

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4211 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4211)

When Bernard Arnault heard this, his whole person was sad and his face was full of sauce.

He knew that he was being targeted.

The key is that he was targeted, and all the people around him who were bidding for Huichundan were all cheering for it.

It was also at this moment that he realized that he was not only hated by the customers of his brands, but also hated by other rich people.

He also finally realized the evil of the distribution system.

It is to see that you like something, and then pinch your psychology to increase the price in another way.

If you protest, the seller will tell you that this is our sales policy.

And Bernard Arnault's desire for rejuvenation is not just liking, it is related to his health and longevity.

With his current physical condition, if lung cancer makes a comeback, he basically has no choice but to die.

Moreover, he has experienced the pain of anti-cancer treatment twice, and he does not want to experience the third time in his life.

Thinking of this, he could only grit his teeth and ask Jasmine Moore with a humble expression: "Miss Jasmine, I don't know how you want me to distribute the goods... My cash flow is not that abundant..."

Jasmine Moore nodded and said, "Don't worry, we won't push you to a dead end because of the distribution."

Having said this, she smiled slightly and continued: "If you follow your brand's distribution strategy, the ratio of the general distribution amount of popular models will start at one to one or even higher?"

Bernard Arnault's eyes suddenly darkened. If he really distributed the goods on a one-to-one ratio, it would be 140 billion US dollars. Where did he get so much money?

Just when he was desperate, Jasmine moore said again: "Of course, we are more particular about what we do than you, so we finally decided to let you distribute the goods according to the ratio of 50%. Since your bidding price is 72 billion, The distribution amount is 36 billion, and the total is 108 billion."

Bernard Ernault said in desperation: "I don't have so much money... I can take out a maximum of $80 billion in cash now..."

Jasmine moore nodded and said, "In this case, you can also apply for installment payment."

Bernard Ernault hurriedly asked: "How to pay in installments?!"

Jasmine moore said: "For a total of 36 billion US dollars of distribution, you pay 8 billion first, and the remaining 28 billion will be paid in ten years. We can waive your installment fee for this. You know, if you do it outside For consumer loans, the ten-year interest rate is at least 50%."

Having said this, Jasmine moore added: "I believe that with your ability to attract gold, it should be very easy to spend 2.8 billion US dollars every year, and after you get a whole rejuvenation pill, as long as there are no accidents, the lifespan will be at least Twenty years or more, so if you look at it this way, it must be a very good deal for you."

Immediately, Jasmine moore changed the topic and said, "Of course, you can also not accept it. Our distribution policy is the same as yours. We advocate voluntary distribution, not compulsory distribution."

Bernard Ernault finally understands what a murderous heart is.

What is the difference between forcing others to distribute goods and saying that they are voluntary distribution?

But on second thought, isn't it the same way for your own brand?

Thinking of this, he could only sigh that he had done it himself.

And although his heart was extremely painful, when he thought of Huichundan, he still made a decision in an instant, gritted his teeth and said, "Okay...I accept it!"

Jasmine moore nodded and said seriously: "No. 016, since you voluntarily and actively accepted our delivery policy, then you need to pay 80 billion US dollars first. In order to ensure that you perform the contract, we also need to sign a series of Do you have any objection to this legal document, Huichundan will be given to you after the legal document is signed?"

Bernard Ernault shook his head and said sullenly, "No... I have no objection..."

Jasmine moore nodded and smiled and said, "In that case, both of us have reached an equal and voluntary agreement on the distribution of Huichundan based on the principle of fairness and justice. Do you confirm this?"

Bernard Ernault said with a sad face: "Confirm... I confirm..."

"Okay." Jasmine moore smiled slightly and continued, "However, there are two things that I want to emphasize in front of No. 016 and all the bidders present today."

"First of all, please rest assured that our distribution system is only applicable to Mr. Bernard Ernault. Except for him, anyone who successfully bids for Huichundan will not be charged any additional fees. The previous four Everyone has seen the Huichundan, we strictly follow the principle of fairness and justice, and the four successful bidders did not force any consumption, so please don't worry!"

As soon as these words came out, everyone at the scene immediately cheered.

Since it was only aimed at Bernard Ernault, everyone would naturally be happy to see him laugh.

Therefore, everyone applauded and cheered happily, only Bernard Ernault's face was extremely ugly.

Later, Jasmine moore added: "Secondly, we are different from those outside companies that require distribution. We will not take a penny from all distribution income, and will donate all of it to charity!"

"Half of them will be donated to poverty-stricken areas in China, which will be specially used to solve the problems of school-age children and adolescents in poverty-stricken areas, as well as children and adolescents who are out of school, in terms of their studies, life and health, including but not limited to solving their tuition fees, living expenses, love Lunch fees and scholarships, grants, and even medical treatment for physical ailments;"

"The other half will be donated to all orphanages, welfare homes and other child welfare institutions in the country to improve the living and education level of orphans in welfare institutions;"

"The whereabouts of all funds will be accurate and disclosed to the whole society, and everyone's joint supervision is welcome!"

As soon as these words came out, everyone on the scene was in an uproar again.

That's ten years and $36 billion!

Donate it all? !

Isn't money money?

How many listed groups with a market value of 100 billion have not been able to make this amount in ten years, but this time the owner of Pill is not at all tempted? !

Moreover, everyone is a top rich man and is very clear about charity.

Even if it is to play charity, it is not like this!

The richest people in the world, especially the richest people in the West, seem to be very keen on doing charity, setting up various charitable foundations, and then putting hundreds of millions or even billions of dollars into the foundations.

But in fact, the vast majority of such charitable funds are set up for tax avoidance.

Western billionaires often donate billions of dollars to set up foundations, in fact, they are packaged as family trusts, so as to avoid inheritance taxes as high as 50% and leave more money to their children and grandchildren.

According to the Western system, 5% of the funds of the foundation must be used for charity, and the remaining 95% is basically equivalent to a family trust, and it is also tax-free.

Therefore, when the rich in the West do charity, they only use a small amount of money to do good deeds, while more money is packaged in this way and left to their families.

Many Western rich people also promise to donate naked after death. In fact, most of them also use this method to repackage their wealth and continue to pass it on to future generations.

However, the owner of Huichundan will donate all of the 36 billion US dollars, and he will also accept the supervision of the whole society.

This is really... terrifying!

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4213 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4213)

The helpless Bernard Arnault finally accepted Jasmine Moore's conditions.

After tearfully paying $80 billion in cash, he signed an installment agreement with the auction house.

Starting in the second half of this year, he will pay the auction $2.8 billion a year for the next ten years.

After everything was settled, Jasmine moore finally announced in public: "Let's congratulate No. 016 for successfully shooting the last rejuvenation pill tonight."

Bernard Arnault stood up all of a sudden in excitement, ready to step onto the stage, while the other bidders all seemed a little lost.

Immediately afterwards, Bernard Arnault was invited to the stage by Jasmine moore.

Afterwards, the staff handed the rejuvenation pill to Bernard Erno.

At this time, Bernard Erno was already shaking with excitement.

The other bidders in the audience were all staring at him.

Everyone saw the effect of a quarter of a rejuvenation pill tonight, and also saw the effect of a half of the rejuvenation pill, but the effect of this whole rejuvenation pill has not yet been seen.

Everyone wants to open their eyes and see how amazing this whole rejuvenation pill can be.

Bernard Arnault is in his seventies. Even though he has the titles of Godfather of Fashion and Godfather of Luxury, the years still leave deep marks on his face.

More than half of his brown-black hair had turned white, and deep wrinkles had formed on his face and around his eye sockets. His eye sockets had begun to sag deeper and deeper. Because of his old age, his cheeks had begun to sag down, and two fell out. The extremely obvious nasolabial folds, it is no exaggeration to say, even have a sense of sight of the dog in "Tom and Jerry".

Coupled with the two anti-cancer journeys, he was a little weaker than his peers.

However, the moment he took the rejuvenation pill, a miracle happened immediately.

His hair, which was originally dry and white, gradually turned into a shiny black-brown color, and the wrinkles on his face began to converge rapidly. Even the drooping cheeks seemed to be free from the gravitational force, and quickly regained their roundness and luster.

The old man who was in his 70s just now has turned into a man in his 50s in a blink of an eye.

This immediately envy countless people.

And Bernard Arnault couldn't see what he looked like at this time, he only felt that his whole body was quickly regaining vitality.

This kind of feeling is like when I was young, I was exhausted from exercising all day, and when I came home and was almost limp on the bed, I suddenly returned to the very energetic state before I went out in the morning.

The experience was so magical that he almost roared with excitement!

It was also at this moment that Bernard Arnault burst into tears.

Tonight was the hardest day of his life for him.

From the hope at the beginning to the despair later, the flame of hope is ignited again and again, and it is extinguished by despair again and again.

Even in the final stage, the mentality of the distribution of 36 billion US dollars was almost ruined.

At this moment, feeling the huge change in his body, he couldn't help crying.

Because he feels that this moment is too easy!

Moreover, the final result was really surprising to me.

When he came, he thought that Huichundan could improve his physical condition and reduce the risk of cancer recurrence as much as possible.

However, I never dreamed that the effect of Huichundan was so miraculous!

He couldn't help but sighed to himself: "Although for this rejuvenation pill, only 36 billion was allocated for distribution, but this is really the most worthwhile thing I have ever bought in my life..."

Everyone else watched Bernard Erno instantly become nearly twenty years younger, and the envy and hatred in their hearts had reached their peak.

This is the real effect of Huichundan!

It's a pity that no one else has the opportunity to experience it for themselves.

If you want to wait for the next rejuvenation pill, at least you have to wait until the second auction next year.

At this time, Jasmine moore said, "Thanks to everyone present for their support, tonight's auction has ended all the auctions here, let us congratulate the five bidders who successfully bid for Huichundan, and we hope that no auction is successful. Don't be discouraged by the bidders, because if nothing else happens, we will continue to hold the Huichundan auction next year."

When everyone present thought of this, many people felt even more desperate in their hearts.

Because, once the effects of rejuvenation pills spread among the upper class, more top rich people will surely pour into next year's auction.

At that time, if the organizer does not expand the number of places,
