

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4505 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4505)

New York JFK Airport.

The two private jets took off 20 minutes apart.

On the plane that took off first, Asher, Charlie's eldest uncle, sat on the plane, and on the plane that took off after was Stefanie Sun, who was holding the Pill.

Asher was in a state of confusion at this time.

His heart was full of nervousness and distress for his father, and he never thought about dividing up Anjia's property after his father's death.

Moreover, he also knew very well that his father was the backbone of the An family. If he were to die at this time, the whole An family would be seriously injured.

Therefore, 10,000 people in his heart did not want his father to suffer such hardships.

Compared with other families, the An family is relatively united, and there is almost no conflict between the brothers and sisters.

The main reason why the An family was so united was the accidental death of Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom).

The death of Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) not only made the An family extremely painful, but also made the An family blame themselves for so many years.

Everyone knows that if the An family could support Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom)'s choice and support her in marrying the Wade family, then Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) would not have gone with Bruce Wade and took Charlie to Wuyiwu after Bruce Wade broke up with the Wade family. Relying on Aurous Hill to settle down.

Going to Aurous Hill was a helpless choice for their family of three.

If An Jia was the strong backing of Lydia (Ava) at that time, Lydia (Ava) and her husband were wronged in Eastcliff, and they would definitely take Charlie back to her parents' home to settle down immediately.

In that case, the subsequent tragedy may not happen.

It was also from the time of Lydia (Ava) and Bruce Wade's accident that Charlie's grandfather changed his thinking about managing the An family.

The five words of family and prosperity have become his only family management philosophy.

Under the promotion of the old man for so many years, the An family gradually got used to putting their family first in everything.

Once anything comes into conflict with family harmony, the family must be given priority unconditionally.

After so many years, the An family, under his leadership, is indeed much more united than other big families.

Moreover, the old man is indeed very wise, and he is very meticulous in the functional structure of the entire family.

He let Asher, who has a relatively soft personality, be in charge of the inside, Homula, the second child, who has a relatively strong personality, was in charge of the outside, and the third Olin to assist Homula in the organizational structure of the whole family industry, and the youngest Tablita. Responsible for supervising the financial and legal affairs of the entire Anjia;

at the same time, he also gave Asher and Tablita a veto right on the board of directors, as a circuit breaker at a critical moment, to avoid Homula's power to act arbitrarily. Once the head of his family has an accident, all the children will enter the house and listen to Asher. When they leave the house, the other three brothers and sisters will negotiate and decide. If the three brothers and sisters are undecided, they will discuss with the elder brother

Asher;

Homula wants to act on his own, Tablita, who knows finance and legal affairs best, can use a veto power to fuse his control;

once Homula wants to join forces with Olin and Tablita to make other plans, Asher can also use it. The one-vote veto is fused to avoid risks for the home.

The four brothers and sisters seem to cooperate with each other, and they are also checking and balancing each other.

However, this organizational structure seems to be strict, but in fact it also has great hidden dangers.

If there is no harmony within the family, it will inevitably lead to intrigue and infighting among all parties.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4506 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4506)

But fortunately, the An family is united, so the four of them have always cooperated very well.

Everyone can put the interests of the family first, and even if there is any disagreement in opinion, they can be treated objectively and discussed democratically.

It is precisely because of this structure that the old man is suddenly critically ill. Homula, Olin, and Tablitaa have all put down all business and rushed home. At the same time, they are also waiting for Asher, the elder brother, to come back to preside over the house. big picture.

At this time, Stefanie sun, sitting on the plane and looking at the pills in the white plastic box in her hand, was excited and excited.

Although she also knew that in this case, she should not feel this way, but she could not control her heart at all.

Because, charlie actually let himself go to his grandparents' house as his fiancée!

This, in Stefanie sun's eyes, is charlie's recognition of her.

Compared with the previous ambiguity, charlie's attitude this time, in her opinion, is a big step forward!

However, Stefanie sun didn't know that the reason why charlie let her settle down as his fiancée was based on the premise that Stefanie sun didn't find herself.

Stefanie sun had a marriage contract with herself, and it was justifiable for her to visit Anjia as her fiancée.

But how could he have thought that this would become a great encouragement for Stefanie sun.

in the evening.

Asher's plane landed on the private runway of a manor on the outskirts of Los Angeles.

Here is the manor where he lives in Los Angeles.

The entire manor not only covers a huge area, but also has three private runways, as well as a number of medium and large hangars, where at least five or six private jets of different sizes are parked.

When the An family bought this land, they built an airport in their manor.

However, this kind of thing is not uncommon in the sparsely populated United States.

Hollywood star John Travolta, who starred in the movie Pulp Fiction, owns a private villa with two small runways.

A star has such financial resources, not to mention the wealthiest family like An Jia.

As soon as Asher's plane landed on the runway in the manor, it taxied directly to the main building of the manor.

This main building can no longer be described as a villa. Its construction area is very large, and the whole is U-shaped, which is a bit larger than the average five-star resort hotel.

It is basically a small city, not only has various living, leisure, entertainment and office areas, but also is equipped with its own hospital.

charlie's little aunt, Tablita, was already waiting downstairs at this time. The plane was directly in front of the taxiway building. As soon as this side stopped, the boarding car over there drove directly over to complete the docking with the cabin door.

The moment the cabin door opened, Asher ran down quickly. Seeing Tablita standing below with red eyes, he hurriedly stepped forward and asked, "Tablita, how is Dad?"

"After wiping his hands, he choked and said: "Dad's condition is very bad. An hour ago, Hong Tianshi came with a life-sustaining pill, but after Dad took it, there was no improvement at all. The doctor said that Dad's various indicators are still declining. , I might not be able to make it through tonight... Hong Tianshi said that Dad's condition is still too serious, if he had taken the Life-Continuing Pill earlier, it might have been effective..."

Asher cursed angrily: "The Life-Continuing Pill, Continuation Life Dan! If you can't continue your life, what the hell do you call a life-continuing Dan! Return Tianshi Hong, isn't he a liar?!"

Tablita said hurriedly: "Brother, Tianshi Hong is also a kindhearted person, originally he was He planned to retreat for five years, and he was out in five months. Mom sent someone to invite him, and he came over immediately after knowing it, and the life-sustaining pill was originally a Taoist treasure. When it was handed down, there were only three in total. There is only one left in Hong Tianshi. In the past, some people were willing to spend hundreds of millions of dollars to buy him, but he didn't sell it. Today, he took it out and gave it to Dad without hesitation..."

Asher said coldly, "This is The broken things may not even be worth one ten thousandth of the rejuvenation pill, and what Taoist treasures are there, so I'm not afraid of laughing at them!"

After that, he waved his hands in a distraught: "Forget it, don't talk about it, Dad. Where is it, take me there!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4507 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4507)

Tablita took Asher and flew all the way to Anjia's medical center.

This medical center not only has top experts from multiple departments, but also has multiple ICU intensive care units, delivery rooms and operating rooms.

The hardware facilities here can even handle the most complicated organ transplant operations in the world.

At this time, An Qishan, the old man of the An family, was lying in the largest ICU ward of the medical center.

He was stuffed with various equipment and pipelines, and his entire face was covered in an oxygen mask, relying on the ventilator to barely maintain a weak breath.

His wife, charlie's grandmother, was sitting beside him, rubbing his right hand gently with both hands, tears had already burst.

Although several doctors have been standing by, but there is nothing they can do now.

In their eyes, An Qishan's life is still coming to an end, just like the wick that has burned the last drop of oil, the flame is too small to be seen, and it is still shrinking irregularly, it seems that it may be extinguished at any time. .

At this time, the only thing they can do is to wait for the flame to be completely extinguished. It's not that they don't want to intervene, but in this case, even if the breathing rate is slightly higher, it is possible to blow out the last flame, so the most important thing is The best way to deal with it is to leave it alone and let it burn the last few traces of vapor left in the wick.

The other children and grandchildren of the An family are all staying in the lounge outside the ICU.

charlie's second uncle and third uncle were sitting side by side on the modular sofa. In addition, there was a skinny old man with fair hair and gray beard, who was sitting opposite them, holding a handprint with one hand. , I don't know what to say.

The other grandchildren and female relatives of the An family were all sitting on the benches on both sides of the sofa with sad expressions.

When Tablita and Asher rushed in, everyone present immediately stood up.

Homula rushed over with red eyes, grabbed Asher's arm, and choked: "Brother...you're finally back..."

Olin couldn't help but sniff, and trembled: "Brother, Dad has been in a coma and hasn't woken up yet, and Mom is with me, go and have a look."

Asher nodded heavily, and said in a very firm tone, "Don't be too pessimistic, Dad's life is full of wind and waves. He has been through it all, such a small problem is nothing to him, he will definitely survive."

Everyone nodded, but their expressions did not show any confidence.

Seeing that everyone was dead, Asher felt a little flustered in his heart, so he hurriedly said, "You guys wait outside first, I'll go in and see Dad!" After that, he pushed open the door and walked in alone.

When the old lady saw him coming in, she couldn't hold back her emotions all of a sudden, she cried and said, "Asher... Asher... your dad doesn't seem to be able to hold on to Asher... what should mom do, Asher? "..."

While speaking, the old lady's body was already shaky, and she almost fell to the side.

Asher stepped forward quickly, supported her with both hands, suppressed the urge to cry, and choked: "Mom...it's alright, Dad will be fine...he's just too tired recently and needs to take care of himself. Take a rest, maybe you will wake up after a while..." The old lady kept shaking her head slowly, looking at An Qishan on the hospital bed, her eyes were full of sadness and despair.

She's also someone who's highly educated and who has made great strides in the changing world over the past few decades, so how could she not be aware of her husband's current situation.

She held her husband's hand in one hand and the eldest son Asher's hand in the other, and whispered softly, "Your dad... I miss your sister so much... During this time... his daily condition is worse than the day before. A lot of them, thinking about his daughter, couldn't sleep all night, no matter how strong his body was, he couldn't hold on after such a torment..."

Hearing this, Asher couldn't control his emotions any longer, a People cried silently.

At this time, the old lady looked up at Asher and said seriously, "Asher... If your father can't handle this hurdle, then you can go to Eastcliff and Wade's house..."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4508 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4508)

Asher was surprised. Asked: "Mom...you are..." The old lady continued: "You go to the Wade family to plead guilty to your brother-in-law's father, and find a way to ask him to allow you to move your sister back from the Wade family's ancestral grave. I want her to come back to accompany your dad..."

"This..." Asher said quickly: "Mom... things haven't reached that stage yet, don't think about these things so early..." The old lady shook her head and wiped away. Going away from the tears, he said with a blank face: "I have used all the methods that can be used, and tried the methods that can't be used. I even invited Tianshi Hong, who your father has always been disgusted with, and now I really don't know what to do. Is there any other way..."

Asher knew that his father did not believe in religion, let alone metaphysics, whether it was Master Hong Tian from Jindan Daomen or Master Lai from I Ching gossip. There are no two liars in the arena.

If it was not a last resort situation, my mother would never invite Hong Tianshi to the house.

At this time, Asher, who had been comforting his younger brothers and sisters and his mother, became more and more desperate in his heart.

In his opinion, the old man might not be able to survive this time.

at the same time.

In mid-air only a few dozen kilometers away from Anjia Manor.

The private plane that Stefanie sun was on had already lowered its altitude to less than two kilometers.

The crew at this time had already aimed their direction at the Fei's runway, ready to land there.

Before, Stefanie sun got the specific location of Anjia Manor from charlie through a satellite phone, and also got a piece of information, that is, Anjia Manor has its own 4E-class runway.

The runway of this level can basically meet the normal take-off and landing of all aircraft except the fully loaded Airbus A380.

In order to race against time, charlie wanted Stefanie sun to land directly at An's house.

However, the Fei family has always been heavily guarded. If there is no known aircraft taking off and landing, they will block the airport runway with multiple heavy vehicles, so as to prevent criminals from landing directly at the Anjia Manor, so the aircraft must first pass through the Fei family to land here. Permission from ground control personnel.

Therefore, the captain immediately called the controller of Fei's runway by radio.

"ANAP, this is B9733, this is B9733, please answer when you hear it."

ANAP is the call sign registered by the civil aviation of Fei's runway. After the airport call, the other party's question immediately came over the radio: "B9733, this is ANAP, please indicate. Identity." The captain hurriedly said: "I have an important guest with special status who wants to visit the old lady Anjia, please allow my plane to land directly on the Anjia runway." The other party immediately said: "We have not received any reports about the visitor's aircraft. Prepare, no planes are allowed to land here, if you are visiting, please contact the host first, we will open the runway immediately after we receive the host's order." The captain said: "The important guests on my plane are very special. , she doesn't have the contact information of Fei's family for the time being, please let me know on your behalf."

“Sorry.” The other party refused without hesitation: “Our work principle is to receive orders. We don’t have the right to apply to the host for landing, there are obstacles on the runway, we suggest you land at the public airport.”

Seeing that the other party did not let go, the captain hurriedly said through the cabin broadcast: “Miss sun, the other party’s ground staff We are not allowed to land, in this case, we can only go to Los Angeles International Airport to land.”

Stefanie sun’s heart tightened when she heard this: “If you are going to land at Los Angeles International Airport, if you leave the airport and then transfer to the car, it will definitely take a lot of time. ...”

Thinking of this, she hurriedly opened her seat belt, walked quickly to the cockpit, and said to the captain, “Turn on the radio, and I’ll tell them!”

The captain immediately took off his headset and handed it to Stefanie sun, then pressed the call button and said, “Miss sun, you can speak now.”

Stefanie sun put on the headset and said eagerly, “I’m charlie’s fiancée... ...I have something important to meet with charlie’s grandmother!” The young staff member didn’t know who charlie was, but when he saw that the plane’s registration number started with B, he knew that the plane was from China, so he Then he said very seriously: “This is Anjia, there is no one called charlie, please turn around immediately, otherwise, I will file a complaint with the FAA, and if it is serious, your plane will be banned from flying into the airspace of the United States! “

Stefanie sun stomped her feet in a hurry, and blurted out, “You dare!! I’ll tell you! charlie is the son of Auntie Lydia (Ava) !”

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4509 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4509)

This staff member of the An family did not know who charlie was, but he naturally resonated with Lydia (Ava)’s name!

As soon as he heard Stefanie sun say that charlie was Lydia (Ava)’s son, this person was immediately astonished!

He immediately thought that his master family had been searching everywhere for the whereabouts of the son left by Lydia (Ava) for so many years, but there was no clue.

Could this be an important clue coming to the door? !

Thinking of this, he immediately approved the plane's request to land, and hurriedly picked up the phone to report to his superior.

Lydia (Ava) 's son, these six words were like a blast of thunder, causing the An family's butler to rush into the medical center.

At this time, Asher endured the pain while trying his best to comfort his mother.

For the old lady, his eldest son has become her spiritual support at this moment.

The housekeeper hurriedly ran over, ignoring everyone outside, he pushed open the door directly, and said out of breath, "Too... madam... big... young master..."

Asher saw that he had always been steady . The housekeeper was a little flustered and even rushed into his father's ward. He couldn't help but reprimanded: "Uncle Dong, what's the matter with you?! Don't you know to knock on the door first?"

" Come up and wonder if there's an emergency going on.

The butler looked anxious and said, "Eldest young master... a plane from Chaina is about to land..."

"From Chaina?" Asher frowned and asked, "Who is it?" The butler swallowed With saliva, he opened his mouth and said, "It's the daughter-in-law appointed by the eldest lady back then!"

"What eldest lady..." Asher didn't even react at once.

The grief-stricken old lady suddenly blurted out: "It's the baby kiss that Lydia (Ava) ordered for son! It's charlie's fiancée! Where is she?!"

The housekeeper hurriedly said: "On the plane, it's about to land!"

Asher asked in surprise, "Mom, what's going on? Charlie... Charlie, he still has a fiancee?!"

" He said excitedly: "When Charlie was young, your sister arranged a marriage for him, and the other party is your brother-in-law's good brother, but the child was still young at the time, and your sister just told me about it. I talked to you... Later, your sister and the others encountered an accident, and no one mentioned it again, and Chen'er also disappeared. That girl was too young back then, I thought it would definitely be a thing of the past. Come on ..."

Having said this, the old lady suddenly widened her eyes and asked with a crying voice, "Asher...you said...could it be Charlie coming back..."

"Charlie?!" Asher was also a little emotional all of a sudden, and he blurted out: "God has eyes! Dad has been looking for Charlie for so many years and has not been able to find it. If Charlie comes back at this time, it will be a big regret for Dad..." The wife was a little trembling with excitement, turned around and grabbed An Qishan's hand, crying and said, "Qishan, did you hear? Maybe this time Charlie is back, our eldest grandson is back! You must not It's time to go! You have to wait to see your grandson!"

As soon as these words came out, various parameters on the monitor beside An Qishan increased visibly to the naked eye!

The doctor was immediately excited and blurted out: "Master's physical condition has improved! Heart rate, blood pressure, and blood oxygen have improved!"

Everyone was surprised when they heard this.

Since the old man was in a coma until now, the physical indicators have been continuously declining, not to mention the rebound, and there is no chance to stop the downward trend. Now that it has suddenly rebounded, everyone is naturally very happy.

The old lady was also very happy, and while wiping away her tears, she couldn't wait to blurt out: "Quick! Help me to go outside! I want to see Charlie get off the plane with my own eyes!"

Asher quickly helped the old lady out, charlie's second uncle, third uncle and aunt also followed up subconsciously.

Seeing this, Asher hurriedly said, "Homula, don't go there. Stay here with Dad. If there is any emergency, you can deal with it in time." Homula hesitated for a while, but thought about it. Think or agree.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4510 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4510)

In fact, he really wanted to go out with everyone to see if charlie was back.

After all, among the An family brothers and sisters, although everyone has a deep affection for Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom), the affection between Homula and his elder sister Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) is the deepest among the siblings.

Even though he has always been resolute and extremely strong, it was only gradually cultivated after Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom)'s death.

When Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) was alive, he was the most devout follower around Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom).

It was not until after Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom)'s death that he began to imitate his sister's behavior involuntarily, and gradually achieved his current achievements.

But deep down in his heart, he felt that his ability was not as good as his sister's.

at this time.

Above the end of the runway, an aircraft has gradually approached from high to low, from far to near.

The An family's heart became more and more nervous.

The old lady couldn't help asking her children: "You said... Charlie will be on the plane?!"

Everyone dared not answer. After all, Charlie had been missing for nearly 20 years, and they didn't dare to expect Charlie. Will be back at this time.

In the past, they had made oolongs several times and thought they had found Charlie several times, but in the end they were all confirmed by DNA, and they were just having fun.

Therefore, this time, everyone is worried that this time is still Nanke Yimeng.

As the roar of the plane's engine got closer and closer, Stefanie sun's plane finally landed smoothly at the end of the runway. Then the thrust reverser of the plane's engine opened, and there was a louder whistling sound.

After a while, the speed of the plane has slowed down, and under the guidance of the ground guidance vehicle, it slowly slid to the front door of the main building.

The moment the cabin door opened, the An family's heart was in their throats.

At this time, Stefanie sun in the cabin door was also extremely nervous.

Then, the hatch opened.

The moment the An family saw Stefanie sun, several young grandchildren immediately exclaimed, "Is it Stefanie sun?!"

As a top-notch Chinese singer, Stefanie sun's popularity is indeed very high.

charlie's younger brothers and sisters all know her, and they all like her songs.

Therefore, when they saw Stefanie sun walking down from the cabin, they were all surprised.

The old lady was very nervous at this time, and kept looking behind Stefanie sun, but when she saw that there was no one else behind Stefanie sun, she felt lost again.

She knew that her grandson was definitely not on the plane.

Stefanie sun had already walked in front of everyone at this time, suppressing her nervousness, and said, "Hello everyone, I'm Stefanie sun... I'm charlie's fiancée..."

"Stefanie sun..." The old lady looked at her and hurriedly asked : "You're the little girl from the Sun family that butler said?!"

Stefanie sun nodded quickly, and said respectfully, "Yes, it's me..."

After speaking, she politely asked, "You should be charlie. My grandmother, right?" The old lady nodded gently: "It's me... my deargirl, tell your grandmother, do you KNOW where is Charlie?"
