

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4405 ( The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4405 )

The bodyguard's words made Qiao Feiyun panic.

He subconsciously asked: "Who are the dead?!" The bodyguard shook his head and said, "This is not clear."

After that, he didn't bother to talk to Qiao Feiyun and left in a hurry.

Qiao Feiyun's brain revolved subconsciously, and he thought to himself: "Jamura actually disappeared, who did this? What happened to those Iga ninjas? Could they be the ones who died?"

To Qiao Feiyun In other words, he never thought that the eight Iga ninjas he had found would attack Jamura.

Therefore, he speculated in his heart that Jamura was most likely kidnapped by other enemies.

Qiao Feiyun has done a lot of unfortunate things in his life, but Jamura's disappearance, he can swear to the world with a pat on his chest, and he has absolutely nothing to do with him.

It is rare for him to encounter anything, and he can have a clear conscience like this.

Therefore, he was not worried at all that Jamura's disappearance would have anything to do with him. The only worry was that if something happened to Jamura, he might temporarily lose his protection.

In that case, if the murderer who killed his younger brother is still chasing him, he may be in big trouble.

However, Qiao Feiyun thought about it and felt that he should not be too worried for the time being.

After all, he was living in the Fei's house right now, and he was safe these days, which proved that the other party hadn't been able to find out the Fei's house, and he was still safe.

Therefore, what I have to do next is to continue to spend as much time as possible in Fei's house, regardless of whether Jamura can come back safely or not.

This is not difficult for Qiao Feiyun, because Jamura arranged him in the villa that the Fei family had moved out of, and the villa has been idle, so as long as he stays in it, the Fei family probably will not pay attention to it. to him.

It doesn't matter if he pays attention, he can tell the Fei family in an open and honest way that he is a friend of Jamura, and the Fei family will not drive him out if he wants to come.

Thinking of this, Qiao Feiyun's mentality calmed down a little.

and at the same time, the Fei Family Palace Hotel.

The New York police have gathered all the staff in the banquet hall.

Li Yalin concluded that there must be a Japanese ninja's internal response among them, and the most urgent task now is to find this internal response.

And Li Yalin's method is also very simple and rude. He did not follow the normal process and first called the person in charge Weston to understand the situation, but regarded Weston as one of the suspects, and together with other staff, all gathered into the crowd.

In this way, he doesn't have to listen to anyone's side words, and directly find out the problem from the crowd.

Li Yalin's approach is to ask his police officers to take a few high-definition frontal photos of each person. Then, he asks him to pick out one of these people and take him to the next room, and ask him to look at all the photos. , asked him if there were any people he had seen today, but who were not there now.

If the other party says no, he will be temporarily taken to the corner, guarded by the police, and he is not allowed to communicate with anyone. In this way, it is guaranteed that he cannot collude with others.

The dozen people who were asked at the beginning were all regular employees of the Royal Palace Hotel, and when Weston arranged for Kazuo Hattori and the others to come in, he also intentionally told them not to have any contact with the old employees, so these old employees did not see the scene. Eight people are missing.

Soon, it was the turn of a temporary worker who had just been hired to help today.

This temporary worker is a young Chinese. He was originally an international student in an ordinary university in New York. His family sent him to study abroad. He hoped that he could achieve something. They were all immersed in the wild and intoxicated and couldn't extricate themselves. When he came back, he simply squandered all the tuition that his parents sent to him.

Because he couldn't pay the tuition, he was expelled from the school logically.

According to the US student visa policy, once expelled from the school, the visa will become invalid. In this case, according to the normal process, you can only leave the United States first and then find a way.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4406 ( The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4406 )

However, the young man had no face to go home to face his parents, so he went dark in New York.

It is not easy to be a black household. He has no fixed job or fixed residence. In order to survive, he usually hangs out in an Internet cafe in Chinatown every day. Casual workers earn living expenses.

Once the income of the power trainer is not enough, he will come out to find a daily casual job to do it, earn enough money to continue diving into the Internet cafe, and come out to work when he has no money.

At this time, he was standing in the conference room with the others, waiting for the police to question them one by one.

However, he was especially nervous at this time, because he was different from others. His visa had long since been invalidated, and now he belongs to the category of illegal immigrants. Once discovered by the police, he would definitely be handed over to the Immigration Bureau, and the Immigration Bureau treated him like this Black households, there is only one solution, and that is deportation.

Uneasy, he wanted to ask those who had been questioned and brought back by the police, and asked them whether they checked their ID documents when the police were questioning them.

However, all those who had been questioned were taken to another corner by the police, so he had no chance to ask.

At this time, a policeman came to him and said, "Come with me."

The young man did not dare to disobey, and quickly followed the police out of the conference room to the next room.

As soon as he entered the next room, he saw Li Yalin, who was also Chinese.

Seeing him, Li Yalin smiled slightly, pointed to the single sofa in front of him, and said with a smile, "Come on, young man, sit down." The young man nodded nervously and sat down opposite him nervously.

Seeing that his nervous forehead was full of sweat, his fingers and calf kept shaking, Li Yalin asked casually, "Young man, what's your name?" The young man said nervously, "I...my name is Grayson... "

Grayson..." Li Yalin said with a smile: "You should be an illegal immigrant, right?"

Grayson's face turned pale in fright, and he asked hesitantly, "You... how... how do you know..."

Li Yalin said with a smile: "To tell you the truth, the case I'm going to investigate today is very big, and it's definitely not done by ordinary people. With such a poor psychological quality, you definitely can't be their accomplice, so the reason you're so nervous can only be a ghost in your heart."

After speaking, Li Yalin said again: "I see that your face is swollen and the bags under your eyes are more serious than that of a middle-aged and elderly person like me. At first glance, you are a person who often stays up late and has an irregular work and rest time. Those who work here have a very short work and rest time. It's regular, so the only explanation is that you shouldn't be a regular employee here, and most of your time work and rest are irregular, the reason why you're here is probably just taking a part-time job and earning some living expenses, right?"

Hearing this, Grayson felt even more nervous. He didn't dare to answer at will, because he was afraid that Li Yalin was deliberately deceiving himself.

Seeing that he didn't say a word, Li Yalin smiled slightly and continued: "There are ghosts in my heart, irregular work and rest, and I have to work part-time to make money. All in all, it must be an illegal immigrant. It doesn't matter if you don't admit it, I just need to call the immigration bureau. , let them send two detectives here, they can check all your identity information, if you are not an illegal immigrant, they will not embarrass you, but if you are an illegal immigrant, then they must I will send you back to China without hesitation."

Grayson was frightened to death by his words, and he couldn't help choking: "Please...don't send me back to China...if I go back like this, my dad will kill me... ..."

Li Yalin nodded and said with a smile: "Don't worry, I said just now, I'm here to investigate a big case, and I don't need the inspector to go out in person to arrest an illegal immigrant like you."

As he said that, he threw a cell phone in front of Grayson and said, "Take a good look at the photos here, and then think about everyone you have seen since you came here today, and then tell me, is there anyone missing? If you cooperate well, then I will not only let you go, but I may also give you some cash in return.”

Hearing this, Grayson took the phone over without hesitation, and then immediately look through the photos inside.

As he flipped through it, he muttered: “I have never seen many people here...”

Li Yalin urged: “You don’t need to worry about the ones you haven’t seen, you only need to worry about the ones you’ve seen but not here. ”

Grayson nodded quickly, and after looking through all the photos, he said with some doubts: “Hey...the little Japanese who came with me don’t seem to be here!”

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4407 ( The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4407 )

Li Yalin was instantly refreshed and looked at him quickly and asked, “What’s the matter with the little Japanese?”

Grayson didn’t dare to delay, and hurriedly said: “I was hired by the hotel as a temporary worker, and I was in the same group as me. There are more than a dozen temporary workers in total, and there are several Japanese among them, but they are not in these photos!”

Li Yalin asked, “What do the Japanese people you mentioned look like? What are their characteristics?”

Grayson After thinking for a moment, he said: “Well, it looks like the public face of ordinary people. As for the characteristics, I feel that their expressions are more serious and unsmiling, and they never speak, only use eye contact, sneaky, At first glance, it’s not a good thing.”

Li Yalin asked in surprise: “They don’t talk, how do you know they are Japanese?”

Grayson said: “On the way here, I accidentally saw one of them’s mobile phone screen, his mobile phone It’s in Japanese.”

Li Yalin asked again, “Have you had any encounters after you arrived at the hotel?”

“No.” Grayson replied, “After we arrived at the hotel, we were assigned to help in the back kitchen. But then they A few were assigned different jobs, and then left the kitchen together.”

Li Yalin continued to ask: "Then let me ask you, who was the one who hired you? Who was the one who assigned you jobs? Who are the Japanese assigned to work?"

Grayson hurriedly said: "It was Manager Weston who recruited us, but I don't know what his specific name is Weston, but he assigned us the work of the back kitchen, He also assigned other jobs to those Japanese people in the middle."

Li Yalin took out the employee roster of the hotel, found the page of Weston, handed it to Grayson, and asked, "Is it him?"

Grayson read it. Glancing at the photos in the employee handbook, he immediately concluded, "That's right, it's him!"

Li Yalin nodded with satisfaction. In his opinion, the breakthrough point has been found.

So he said to Grayson, "You did a good job."

After speaking, he took out his wallet from his pocket, took out 500 US dollars in cash and handed it to Grayson, saying: "You take this money first, if you have any questions that need to be consulted, I will contact you again. Grayson was flattered and took the cash, and asked subconsciously, "

Detective Li...I...I don't need to go to the police station anymore?"

Li Yalin knew what Grayson was worried about, nodded and said, "Don't worry, wait for today's affairs." After the end, you will be asked to leave, but before you leave, you must leave a contact information for the police officer, whether it is a phone call, WhatsApp in the United States, WeChat or email in China."

Grayson was overjoyed. He quickly said, "Don't worry, I'll leave my WeChat account..."

"Okay." Li Yalin nodded, and then had Grayson be taken away, and then ordered, "Bring Manager from the hotel banquet hall. "

At this moment, Weston stood in the crowd extremely nervous.

After he learned the news that Jamura had been kidnapped and disappeared in the banquet hall, he was completely frightened.

He never dreamed of those Japanese people, but his real target was his own young master.

Now that the young master has disappeared, he himself has become an accomplice.

And he didn't dare to confess these situations to the police or to yogi.

Because the lives of his family, his wife, children, and children are all in the hands of the Japanese.

It doesn't matter if you die, if you can't change their lives back, what's the point of living by yourself?

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4408 ( The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4408 )

Just when he was uneasy, a police officer came to him and asked, "Are you Weston?"

Weston nodded and said in a panic, "Yes...it's me..."

Then The police officer waved at him and said coldly, "Come with me."

Weston was even more flustered in his heart, but at this moment he had no other choice but to take heavy steps and followed the policeman to Li Yalin's temporary office next door.

As soon as he entered the door, Weston trembled in fright.

He had heard of Li Yalin's reputation for a long time, so he was afraid of being seen by Li Yalin.

So, he came to Li Yalin timidly and stammered: "Li... Li... Inspector Li... Hello..."

Li Yalin stared at him, and suddenly asked in a cold voice: " Weston! I ask you! Why did you collude with the Japanese ninjas and kidnap the young master of your Fei family?"

Li Yalin's sudden anger made Weston terrified. ...I really didn't..."

Li Yalin said coldly: "You still lie?! You recruited those Japanese ninjas! If you just recruited them, I guess I can still believe that you made an unintentional mistake. After recruiting them and arranging them to the location of the incident, this is clearly a premeditated plan! So you are their inner responder!"

Weston was still stubbornly resisting, shaking his head repeatedly: "It's not me... I didn't... I don't know any Japanese ninjas at all..."

Li Yalin looked at his forehead and cheeks, and the beads of sweat were dripping one after another, and sneered: "Weston, it's okay for you to argue with me, but I want to warn you. , if you don't cooperate with me well, then I will feed back the information I have now to yogi. The person who disappeared tonight is yogi's son. I don't need to remind you about this, right? Do you think he knows After this, what will I do with you?" When

Weston heard this, his psychological defense line collapsed instantly, he knelt down in front of Li Yalin, and cried and said, "Inspector Li, I have difficulties, Inspector Li. ...It was the Japanese who kidnapped my family, my wife, children, and children, and said that if I didn't obey their orders, they would kill all of my wife, children, and children, and they also killed a nanny in my family to force me into submission! I was also forced to resignedly....."

Speaking of which, Weston looked at Li Yalin and choked: "Inspector Li, I know I'm guilty, I should be damned, even if the eldest young master wants my life, I have nothing to say... I just ask you to save me. Save my family of seven, they are innocent..."

From the moment Weston came in, Li Yalin guessed from his uneasy expression that he would definitely not be an accomplice in this matter.

After all, those ninjas acted in a ruthless manner, so how could they cooperate with ordinary people like him with extremely poor psychological quality.

The only possibility is that they coerced Weston.

Therefore, he did not doubt Weston's words at all.

So he said to Weston: "Weston, if you want to save your wife, children, and children, you must tell me everything you know, including when and where these people will meet you. What did you say, what information did you leave behind!"

In Li Yalin's opinion, he urgently needs to find the video data of those Japanese ninjas. He must first master the facial features of these ninjas before he can catch them. My time is very tight, and if I don't speed up, these ninjas may be smuggled out of the country!

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4409 ( The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4409 )

In Li Yalin's view, the surveillance records of passive hands and feet are only within the hotel, but Weston's contact with Japanese ninjas outside the hotel must be difficult to avoid all municipal surveillance.

Therefore, as long as Weston can provide the time and place of his contact with the ninja outside the hotel, Li Yalin can find out the video data of these people.

Just when Li Yalin mobilized the police and looked for video data based on Weston's confession, Charlie had already left the Wangfu Hotel with Stefanie Sun, Zuri, and Arman.

Considering that the charity dinner was soaked in soup and the dinner suddenly disappeared, Charlie suggested that everyone find a place to have dinner first.

He believed that Arman must have something to say to him.

Moreover, he also wanted to hear what advice Arman had in the future.

And Arman did have a lot of questions he wanted to ask Charlie, and Charlie asked the Japanese ninjas to tie up the young master of the Fei family today. This matter was not a joke. Disaster.

So, he suggested, "Why don't you go to my place. Although the food is a little rough, it's better to speak easily."

Charlie naturally had no objection, so he looked at Stefanie Sun, who smiled and said: "Uncle Arman's roast goose is the best, I haven't had enough!"

Charlie smiled and waved: "Go, go to Chinatown!" The four of them, escorted by bodyguards, came all the way to Chinatown. At this time, Arman's shop was closed and the guy had already closed the door, so Arman invited Charlie and the others to the second floor, and went to prepare the meals himself.

At this time, Charlie also received the feedback from Abbas, Kazuo Hattori and others, as well as Jamura of the Fei family, are now under his control.

Charlie instructed him to control all these nine people and not let them have any contact with the outside world.

At the same time, he instructed Abbas to transfer more people to the Fei family's property, because he believed that Qiao Feiyun was hiding in the Fei family now.

It's just that the Fei family is too big and the defense is tight. For Wanlong Palace, it's easy to get in, but if you want to sneak in and find Qiao Feiyun, it's almost impossible.

Once the movement is too loud, the Wanlong Palace will inevitably reveal its whereabouts.

This time, Charlie didn't want to expose Wanlong Palace directly. If Wanlong Palace is exposed now, when he comes to the United States to compete with the Rothschild family in the future, there will be one less trump card to catch the opponent by surprise.

The best solution is to set up a net around Fei's house and wait for that bastard Qiao Feiyun to get in by himself!

Ten minutes later, Arman walked upstairs with the food.

After preparing the meal, Arman greeted everyone to eat, and after everyone sat down, he looked at Charlie, lowered his voice and asked, "Master Wade, I don't quite understand something, why are those Japanese ninjas so afraid You?"

charlie smiled and said, "Have you heard about the wade family's vengeance by the Wanlong Palace some time ago?"

Arman nodded and said, "I only heard about it after the fact, they said that the wade family Only by giving half of the assets to Wanlong Palace can be considered to have escaped the catastrophe, so when I saw you today, I never mentioned this matter."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4410 ( The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4410 )

charlie waved his hand and said casually, "This is just a rumor that I deliberately released. That's all, the real situation is quite the opposite. Not only did the wade family not transfer half of the assets to Wanlong Palace, but Wanlong Palace allegiance to me. I just didn't want the wade family tree to attract the wind. That's why this rumor came about."

Arman was stunned . , charlie didn't tell him this before, so he couldn't believe his ears.

The famous Wanlong Palace is now under the command of charlie. This is definitely a great supplement to the strength of the wade family. Even though the assets of the Fei family are hundreds of billions of dollars, it is impossible for them to set up. A mercenary armed with the size of Wanlong Palace.

At this time, charlie said again: "As for the ninjas today, they are all under the command of a friend of mine in Japan. They had seen me on Yeling Mountain, so they were afraid."

Arman used it for a long time . Only after digesting what charlie said, he couldn't help sighing: "Master Wade, with your current strength, the wade family may be ranked first in the entire East Asia and Southeast Asia!"

charlie smiled slightly , opened the mouth and said: "It is not enough to be the first in East Asia and Southeast Asia. The Saudi royal family in West Asia is second only to the Rothschild family in the world. If the wade family wants to become the first in Asia, it must surpass the Saudi family. If the Udi royal family wants to become the number one in the world, it must surpass the Rothschild family, and there is still a long way to go.”

Arman nodded and said with emotion: “I believe, with Young Master Wade, you It is only a matter of time for the wade family to stand on top of the world.”

charlie smiled lightly, “I hope this time can be as short as possible.”

Arman couldn't help but admire charlie.

Before, he didn't believe that charlie could make the wade family stand on top of the world, but now, looking at charlie's calm and self-confidence, he suddenly felt that it was not impossible.

This reminded him of charlie's father, bruce.

Even when bruce was at its peak, he only dared to regard this goal as a kind of beautiful vision, and never dared to imagine that it would be realized one day.

However, charlie, who was in his twenties, had already begun to chase after this goal.

While feeling emotional, he couldn't help but ask: “Master Wade, what are your plans for that Jamura? This person is a time bomb. A little carelessness may cause huge side effects.”

charlie sneered With a sigh, he opened his mouth and said: “Uncle Arman, don't worry, not to mention Jamura, even yogi and Zaki, I don't care about it, it's a big deal to take Zaki, yogi and Jamura all of them. Abolish it, and then bring Mr. Jian back to become the head of the Fei family again.”

Arman asked in astonishment: “Master Wade... Do you know the whereabouts of Mr. Jian?! The Fei family has been looking for him like crazy! For Zaki, Mr. Fei will not die in a day. It's not safe to be the head of the family!”

charlie said with a smile: “Jian and his granddaughter Fei Kexin were all arranged by me. Originally, I just gave Fei Kexin a favor to save her grandson and grandson. It's only a matter of life, and I didn't want to help them return to the Fei family, but since the Fei family has become a bastard like Jamura, and hit the head of Stefanie and Lisa, then I have to re-evaluate this matter. Let's go.

” After speaking, charlie said again: “I don't think that yogi today is a fuel-efficient lamp. This person may not be very capable, but his temper is really not small. I have a hunch that he will not stop there, maybe If he doesn't know the good and bad, then I will deal with him too, and then let Mr. Fei chat with Zaki.”

Arman nodded and said, "yogi is a scumbag. After so many years, there is nothing to achieve, but Zaki still has some skills, otherwise he would not have seized the opportunity to usurp Mr. Fei's position."

After speaking, Arman said: "If Mr. Fei can come back to deal with him, it is true. It can have the effect of turning a thousand jins in four or two. Mr. Fei was in China, and his own son was swayed by his own son. He must have wanted to make a comeback. Once he seized the opportunity, with his style of behavior, he would never give Zaki a retreat. ."

charlie shook his head and said, "If he just doesn't give Zaki a way out, it's not enough. If I let him come back, he must not leave a way out for Zaki's family!"
