When Asher heard this, he was shocked, sat up straight, and blurted out, "What's going on?!"

charlie's aunt Tablita on the other end of the phone choked, "The doctor said it was a brain hemorrhage. "..."

"Cerebral hemorrhage?" Asher hurriedly asked, "What's going on?"

Tablita sobbed, "Dad's mental state has been really bad recently... I've been unable to sleep during this period of time, and I'm very tired every day. Pain and bad mood... and I have always been resistant to doctors, and my body is getting weaker and weaker..."

"Just now... Dad went to the bathroom by himself, and suddenly fell into a coma. The doctor from the medical center came over and judged that he was The brain hemorrhage has caused multiple organ failure, and now I am in a deep coma, and the doctor said that there is still a day or two left at the most..."

Asher suddenly became anxious and blurted out: "How can you suddenly have multiple organs? Exhausted?! What do so many doctors eat?! Can't they cure Dad with their abilities?"

Tablita said helplessly: "The doctor said that he has done his best, and Dad's physical symptoms are getting worse and worse. Poor, there is basically no chance of improvement..."

Asher asked: "Where are the national doctors? What about the martial arts masters?! What about the Taoist masters?! They have nothing to do?!"

"No way..." Tablita She cried and said, "Several Chinese doctors have also seen it, and they all said that they can't do anything. The martial arts master also said that Dad's current situation is too angry, and there is no way to do it..." After speaking

, Tablita said again: "Mom has already sent someone. She went to invite Hong Tianshi, she said that Hong Tianshi has a life-sustaining pill, saying that it can save the life of a dying person for seven to ten days, but I am not sure if there is such a thing..."

Asher blurted out, "I don't know if the Life-Continuing Pill is useful, but the magical Pill will definitely work!"

After that, he said to Tablita, "Tablita, you and the second and third child take care of your parents as much as possible! I'm going to go. Chaina, ask Dad for a maigic pill!"

Tablita blurted out: "Big brother! Now the family is like a headless fly, you better come back soon! You are here, we can also have a backbone! And Dad's situation is very critical, in case Hong Tianshi The medicine doesn't work, Dad can't wait for you to come back from CHAINA. If you delay, I'm really afraid that you won't see Dad for the last time..."

Asher realized that even if he knew that Magical pill could save him Father's life, in this case, I am afraid it is too late.

What's more, he is not sure that he can buy Pill at all. After all, he doesn't even know who owns Pill. If he blindly returns to Aurous Hill, it may be difficult to see the owner of Pill.

They didn't even have the chance to meet each other, and it was even more impossible to get a rejuvenation pill.

Thinking of this, he hurriedly said, "Sister, don't worry, I'll go back right away!"

After that, he hung up the phone, stood up, and said to Li Yalin in a panic, "Old Li, my father is critically ill, I want to Hurry back."

Li Yalin stood up without a second thought, and blurted out, "I'll go with you!"

Asher waved his hand and said seriously, "You forgot, there is a big event in New York right now, you must not leave New York now, it's better Stay here." After that, he took out his wallet, took out all the cash in it and put it on the table, and said to Li Yalin, "I'm leaving, take care of you! Call me if anything happens!"

Li Yalin had to tap lightly Nodding his head, he said, "If there is any new situation in the old man's side, let me know as soon as possible!"

"Okay!"

Asher said, and he had already run out of the restaurant.

Immediately afterwards, he got into his car and said to the driver, "Hurry up, go to the airport! Contact the crew and prepare to take off back to Los Angeles immediately!"

the same time, charlie's expression on the second floor also became very ugly.

He also heard the phone call between Asher and his aunt, Tablita, and knew that his grandfather's life was now on the line.

At this moment, his heart could not help but tense up.

It's just that he didn't understand how his grandfather was so rich and only in his seventies, how could he be dying so early.

According to my sister-in-law's description on the phone, my grandfather may have run out of fuel. In this case, apart from his own medicinal pills, there is probably no medicine in the world that can treat him.

In other words, if he didn't help him, his grandfather would probably not be able to survive this hurdle.

In any case, he is his mother's father, and he has a quarter of his blood in his body. No matter how much prejudice he has against him, he must never die.

However, right now, I am not mentally prepared to meet my grandfather's family.

Just when charlie was entangled, Stefanie sun saw that something was wrong with him, and quickly asked, "charlie, what's wrong with you?"

charlie looked at Stefanie sun, hesitated for a moment, and said, "Stefanie, if it is convenient for you, Can you go to Los Angeles for me?"

Stefanie sun nodded without hesitation and said, "Yes! charlie, what do you want me to do in Los Angeles?" charlie said

, "You go to Los Angeles and find my grandmother at An's house."

, charlie took out a blood-healing pill from his pocket, handed it to Stefanie sun's hand, and said solemnly, "You hand this pill to my grandma and let her take it for my grandpa."

Stefanie sun was surprised. "charlie, your grandfather is ill?"

"Yeah." charlie nodded, and said worriedly, "It sounds like he is very ill."

Stefanie sun hurriedly asked, "Then why don't you directly Give the medicine to your uncle? Isn't he downstairs?"

charlie shook his head and said, "He's gone."

After that, charlie said again, "Besides, I'm not ready to meet them yet. Prepare."

Stefanie sun nodded lightly, and said again: "charlie, I don't know where the An family is in Los Angeles... Moreover, for a family as big as the An family, the security work must be very strict, I don't know if they will Let me in..."

charlie said seriously: "You don't have to worry about this, you fly over first, and I will ask Abbas to investigate the address of my grandfather's house in Los Angeles. After you arrive at An's house, tell the servants of An's family directly, and just Said you were my fiancée and wanted to visit my grandparents, they would definitely let you in."

Hearing the word fiancée, Stefanie sun was shy and happy, and her neat teeth gently bit her own. Lower lip, shyly said: "Then...then...then if grandma and the others ask you, how should I answer?"

charlie said, "Just say you haven't found any news about me."

Stefanie sun said with some worry : "But I always have to explain the origin of the Pill... Otherwise, they may not believe me..."

charlie said: "Don't let them realize that you are here to deliver medicine, just act like You came here to visit, and when You heard that my grandfather was sick, You gave him the medicine without hesitation."

After speaking, charlie said again, "If they don't believe in the efficacy of this medicine, just say this medicine. Uncle sun got it by accident, and then told them that Uncle sun used this medicine to cure his pancreatic cancer when he developed it to an advanced stage. There are two medicines in total. Your father took one, and you have one left. Here! I believe they should have heard about Uncle sun's advanced recovery from pancreatic cancer, and even if not, with their strength, they will be able to verify it within a few minutes!"

In fact, on charlie's body, he has always kept three kinds of elixir, namely magic pill Pill, Huichun Pill and even Peiyuan Pill.

And the reason why he asked Stefanie sun to send a blood-rescue pill, rather than a Magic pill, was because, on the one hand, he felt that the uncle had just been kicked out of the magic Pill auction. It is very likely that his identity will be revealed, but on the other hand, it is also out of his heart that Grandpa is still a little hard to let go of.

In his opinion, the medicinal effect of blood-rescue Pill is enough to save Grandpa, so why use Huichun Pill?

What's more, his father suffered a lot of discrimination in the An family back then, and he took out a blood-rescue pill to repay his grievances with virtue, and he did not need to continue to rise to a higher level.

Stefanie sun didn't know the balance in charlie's heart, she only knew that the situation was urgent, and she must not delay.

So she hurriedly said, "charlie, then I'll go to the airport now!"

charlie said, "Don't be in a hurry for a while, you call first and ask Zuri to arrange a flight, and I will also ask Abbas to arrange a few flights. A female soldier accompanies you and must ensure your personal safety."

Stefanie sun nodded and said, "Then I'll call Zuri!"

At this time, Zuri had just signed the contract with the representative of the Fei family. For a nominal price of one dollar, the performance venue that the Fei family had just bought was bought.

As soon as Stefanie sun's call came, she couldn't wait to answer the call and said excitedly: "Stefanie, the Fei family has already sold the venue to us! This is too incredible! What the hell are you doing with charlie? Arrived?"

Stefanie sun hurriedly said: "With charlie coming out, what is such a trivial matter."

After that, she hurriedly said: "Zuri, hurry up and arrange the plane, I'm going to fly to Los Angeles soon, let the crew The sooner the crew is ready, the better."

"Huh?" Zuri asked in surprise: "Stefanie sun, we will do the final rehearsal tomorrow, and the performance will start the day after tomorrow. What are you doing in Los Angeles at this time? It takes at least seven or eight hours to go back and forth, right?"

Stefanie sun blurted out: "Oh, it's urgent, I don't have time to explain it now, you hurry up and make arrangements for me, if it goes well, you can come back tonight and won't delay the rehearsal tomorrow!"

"Okay..." Zuri was helpless, I had to say, "Then I'll call the crew now."

Stefanie sun urged: "Let them hurry up, I'll go to the airport now!"

“Okay, I see.”

Stefanie sun hung up the phone and told charlie He said, “charlie, then I’ll go to the airport now.”

charlie stood up and said, “I’ll take you there.”

Stefanie sun took his arm and said coquettishly, “charlie, if you If you have nothing to do, just go with me, the big deal is that you wait for me at the airport, you don’t have to go home!”

charlie shook his head and said, “Jian and Fei Kexin are here tonight, and I prepared a big gift for the Fei family. It’s time to make it, there are still many things waiting for me to do here, so the two of us can only split up.”

“Okay...” Stefanie sun knew that charlie had other things to do, so she obediently He said, “Then I’ll go over by myself, and I’ll come back to see you as soon as I’m done.”

“Okay!”

At this time, Li Yalin downstairs lost his interest in drinking by himself. He waved to Arman and said “Boss, put the money on the table for you.”

Arman stuck his head out, glanced at the stack of hundred-dollar bills on the table, and said quickly, “Inspector Li, if you can’t use that much money, you can keep one hundred dollars. That’s enough.”

Li Yalin said, “I didn’t give this money, it was given by my friend. How could I put it in my pocket? Just keep it and I’ll go.”

After that, he stood up. He got up, took out a piece of paper, wiped his mouth, turned around and walked out.

When Arman saw him go out, he was really relieved.

He wasn’t afraid that Li Yalin would find out his identity as an illegal immigrant, but he was just afraid that he would realize that he had met with him, and then linked Jamura’s disappearance to himself.

Charlie and Stefanie sun have been to his store more than once, and once he is exposed, Li Yalin can find Charlie along the way.

The case of Jamura's disappearance was not seamless. Li Yalin couldn't find any clues, just because the clues were well hidden, but once he found the clue and grabbed a rope, he could lead the whole case out. .

Just as he thought about it, when he saw Charlie and Stefanie Sun also walking down, he hurriedly stepped forward and said, "Master Wade, why did you come down? That Inspector Li just went out. I guess he hasn't gone far yet."

Charlie hurriedly said: "Uncle Arman, we have to leave first because of a little urgent matter. Come back to you!" As soon as Arman heard that Charlie was in a hurry, even if she didn't want to hold back, she first walked to the door and took a look. Li Yalin had already got in the car and left, and said, "Inspector Li's car has left. If you are in a hurry, go to it first. If you need me, just talk."

"Okay Uncle Arman."

Charlie and Stefanie Sun After saying goodbye to Arman, he got into the car and rushed towards the airport.

at the same time.

Over 10,000 meters above sea level in continental Europe.

Jian and Fei Kexin were sitting nervously in a Gulfstream business jet.

In the cabin, Yuan Zixu and Xion were both closing their eyes and resting, while the grandparents and grandchildren were staring at the darkness outside the window in a daze.

After the helicopter arrived in Colombo, the capital of Sri Lanka, they had no idea where they were going next.

When they boarded the plane, no one told them what the destination of the plane was.

At this time, the plane was flying above the thick clouds, and it was impossible to distinguish the direction and position, so the grandparents and grandchildren were even more uneasy.

Jian stared out the window for a long time, and couldn't help asking Fei Kexin in a low voice: "Kexin, where do you think Mr. Wade is going to arrange us? The plane has been flying for several hours. If it is going to Syria, it should be coming soon. Right?"

Fei Kexin nodded, recalled the world map carefully, and said, "It should take at least six hours to fly from Sri Lanka to Syria. It has been seven hours since we took off. If we go to Syria, the plane will be early. It's time to go down, but now the plane is still cruising normally, I guess we are still far from our destination."

Jian frowned and asked: "At this speed, no matter which direction you go, I'm afraid it will be out of Asia... Mr. Wade no longer intends to let us go to Syria, but has other arrangements for us?" Fei Kexin said in agreement: "It's definitely possible to go out of Asia, but it's not clear where to go out of Asia..."

, she looked at Jian and said seriously: "Grandpa, don't worry too much, Mr. Wade will definitely give us a proper arrangement."

Jian nodded, but still said melancholy: "I am sure I believe in Mr. Wade, but this kind of unknown feeling is still a little uneasy, I am not afraid that something will happen to me, I am afraid that you will be implicated by me and be in danger."

"No." Fei Kexin said very firmly: "Mr. Wade Now that he have helped us, we will never be in danger again! No matter where this plane flies, even if it flies to New York, I'm not afraid of Mr. Wade!"
