Orion Exeor and Lord Wade bid at the same time, and all of a sudden, others at the scene became interested in this amulet.

At this time, Lord Wade did not expect that Orion Exeor was also interested in this amulet, so he smiled and made a gesture of invitation, and said politely: "Mr. Exeor, you can come first for the first one, I will not follow You compete."

Orion Exeor cupped his hands and smiled and said, "Thanks to the Wade family owner for reluctantly giving up the love. Since this is the case, then I will take this one first, and the next one, and I will not compete with Wade family master."

Lord Wade laughed, nodded and said, "Very good, very good, Mr. Exeor, please!"

Orion Exeor immediately raised his hand and said, "I will pay 20 million!"

Jasmine moore hurriedly said, "Mr. Exeor, the price of the amulet is increased by one million dollars each time. You don't have to call it so high."

Orion Exeor waved his hand: "No problem, no problem."

Jasmine moore had no choice but to nod her head and said seriously, "For the first amulet, the distinguished VIP Mr. Exeor offered 20 million US dollars. Is it higher than this price?"

Although everyone at the scene was very interested in this amulet, most of them knew Orion Exeor's identity and respected him, so no one bid him for a while.

However, although everyone did not bid, they still secretly figured out what is so powerful about this amulet, so that Mr. Exeor would not hesitate to pay 20 million US dollars to compete.

Jian also whispered: "Brother and the Wade family's patriarch, they have sat here for so long without asking for a price. Why are they suddenly interested in this kind of amulet?"

After that, he asked jay who was beside him: "Master jay, what do you think is so special about this amulet?"

jay stared at the big screen carefully for a long time, and said seriously: "Returning to Fei Lao, these four amulets are indeed made of top-quality Tridacons. Tridacons of this quality have been rare in these years, and Tridacula is a treasure of heaven and earth, and it has the effect of strengthening the righteousness and eliminating evil. If it is worn on the body, it will be more or less beneficial.”

After speaking, jay said again: “However, it should not be so expensive. After all, this amulet only uses a small piece of clam, and I don’t know the strength of the Feng Shui master who made it. How, so there is no way to infer how effective this amulet is.”

Jian nodded and said, “Although I don’t know how effective this thing is, since he can interest Brother Orion, it must be extraordinary.”

After that, he made up his mind and said, “I will also compete for the next one!”

jay hurriedly said: “Jian, don’t bid for the next one for now. I think the Wade family owner is interested in the next one, so let him bid first. After all, this auction was jointly organized by wade and moore. The owner of the family is present in person, and it is considered half the host. Although we are guests from afar, we still need to give this face to the host.”

Jian nodded lightly and said, “Then take the third shot.”

At this time, no one else was bidding with Orion Exeor, so Jasmine moore simply dropped the hammer after three inquiries.

Orion Exeor was in a particularly happy mood when he photographed the amulet. He knew that he could not compete for the rejuvenation pill, so he had already seen it, but it was also a very rare thing for him to be able to harvest a amulet made by charlie himself. Great thing.

According to the regulations of the auction, other products except Huichundan will not be delivered to the bidders until the auction is over, so Jasmine moore directly started the auction of the second amulet.

This time, Lord Wade raised his hand without hesitation and offered ten million dollars.

Interestingly, other people who participated in the auction also knew that the Wade family was one of the organizers of this auction. After Lord Wade made a bid, no one at the scene competed with him to bid.

Therefore, Lord Wade also easily took the second amulet.

Immediately after the third amulet, the number of bidders suddenly increased.

Prices started at $10 million and quickly went up to $87 million.

At this time, Jian raised his hand calmly and said, "I will pay 200 million."

The quotation of 200 million US dollars is equivalent to double the previous quotation and make up the whole.

As soon as this price came out, it instantly scared off many people who were planning to compete.

After all, amulets are different from Huichundan. Everyone has witnessed the effects of Huichundan, but no one knows how powerful amulets are.

Such an amulet can be regarded as the most expensive amulet in the world at a price of 200 million US dollars.

No one at the scene was willing to offer a price higher than $200 million, so the third amulet was successfully photographed by Jian.

When it came to the fourth amulet, some interested bidders quickly pushed the price to 150 million US dollars, but at this stage of the bidding, perhaps they felt that the amulet was really not worth so much money, and many people have already bought it. withdrew from the competition.

At this moment, someone in the crowd suddenly raised their hand and said lightly: "I will pay 300 million."

The one who spoke was the previous middle-aged man who was somewhat similar to middle-aged Zheng Shaoqiu, and even stronger than him in terms of image and temperament.

Jian only felt that the voice was a little familiar, and he looked at the sound subconsciously. When he saw this person's appearance, his heart suddenly froze, and his expression instantly became solemn.

At this time, the middle-aged man's offer of $300 million successfully frightened the others.

Although the people sitting here are quite rich, it is indeed difficult to accept the 300 million US dollars for an amulet with unknown effect.

So, the scene was silent for a while.

Jasmine moore said, "The last amulet, on the 99th, offered $300 million. Is there a higher bid than this?"

There was still no answer at the scene.

After making three bids, Jasmine moore announced directly, "Congratulations to bidder No. 99 for winning the last amulet tonight at a price of $300 million."

At this time, charlie in the surveillance room was staring at the middle-aged man who had just photographed the amulet for $300 million in the surveillance video.

At a certain moment, charlie always felt that this person was a bit familiar.

However, if he really wanted to say where he had seen it, he couldn't tell for a while.

So, he instructed Isaac Cameron: "Isaac, find out what this number 99 is called and where it came from."

Isaac Cameron immediately took out the roster and flipped through it for a while, then said, "Master, number 99 is dhilon, from Vancouver, Canada."

charlie nodded lightly. In his memory, he didn't know Canadians. As for why this dhilon looked familiar, charlie felt that either he remembered it wrong, or this dhilon hid his identity like Fei Kexin.

If the identity is hidden, it would be difficult for charlie to find out the true identity of the other party in a short period of time, because each of these rich people has multiple identities. Although each identity has a different name and nationality, all of them can be verified without exception. real identity.

However, he felt that the possibility of the former should be greater...
