

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4433 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4433)

Hearing Asher's judgment, Li Yalin said with a wry smile: "I think the same as you, in New York, there are not many people who can move the Fei family. Including Rothschild and you Anjia, at most four or five families have this. Strength, but this time, the gameplay of these people is not like the style of any of you."

"Indeed." Asher said in agreement: "This kind of gameplay is not something that a few big families can do. When I look at this way, it is very wild and wild."

"Do you think so too?" Li Yalin sighed: "I once thought that it might be a new gang. Generally, new gangs have to do something earth-shattering if they want to be successful. It's a big deal, but thinking about it carefully, it doesn't seem quite right. If any gang plays like this, it's basically a dead end, and no gang can compete with the strength of the Fei family."

Asher said in agreement: "And I can Certainly, these people are not for money. If they are really for money, they will not offer such exaggerated conditions as a ransom of 200 billion US dollars. This is basically equivalent to kidnapping a few passers-by in New York and then going to the American government to ask for an entire aircraft carrier fleet. It 's just as unrealistic."

Li Yalin nodded: "It's not for money, it's even more bizarre."

After speaking, he asked Asher, "Asher, have you watched those few videos that are hot on the Internet? "

Asher nodded: "Look."

Li Yalin frowned: "I don't know why, I always feel that there is a bit of evil in it! It's very evil! The two videos are one after the other. The Fei family was suppressed by public opinion, but in the end, the Fei family seized the opportunity to regain a victory, allowing the Fei family to play a perfect first-suppression and then-yang... But in fact, it gave me the feeling that all this was intentional. In control, I just want to leave such an opportunity for the Fei family to move forward..."

Asher said: "I called you just to remind you of this, and I also think this is very strange! From the video, it seems that the other party is just playing vulgarly and intimidating yogi, and the tactics are also very strange. It was rough, but everything that happened later gave me a feeling, as if this matter was not as rough as it looked on the surface! Not only was it not rough, but it was accurate to the extreme! It was so accurate that he could predict Fei's family in advance. Every step of the way, deliberately using this method to lure the Fei family to the public."

Li Yalin patted his thigh and blurted out: "Yes! That's it! They are fishing! They want to catch the entire Fei family from the deep sea, Let them take the initiative to expose themselves to the attention of the world..." After speaking, he quickly asked: "Asher, what do you think he wants to do?!"

Asher smacked his lips and said, "If they hadn't cut off Jamura I might think that all this is a good play directed and acted by the Fei family, so that the reputation of the Fei family can be rapidly increased, and at the same time, Jamura's reputation can be spread far and wide, and Jamura's reputation will be spread. An unusual basis, think about it, when everyone in the world is looking forward to Jamura's safe return, they will come up with a successful rescue scene, which will make Jamura come out after a thousand calls. The whole world celebrates and cheers for the perfect ending. Jamura has a bright future."

Li Yalin said, "However, they did cut off Jamura's ear! I let people use AI repair technology to maximize the He improved the quality of those videos, enlarged the image of the pair of ears in the video, and compared them with Jamura's previous physical features. It is indeed his ears, there is no mistake!"

"Yes." Asher said solemnly: "It is this point that makes me deny this hypothesis. The Fei family is definitely not the manipulator behind the scenes. The real manipulator is premeditated to draw the Fei family into the spotlight little by little."

Li Yalin asked . : "Let the snake out of the hole, and in front of the whole world, what is this for?"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4434 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4434)

Asher said slowly: "Since the assumption just now does not hold... Then there is only another possibility for the other party's motive."

Li Yalin said: "You mean that the target of this group is not Jamura, but the entire Fei family?!"

"That's right!" Asher said excitedly: "We can really think of going together!"

Li Yalin sighed: "But I still don't quite understand why the Fei family is attracted to the spotlight, do they want to be in front of the whole family? From the world's side, attack the Fei family?! That would be too arrogant, the whole world will not forgive them, and by then, they will definitely become public enemies of the whole people! "Unless...unless they have absolute certainty that they can completely reverse the current situation!"

Speaking, Asher's rare expression became a little frightened, and he blurted out: "I see! This must be a public execution!"

"Public execution Execution..." Li Yalin muttered and repeated, his eyes suddenly lit up, and he blurted out: "I understand! If you follow your inference, that mysterious person must have mastered the huge scandal of the Fei family, and even once this scandal is exposed, the whole I am afraid that the Fei family will suffer a devastating blow! And they deliberately used this method to attract the Fei family to the spotlight of the whole world, just to make the Fei family doomed!"

Asher nodded and said solemnly: "That's right. I guess that's what happened!"

Li Yalin said with a horrified expression: "Then this is really a public execution... It was first lowered, then raised, and then slammed down..."

Speaking of which, Li Yalin tapped the table repeatedly, muttering in his mouth Said: "What is it, to have such great ability... Could it be... Could it be that the old man of the Fei family has come back to seize power?!"

Asher was about to speak, but Li Yalin quickly shook his head: "No! The old man Fei is even back. , it is impossible to attack his great-grandson, and the old man of the Fei family has been completely overthrown, it is impossible to have a mysterious power..."

Seeing that his friend was puzzled, Asher couldn't help laughing: "It seems that you There are times when this Chinese detective can't figure it out."

Li Yalin said with a wry smile: "The main thing is really contrary to common sense. If the other party is really so strong, we can't have heard of it. In today's society, how can someone keep calm. The accumulation of such a powerful force?"

Asher smiled bitterly and said, "Yalin, many things... are indeed contrary to common sense. In other words, we are actually ignorant..."

He looked at Li Yalin and asked, "Do you believe it or not? , there is a kind of medicine in this world, it is as big as a quail egg, but it can't be bought for 300 billion dollars?"

Li Yalin was dumbfounded and blurted out: "What did you say?! A medicine for 300 billion dollars?! Did I hear it right?"

Asher nodded firmly: "Yes! You heard right, it's 300 billion!"

Li Yalin frowned and said, "Could it be a targeted drug that can cure cancer, sold together with a patent Three hundred billion? But that's too expensive..."

Asher said with a smile: "It's still a patent... You think beautifully! Just a Chinese patent pill, spending three hundred billion dollars just to buy that pill, not only will they not give you the formula, but they will not even allow you to take it away. If you buy it on the spot, you must eat it on the spot."

"F*ck..." Li Yalin slurred and pouted, "F*cking crazy, that's all. Dare to sell $300 billion? It's even more ruthless than these kidnappers! Which idiot would buy it at such an expensive price?"

The words Li Yalin blurted out made Asher's face darken.

However, he calmly picked up the wine glass and took a sip before smacking his lips and saying lightly, "The fool you said is me."

Li Yalin looked at him in a stunned manner, and blurted out, "Grass! What's the situation? Are you being deceived by people?"

"No." Asher waved his hand and laughed at himself: "You are still being deceived, I'm offering a f*cking price of $370 billion, and I wish I could kneel down on the spot, but they didn't sell it to me, and they kicked me out of the auction venue."

Li Yalin felt that his three views had been subverted, and subconsciously asked: "What kind of medicine... ..can you ask for 370 billion US dollars? What is the concept of 300 billion... Alibaba's market value today is only 292.8 billion US dollars, that is to say, if you put the whole Alibaba into it, you can't get one. Medicine?!"

Asher said very seriously: "I can't change it, if I could, I would have changed it a long time ago. I am not An An when I frowned."

After that, Asher looked at Li Yalin and asked curiously. "You are a policeman, why are you so obsessed with stocks? How about investing in stocks?"

Li Yalin sneered and shook his hands: "Don't f*cking mention it, I have some savings on hand, I bought all the stocks of this company, and up to now, I have lost more than half of it. Son."

Asher scolded: "F*ck, tell me about the stock market, I will give you some news, whether you are short or long, you are guaranteed to earn several times the profit!"

Li Yalin earnestly said: "You know mine, I don't have much money, and I have nowhere to go if I have a lot of righteousness. Besides, I'm a federal police officer. If I still rely on inside information to invest in stocks, then I know the law and break the law, and the FBI will investigate me."

"Yes." Asher shook his head and sighed: "I told you a long time ago, don't be a police officer, it doesn't make sense, you just don't listen."

Li Yalin waved his hand: "Don't talk about me, let's talk about you. What kind of medicine, what kind of medicine is it, can it be worth 300 billion dollars?"

Asher said with a somewhat fascinated expression: "That's a magical medicine that can cure all diseases of the body, make dead trees bloom, and turn back time by twenty years..."

Li Yalin frowned: "Which With such a wonderful thing, have you watched a lot of movies?"

Asher smiled and said, "You haven't seen it with your own eyes, so no matter what I say, you won't believe it, but when you see its effect with your own eyes, You'll be on the ground like me." With that said, Asher recounted to Li Yalin what he saw at the Pill auction that day.

Li Yalin was dumbfounded after hearing this, and blurted out: "It's f*cking unbelievable... There is such a magical thing in this world, so magical that I can't imagine that it can be related to any scientific basis. I feel like I read it in the United States. So many books have been read in vain."

Asher smiled: "So I said just now that many things we think are unlikely, maybe it's not the problem itself, but we don't know enough."

Li Yalin sighed, said: "If there is such a medicine, my old man may be able to live a few more years, but it is useless, and I can't afford this medicine."

After speaking, he remembered something, looked at Asher, and asked: "Why do you want to buy this thing? Who is it for?"

Asher sighed softly: "I bought it for the old man, his symptoms of Alzheimer's disease are getting worse now."

"Alzheimer's disease Silence?" Li Yalin blurted out: "It's Alzheimer's, right?! When did Uncle An get this disease?"

Asher said with emotion: "I have been ill for more than two years. Sometimes when you just put things down, you can't remember where you put them in a blink of an eye; what you just said, you forget in a blink of an eye, and then say it again; I'll ask you again..."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4436 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4436)

“At that time, we had already let the best experts intervene, and took him to do some systematic training to fight the disease, but the cause of this disease is the functional decline of the brain, so there is no effective medical treatment. After that, his condition continued to deteriorate.”

Speaking of this, Asher said with a wry smile: “You say this disease is f*cking weird. The lighter I remember, the old man’s condition developed to the point that the last four or five years were completely blank. My son had given birth to him a great-grandson, but he always felt that my son was not married, and every time he saw him, he urged him to ask for it. Hurry up to get married, and then his condition continued to deteriorate. I can’t remember anything in the past ten years. I don’t know my son again, because in his memory, my son is in the state of the young man ten years ago...”

Li Yalin listened . When I got here, I couldn’t help but sighed: “Uncle An is a hero among Chinese people all over the world. He is tough and strong all his life. For him to have this kind of disease, it is really a great torture...”

Asher covered his face and took a deep breath. He breathed, and then said with some red eyes: “His condition has been deteriorating, his memory has degenerated from three to five years to ten years, and half a year ago to almost twenty years ago...”

Asher was silent for a while. When I got up, tears could not help but well up in my eyes.

Li Yalin’s eyes widened and he blurted out: “Asherr, your sister’s affair... It was almost twenty years ago...”

“Yes...” Asher lamented: “His memory is stuck in me now. The time when my sister just passed away was the most painful stage in his life. At that time, he regretted and blamed himself every day and washed his face with tears. When his memory was stuck here, he woke up every day and just Holding the photo of my sister, I secretly wept, and kept saying that I killed my sister, and the whole person’s condition became very bad.”

Li Yalin hurriedly asked: “Is it all right in the past? I mean , When his memory continues to degenerate for a period of time, to the stage where he and your sister were in a cold war before your sister had an accident, wouldn’t it be better for him?”

Asher nodded and said, “I thought the same thing before, but I never thought that in the past six months, he has not experienced memory loss again... Maybe this period of time has hit him too hard, so His memory is stuck here and can’t go through...”

Li Yalin was stunned for a moment, and then he muttered: "Memory stuck at the most painful stage of life... this... this is too f*cking cruel..."

"Yes Ah..." Asher said with red eyes, "It's so f*cking cruel... So for the past six months, basically every day he wakes up, he has to experience the pain of just losing his beloved daughter..."

After speaking, he hammered Hammering his own heart, he gritted his teeth and said, "As a child, seeing my own father live in that kind of extreme pain every day, my heart... it's not a f*cking taste..."

Li Yalin's nose was also a little sore. He couldn't help rubbing it, and asked, "What did the doctor say? Is there any good way? Let's not talk about treatment, even if he gets worse..."

Asher shook his head and said in a sullen voice: "There is nothing the doctor can do, this kind of disease, whether it is good or bad, will not be disturbed by external forces, in the final analysis, this is the old man's own inner demon, and he has not really let go of it for so many years."

Speaking of this, Asher took a sip of wine . , said to Li Yalin: "So you can understand why I am a fool, why am I willing to spend more than 300 billion US dollars to buy that rejuvenation pill... With it, the old man will be relieved..."

Li Yalin did not speak, He filled the wine glass by himself, and then drank it in one gulp. Then he said guiltily: "I'm sorry Asherr, my broken mouth is so f*cking stinky, don't mind."

Asher waved his hand and smiled. "I've known you for so many f*cking years, how can I still know what kind of temper you have?"

Li Yalin nodded and asked him, "Then what are your plans next?"

Asher said, "Come back and relax, after a while. I have to go to Chaina again to see if I can find the owner of the rejuvenation pill, no matter what, I have to ask him for a rejuvenation pill..."

Speaking of this, he let out a long sigh, looked at the almost bottomed wine bottle, and said in a hollow voice: "Even if the old man made all kinds of mistakes back then, adding all the crimes he has suffered in the past six months together can be regarded as a debt. It's over..."
