

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4461 ( The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4461 )

Hattori Kazuo just finished saying that he would never be wrong to listen to charlie's orders, but he did not expect that charlie turned his face and let Abbas give his family such a foolish task.

Hattori Hanzo's expression was also very embarrassing. At this time, if he publicly announced that he had cooperated with the masters of the Fei family, and was responsible for the terrorist attack that did not occur, wouldn't that mean that he would cut himself off from the Japanese people?

The Japanese people who don't know the truth will definitely scold the Iga ninja, and the reputation of the Iga ninja will never be turned over in this life.

Hattori Kazuo couldn't help but pleaded: "Master abbas... If we really make this statement... The accumulation of our ancestors for hundreds of years will be destroyed... Can you ask Master wade for mercy and let him Leave a way out for our Iga ninjas..."

Abbas said coldly, "Katsuo Hattori, you came to the United States from Japan and tried to kidnap Miss sun, which in itself is a capital crime, now Mr. wade spares your life and gives it back to you. Your clan has an opportunity to go abroad for development. Do you still want to leave behind? What are you going to leave behind? Do you Iga ninjas plan to return to Japan in the future? If you still plan to go back to Japan, why should Mr. wade give you Iga ninjas? This opportunity? You have to know that if Mr. wade hadn't brought your clan to the United States in time, you would have all died last night!"

Hattori Kazuo was suddenly speechless, and Hattori Hanzo choked on the side: "Palace Master abbas ... We Iga ninjas have been passed down for many years and have always been the pride of the Japanese people. If we really let our reputation in Japan be discredited, we are sorry for the ancestors of Iga ninjas!"

Abbas said coldly: "Hatbu Hanzo, Mr. wade can make an exception to give you Iga ninjas a chance. You must take a share of the name certificate. From today, you Iga ninjas must obey Mr. wade's orders wholeheartedly. Japan, you don't plan to go back in this life. If you want to go back, then I can send someone to send you back now, but what the Fei family will do to you next is your own problem."

After that, he pointed to Kazuo Hattori and said coldly: "But Kazuo Hattori, your father and the others can leave, but you and your seven subordinates can't leave. Since you can't accept Mr. wade's conditions, prepare to be punished."

Hattori Kazuo panicked and said without hesitation, "I would like to follow Master wade's lead!"

After speaking, he quickly looked at his father again, and blurted out, "Father! Hurry up and say something! If you don't agree, Yi Even if He Ninja returns to Japan, he will not be reused by the Ito family, and the future is still full of dangers! But if we stay in the United States and wait for Mr. Wade to solve the Fei family, our future will be bright!"

Hattori Hanzo pondered for a moment, Gritting his teeth, he said, "Okay! Iga Ninja, may everything follow Master Wade

's arrangements!" Abbas nodded with satisfaction, and said, "If this is the case, then don't waste time, I have already arranged the room, you guys The two will go shoot the video now."

Ten

minutes later, a video recorded by Hanzo Hattori and Kazuo Hattori personally appeared on the scene and spread on the Internet.

In the video, the father and son are sitting in an empty room. In order to avoid being identified, the room is completely covered with white background paper from the studio. The father and son are sitting here, facing the camera, and telling an amazing truth.

It turned out that the terrorist attack that took place in Iga City last night was jointly planned by them and foreign forces. The explosives in the attack were all provided by Iga ninjas, and they also gave up their Iga County Castle to these terrorists.

But unexpectedly, this incident was known in advance by the Homeland Security Department, and then the Homeland Security Department encircled and suppressed members of foreign forces.

After the father and son explained what happened, they also officially announced that Iga Ninja would be responsible for the incident.

As for the reason why Iga Ninja did this, Hattori Hanzo explained that it was because they were very dissatisfied with the unfair treatment Iga Ninja suffered recently, and decided to make some voices to express their protest.

In addition, Hattori Hanzo did not reveal the true identities of those foreign forces in the video, which was also because Charlie had instructed him.

Although he intends to make Jamura a rat crossing the street, he is not prepared to make the entire Fei family notorious.

After all, in his plan, the Fei family still had to be handed over to Jian to continue operating. If the entire Fei family was tossed to death, even if Mr. Fei took over again in the future, the entire Fei family would become a mess.

In the future, Mr. Fei will probably still have to spend 200 billion US dollars to buy. For this kind of potential big customer, he still has to try his best to keep him more energetic.

As long as Jamura and his father and grandfather are abolished this time, and how they forced Jian out of the Fei family are exposed, Jian can justifiably regain control of the Fei family .

Soon, the video caused a huge reaction on the Internet.

The whole world knows that there was a horrific terrorist attack in a small town in Japan yesterday. Everyone is paying attention to the inside story and the follow-up of this incident. I didn't expect someone to admit it so quickly, and it is the famous Iga ninja in Japan.

Most of the foreign netizens watched the excitement, but the Japanese people could not calm down. In an instant, countless people scolded Iga ninjas online, calling them a shame for Japan.

Some people even suggested that they should search for Iga ninjas throughout Japan, arrest them all and go to jail, and even some right-wing elements called on Japan's largest Yamaguchi-gumi to pursue and kill Iga ninjas, in order to eliminate traitors for Japan.

Hattori Hanzo and Hattori, a man and his son, saw the overwhelming insults on the Internet, and they were so distressed that they almost fainted.

The Japanese Homeland Security Department was also stunned.

Originally, I received a tip and caught a group of people, and I planned to take the opportunity to put a bigger charge on them, in order to save the face they had lost before, but who would have thought that the lie was written and made up, and it turned out to be true.

Now, the most angry are the Fei family.

Seeing the news, Zaki wanted to tear down the house, and scolded furiously: "Iga ninjas are so fucking sick! They are like mad dogs, why did they suddenly jump out and post a video, saying they are horrible Molecules? Is it just to f*ck us? Isn't this the same as killing a hundred enemies and losing a thousand?!"

yogi was also stunned. After watching the video several times, he gritted his teeth and said, "I can't figure it out either, doesn't this mean that I ate shit myself and then spit it on others? I really can't understand their brain circuits. , if they do this, won't they be finished for themselves?"

Zaki sighed and said with a face full of resentment: "They are only killing 100 enemies now, if they expose us, or the Japanese Homeland Security Department will If we find out, it will be really troublesome! And Jamura is still in their hands, we are too passive..."

Speaking of which, Zaki clenched his fist and slammed the table on the table, angrily said: "It's really good to see the king of hell, and the little devil is difficult to deal with! I never thought that a mere ninja family could push my Fei family to this point!"

yogi said with a sad face: "Dad, the time given by the kidnapers is not enough. too much....."

yogi said that time was running out, which made Zaki even more worried.

He couldn't help questioning yogi: "We sent so many people and offered so much money, haven't we found any clues yet?"

"No..." yogi said: "Our people and the gangs in New York People, they are about to dig the whole New York three feet into the ground, but there is no clue..."

Zaki angrily reprimanded: "They are all a bunch of rice buckets! Especially those intelligence officers, who usually have so much money to support them, just to make them It plays a role at a critical moment, but the more this time comes, the more useless they are!"

yogi said helplessly: "Dad, this time we can't blame our intelligence personnel, mainly because the kidnapers are too cunning, they It's true that there is no clue left. The intelligence officers are good at following the vines and pulling the threads, but this premise is that there must be vines to touch and threads to draw, not to mention our intelligence officers, even if it is the US Central Intelligence Agency, There are also a large number of headless cases without clues..."

Zaki suddenly remembered something and blurted out: "Right! What did the police say? Isn't that Li Yalin a Chinese detective? He has been investigating, why did he come here? No news yet?"

"This..." yogi said angrily: "I didn't contact Li Yalin, and I can't pee in a pot with this guy."

Zaki asked coldly: "Li Yalin seems to be going with Asher from the An family. Very close?"

"That's right." yogi nodded and said, "He has a good relationship with Asher."

Zaki ordered: "Call him and ask him to see if the police have found anything. If we can find the kidnappers, it's all good to say, but if we can't find them, if we want Jamura to survive, we must first give away the $200 billion in cryptocurrency that the kidnappers want. If the money is really handed over, we can't catch it. When it arrives, it will be difficult to get the money back. That thing is completely anonymous, just a string of encrypted data, and anyone who gets it can put it online for anonymous transactions."

yogi hurriedly said, "I know Dad, I'll call Li Yalin in a while."

Zaki looked at him, hesitated for a moment, and said earnestly: "yogi, this matter has developed to this point, you and I have to be mentally prepared."

yogi's expression was startled, and he quickly asked: "Dad, you It means..."

Zaki did not hide it, and said seriously: "Be prepared for Haoyang's failure to come back."

Hearing this, yogi's face instantly turned pale, and his lips trembled as he said: "Dad... the other party is just seeking money, so it shouldn't kill him, right?"

Zaki sighed, but instead of answering his question, he looked at him and asked, "yogi, you know your grandfather has been in power for too long, right? For the Fei family, what is the biggest negative impact?"

yogi didn't know why his father asked this, and shook his head blankly.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4464 ( The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4464 )

Zaki said with emotion: "The biggest negative impact is that from me to you, to Haoyang, the business capabilities of our grandparents and grandchildren are far from keeping up with the rhythm of this huge family. If everything runs smoothly, it is equivalent to an airplane. With autopilot turned on, I only need to sit in the driver's seat to make sure it's moving normally, but in the event of an emergency, even I don't have a good ability to deal with it..."

Speaking of which, he looked at yogi, said seriously: "The question you asked me just now is completely inconsistent with your identity. Think about it carefully. If you are a robber, you have kidnapped and extorted 200 billion US dollars, and the whole process of your kidnapping has been handled. The seamless and obtained cryptocurrency can also be slowly realized without risk, in this case, will you put the hostages?"

yogi was speechless for a while.

Zaki glanced at him and couldn't help sighing: "I still have to admit the gap... If your grandfather is here, he will not be as passive as we are..."

yogi sighed and said, "Dad... Grandpa and Xin's whereabouts are still unknown until now. We have invested a lot of manpower and material resources to find them, but we haven't found any clues... I always felt that the overall strength of the Fei family could not be found anywhere in the world. Ranking in the top ten is almost omnipotent, but these two consecutive times made me realize that our overall strength may be far behind..."

Zaki said with a serious expression: "When this incident is over, no matter what the outcome is, we must improve ourselves as soon as possible, otherwise, it will be difficult to guarantee that the Fei family will last forever..."

yogi asked carefully: "Dad... ..Then what do you think is the probability that jamura will come back safely?"

Zaki thought about it for a while and said seriously, "Frankly speaking, it won't exceed 10%..."

At this moment, the housekeeper ran in quickly and said: "Master, Young Master, Inspector Li is here!"

"Li Yalin?!" Zaki frowned and asked, "What is he here for?" The housekeeper explained: "He said something and wanted to talk to you in person, Master. The chat is about the young master."

Zaki nodded and said coldly: "Okay! I was looking for him, he came by himself, please come in!"

Soon, Li Yalin walked into Zaki's house alone. study.

Seeing Zaki, Li Yalin greeted him with a smile, "Mr. Fei." Zaki nodded expressionlessly and asked him, "Inspector Li, it has been more than 24 hours since my grandson was kidnapped, may I ask you Do the police have any clues?"

"Not yet." Li Yalin said very frankly: "I believe Mr. Fei should also send someone to investigate this matter. You should know that the other party's clues are handled very cleanly, as if the world has evaporated. It's the same, even if the FBI and the National Security Agency are brought in, I'm afraid it will be difficult to find clues within 24 hours."

Zaki asked angrily: "You dignified Chinese police detective, can you find someone who is lost? Now, you still have the face to come to my house to see me?!"

Li Yalin sneered, not angry at Zaki's attitude, but just said: "Mr. In this case, the two of us can exchange information about whether we have any, perhaps there is some kind of cross clue in this case, if there is, then this may be the key to solving the case."

yogi on the side asked: "What is a cross clue?"

Li Yalin explained: "It's just two seemingly unrelated clues, but after careful sorting, you may find that they have an intersection in a certain link. Once you find this intersection, you are likely to find more clues."

Saying, Li Yalin He added: "It's as if I found a safe that Jamura hid in the dark, but I don't know the password of the safe, and I can't crack it."

"And you, although you don't know the existence of this safe, you don't know the safe. password, but you know who Jamura's favorite woman is;"

"We put these two clues together, and maybe we can use that woman's birthday to open the safe;"

"In other words, That is, everyone has to exchange clues, so that there is a possibility of further progress;"

"Otherwise, I may not be able to open this safe for the rest of my life, and you may not know the existence of this safe for the rest of your life;"

"This is what I mean by crossover. Clues."

Zaki nodded subconsciously and asked, "Since you said that, you should have found a clue similar to a safe, right? You might as well say it first and listen to it."

Li Yalin hesitated for a while, then simply said He said, "Okay! Since that's the case, let me tell you first!"

Then, he looked at Zaki and yogi, and said very seriously, "I think the kidnapers kidnapped Jamura probably not for money.

" Money?!" Zaki frowned and asked, "Why not for money?"

Li Yalin said earnestly, "It should be to launch a fatal blow to the Fei family!"

"A fatal blow?" Zaki was even more puzzled and asked. : "If someone really hit the Fei family with a fatal blow, then he just kidnapped Jamura, how could he do this? Even if I gave them the $200 billion ransom they asked for, the Fei family would only be slightly hurt. , far from being a fatal blow."

Li Yalin shook his head, looked at Zaki, and said word by word, "I guess the kidnappers should have mastered some kind of big scandal in the Fei family!"
