

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4345 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4345)

"New York?!" charlie was suddenly very surprised.

Before he took off, he heard that Qiao Feiyun also fled to New York, but he never thought that Stefanie sun would come to New York too.

So, he asked with concern: "Stefanie, wasn't your itinerary set long ago? Why did you make such a big change temporarily?"

Stefanie sun smiled and said, "I know you are in Providence, very close to New York, right?"

charlie asked in surprise, "How do you know?"

"I asked someone else!" Stefanie sun said: "I asked Mr. isaac from Shangri-La, and he said you went to the United States to accompany you to study."

After saying that, Stefanie sun pretended to be angry and muttered: "I originally wanted to take time to visit Aurous Hill and give you a surprise, so I called and asked President isaac to cooperate, only to find out that you are no longer in Aurous Hill, charlie Brother, why don't you tell me when you go to America."

charlie said embarrassedly: "I'm not afraid of delaying your business. Besides, I didn't come to the United States to play, but to accompany your sister-in-law to school."

Stefanie sun hurriedly said: "Ahhh, don't say that, I never admitted that she was my sister-in-law, in fact, I don't admit that anyone is my sister-in-law, I only admit that I am my own sister-in-law! "

charlie sighed helplessly and said, "Okay, okay, it's my fault, I should have told you before I set off, and I won't be an example, okay?"

"It's not too bad." Stefanie sun was satisfied, hummed twice, and muttered, "I'll forgive you this time!"

charlie rubbed the bridge of his nose and asked, "Stefanie, you haven't told me yet, why did you suddenly change the performance plan?"

Stefanie sun said without hesitation: "Of course it's for you! I heard that you are going to stay in Providence for a month, so I specially put my first two concerts in New York and Boston, New York and you have two hundred The distance of more than one kilometers, Boston is even closer to you, at most 100 kilometers, so you have to come to the scene to cheer me on for the first two stops of my tour!"

charlie didn't expect that Stefanie sun temporarily changed the itinerary for himself, and he couldn't help but feel moved.

So he asked, "Nah, when was your first concert? In New York or Boston?"

Stefanie sun said: "The first stop must be New York. After all, it is the largest city in the United States. After New York, Boston."

After speaking, Stefanie sun said again: "As for the time, New York Station will be on the 15th two weeks later, and Boston Station will be on the 17th."

Charlie didn't expect time to be so fast, so he asked, "Then when are you coming to the United States?"

Stefanie sun said: "I have been preparing for the past two days. I may rush over as soon as I finish my work here. The departure time may be in a week, or ten days at the latest, because the North American tour's repertoire, stage art and equipment are all It's unified, and the later shows are quite confusing, so before the first stop, I need to reserve more time for on-site debugging and rehearsal, and set the standard for the whole process, so that the later performances can be easier."

According to Stefanie sun, she would fly to the United States within 7 to 10 days, and she would definitely go to New York first, which made charlie a little worried.

Because, when he thought that Qiao Feiyun had gone to New York, charlie's intuition told him that Qiao Feiyun either had many associates or many clients in New York.

Therefore, when he was on the plane, he was thinking that he must weave a net of desperation in New York to clean up Qiao Feiyun and his upper and lower homes, from big fish to small shrimps.

Since we are going to weave such a large net, it naturally takes a certain amount of time to prepare slowly, so the time for closing the net will not be too fast.

As a result, when Stefanie sun arrived in New York, it may not have been her time to close the Internet.

In that case, Stefanie sun would be in a certain danger.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4346 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4346)

So, charlie hurriedly asked her: "Stefanie, can you push back the time of your performance? It's better to wait for half a month before going to New York."

"No way, Brother charlie." Stefanie sun explained: "The performance time has been set, and the organizers in the United States have already started to produce promotional materials, and even started the pre-sale of concert tickets. Feel free to change the time."

With that said, Stefanie sun hurriedly asked: "Brother charlie, don't you want to see me? Or is it inconvenient for you to see me? I can continue to pretend to be your feng shui client, even if you are the same as last time, with She will come to my concert together, and I will not reveal my secrets..."

charlie quickly explained: "I didn't mean that... I just heard that New York is not very peaceful..."

Hearing this explanation, Stefanie sun said with a smile: "Oh, brother charlie, you are a bit unfounded. Although the public security in the United States is indeed not very good, my overall itinerary this time is in public, and it is an economic comparison. Regional activities with developed and relatively stable law and order, as well as the security team in the United States, will definitely not be dangerous, you can rest assured!"

Seeing this, charlie also knew that it would be difficult for him to make Stefanie sun's entire tour plan re-adjusted with just one or two sentences, so he could only accept this reality and exhorted: "Stefanie, then you must remember to Tell me in advance, don't give me any surprises, only in this way can I be completely at ease, understand?"

Stefanie sun said without hesitation: "I know brother charlie, don't worry! When the date of my departure is set, I will tell you as soon as possible!"

"Okay....."

After charlie repeatedly asked Stefanie sun, he ended the call between the two.

And the first thing he did after hanging up the phone was to call Abbas immediately.

As soon as the phone got through, he asked, "abbas, have you been to New York?"

Abbas said respectfully, "Mr. wade, my plane just landed at JFK Airport in New York."

charlie asked again, "What about Qiao Feiyun?"

Abbas said, "Mr. wade, Qiao Feiyun's plane landed two hours earlier than mine."

After saying that, Abbas said very ashamedly: "I'm sorry, Mr. Wade, I know that after Qiao Feiyun went to New York, I took a few female soldiers from Providence and rushed to the New York airport to stand guard and plan to follow Qiao Feiyun to see him. Where to go and who to meet after landing, but my people never saw Qiao Feiyun leave the airport."

charlie frowned and asked, "It's unlikely that you haven't left the airport for two hours, right?"

Abbas said: "The subordinate also thinks it is unlikely, so the subordinate thinks that it is not that Qiao Feiyun did not leave the airport, but we lost the person, so it is very likely that he did not leave the airport through normal channels."

charlie asked him, "You mean, someone picked him up directly from inside the airport?"

"Yes!" Abbas explained: "The United States has a lot of capital privileges. It is normal to drive directly into the airport to pick up people, or even to drive a helicopter directly into the airport to pick up people. If Qiao Feiyun uses these two methods One leaves the airport, and it is really difficult for my people to notice, especially since there are not enough staff, and the passenger flow of JFK Airport is too large..."

With that said, Abbas said ashamed: "Mr. Wade, this subordinate failed to do well, please punish me! But don't worry, my subordinate has already begun to dispatch troops to New York, as long as Qiao Feiyun dares to show up, he will definitely bring it back. He got it out!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4347 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4347)

Abbas's words did not surprise charlie.

He knew very well that the United States was not the site of the Wanlong Palace. Abbas's brigade was all in the Middle East, and it was impossible for him to have a strong control over it.

What's more, New York is an international metropolis after all. There are only a few civilian airports. The throughput of JFK Kennedy International Airport is less than tens of millions a year. Come out, the difficulty can be imagined.

What's more, this Qiao Feiyun is likely to use the privileged channel to leave the airport, which makes it even more impossible to track.

Therefore, it is almost inevitable to temporarily lose his trace.

So charlie said, "Abbas, you don't have to blame yourself too much, this kind of thing is normal, I can understand."

With that said, charlie said again: "He is running to New York now, most likely to seek shelter from his superior, and he should not come out to do anything wrong in the past few days. You can just take advantage of the window of these few days and hurry up. New York completes the deployment, to make sure that when he reappears, everything is under our control."

Abbas immediately assured: "Don't worry, Mr. Wade, his subordinates will definitely set up a net in New York. As long as he dares to show up in New York, he will definitely complete the control as soon as possible!"

"Okay!" charlie said, "It must be very hard for you to run back and forth these days. Let's have a good rest in New York for two days first, and we will contact you if there is anything."

"Okay, Mr. Wade, I'll keep people watching at the airport to prevent the kid named Qiao from cheating."

At this very moment, New York's JFK International Airport.

Qiao Feiyun's Boeing business jet has been parked in the hangar for two hours.

The plane drove all the way into the hangar after it landed, but after the plane stopped, the door was never opened.

Qiao Feiyun sat in the plane and kept staring at the time on his watch.

Originally, he promised Jamura that he would tell him when the plane took off, but he never contacted Jamura from beginning to end.

The reason why he did this was to make a time difference.

Qiao Feiyun is very smart. He can see from his brother's body that his brother had experienced torture by a mysterious man before his death, and he must have confessed everything he knew.

Otherwise, as long as the other party hasn't gotten the information he wants, even if he is cut into a scumbag, he will definitely keep him alive and not let him die.

Although the younger brother doesn't know much about the inside story, at least he will confess himself.

This also means that his identity has been exposed in front of the mysterious person.

And in his rush, flying from Seattle to New York, it is impossible to hide this whereabouts.

So he was very worried that the other party had already deployed control at JFK Airport in advance and was waiting for him to show up.

So, he deliberately delayed for two hours.

For the past two hours, he has been sitting in the plane, searching the Internet for all information related to Stefanie sun.

At this moment, seeing that two hours had passed, he did not rush to get off the plane, but took out his mobile phone and called Jamura.

As soon as the call was made, Jamura asked, "Feiyun, haven't you been grinding all the time until you are just about to take off?"

Qiao Feiyun hurriedly said: "I'm sorry, Master Fei, I didn't tell you when I took off before. In fact, I've already arrived in New York and I'm still at the airport."

"Arrived?" Jamura said with some displeasure: "F*ck, let me tell you in advance, so that the housekeeper can pick you up quickly, why didn't you say hello?"

Qiao Feiyun said flatly: "Master Fei, don't be angry, the reason why I didn't tell you is that I don't want to cause you trouble, you think, I am the actual operator of these things after all, in case others know that I am here with you, It's somewhat risky to you."

How could Jamura know that Qiao Feiyun had really been exposed, he thought that the reason why Qiao Feiyun was so cautious was to better protect his privacy, so the dissatisfaction just now disappeared in an instant, and he said with a smile: "Feiyun, you are like this. The biggest advantage of many years is prudence, so in my mind about Stefanie sun, only you can help me achieve my goal!"

After speaking, he immediately said: "You are waiting for me at the airport, I will ask the housekeeper to pick you up now, we are college classmates, this relationship is written in our files, anyone who wants to check can find out, if you come to New York to see me and stay at my house for a few days, no one will have any doubts if you know about it."

In fact, Jamura had already built a firewall for himself.

First of all, he was sure that once Qiao Feiyun was exposed, he would never dare to bite out of himself.

Because once he dared to bite himself, he would definitely destroy his whole family.

Although the two were embarrassed and did a lot of unconscionable things together, it did not mean that the two were completely comrades-in-arms.

Instead, the two have been balancing each other out.

Qiao Feiyun bet that something really happened to him, and Jamura didn't dare to ignore it;

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4348 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4348)

Jamura bet that after Qiao Feiyun's accident, if he really couldn't get him back, then he would never dare to sell himself.

For Qiao Feiyun, this is also true.

He knew very well in his heart that after the accident, Jamura would definitely try his best to help as long as he was bitten to death and refused to speak.

If Jamura really tried his best, but still couldn't do anything, then he certainly couldn't sell him, after all, his family was still alive.

Jamura had been prepared for a long time. Once Qiao Feiyun was exposed, he would immediately get rid of all ties. He was just his college classmate. Although the relationship was good, it was nothing more than that.

I didn't know about his activities from beginning to end, let alone participated in it.

If others can't get the evidence, naturally they won't suspect themselves.

Of course, Qiao Feiyun knew this very well. The reason why he said this was just to show his loyalty to Jamura.

Seeing Jamura insisting on letting the housekeeper pick him up, he said, "Master Fei, if that's the case, then you can send a helicopter over. I'll be waiting in the hangar."

Jamura usually returns to New York after landing at the airport and then transfers home by helicopter. This is a routine operation for him, so he didn't think much about hearing this, and immediately said: "You wait, I'll speak to the butler."

Twenty minutes later, a Bell helicopter landed at the gate of Qiao Feiyun's hangar.

Only then did Qiao Feiyun walk out of the hangar in the dark and quickly boarded the helicopter.

The helicopter's engine didn't even turn off, it just accelerated and left the airport. The whole journey took only two or three minutes.

After the helicopter took off, it flew directly to the Long Island area in eastern New York.

The Long Island area is one of the most famous wealthy areas in the United States. Unlike the bustling downtown area of Manhattan, Long Island is very quiet because it is far away from the urban area.

Moreover, the Long Island area has the best beaches in New York. The wealthy areas here are almost all top-level manors built on the coastline. The Fei family's manor covers an area of even more than 300 hectares. Not only does it have a private one kilometer long Beaches and even its own golf course.

In this manor, there are five large villa buildings alone, each of which is comparable to a luxury hotel.

Qiao Feiyun had been fortunate enough to visit this manor several times, and was deeply shocked every time.

Not to mention anything else, the price of land for a villa on the edge of the Gold Coast like Long Island is already exorbitantly high. Now, in a similar location, buying a piece of land of one hectare costs tens of millions of dollars, not to mention A large estate of more than two hundred hectares.

The scarcity of such top luxury mansions cannot be replicated in areas like Long Island.

If this manor is really put up for sale, it will not be worth tens of billions of dollars, then don't even think about it.

If this manor is handed over to the developer, at least a super villa area with two or three hundred top luxury houses can be built, which can easily accommodate thousands of elites in the upper class.

And it is such a huge luxury manor that serves only a few dozen people in the Fei family. Such a top-level living experience can easily rank in the top five in the United States.

The five villas in the manor are also very particular. The largest villa is located in the middle, and the other four are located in the four corners of the northeast, southeast, northwest, and southwest.

Jamura, his grandfather, and his parents originally lived in the villa in the northeast corner. However, when the old man Jian was seized from power, his grandfather Oscar's family moved to the building where Jian once lived. In the central villa, and this villa just emptied, Jamura directly asked the housekeeper to bring Qiao Feiyun here.

The study that originally belonged to Jamura's grandfather has now become Jamura's private domain. Even his father was very jealous, so he could only reluctantly give it to him.

Under the leadership of the housekeeper, Qiao Feiyun hurried to the luxurious study room with over 100 square meters in the mansion. At this time, Jamura was fascinated by a poster in the study.

This poster is the promotional poster for Stefanie sun's concert in New York.

As soon as Qiao Feiyun came in, he saw this poster, and when Jamura saw him, he immediately greeted him warmly, patted his shoulder with one hand and pointed at Stefanie sun, who was so beautiful on the poster, and said with a smile: "Look Feiyun, the promotional materials for Stefanie sun's concert have been made! This is a poster that has not been officially released, and I just got it."

Qiao Feiyun asked in surprise: "Master Fei, why did you get this poster before it was released? Could it be an internal relationship?"

"That's right!" Jamura exclaimed: "You're still smart, I'll tell you, it's no big deal to get a poster, but I've figured out all the partners of her concert in New York this time. When she came to North America for a tour, she cooperated deeply with the Chinese Chamber of Commerce in the United States. It is said that there is a vice president in the Chinese Chamber of Commerce who is a friend of her father."

After speaking, Jamura added: "All her promotional materials printing and production are entrusted to a Chinese printer in New York who is also a member of the Chamber of Commerce. Unfortunately, the Fei family has always looked down on this Chinese Chamber of Commerce. I don't have much interaction with them either, I'll find a way to see if I can find the Chamber of Commerce, and find a chance to get to know her, and if it can create a suitable opportunity for you, it would be great!"

Qiao Feiyun hurriedly offered advice: "Master Fei, to tell you the truth, I did a lot of homework on the plane just now, and I found that this Stefanie sun seems to be very keen on doing charity, and is especially keen on charity projects related to orphans. She sang before. Yes, the relevant income seems to be donated to orphans, so I have a solution, you may as well listen to it."

Jamura said excitedly, "Come on!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4349 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4349)

Seeing that he had successfully attracted Jamura's interest, Qiao Feiyun respectfully introduced: "My idea is that you will take the lead in cooperating with the Chinese Chamber of Commerce and hold a charity fundraising dinner in New York. You can first give 20 million yuan. As part of the donation, it was announced that the money would be used exclusively for the establishment of a charitable fund."

Jamura nodded, then shook his fingers slightly, and said, "Go on!"

Qiao Feiyun continued: "When you publicize it, you say that this charity fund will be used to improve the living and educational conditions of all Chinese orphans in North America. Although I don't know if the Chinese Chamber of Commerce is interested in this kind of charitable activities, but after all, you It's the young master of the Fei family, you can find the Chinese Chamber of Commerce to cooperate, they will be flattered, and even if they don't want to do charity, they will definitely cooperate with you actively, so there will be no problem with the whole plan here."

"Well, it makes sense." Jamura nodded slightly in agreement, and asked, "And then?"

Qiao Feiyun said: "Then you can set a time for the dinner to start with the Chinese Chamber of Commerce, for example, just after Stefanie sun comes to New York and before the concert in New York, so as to ensure that Stefanie sun is in New York at that time, and there is a high probability that he can spare time. join;"

"I speculate that the Chinese Chamber of Commerce is now busy with the promotion and connection of Stefanie sun's concert, but they dare not neglect you, so the two things will definitely be at the highest level by then;"

"So, in the process of connecting with them, you can easily hear from them about Stefanie sun's concert;"

“When the time comes, go ahead and tell the Chinese Chamber of Commerce and say that Miss sun is the light of the Chinese. If she can appreciate her face, her influence on the auction will definitely be greatly improved. If she can appreciate her face, you will recognize her more. Donate 20 million US dollars, and when Stefanie sun finds out, there is a high probability that he will be rewarded!”

Having said this, Qiao Feiyun said again: “Since you initiated this charity dinner, the location will naturally be designated by you. In this way, we will have enough time to prepare on the venue, which means that we can dig one in advance. Wanquan’s trap, as long as we can lure Stefanie sun out, it will be easier to deal with her!”

Jamura’s eyes lit up when he heard this!

He said with admiration on his face: “What a way to lead a snake out of a hole, wonderful!”

After that, he hurriedly asked again: “Feiyun, how likely do you think she is to be fooled?”

Qiao Feiyun thought for a while and said seriously, “I think at least 90%!”

Jamura asked, “Why are you so sure?”

Qiao Feiyun explained: “Young Master Fei, Stefanie sun is passionate about charity, so let’s hold a charity dinner, isn’t that just doing what you want? Besides, charity itself is a bit of a moral kidnapping effect on public figures. You Usually, there are few donations, and netizens will criticize you on the Internet. If you don’t even go to the charity dinner, you won’t be scolded to death? I believe that Stefanie sun will probably agree to this matter.”

Hearing this, Jamura nodded with joy and said: “It makes sense, it does make sense! Then I will communicate with the Chinese Chamber of Commerce tomorrow to settle the charity dinner!”

Qiao Feiyun instructed: “Master Fei, once this matter is finalized, we must immediately launch a public opinion offensive, and let all North American Chinese know about this charity dinner. In this way, if Stefanie sun intended to refuse, the influence of the charity dinner would also be affected. Will put more pressure on her!”

Jamura said approvingly, “Yunfei, it has to be you! If you say that, I’m so fu*king enlightened!”

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4350 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4350)

Qiao Feiyun said with a smile: "Young Master Fei, you are very polite, I am also Xiaoqing, I can't compare with you."

Jamura laughed and asked again, "If Stefanie sun agrees to attend the charity dinner, what should we do?"

Qiao Feiyun said: "This is much simpler. After Stefanie sun arrives, we can arrange for her to go to the rest room first. The rest room should be near the window as much as possible, and there should be ventilation ducts. I will arrange for some well-trained armed personnel to ambush in advance. , and when she entered the lounge, she directly put the person down with the drug, and then took it away from the window or the ventilation duct, without knowing it;"

"When other people find out that she is missing, it will inevitably cause confusion. You can go through the police process as normal. If the police come to investigate, you will ask three questions, and insist that there may be a plan by the gangster for a long time. Let the police investigate the rest themselves. Bar!"

Having said that, Qiao Feiyun continued: "At that time, I will let people leave some evidence and clues that interfere with the police, disguise this matter as an ordinary kidnapping and extortion, and then ask Stefanie sun's family a huge ransom to make everyone's judgment. Lead to Tucui, so that no one will suspect you, after all, the Fei family has much more assets than the sun family, and no one will believe that you will kidnap Stefanie sun for ransom."

Speaking of this, Qiao Feiyun said again: "Of course, I will definitely do a full set of dramas, and I will arrange for someone to contact the sun family about the ransom. It would be best if the ransom can be successfully obtained, but it doesn't matter if you can't get it. I will keep the backhand, so that if these people fail, they will die without leaving any clues to the police."

"In this case, tearing up the tickets after we get the money is the normal operation of the robbers; tearing up the tickets if we don't get the money is also the normal operation of the robbers; at that time, Stefanie sun may have been destroyed, and no one will be able to find it in this life. She, this case will inevitably become an unsolved case, even if it has been followed for decades, it will still be an unsolved case."

Jamura couldn't help laughing and said, "Fantastic! In this way, Stefanie sun will disappear forever, leaving the police with such an unsolved kidnapping case, which may be discussed by netizens around the world for decades, or even listed as a The top ten unsolved cases of the 21st century, it is very interesting to think about!"

After finishing speaking, Jamura remembered something and said again: "By the way, Feiyun, if she doesn't take the bait on the charity dinner, what will she do then?"

Qiao Feiyun hurriedly said: "Master Fei, there must be many plans, this is just one of them, if Stefanie sun doesn't take the bait, then we must have other alternatives, but I don't have any good ideas for other plans yet. , I am afraid that other plans will be very difficult to implement."

Speaking of this, Qiao Feiyun said again: "There are only a few opportunities for us to start, one is to do it on the road, the other is to do it in the hotel;"

"If you do it on the road, the movement will be the biggest. Considering that she must have a lot of security personnel accompanying her, it will inevitably lead to a shootout. We must at least be equipped with a large number of automatic weapons to be successful, and the difficulty should be much greater than robbing a cash truck. ;"

"If you do it in a hotel, you have to do it quietly. It's best to take people away without knowing it under the nose of the security guards..."

Speaking of this, Qiao Feiyun smacked his lips and said, "It's just that this kind of thing is too technically demanding... It seems that ordinary people can't do it..."

Jamura frowned slightly and asked, "Would you like to try Japanese ninjas? They seem to be the best at things like stealing chickens and dogs!"
