

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 710

"What are you doing!?! Kill him! He is our enemy!" Julius snapped out of his mind, pointing his finger at Robert Kingsley and told his subordinates to attack the group of five.

Robert Kingsley smiled while shaking his head. He spread out his Legend Rank's aura and suppressed the surrounding knights. "If you follow my order, your sins will be forgiven for betraying the Lionax Kingdom. You and your family will be spared and can live in this land peacefully!"

Even without those promises from Robert Kingsley, no one would dare to fight against the Legend Rank Knight. Along with the promise, it just killed the will of the Revolution Army to fight. All the knights stepped away from Julius and looked away from their former leader. They all felt guilty for looking away from the leader who had been taking care of them.

Robert Kingsley glanced at the two Archdukes. Both Archdukes were Primordial Rank, so there was no chance for a Myth Rank like Julius to get away from them. "You take care of our little traitor. Secure him, and we will execute him for the public's contentment. This guy has caused great unrest to our people."

"Yes, Lord Robert." The two old men nodded and approached Julius. Before they could take Julius, both Princes stepped up. "Can you give him to me before the public execution, Sir Areta?" The Crown Prince smiled at one of the Archdukes while the second prince stood in front of Julius. "So, this guy who killed my brother?"

Second Prince Willis grabbed Julius' long hair and pulled his hair up. "Where do you hide the Lionax Kingdom's Flaming Sword?" Julius pulled out his sword and cut his hair. At the same time, he activated the bloodline transformation. His handsome face was covered with gray fur as his body grew bigger.

Instead of running away, Julius rushed toward Tang Shaoyang. He had one thought at the moment. 'The enemy of my enemy is my friend.' He thought of working together with Tang Shaoyang to face the Lionax Kingdom. He stopped a meter away from Tang Shaoyang and spoke. "I don't know who you are, but let's work together to face the Lionax Kingdom."

Instead of responding to Julius with words, he responded with action. Tang Shaoyang caught Julius' neck and slammed the man onto the ground.

"Kuorgh!" Julius coughed out blood and looked at Tang Shaoyang with shocked eyes. He was not expecting the opposite party would attack him like this when he offered an advantageous deal. Julius' train of thought was simple, and another Myth Rank was better than nothing.

"Are you stupid?" Tang Shaoyang shook his head in wonder. "But how can a stupid person like you set up an army? Do you think I will work together with you? With or without you, I will conquer this continent. You are just a stepping stone that has drowned in the water. You without your army have no value. Sleep for now because someone will take care of you."

Using his Elemental Manipulation, Tang Shaoyang created a water bubble in Julius' head. His mouth spouted air bubbles as he tightened the grip, and Julius passed out after thirty seconds. He furrowed his brows as it was too fast for Julius to pass out. This guy was a Myth Rank, so it would take longer for him to pass out.

"Tsk, do you think you can trick me?" Tang Shaoyang smirked as he released the grip. He maintained the water bubble and stomped his face. A big bubble came out from Julius' mouth, and his eyes went wide. "Now you have passed out, but I will maintain the bubble water for another minute."

Tang Shaoyang summoned the Angel of Death and turned around, meeting Robert Kingsley's eyes. He wanted Zara to have his back, but of course, Bronson and Zaneos complained about why he did not summon them. Both wanted to try to fight the Legend Rank as well. 'Nope, I will fight the two myself. Zara is just for a backup, just in case I can't handle both Legend Ranks.'

"I heard you are looking for a Flaming Sword? Are you talking about this?" Tang Shaoyang took out the Flaming Sword and waved the sword toward Robert.

Robert Kingsley and both princes did not expect the stranger was holding one of the Lionax Kingdom's treasures. Their eyes widened in shock. "It's you who killed Kaiden!" The Second Prince pointed his index finger at Tang Shaoyang.

Tang Shaoyang smirked and shook his head. "It's not me who killed him, but he killed himself. That spoiled prince should know that he could not say anything about me to you guys, or the oath would take his life or..." He grinned ear to ear, "It's you guys who killed him by forcing him to talk."

"GARGGGHHH!" The Second Prince Wilis screamed as he activated bloodline transformation at the same time. The Second Prince's figure was in flames, and he had the face of the lion. He was about to charge at Tang Shaoyang, but Robert Kingsley stopped his grandson from moving recklessly. "Stop! What are you doing? He is not someone you can defeat!"

Robert Kingsley's eyes kept darting from Tang Shaoyang to the flying angel, back and forth. Tang Shaoyang alone was enough to give him a headache, and now he had to face an angel as well that was as strong as Tang Shaoyang. He was not expecting that the situation would turn out like this. He thought the war would be over soon after making a new deal with the Sunfire Kingdom.

The old man then looked at the top wall and met Alton's eyes. 'There's also Alton. I don't think we can win here.' He made eye contact with Powan and signaled to the latter to back down. Powan realized that the situation was worse than he thought and agreed to retreat. He rushed around and regrouped with Robert Kingsley.

'I have to think of a way to retreat. What can I use to make this man retreat? I have to regroup with Lorion and the other Sunfire Kingdom's commanders to win this battle.' Robert Kingsley shone when he thought of something. The old man smiled... "I think you should return to Bareham City if you want to keep your subordinate's lives."
