

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4455 ( The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4455 )

The Iga ninjas who were on the plane to the United States were still feeling a little sad.

Their clan has survived in Japan for hundreds of years, and this is the first time the entire ethnic group has fled from their homeland.

Many people are reluctant to part, and are still looking forward to when they can return to this homeland.

However, they never dreamed that their hometown with hundreds of years of history had been blown up under Charlie's instruction.

The raging fire was still burning frantically, and at this time, the Fei family's masters had suffered heavy casualties, but those injured in the explosion were almost unable to escape, and those who were lucky enough to escape the explosion and the fire were in shock. In the middle, I suddenly found that several helicopters flew around, and on both sides of each helicopter, there were counter-terrorists with live ammunition.

The bodies of these counter-terrorists are suspended on both sides of the helicopter hatch by means of fixed cables, and they are holding powerful assault rifles in their hands.

The funny thing is, when these masters of the Fei family who were lucky enough to escape saw the anti-terrorist troops, the first thought in their hearts was not worry and fear, but a sigh of relief!

Now they feel that they are completely victims.

They had flown all the way from Japan for more than ten hours, and had just arrived there without doing anything when they encountered such a terrifying explosion, which clearly meant that they were attacked.

Moreover, they don't know what ambush these Iga ninjas have done besides planting bombs at home. If these guys still have backers, then they may not be able to escape.

Therefore, when they saw the anti-terrorist troops at this time, their first thought was that they were finally saved!

So, some of these Fei family masters stood up and waved at the helicopter, shouting: "We are here! Come and help us!"

Immediately afterwards, nearly 100 members of the anti-terrorist force quickly descended from the helicopter to the ground by the ropes.

Before the masters of the Fei family could react, the members of the anti-terrorist force aimed their guns at them.

“Everyone is not allowed to move, immediately lie on the ground and raise their hands so that we can see them! No one must resist, or they will be killed!”

The person in charge of the Fei family’s masters shouted loudly, “This is all a misunderstanding, and so do we. The victims, the ones who really planned the explosion were the ninjas of the Iga family!”

The counter-strikes didn’t listen to their explanations at all, they rushed forward and handcuffed them all, and at the same time, in order to prevent them from breaking free, they used very strong of nylon ties, tying their wrists back and forth several times.

Afterwards, a number of special forces cars parked outside the gate of Iga County, and the commander gave an order and brought all these people into the car.

Fei’s masters, there were 130 people when they came, and now there are only less than 30 people left in the car.

Of the remaining 100 or so people, most of them died, and only a few were seriously injured. The scene was terrible.

Subsequently, the spokesperson of the Japanese Homeland Security Department immediately issued an emergency announcement to the outside world, stating that the Homeland Security Department cracked a terrorist attack by an overseas terrorist organization in Iga City tonight.

The heroic special forces rushed to the terrorists to create a large-scale explosion, besieged all the terrorists in a residential house in Iga City, and then the terrorists detonated the bomb, intending to perish with the anti-terrorist troops, but the anti-terrorist troops were experienced and successful. The terrorist attack plan of this terrorist organization was stopped, and the anti-terrorist troops did not have any casualties or civilian casualties during the capture process, which was a great victory.

This news suddenly detonated Japan at night.

Since the last Tokyo chaos, Japan has been calm for a few months, but today there is a new terrorist attack.

However, fortunately, their special forces were brave and good at fighting to avoid the tragedy.

This has indeed made many Japanese people extremely gratified, and it has also greatly improved everyone's impression of the Homeland Security Department.

But there are still many people who don't understand why these terrorists who came from abroad did not target big cities like Tokyo, Osaka, and Nagoya, but instead found a place between Osaka and Nagoya where they didn't shit. Terrorist attack?

This question has also resonated with many people on the Internet.

Everyone really can't figure it out. It feels like a group of well-organized thieves have run thousands of miles to your house. They didn't steal a single thing before, but just took an egg from the chicken coop.

The Japanese security department was busy taking the suspects caught at the scene to Osaka for interrogation at this time, and their person in charge was also immersed in the joy of this turnaround. When he saw more and more doubts on the Internet When I was older, I was a little overwhelmed.

But he didn't get too entangled in this issue. After all, the story was told by people. Anyway, he did arrest a group of foreign forces. The more than 100 people who lived and died were not the actors he hired. The credit can never be erased.

charlie has been paying attention to the public opinion situation on the Japanese side. Seeing the big gift that Bai gave to the Japanese security department, they were a little bit unsure, and for a while they also hated that iron was not steel.

Seeing that the voices of doubts on the Internet were getting louder, and the Japanese land department did not come out to explain further, charlie couldn't help but sweat for them.

So, he immediately called Ito Nanako and told her to help arrange some naval forces, and quickly looked for supplements for Japan's homeland security department.

Soon a voice appeared on the Internet. Someone told netizens online as an insider that in fact, these terrorists just deliberately chose Iga City, a place where birds don't shit as their base. Their real purpose is to After Iga City completed its assembly and completed all preparations, it immediately launched terrorist attacks on two nearby large cities, namely Osaka and Nagoya.

It is precisely because of the early discovery by the Japanese homeland security department that these two large cities were spared.

So from this point of view, Japan's land sector has made great contributions.

As soon as this remark came out, those doubts disappeared immediately.

After all, this statement is justified and well-founded. Iga City, a place where birds don't shit, happens to be sandwiched between these two big cities, and it is indeed reasonable to hide here to premeditate attacks on these two cities.

As a result, there was another overwhelming applause for the Homeland Security Department on the Internet.

At this time, the Homeland Security Department was also very puzzled. They didn't expect such a rhetoric. They didn't expect someone to find such a good solution for them. Isn't this just dozing off and someone passing a pillow?

Therefore, they immediately packaged this set of rhetoric and released it immediately.

This time, the situation was completely stabilized in an instant.

At the same time, the news from Japan also reached the Fei family's ears.

yogi hurriedly ran in front of his father Zaki and said breathlessly, "Dad! Something big happened again!"

Seeing yogi's panicked appearance, Zaki couldn't help frowning and said, "How many times do you want me to tell you about you?! Can you be a little bit more determined! The eldest son of the Fei family, when something happens, he will be in a mess, let outsiders know, Where do you put your face?"

yogi didn't care to explain, he swallowed his saliva, and hurriedly said: "Dad! There's something big in Japan!"

Zaki looked at the time and said, "What's the big deal? It's not long since they reported the progress to me. It stands to reason that they should have just started to touch the Iga ninja's station. What's the big deal? Could it be that they startled the snake?"

"No..." yugi He blurted out: "The Japanese Homeland Security Department released news that a terrorist attack took place in the Iga County Castle where the Iga Ninjas are located. A group of terrorists from abroad intended to cause terrorist attacks in Osaka and Nagoya, and were discovered in advance by the Japanese Homeland Security Department. Because of the explosive bomb, he tried to die with the anti-terrorist troops, and as a result, most of his casualties and injuries were taken, and the rest were arrested!"

Zaki heard this, the first thought was that all the elites he sent out were all elites, and it was definitely impossible for them If something went wrong, most of the so-called casualties must be Iga ninjas.

So, he said angrily: "What's the situation? These guys killed all the Iga ninjas?! These bastards, I told them a long time ago, don't make too much noise in Japan! Thousand! Don't make too much noise in Japan!! Let them take people out of Japan first, and then what are they doing?!"

yugi said without tears: "Dad, you didn't understand, The Japanese Homeland Security Department said that they are foreign terrorists! The dead and injured are also foreign terrorists! This is not the Iga ninja, but our people!"

"What?!" Zaki blurted out as his eyes darkened. : "You mean, most of our people were killed and injured?! How did they die?!"

yugi hurriedly said: "The news said that our people prepared bombs in advance for terrorist attacks, and they detonated the bombs when they were discovered. perish together!"

"F*ck!" Zaki roared furiously: "The people I sent out are all martial arts masters without exception, how could they attack with bombs?! Not to mention that they went to Japan by plane, Even if they have bombs, they can't be brought in by plane, and they can't get bombs in such a short period of time!"

yugi said helplessly: "Dad, that's what the news said, I've already We asked people to contact the people we sent over, and the current situation is that no one can still be contacted! I'm worried that they are really bad luck..."

Zaki grabbed his treasured purple sand pot and ruthlessly He fell to the ground and smashed to pieces, and roared with rage: "Damn it! Is the Iga ninja determined to fight with the Fei family?! This must be a trap set by those bastards! Not only did they kill him! Our people, let our people take the blame! It's outrageous!"

After that, he looked at yugi, gritted his teeth and commanded: "Hurry up and ask people to inquire about the news first, I want to know how our casualties are and how many people died. , How many were injured, how many were caught!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4458 ( The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4458 )

yogi said quickly: "Dad, I contacted the Japanese intelligence personnel and asked them to inquire about the news."

Zaki said again: "Hurry up and erase the gang of them. Archives and exit records, we must not let this matter implicate our Fei family! If the Japanese homeland security department follows their line to touch the Fei's family, we will bite to death and cannot admit it!"

"In addition, since Japan announced our The person here is a terrorist, so he must be ready to frame the blame. We are tens of thousands of kilometers away and beyond our reach, it is impossible for people to come back. So you find a way to give them a message, as long as they don't bite the Fei family out, they will pay 20 million US dollars for each person to settle down!"

yogi said worriedly: "Dad, I am afraid that any of them will not be able to withstand the interrogation. We've been thrown out!"

"Don't worry too much about this." Zaki said coldly: "They are all smart people, and their family members are outside. If they fight against us and make his family pay the price in minutes, they will definitely keep their mouths shut and wait for us. As long as our conditions are satisfactory to them, they will not give us up."

yogi breathed a sigh of relief and asked, "Dad, what about Iga ninjas? They dare to fight with us like this, It seems that he came prepared!"

Zaki sighed, and said angrily: "This matter can only be put on hold for a long time, otherwise once the other party is pressed, they are likely to hurt Haoyang, our top priority is not To deal with Iga ninjas, I will do everything possible to save jamura!"

yogi said worriedly: "Dad, the other party only gave us 48 hours, if we can't take out 200 billion US dollars in cryptocurrency, jamura will It 's dangerous..."

Zaki nodded and gritted his teeth: "Don't worry, if there is really no other way, I can give him 200 billion in cryptocurrency. Although the money is a lot, the Fei family can still afford it! But this Even if he has a life to earn money, he will definitely not spend it!"

At

this moment, Providence, which is more than 200 kilometers away from New York.

charlie sat alone on the sofa in the hotel and casually looked at the time on the phone.

There were less than 24 hours left before the 48-hour time limit he gave the Fei family.

As soon as the final time passed, he would launch a final general attack on the Fei family.

So he started his next phase of deployment.

The first thing charlie did was to let Nanako Ito let out the wind again and tell the public that the bombing of Iga County Castle was inextricably linked with the Iga Ninja. The truth of the matter is that the Iga Ninja and this Helping the terrorists betray them, and according to reliable sources, Iga Ninja has already fled Japan first.

The reason for this was because charlie planned to completely pull the entire Iga ninja into the water.

Once this news is released, the statement that Iga Ninja left Japan ahead of schedule will soon be confirmed.

At that time, everyone will think that Iga Ninja is indeed connected with these terrorists. As a result, Iga Ninja is unlikely to return to Japan in this life.

In addition, charlie also called Ziva Hank.

On the phone, he asked Ziva Hank the location of the cargo ship that was going to Syria to deliver food.

Ziva Hank told him that the freighter was about to pass through Sri Lanka and enter the Arabian Sea, and would enter the Gulf of Aden in a few days.

charlie immediately instructed her: "Ziva , after 24 hours, if you let the freighter break down in place, I will let the person in charge of the Wanlong Palace armed escort contact you."

Ziva Hank didn't know the reason, but he agreed immediately, and then A phone call made the freighter temporarily anchor in the waters off Sri Lanka.

Afterwards, charlie called Abbas again and instructed him: "abbas, the freighter carrying grain will stop in the waters near Sri Lanka after 24 hours. You first arrange for a plane to wait in Colombo, and after the freighter stops , you send a helicopter to take Jian, Fei Kexin and Xion to Colombo, and after they arrive in Colombo, let them fly to New York to see me non-stop."

Wan Pojun said without hesitation: "My subordinates obey."
