"If not for you, I can wipe them out within less than a minute," Zara said matter-factly and added. "And it's not just the three of us." Right after Zara finished her words, Tang Shaoyang summoned the other spirits. He summoned Grade S Spirits and above except for Lilliana.

"Don't worry. You are not going to fight them at once, but you fight five of them at one time." Tang Shaoyang extended his right hand at Viona and cast [Spirit Fusion] on her. Lilliana integrated with Viona, and the girl looked more energetic than before as she nodded her head repeatedly. Even though she did not know Tang Shaoyang would make that five vs one happen, she believed him.

"Capture them and bring them outside. Let's not disturb the civilians." Tang Shaoyang instructed the spirits as he turned around and gestured to Viona to follow him outside. "Follow me. We are not going to fight inside the city. This city will be mine soon, so better not to destroy it."

"Huh!?" Viona was flabbergasted by the situation. She thought she would fight together alongside the monsters. Viona still followed Tang Shaoyang despite the confusion as Zara and the other monsters rushed toward the knights. She kept looking back to see what happened to the fight.

—You don't need to worry about them, Viona. They are stronger than you thought. If you want a comparison, the angel that brought you here is stronger than Marshal Alton. The Demon Swordsman with a straw hat and the undead with reavers should be a little weaker than Marshal Alton. The others should be stronger than Epic Rank or about the same around Epic Rank.

Lilliana tried to ease Viona's worries. Less than fifty individuals were fighting against thousands. That was a crazy idea to the point of foolishness.

After hearing that, Viona opened his mouth, but no words came out. She tried to say something, but everything she heard from Lilliana left her speechless. It was hard to believe, especially when she knew the history of the Ortis Continent. A stronger figure than Marshal Alton and only two individuals fit that category: The Guardian Beast Kirin and The Guardian Beast Green Sky Serpent. If that angel was stronger than Marshal Alton, then it made her the third.

—You seem to misunderstand my words, Viona. That angel is even stronger than the Guardian Beast. It seems you still don't know yet, but she killed Green Sky Serpent six times. So you better don't offend her and get along with her instead. On another note, Zara is also one of Tang Shaoyang's women.

There was a lot of information that entered her head, and Viona barely proceeded with it. In fact, she was getting dizzy about it. Not just stronger than Marshal Alton, but also stronger than the Guardian Beast?

'Does that mean she is the strongest in the Ortis Continent?' Those thoughts immediately appeared in her head after hearing what Viona told her. If Zara was stronger than the Guardian Beast, that meant she was the strongest in this continent.

Lilliana responded with a small laugh.

—Fufufufu... It seems you have forgotten about someone, Your Man. He defeated Zara; that was why she followed him. I told you, right? You are making the right decision to give yourself to this man. The downside is, you can never break free from this man. Not because of the contract or anything else, because this man has something other men don't have, and I bet you have experienced it yourself.

Even though Viona could not see what expression Lilliana made, she could picture Lilliana was making a teasing smile while looking at her. There was no need for Lilliana to speak further as Viona knew what Lilliana was talking about, and her cheeks immediately flushed red.

Viona tried to calm down and changed the topic immediately. 'So, he is part of the Demon Race? I saw a few demons and creatures similar to the demon, and also undead.'

—I can't tell you that. If you want to know more about your man, then you should put some effort into it. If you spare your time with him a little more, he will answer anything you ask.

There were a lot of questions in Viona's head, but she did not get to ask Lilliana. "This is a good spot to hold a fight. Let's wait here." She heard Lord Tang Shaoyang's voice and looked around. It was an open field next to the main road, approximately three hundred meters away from Astium City.

"Oh, we don't need to wait. They are here already." Tang Shaoyang saw his spirits were leading the less than two thousand Revolution Armies through his Spirit Eyes. The armies were like a hoard of sheep being herded by the dogs. He then looked at Viona. "Get ready to fight; you will be fighting against five at once."

Viona had no clue what they were waiting for, but soon she found out. The angel and the others were escorting more than a thousand armies. Those thousands were following thirty-two individuals meekly. Those people had their heads lowered as fear and terror laid bare on their faces. The thing that confused her was that those more than a thousand armies suffered no injuries at all... They were perfectly fine.
