

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 758

“Ahn~ Ahn~ Ahn~” An intense moan rang in the room. This was the previous King’s bedroom, which was now Tang Shaoyang’s bedroom. Inside, a couple was making out, Ava and Tang Shaoyang.

Ava held the mirror’s frame, looking at herself in the mirror. Her breasts were jiggling as Lord Tang Shaoyang thrust her from behind. She saw her face was flushed red, and she was drowned in pleasure. This was the third time they were having sex, and she could not help but compare Tang Shaoyang with her husband. She realized that her husband was nothing in this aspect compared to Lord Tang Shaoyang.

Ava felt her body was trembling and shaking with the pleasure this man gave her, something she had never experienced when she was doing it with her husband. Then she saw his hand reaching her breast and fondling her breast. That just gave her another jolt of pleasure, causing her to moan louder.

They continued in this position for another five minutes before she reached climax together with Lord Tang Shaoyang. She felt the warm liquid pouring into her womb. She closed her eyes and enjoyed the moment as sweat dripped from her forehead. This was her fifth time reaching a climax, and the second time Lord Tang Shaoyang came inside her.

Tang Shaoyang’s head got closer to her cheek, and she turned her head around and kissed him on the lips. She took the initiative to kiss him this time. After the passionate kiss, their lips parted. Even though he had come twice, Ava still could feel the thing inside her was still hard. ‘Today will be my last day in the Capital City...’ With those thoughts in her mind, she started to move by herself, indicating she wanted to continue. However, her legs went weak as she tried to move and almost fell.

Tang Shaoyang smiled and picked her up. He brought her and put her on the bed, and she was facing down on the bed. “You should just tell me if you haven’t had enough.” After hearing those words, Ava buried her head on the bed as her face flushed red. He caught her, and when she recalled the day they made a contract, that just made her face even redder.

They continued for another hour, and Ava admitted defeat. If not for her duty, she would continue until she passed out, just like the other day. At the castle gate, Ava faced the man she loved? It was a complex feeling, but she was unsure whether it was love or just a good impression.

Ava had to admit that now, Tang Shaoyang looked handsome and dashing in her eyes. It was hard for her to look away from this man. However, the feeling toward her husband caused a conflict within her heart. She did not know her feelings for his man, as he could not get away from her head after their first night.

Despite the conflicted feelings within her, she still kissed Tang Shaoyang. “I promise you that I will make the Malecia Kingdom surrender at the same time the main force captured the Warmir Kingdom.” That was her promise for this man before she departed to the southern border with her Elven Armies.

“Take your time. If you encounter trouble, then you can contact me through Aerelion.” Tang Shaoyang nodded with a smile. Then he found that Ava had a confused expression. “The Dark Wyvern. He is one of my spirits too, so we can still communicate even though we are far away, and I can switch places with him too.”

“I don’t think we will encounter trouble. The Malecia Kingdom only has two Legend Ranks, and I don’t think they are The Guardian Beast Kirin’s opponent. I should be fine there, but I will contact you if we really encounter something we can’t face.” Ava nodded and bid her farewell.

As Ava disappeared from his sight, Tang Shaoyang let out a sigh and turned around. He looked at the gigantic castle and let out a sigh. "What do I do now? I have nothing to do." He was truly idle as his subordinates took care of everything for him. "I can take care of the bandit issue while Ashley is heading to the Warmir Kingdom. But I know nothing about this kingdom, and I have to start from zero without a guide."

—What about learning Alchemy? Since you have nothing to do, fill your spare time with something meaningful. You are wasting your few hours with that long-eared woman.

Yu the Ancient Alchemist persuaded Tang Shaoyang to learn Alchemy.

Tang Shaoyang shook his head. "I can just integrate with you to know more about alchemy, and then I will have your skills too. On top of that, I am not interested in Alchemy, that boring stuff." He once tried to concoct a rough antidote for Lu An in the Survival Game, and he knew that alchemy was so boring as it involved patience, something he was not good at.

"Let's find out what Sylvia and Selena are doing. Having fun with them is better than spending my time in the gloomy laboratory." Tang Shaoyang smirked and entered the castle.

Night

Tang Shaoyang was waiting in the same room when he spent a good time with Ava. He was in a silver night robe, leaning his back against the bed. The person he was waiting for was Selena, and then the double door of his bedroom opened. He looked toward the door only to see Sylvia entering the bedroom with her white nightgown.

"Sister Selena asks me to sleep with you because she has something to do..." Sylvia's voice was so small as a mosquito, but fortunately, the sharp hearing came in handy in this situation. Tang Shaoyang heard everything that the Moon Rabbit Princess said.

"Is that so?" Tang Shaoyang smiled and got off the bed. He approached Sylvia, who was standing still at the door. When he arrived in front of her, Tang Shaoyang whispered in a deep voice. "Then why are you standing at the door?"
