

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 962

Every good thing had come to an end. Li Shuang slumped onto Tang Shaoyang as her body pasted to his, stark naked still as they had just finished. They were on the chair, and she sat on his lap. Her breathing was hurried as she just succeeded in making him come for the third time in half an hour. That was a feat compared to the others, and as silly as she was, she was proud of that. That was kind of an achievement for her.

Even so, she still could feel the little beast was still hard inside her. Realizing the situation she was in, she immediately whispered to his ear, "I can't anymore, or else I will pass out," No matter how much she enjoyed this, she was at her limit already.

Tang Shaoyang nodded and got from the chair. He pulled out the little beast and carried Li Shuang to the secret room. That was right, there was a secret room in his office. He brought her to the secret, smaller than the office with a king-sized bed in the middle. It was more like a bedroom than a secret room, and it was Origin's idea to make the room. He gently put Li Shuang on the bed and planted a kiss on her forehead, "You can rest here, and we will continue with your future plan later."

Li Shuang's eyes opened wide as she forgot about that. Her body subconsciously sat up, but she had no more energy as her body fell off the side of the bed.

Tang Shaoyang let out a chuckle as it looked funny, "I have a three days break before the next expedition. We are not in a rush." He waved his hand as he walked out of the secret room.

His office was a mess after the passionate war, and it smelled weird. He scratched his forehead, "Who usually cleans the office, Origin?" From the smell, people could tell what just happened in the room, and he did not want strangers who worked for them to know this privacy.

[Don't worry, Master. The cleaners have signed the contract that they will not say anything that they see, read, hear, and smell, even to their family. Breaching the contract will receive heavy punishment.] Origin reassured its Master.

"What to do now?" He was kinda lost now. The others were busy with their own thing, and he, the Emperor, did not know what to do. He got to know the current situation through Origin, but he could not just butt into one of the industries, TEIS, or even the academy, disrupting their ongoing plan. Of course, he could just check up on them, but he did not have an assistant to guide him. If he just came and said he was the Emperor, the people in charge might get nervous, and he would not be able to see what he wanted.

"Let's check what Kalliyan is doing right now. I leave the Celestial Wolves cub to her too," He muttered in a low voice; at the same time, he communicated with his strongest familiars. The Kirin requested a leave, looking for a new nest for her home and her babies.

Tang Shaoyang went to the rooftop and flew toward Kalliyan's nest. The Kirin had settled up in the mountain that was not far from The Elven's settlement. The Elven King, Virion, had chosen Ningbo Territory to be their new home. It was one of the territories he got from the Territory Wars against the Zombie Kingdoms and also a group from the Lionax Kingdom.

He arrived at the mountain by sensing his familiar's presence and stopped in front of the cave at the peak of the mountain. The cave was surrounded by lush trees, and he furrowed his brows when he found not just a few strong beasts. He saw a tiger with three horns and a steel tail, a lion with fire mane, and an unknown super-sized jet black bird eying him from afar.

Tang Shaoyang could not use the detection skill because he discovered the beasts through Spirit Eyes, but he believed those beasts were at least level 300 or even level 500. It was quite a strong beast. He furrowed his brows as he realized the mountain was not as safe as he thought, even though the Kirin occupied the mountain. Those beasts could eat the babies if Kalliyen left the nest.

"You have come, Master," Kalliyen came out of the cave, showing her majestic figure. The three beasts immediately left after she came out to greet him.

"Why don't you kill those beasts? It should not be an issue for you to kill them, no?" Tang Shaoyang nodded and immediately questioned the Kirin. The beast in front of him was the Legendary Rank Beast, and he could say the Kirin was the second strongest after him.

"Ah, them? I choose them as the Guardian of this mountain. I also help them to evolve so they can protect the mountain and my nest while I am away," Kalliyen understood what her Master referred to and explained, "If you need me to go somewhere dangerous, I can't bring my babies, so I need them to babysit my babies. They can also be a companion to play with, so my babies don't get bored."

"Ah..." Tang Shaoyang nodded understandingly, "I came to check the cubs. Are they doing fine?"

Even though he did not know how The Kirin smiled, somehow, he could feel the Kirin was smiling when he brought up the cubs. Before Kalliyen could answer, two white furies ran out of the cave, followed by three baby horses. The cubs seemed to recognize his smell as they jumped toward him.

He caught them and placed them on his chest. The two Celestial Wolf cubs rubbed their heads against his chest. He caressed their smooth fur, and they seemed to enjoy it as they directed their heads to his hand, "You guys are cute, but you make me even more guilty," He let out a sigh. He was the killer of their parents, yet they acted like this toward him.

Meanwhile, Kalliyen's babies hid behind their mother's legs, peeking at him and the cubs. They did not look like a Kirin but a horse. The horn was so small that he could barely see it underneath the green fur. They looked at him with a mixture of fear and curiosity.

"I have a selfish request, Master," Kalliyen lowered her head.

"Say it!"

"I wish you would let me raise the cubs. They seem to fit with my babies, and I want them to be playmates as they grow up," Kirin's request was simple, and it was not something that did not benefit him.

"The issue is, your nest is quite far from the main base, and I want to watch them grow up too," Tang Shaoyang rubbed his chin. The cub's parents trusted him with their kids. It would be kind of irresponsible of him to leave the cubs to Kalliyen.

"I understand your concern, but it's bad to raise them in a man-made and safe environment, Master. They are beasts; they need to experience the wilderness or else, it can affect their growth."

Tang Shaoyang agreed with Kalliyān's take on this matter, but he was still reluctant to leave them to Kalliyān, especially with how cute they were. He wanted the cubs to be Jiaying and Li Yue's playmates, so they could bond as they grew up. That was his plan for the cubs, but he had to reconsider it after hearing what Kalliyān just said.

"I will consider it,"