When An Qishan said this, he was filled with emotion.

Immediately afterwards, he took off his oxygen mask directly, then clasped his fists with both hands, bowed slightly to Stefanie sun, and said gratefully: "miss sun , you have saved my life, as the so-called great kindness does not say thank you, I, An Qishan, don't like to talk about empty words or clichés, so I can only assure you that no matter when in the future, as long as you need it, the Anjia family will go up and down, and don't dare to refuse!" When

Asher heard this, as the Anjia family The eldest son, he immediately clasped his fists and bowed to Stefanie sun, and said respectfully, "miss sun , if you have any needs for the An family in the future, you can tell me directly!"

Stefanie sun did not expect that both of charlie's elders saluted him, and all at once I was also a little panicked, and said quickly, "You two are both elders of charlie, and they are also my elders. Don't be so polite... These... these are what I should do..." The old lady was grateful Said: "Good boy... Such a miraculous medicine pill is a precious treasure in anyone's hands... If you can give it to us so generously, it is our great benefactor..."

She said that. He couldn't help but sighed: "In the beginning, Chengji said that your family cares about friendship and righteousness. I really didn't expect that your family didn't give up looking for charlie for so many years... It's really affectionate and righteous..."

Stefanie sun smiled slightly, with a hint of She said shyly: "My parents told me since I was a child that when I grow up, I want to marry charlie, so in my heart, he has always been my fiancé. It is me who finds him and marry him. I have persisted in my belief for twenty years."

As soon as Stefanie sun said these words, the An family members all sighed and sighed.

The old lady's eyes were wet, and she couldn't help choking: "It's been so many years, and I don't know where charlie is now..." As she said that, the old lady looked at Stefanie sun and asked again, "Good boy, how are you doing this? Waiting for charlie , do your parents have any opinion?" Stefanie sun stuck out her tongue and said seriously: "Grandma, if I don't wait for Brother charlie, my parents will really have an opinion. They all think, Brother Charlie is my only destination, and I firmly believe that I will find Brother Charlie for so many years."

The old lady was so moved that she took Stefanie Sun's hand and said seriously: "Good girl, no matter if Charlie can be found or not, you are the granddaughter-in-law in grandma's mind! When your grandfather recovers, we will go to your house. Come visit and see your parents, and you must thank them in person for their hard work in finding Charlie over the years, and also thank them for cultivating such an excellent girl!"

She said, without thinking, from her wrist, took off a top-quality imperial green jade bracelet, handed it to Stefanie Sun's hand, and said seriously: "Good boy, this bracelet is handed down from my parents' ancestors, you put it on, just think it's your grandmother's hand. A little greeting!"

This jade bracelet, in the eyes of people who don't understand jade, is nothing more than a bracelet, and no matter how expensive it is, it will not be too expensive.

However, for those who really understand jade, this bracelet is already the ceiling of the entire jade field.

There are many kinds of emerald pits, many colors, and more attention to detail, but all those who play with emeralds recognize that imperial green is the king of jadeite varieties.

And there are no materials that can reach the emperor green level, and there are very few that can be made into bracelets.

Jade is a material, unlike metal, it is a naturally formed stone with a variety of colors. The color inside most materials will vary greatly, and the interior is extremely prone to cracks, mottled, and cotton-like. floc.

Generally speaking, there is no such thing as the color of the emperor green, and in the emperor green, come up with a piece of anise that can be used as a bracelet, and it must be full green, no cracks, no cotton, and no fluff. The odds are as low as one in a billion.

The old lady's bracelet was the real Laokeng glass kind of imperial green back then, and it was handed down from the palace in the Qing Dynasty.

Among the jadeite players, the bracelet that only exists in legend and is worth five billion yuan is this one.

Although Stefanie sun didn't understand jadeite, but just by looking at the color of the bracelet, she could guess that it was worth a fortune, so she quickly shied away and said, "Grandma, how can I ask for something from you..."

The old lady said seriously: "Child, you are charlie's fiancée, and this is the first time you have come to the door. According to our rules, the meeting ceremony must not be missed! This is me, the grandmother, for you, the future grandson-in-law. The welcome gift!"

An Qishan on the side also said quickly: "The meeting gift must be given! Asher, look for the property right certificate of our courtyard house in Ya'er Hutong, Eastcliff, and transfer the house to miss sun . My name!"

Asher nodded quickly.

An Qishan said to Stefanie sun at this time: "miss sun , I have three entrances and three exits in the courtyard house in Ya'er Hutong. The lintels and pillars of all the houses are all made of golden nanmu, and that house was a unique one in the Qing Dynasty. The Prince's Mansion was bought by others during the Republic of China and turned into private property. Twenty years ago, I spent 30 million US dollars to buy it from an old overseas Chinese. Now the golden nanmu in it is worth dozens of dollars. 100 million!"

The old lady on the side said helplessly: "Qishan, that was forty years ago..."

Due to the lack of efficacy, Sanxue Jiuxin Dan saved An Qishan, but his Al The symptoms of Zheimer's disease have not eased, so his cognition of time has basically stayed in the state of 20 years ago.

Stefanie sun waved her hands in fright at this time, and said in fear: "Grandpa...I can't have such a precious thing..."

"What can't you do?" An Qishan blurted out: "This house was originally intended to be reserved for charlie. , now that charlie has not been found, find charlie's fiancee first, then the house will naturally have half of yours, you accept it first, and when you find charlie, you will treat it as a new house!"

He said, rubbing it. Rubbing his head, he couldn't help but say, "It's just that charlie is just eight years old... I'm afraid it will take a few more years to get married. Besides, you are so much older than charlie, so don't bully him after marriage..." When the wife heard this, she hurriedly said, "Qishan, didn't I tell you, it's already twenty years later, if charlie was still alive, it would be twenty-eighth this year!"

"Ah?" An QiShan was stunned for a moment, and blurted out: "charlie is already twenty-eight? When did it happen, didn't he just pass his eighth birthday?"

After finishing speaking, An Qishan's expression was startled, and his eyes were red as he said: "Lydia (Ava)... Lydia (Ava)... It's all my dad's sorry for you... Don't worry, Dad is going to risk his life to get Charlie back... .." The old lady saw An Qishan's expression was extremely painful, and her heart was cut like a knife, she quickly said to everyone: "His mind is starting to be confused again, let's go out first, don't disturb him here..."

For the An family, they have long been accustomed to An Qishan's symptoms.

Knowing that his memory loss was very serious, everyone tried very hard at first to help him restore the memory in his brain, but it turned out that this situation was just wishful thinking.

In fact, An Qishan has lost all his memories for the past 20 years. No matter how much he helps him recall, it is impossible for him to remember anything that has happened in the past 20 years.

So, at first, the An family tried to explain to An Qishan every day, telling him the real time in reality and what he had forgotten.

But over time, they found that this did not have any effect.

Sometimes, the family chatted around him for a whole day before he accepted the reality.

But it won't be long before he forgets everything that everyone told him, and returns to his previous state again.

Therefore, An Qishan's current state has returned to 20 years ago, and it has returned to the state just after the Charlie family was born.

In this case, it was pointless to continue to explain to An Qishan, and the old lady didn't want his brain to be forced to accept a lot of things that shocked him.

At this time, An Qishan said with a sad face: "You all go out and leave me alone."

Everyone looked at the old lady.

The old lady sighed helplessly, and said to everyone, "Let's all go out."

With the old lady's order, everyone withdrew from the ICU ward.

The old lady kept holding Stefanie sun's hand and said with a loving look on her face: "Good boy, this is your first time here today, so you must stay at home for two days!"

Stefanie sun hurriedly said, "Grandma, this time I am here. I can't stay at home for a long time because my concert is about to start, and I have to fly back to New York overnight to prepare for the concert."

As she said that, she looked at the time and said, "Grandma, it's getting late, and it's almost time for me to go back to New York." The old lady said very reluctantly, "You've come so far, how can you be there at night? Go back, you have nothing to do when you go back at night, at least stay at home for a day, and go back tomorrow morning!"

Stefanie sun said apologetically: "I'm sorry, grandma, I really have too many things to do, tomorrow morning I have to do the final rehearsal, if I go back tomorrow morning, the time will be delayed."

For Stefanie sun, returning to charlie as soon as possible is the most important thing for her right now.

As soon as the old lady heard what she said, she immediately said, "Then grandma will go with you! If your grandfather can escape from death, I am relieved. I just happened to accompany you to New York and watch your singing by the way. Yes."

Stefanie sun felt nervous when she heard this.

She knew that charlie didn't want to meet the An family yet, and charlie had promised her that he would go to her concert to support her.

If the An family went there, they would probably recognize charlie and bruce because of their similar faces.

So she took the old lady's arm and said coquettishly, "Oh, grandma, I don't want you to follow me from the west coast to the east coast at night. In fact, I will have many concert tours in the United States. After that, the first stop on the west coast will be Los Angeles, and I won't come to my house to visit at that time, and I will give you VIP tickets, please go to my concert, can you?" The old lady was a little shaken.

However, when she thought that Stefanie sun was going to leave overnight, she was extremely reluctant in her heart, and she couldn't help choking: "Good boy, grandma is really reluctant to let you go. Said, just wait for charlie to be found, and tell charlie in person..."

Having said that, the old lady gently wiped away her tears and sighed: "But charlie is still missing, I don't know if I can live until the day he comes back, these words, I can only tell you, In case I don't live to come back to charlie in the future, you can at least help grandma to tell him!" Stefanie sun said immediately: "Grandma, don't be so pessimistic, I believe that it will not take long to find charlie. Brother, we will come to see you together!" The old lady had no choice but to nod her head, clenched Stefanie sun's hand tightly, and said very seriously, "Good boy, you are not allowed to lie to grandma, wait until you come to Los Angeles next time. , don't go anywhere, just fly over to see Grandma first, okay?"

"Okay!" Stefanie sun quickly agreed, saying, "Grandma, don't worry, then I'll just land on the runway in front of your house just like today. Come on!" The old lady felt better now, and pulled her and said, "Even if you want to leave tonight, you can't leave at this time. Your uncles and aunts are seeing you for the first time, and they say everything. You have to take some time to sit down and have a good chat, besides, the elders haven't prepared the welcome gift for you, why do you have to wait until you have received the welcome gift before leaving!"

After that, the old lady said, "Go, let's go upstairs. Sit down at the meeting room for a while!"

Stefanie sun quickly waved her hand: "Grandma...I really don't want any greetings..." The old lady shook her head and said, "You just go with grandma, here, everything is arranged by grandma."

Seeing this, Stefanie sun also agreed. Had to temporarily agree.

At this moment, the attending doctor stepped forward and asked very respectfully, "miss sun , can I take the liberty to ask you what kind of medicine you are giving your master?"

Stefanie sun said, "I didn't mean to say that. Is it the Sanxue Rescue Pill?" "Sanxue Rescue Pill?!" The attending doctor asked in surprise, "Is it Chinese medicine?"

Stefanie sun said proudly, "Of course."

The doctor in charge asked nervously: "Miss Sun doesn't know if you still have loose blood in your hand, so your heart is light, if there is, there is a ruthless feeling, that is, can you please give me a little blood to save my heart? Dan's pills, I want to do a test to see what ingredients such a miraculous medicine is made of."

Stefanie sun shook her head and said, "I'm sorry, I only have that one blood-relieving pill." The attending doctor still didn't give up, He asked: "Please think carefully about whether there is any stock in stock, or whether your father still has any spare blood to save the heart pill, if there is, I would like to cooperate with you to try The Blood Rescue Pill has been restored!"

To this attending doctor, his three views today have been completely subverted by the incomparable therapeutic effect of the Blood Rescue Pill.

Right now, there is only one thing in his mind. If this drug can be cracked and put into mass production, he will probably be soft on all the Nobel Prizes, and he may even be famous for it.

However, Stefanie sun didn't give him any chance, and said apologetically, "The blood-rescue pill is really only that moment. Maybe there is still life in the world, but it's definitely not in my hands." The doctor wanted to ask, but the old lady was a little unhappy . Now, he said coldly, "If you don't take good care of the master, what are you always chasing after Miss Sun?" The doctor was speechless when asked by the old lady, and quickly said respectfully, "Please don't worry, ma'am, I'll go back and take care of it. Master...:"

The old lady didn't speak any more, and the doctor didn't dare to continue pestering, so she quickly turned around and went back to the ICU ward.

Just as the old lady took Stefanie sun out the door, Hong Tianshi, who had not spoken, also hurriedly chased after him. When he came up, he said with respect and diligence: "Miss Sun, the poor man also wants to know, where does the blood-scattering heart-saving pill come from..."
