

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 753

Maybe lady luck was on Tang Shaoyang's side today. He summoned twenty-four Grade A+ Spirit from the remaining twenty-four Epic Rank dead bodies. That meant he managed to raise his Spirit Power by eight hundred. So in total, he had two thousand and three hundred thirteen Spirit Power.

"Let's see if I have enough to use [Spirit Resurrection]." Tang Shaoyang tried to use the skill, but the response was a notification from the system.

[You don't have enough Spiritual Energy to use the skill!]

"Hah..." Tang Shaoyang let out a sigh. "Can the skill be clearer? I appreciate it if all the skills are more like Necromastery. There's even a Souls Counter for the skill."

—Try to gather three thousand Spirit Power. Maybe you can resurrect Grade E or even Grade D Spirit. If that is the case, we can measure how much we need for Grade S+ Spirit resurrection.

That was Zaneos' voice. Even without his advice, it was not like Tang Shaoyang had any other choices but kept trying. It was kind of disheartening that even with over two thousand Spirit Power, they could not trigger the skill. On the other hand, it was understandable since it was a skill that could revive a being.

Tang Shaoyang continued the spirit summoning with Myth Rank bodies. Just like what he did with the Epic Rank body, he only used one body to summon a new spirit as it was a high-rank sacrifice.

[You have summoned Grade S Spirit...]

The Myth Rank sacrifice was enough to summon Grade S Spirit, which was good news for Tang Shaoyang. Eight Myth Rank bodies, meaning eight Grade S Spirit, meaning he gained sixteen levels. On top of his levels, he also got four hundred Spirit Power.

"I am level 2943 now. I can easily reach level 3000 as long as I can get enough sacrifice from the Warmir Kingdom. Level 3000 is secured even though I don't kill the Legend Rank." Tang Shaoyang was relieved that he could reach level 3000 before returning to Earth. The Earth Dimensional Tower was his main concern, so he felt like he needed to get strong before that tower appeared.

Then he inspected the skills as he got four skills from sacrificing eight Grade S Spirit. He got eighth skills, but four skills disappeared as he had the superior version of the skill. That was not necessarily bad for him. The four skills were, Wind Domain, Water Domain, Earth Wall, and Nature Grasp.

"I don't know what to do with this Domain Skill. I don't think I will ever use it in a fight as I have the Realm of Fire. That once is much stronger than the other domain skill." Tang Shaoyang was not that interested with the domain skill because of the Realm of Fire. It was an evolved skill from Fire Domain. With an addition of Water Domain and Wind Domain, he had four domain skills in total. The Realm of Fire, Wind Domain, Water Domain, and Abyss Domain.

Tang Shaoyang had Abyss Domain for a long time when he tried to sacrifice the spirit for the first time. He got that skill, but he never used it once, and he did not know what the skill did. Based on the name, the Abyss Domain would likely strengthen the Demon and Undead type's power.

“Nah, let’s not think about the skills for now.” Tang Shaoyang took a body from his inventory. It was Prince Wilis’ body.

[You have summoned Grade S+ Spirit, Aritoma the Beast Slayer!]

The one that came out from the brown mist was a man. The man had a thick beard and long hair, topless as he showed the packs on his chest. He had a giant blade on his back, and smaller blades on his waist. From the man’s appearance, he was more like a hunter than a knight. His sharp eyes observed the surroundings and stopped at Tang Shaoyang.

Aritoma grinned ear to ear. “You are a beast in human skin!” The man exclaimed while drawing the giant blade on his back. The blade was two meters long, and it would be 2.3 meters long with the handle. The blade was around seventy meters wide, but the man easily held the blade with one hand.

“Unfortunately, you are wrong. I am not a human or a beast.” Tang Shaoyang replied while shrugging. He was a new species called Tang, but he did not bother to explain it to the soon-dead spirit. Instead of letting Maldros and Arkanos ganged up on this man, Tang Shaoyang summoned Bronson the Executioner.

“Can you finish him quick, Bronson?” Tang Shaoyang asked. The Executioner observed his opponent for a while before nodding his head. “I can take him down within one to three minutes. That’s possible if I go all out from the start.”

“Then do it.” As soon as Tang Shaoyang said it, Bronson did not waste his time and rushed toward Aritoma. This time, Tang Shaoyang did not wait for Bronson to beat his opponent as he summoned Zaneos the Infernal Sword. “Do you want to have fun too, Master?”

“Hah...” Zaneos let out a sigh. “Stop calling me with Master, My Lord. The other spirits and your subordinates may misunderstand it. Also, I don’t deserve to be called Master because I did not teach you anything. You never learned my Swordsmanship. Just address me with my name.”

“Then, do you want to join too, Teacher?” Tang Shaoyang grinned ear to ear. “If you want to fight too, then I can summon other spirit. I should just summon all the spirits at once, so that will save my time.”

Zaneos let out another sigh and shook his head. At this point, he just accepted it. “I will take that offer, My Lord. Let me have some fun too, so I don’t get too rusty.” The Demon Swordsman agreed to have some fun as well.

Tang Shaoyang did not wait for Bronson to finish his fight as he sacrificed another Primordial Rank body. From the summoning, he called another Grade S+ Spirit.

—What about me? Why don’t you let me fight too?

Zara the Angel of Death complained from the Spiritual Space. When Zara said it out, the other Grade S+ Spirit followed as they also wanted to fight instead of staying inside the Spiritual Space.
