

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4521 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4521)

In fact, Hong Tianshi's heart was very tangled for a while.

He really did not believe in this blood-healing pill.

He always felt that the life-sustaining pill that he regarded as a treasure was useless, and there was definitely nothing in this world that could save An Qishan.

Unexpectedly, a young female star would have such a miraculous elixir, and even someone who was almost declared dead could be rescued abruptly!

The key is that An Qishan was on the verge of dying, and this blood-rescue pill not only pulled him back from the gate of hell, but even made him instantly recover as if he was not injured. This medicinal effect completely subverted Hong Celestial Master's understanding of the word elixir.

Although Taoist people pay attention to the unity of man and nature and self-cultivation, in fact, the most important thing they pay attention to is the way of alchemy.

In the feudal era, the Taoists who concocted pills with mercury and cinnabar and then ate the emperor to death were basically their predecessors.

When Hong Tianshi first started practicing Taoism, he also wanted to study the ancients' alchemy technique, but there are too few ancient elixir books in existence today. One piece is difficult to progress.

For so many years, he has also tried to collect various materials and various medicinal formulas, and then tried to refine many kinds of medicinal pills, but basically did not make any useful medicinal pills.

Repeated failures did not make him give up the pursuit of alchemy. On the contrary, as he got older, his sense of crisis became stronger and stronger. Therefore, in order to truly refine the elixir for longevity and longevity, he He began to retreat for a long time, shutting himself in his own dojo every day, and studying the art of alchemy.

But, so far, it hasn't worked.

Because of the countless setbacks, he even once thought that in this world, there may not be any medicines that can bring back the dead and prolong life. Everything is just a random fabrication by the ancestors of Taoism.

However, now that he saw the Sanxue Rescue Pill, he suddenly began to look forward to the technique of alchemy again.

That's why I ran over bravely, wanting to ask Stefanie sun about the information about Sanxue Jiuxin Dan.

Stefanie sun didn't have any prejudice against him, so he replied directly: "My father got this medicine by accident, but he didn't tell me how he got it."

When Tianshi Hong heard this, he immediately said anxiously: "Then can you trouble miss sun and give me the contact information of your dad? I really want to know, where did such a miraculous medicinal pill come from? ..."

Stefanie sun did not expect that this Hong Tianshi still wanted to break the casserole and ask to the end, so she could only say: "I'm sorry, my father is busy on weekdays, please understand."

Hong Tianshi said in a panic: "It doesn't matter, as long as you can spare a few minutes to tell me about the process of getting the medicine pill, I can fly to China to meet him and ask him for advice. ..."

Asher, who came back with the title deed document, saw Tianshi Hong pestering Stefanie sun with an ugly expression, and said, "Tianshi Hong, you scoffed at this Sanxuexin Pill just now, but now you come over to ask questions with a calm face. , Isn't this inappropriate? Don't all of you cultivators say that you are pure-hearted and have few desires?"

Hong Tianshi heard Asher's ridicule, and although he couldn't hold his face, he said very sincerely and frankly: "Master An, to tell you the truth, I am indeed a little bit of a sit-and-see, just when miss sun took out three blood to save her heart. Before the pill, I naively thought that the best pill in the world was the life-extending pill that I treasured, but now I realize that I was just a frog in the bottom of the well."

Speaking of this, he quickly said again: "It is precisely because I realize my problem that I really want to see the world outside, so I also invite Master An and miss sun to complete it..."

When Asher saw that Tianshi Hong had such a good attitude of admitting his mistake, he swallowed the sarcasm he had prepared in his heart.

However, he didn't want Tianshi Hong to continue pestering Stefanie sun here, so he looked at him and said very seriously: "Tianshi Hong, I told you just now that there are not only blood-scattering and heart-saving pills in this world. Pills, there is also a kind of rejuvenation pill, which can not only cure all diseases, bring back the dead, but even make people twenty years younger, so instead of holding on to the blood-rescue pill, you might as well look for this pill. .”

After hearing this, Tianshi Hong was stunned and asked, “Master An, aren’t you kidding me? Is there really a magic medicine in this world that can rejuvenate people?”

Asher nodded earnestly and said, “I used to scoff at this kind of thing just like you did. I didn’t know how amazing this medicine was until I saw it with my own eyes. If you are really obsessed with me, It’s better to look for clues about magical pill.”

Hong Tianshi asked excitedly: “Master An, where did you see Huichundan with your own eyes?”

Asher faintly spit out four words: “Chaina, Aurous Hill.”

“Aurous Hill?!” Hong Tianshi was a little impatient, and said with both hands: “Thank you, Master An! Pindao will return to the Taoist temple to prepare, and leave for Aurous Hill as soon as possible!”

After that, he looked at charlie’s grandmother again, and said with a face full of shame: “Madam, this time, not only did the poor man fail to cure Mr. An, but he almost got into trouble because of his stupidity, which is really ashamed... ..”

The old lady hurriedly said: “Hong Tianshi, please don’t say that, Qishan is critically ill, you can come out of the customs at the first time, and at the same time take out the life extension pill without hesitation, I am very grateful for this!”

Hong Tianshi sighed and said with emotion: “Ashamed... The poor Daoist has been practicing Dao for decades, but his mentality has not been completely corrected. It is really ashamed of the ancestor...”

After all, he thought of the old lady again and bowed and said seriously: “Madam, since Mr. An is safe, the poor road will retire first!”

The old lady hurriedly said: “Hong Tianshi doesn’t have to be so anxious. After all, he has eaten at home before leaving. I will send someone to take you back then.”

“No need.” Hong Tianshi shook his head and said reverently, “I’ll hurry back and pack up, and then book the earliest flight ticket to Aurous Hill tomorrow.”

Hearing this, Stefanie sun couldn’t help but feel a little anxious. She didn’t expect that Hong Tianshi would do what he said. If he really went to Aurous Hill, he might bring trouble to charlie.

However, at this time, she had no way to stop Tianshi Hong, so she could only sigh in her heart. After she planned to return to New York, she would tell Charlie about it as soon as possible, and let him return to Aurous Hill in the future. Be careful of this Hong Tianshi.

At this moment, Charlie didn't know Stefanie Sun's experience in Los Angeles.

Since Stefanie Sun took the plane to Los Angeles, he has been worried about his grandfather's health.

Moreover, Charlie was also afraid that his grandfather was seriously ill and Stefanie Sun would not be able to save him in time.

So, he couldn't help but send a message to Stefanie Sun.

Stefanie Sun's phone vibrated for a while, hiding from others to unlock the phone, only to find out that it was a text message from Charlie with only four words: "How's it going?"

She hurriedly replied with her fingers: "Grandpa is already fine, but he still suffers from Alzheimer's disease, and his memory seems to be degraded. Sanxue Jiuxin Dan failed to cure his problem..."

When Charlie saw this sentence, he couldn't help frowning, and muttered, "Alzheimer's disease? Did Uncle go to Aurous Hill to photograph Magical Pill just to cure Grandpa's disease?"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4523 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4523)

Thinking that his grandfather had Alzheimer's disease, Charlie felt a little emotional for a while.

In his impression, my grandfather was a very strong person. Not only was he strong all his life, but he also maintained a strong self-confidence and aura all the time.

For such a powerful person to have Alzheimer's disease, this is indeed an inhuman torture.

Although it will not kill people, it will destroy a person's iron will.

As for why the Sanxue Jiuxin Dan did not cure his grandfather's Alzheimer's disease, Charlie was not surprised. After all, the efficacy of Sanxue Jiuxindan was limited. After saving his grandfather and curing his cerebral hemorrhage, the potency of the medicine is probably almost exhausted.

Thinking of this, he sighed lightly, and replied to Stefanie sun: "It's fine, when are you going to come back?"

Stefanie sun replied: "Grandma won't let me go back now, she insists on giving me a greeting. , I don't know what to do, charlie, isn't it appropriate for me to accept the greetings from grandparents?"

charlie said, "It's okay, just accept whatever they give you, there's nothing inappropriate."

Stefanie sun was helpless, and replied: "Okay, I'll take it for you first."

charlie said, "Silly girl, since it's a gift for you, just take it yourself, why do you want to take it for me?"

Stefanie sun asked. With a shy expression, the text said: "your grandfather gave me a set of Eastcliff's house, saying it was for the two of us, let me keep it first, after all, I am your fiancée! According to his old man's words , After I find you, I will let us live in this house."

charlie shook his head and sighed, and replied, "Okay, no matter what he says, just keep it for now."

At this time, Abbas When he came to charlie, he respectfully said, "Mr. Wade, Jian and Fei Kexin's plane is coming soon."

"Okay!" charlie smiled and said, "The show is finally about to start, let's go, let's go. Airport!"

At this moment.

10,000 meters above the sky.

As the plane got closer and closer to the coastline, Fei Kexin was able to see the brightly lit city diagonally ahead of the plane through the window.

On the plane at night, big cities are extremely conspicuous, and the highly concentrated lights of thousands of homes can be seen clearly in the night sky even if they are separated by hundreds of kilometers.

The moment she saw New York, Fei Kexin's heart suddenly became a little nervous, she pointed to the lights and asked Jian beside her: "Grandpa...Look there...are we...are we coming to New York soon? Is it?"

Jian was closing his eyes and resting, when he heard the words, he suddenly opened his eyes.

He looked in the direction of Fei Kexin's finger, and he couldn't help but get nervous, and blurted out, "How long have we been flying?"

Fei Kexin said, "It's been more than ten hours."

"More than ten hours... "... Jian muttered softly, widened his eyes and said, "Then we have already flown over Europe... Below is the sea, and in the distance is such a large city... It seems... it really seems to be New York.!"

Fei Kexin suddenly felt a little uneasy.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4524 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4524)

She didn't know why charlie suddenly arranged for them to return to New York?

After all, his uncle has been looking for his and his grandfather's whereabouts all the time, and he has long since let go of his harsh words with his grandfather and will never let him return to the United States.

Now, charlie actually arranged for the two of them to return to New York, which is basically a sheep into a tiger's mouth.

Jian's center was as flustered, and he couldn't help but lowered his voice and said, "Mr. Wade is not going to hand us over to your uncle... If that's the case, your uncle will never let us go..."

Fei Kexin pressed Restraining the nervousness in his heart, he said seriously, "Grandpa, I believe that Mr. Wade is definitely not such a person!"

Jian asked back: "Then why didn't he send us to Syria? He clearly arranged for us, but before we got to Syria, he sent another plane to take us to New York... Fei Kexin shook her head and whispered, "

I don't know why Mr. Wade did this, but I believe that Mr. Wade will never harm us."

After that, she looked at Jian and said firmly: " Grandpa, we have long been cornered, it was Mr. Wade who saved us and has always protected us, so we must unconditionally believe in all the arrangements he made."

Jian hesitated for a moment, sighed softly, and said in a low voice : "When we come back from overseas, we will definitely be arranged to land at the international terminal. After landing, we must go through the customs first. Your uncle must have already made all preparations. As long as the two of us pass through the customs, he will be able to I got the news as soon as possible.”

After speaking, Jian continued: “How strong is our Fei family in New York, i don’t need me to tell you, although I don’t know what Mr. Wade wants to do, but I’m really worried. , he will misread the form...” “No!” Fei Kexin said without hesitation: “With Mr. Wade’s ability, everything to be done must be within his grasp, Grandpa, we must do it now. Yes, just follow the instructions, if the plane does land in New York later, Miss Xion will definitely receive Mr. Wade’s next arrangement, maybe, this will be a good opportunity for us.”

Jian looked on. Bewildered, he asked her, “Going deep into the tiger’s den... What good opportunity could it be...”

Fei Kexin shook his head and said, “I don’t know, maybe it’s ‘If you don’t enter the tiger’s den, how can you get a tiger’s son?’”

The flight of the plane high speed.

Ten minutes later, the coastline was clearly visible.

At this time, the plane had already started to descend.

After another ten minutes, Fei Kexin had already seen the brightly lit Long Beach and the most iconic building in New York, the Statue of Liberty.

At this time, Fei Jian Center was extremely anxious, but Fei Kexin became more and more calm.

New York was right in front of her, and she suddenly had a feeling that this trip to New York was a blessing rather than a curse.

She thought to herself: “Mr. Wade asked my grandfather and I to return to New York, it is absolutely impossible to harm our grandparents and grandchildren.”

“After all, Mr. Wade can refuse even a request for hundreds of billions of dollars to buy pill, so he will never It may be bought by the uncle.”

“Since it’s not hurting us, then Mr. Wade must have his deep intentions for doing this.”

“Perhaps, Mr. Wade intends to use some kind of power to force the uncle to allow me and my grandfather to go back to New York.”

“In that case, my grandfather and I don’t have to hide.”

Thinking of this, her brows stretched out, and she couldn't help but feel a bit of unknown excitement in her heart.

Soon, the plane landed at JFK Airport in New York.

At this moment, Jian's heart came to his throat.

Fei Kexin, on the other hand, became calmer and more hopeful.

Before the plane stopped, Xion received the message from Charlie, so after the plane stopped, she stood up and said to Jian and Fei Kexin, "You two, Mr. Wade just sent a message. , let us go straight through customs, he is waiting for us outside customs."
