

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4567 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4567)

The An family watched Stefanie sun's private plane take off, and then turned back to the villa reluctantly.

To Stefanie sun, the An family, without exception, both liked and grateful. After Stefanie sun left, the old lady even burst into tears, choked up and said to her children, "This is what your sister planted for your father and for us. The good fruit... If it wasn't for the fact that she set up this marriage for Charlie back then, I'm afraid your father's hurdle today... wouldn't be able to get through..."

Asher couldn't help but sigh: "Mom, you are right, If it weren't for Miss sun's blood-relieving pill, Dad might have passed away tonight..." The old lady said seriously: "We owe the sun family a huge debt for this matter, and we have to visit the door in person. Thank you, in my opinion, when your father is in better health, our whole family will go to Eastcliff to thank Stefanie sun's father in person, and we must not let people think that we are rude when we settle down."

Asher nodded: " Mom, you are right, for such a great affection, you really have to go to the door to thank yourself, but Dad has a poor memory now. I am afraid that he will soon forget about this kind of thing. When he hears that he is going to Eastcliff, I'm afraid 10,000 people don't want it."

Asher knew very well that after the accident in his sister's family, the old man always rejected Eastcliff and Aurous Hill. In daily life, even if he heard these two place names, he would be angry. He was scolded, and his current memory just stopped shortly after his sister's death. In this case, he would definitely reject him very much if he went to Eastcliff.

The old lady listened, nodded slightly, and sighed: "This is indeed a problem, then look at your father's state, if you can talk to him and let him know what the situation is, maybe he can still accept it, the big deal is Tell him every day." After speaking , the old lady sighed and said, "Actually, I want to take your dad to Eastcliff together, and I have another selfishness..."

Several people hurriedly looked at the old lady , waiting for her to follow.

At this time, the old lady said seriously: "I want to take your father to the Wade family to see your sister, and by the way, I will relieve the grievances with the Wade family for so many years."

After a pause, the old lady continued: "These years, although we have not had any contact with the Wade family, and even your father was very dissatisfied with them... But, the Wade family is your sister's in-law's family after all, not to mention, Charlie Although his whereabouts are still unknown, the blood flowing in his body is the blood of the Wade family and the An family. If Charlie is found in the future, for him, we will also have to let go of the old hatred with the Wade family. Instead of breaking the barrier at that time, It's better to say it earlier, so that when we find charlie, we can give him a complete and harmonious family. At that time, he will be supported by the An family and the Wade family at the same time, and he will be able to get on the right track as soon as possible. What do you think?"

Asher thought for a moment, then nodded and said, "Mom, I agree with your decision." Homula also said seriously: "Mom, I have the same opinion as my eldest brother."

Olin and Tablita followed without hesitation. expressed the same attitude.

The old lady nodded with relief and said with emotion: "What I worry most about now is that your father can't wait for the day when Charlie comes back. We have been looking for charlie for 20 years, and we have found nothing so far. I don't know how long it will take to find him. His whereabouts..."

Speaking of this, the old lady's eyes turned red and she sighed: "One or two years may be okay to say, three years, five years, ten or eight years, he must not be able to wait..."

Asher Hearing this, Qiu couldn't help sighing: "If only I could buy Rejuvenation Pill, Dad's problems can be solved easily." The old lady saw the effect of Sanxue Rescue Pill today, and she was very helpful to the pill. With great confidence, he hurriedly said: "Asher, let's go back to the living room. You can tell your mother exactly what happened to Pill this time. Recently, your mother has heard people talk about it, but I always feel that what they say is too mysterious. It's not like the real thing, so I can't tell the truth from the fake." Homula, who was beside him, nodded in agreement, "Yes, brother, recently, many people in the circle are reporting the magical effect of Pill, and I originally wanted to send someone to find a way to inquire. Just to verify, but there are a lot of things going on recently, I really didn't take the energy, I just thought that after you come back, let's have a good discussion and make a decision."

Asher looked at the time and said, "Mom, it's too late tonight, why don't you go back to rest first, Homula and I will accompany Dad, and when you rest, I'll tell you and everyone tomorrow. Talk about Pill." The old lady waved her hand and said, "No, Mom is not tired at all. If she didn't leave, I could hold her and talk for a night. Now that she's back in New York, I feel so empty, so I don't want to. I'm asleep."

After speaking, she looked around for a week and said to everyone, "Let's not rush to rest tonight, just organize a family meeting, and let's have a good chat." When everyone saw the old lady say this, they naturally agreed. After coming down, a group of people surrounded the old lady and returned to the living room.

After sitting down in the living room, Asher told the whole process of his previous trip to Aurous Hill in detail.

When everyone heard him dictating the magical effect that Pill brought to the bidders, everyone was dumbfounded.

Homula said in amazement: "Brother, I thought that these rumors must be exaggerated, but according to you, the rumors are not exaggerated at all. This thing can really turn people back in time?!"

"Yes Yes!" Asher sighed: "Unfortunately, I only saw the effect of a quarter of the rejuvenation pill, and I didn't have the opportunity to see what the magical performance of a whole rejuvenation pill would be after taking it..." An homula Immediately said: "This is simple, I will ask someone to directly investigate the guy who photographed Huichundan tomorrow, and see how much he has changed before and after."

After speaking, Homula said again: "I think, since it is possible to If you can afford Huichundan, then he must have his own medical team, all medical records and physical health conditions must have very detailed records, and this kind of person must have serious physical problems before bidding. Huichundan, so as long as we get his medical records, we can know what kind of physical condition he was in before taking Huichundan."

"Moreover, I believe that after taking Huichundan, he will ask his medical team to conduct a new assessment of his body as soon as possible, and use scientific means to intuitively show what happened to his body before and after taking Huichundan. All the changes, so as long as we can get his medical records, we can know how effective a whole rejuvenation pill is!"

Asher said hurriedly: "Mom, the safest way is to take Dad to participate next year. For the Huichundan auction, the Huichundan was photographed at the auction venue and consumed on the spot." The old lady sighed and said, "But according to what you said, they will only hold it once a year, and this year's has just ended, so the next time You have to wait another year. Although your dad's current physical condition is not a problem for another year, but he is living in grief every day. If it lasts for another year, I really don't know what will happen. With such an emergency as today, there is nothing we can do..." After speaking, the old lady said again, "You all heard Stefanie sun said just now that there is only this one left in the Sanxue Rescue Pill, so we must Make more plans, the auction is the last bottom line, if you can get the Rejuvenation Pill through other channels before the auction, that would be great!"

After the An family reached a consensus on the matter of Huichundan, the old lady's mood suddenly improved a lot. It seemed that her whole person was a little brighter, her smile was always on her wrinkled face, and her expression was full of expectation.

She couldn't help but sighed: "Fix the rejuvenation pill for your father, and then find Charlie quickly, that would be great!"

Homula on the side said quickly: "Mom, I plan to organize another group of people to go out. Look for charlie's whereabouts and see if you can find any valuable clues." The old lady said seriously: "We have invested a lot of human and material resources for so many years, but we have never found any clues about charlie, so I now suspect, Did we go in the wrong direction from the beginning?"

Homula asked: "Mom, what do you mean?" The old lady said, "I remember when we first searched the whole Aurous Hill several times, and then started from Aurous Hill began to spread throughout China, but after searching for more than ten years in China without any clues, we continued to expand the scope to the whole world, and we have not had any clues until now."

Homula said: "That's right, you know, It's not easy to find people, and sometimes, luck is not so good. All along, we have been looking for orphans with Chinese ancestry around the world who are about the same age as charlie, and then try to collect each other's DNA. This is the most foolproof way to compare the DNA information left by my sister."

After speaking, Homula added: "It's just that there are too many variables here. There are at least 100 million people of similar age. Even if we exhaust all our abilities and resources, it is impossible to compare all the DNAs of these 100 million people. If we can achieve 90%, there will be at least 10 million people. There is no comparison between people, and many things are often so unsatisfactory, many times the person you are looking for is in the 10% that you did not find."

Tablita also nodded and said: "Second brother is right, luck is this. There are many things that can't be described, even if you find one out of a hundred, you may find ninety-nine consecutively wrong."

The old lady also nodded in agreement and said, "So I think we shouldn't spread the stall so much now."

Homula asked, "Mom, do you mean to narrow down the search area?"

" Yes." The old lady said very seriously: "I think charlie is still in China." Homula said

: "Mom, there are more than 9 million square kilometers in China and a population of 1.4 billion. If you look for all of them again, at least you have to 10 years, and there is no national DNA information database in China. Generally, DNA information is left in the information database, either with a criminal record, or by going to the police to register and search for relatives, otherwise, most people will find." The DNA information will not be included, and it is very difficult to find." The old lady said very seriously: "It doesn't matter, this time we will start searching from China! Since we have already checked Aurous Hill, then Thoroughly investigate the provinces around Aurous Hill, especially the provinces to the south of Aurous Hill."

Homula nodded and said, "Okay, then I'll make arrangements first, starting with the provinces around Aurous Hill. "

Asher said, "Mom, Homula, Olin, and Tablita are all busy with the group, and they are not able to do anything. After I go to Eastcliff this time, I will stay in the country to find charlie's whereabouts."

The old lady nodded lightly: "Okay!"

At this time, the third Olin glanced at the phone that had been in Do Not Disturb mode, and suddenly exclaimed, "Something happened to the Fei family!"

"The Fei family?" Asher recalled his and Li Yalin's speculation, and blurted out, "Is there any scandal?"

"It's more than a scandal..." Olin blurted out: "The Fei family is going to offend the world this time! News It is said that the kidnapped kid from the Fei family tortured and killed at least 20 innocent girls, and there is video evidence!"

When everyone heard the words, their faces were horrified.

Asher hurriedly took out his mobile phone, and just after reading some news headlines, he knew that his good brother Li Yalin was afraid that this time he would not be able to guarantee the evening festival.

Out of brotherhood, he hurriedly said, "I'll go make a phone call." After that, he stepped out of the villa, came to the re-closed runway, and called Li Yalin.

At this time, Li Yalin was in the police station having a meeting with the top leader and a number of executives.

Just now, the head of the FBI in New York came over in person, scolded them, and even proposed that if they could not solve the case within the next 24 hours, the FBI would take over.

Li Yalin scratched his ears and cheeks anxiously.

If this case is taken away by the FBI, the face of the New York police will be completely lost.

And he was about to retire soon, so naturally he didn't want to leave the police station with such a big case, so now all his thoughts were on how to solve the case.

However, all the thoughts and clues seemed to have entered a dead end, making him go in and out repeatedly, but he couldn't find the key.

At this time, Asher's phone suddenly called. He quickly left the conference room, returned to his office and answered the phone.

After the phone call, Li Yalin asked, "Asher, how is the old man?"

Asher said, "Fortunately, survived."

Li Yalin breathed a sigh of relief and said, "That's good... It seems that tonight is not complete. It's a bad thing..."

Asher asked, "How about your side? I saw the news, and it seems that the two of us have guessed the matter."

Li Yalin said helplessly: "I didn't f*cking expect this. How could Jamura commit such a big thing...Have you watched the video circulating on the Internet? It's so f*cking beast!"

"I haven't watched it yet." Asher said, "I've been chatting with the old lady just now. , I didn't dare to open it in front of her when I saw the news feed."

After speaking, Asher added: "But you can guess what's going on just by looking at the title, such a big scandal is indeed a bit beyond. As expected, it seems that the man behind Jamura is really not an ordinary person."

Li Yalin blurted out: "It's more than just playing Jamura... Did you know that Mr. Fei suddenly came back tonight!"

"What?" Asher exclaimed: "When he comes back at this time, isn't it a death sentence? Zaki How could it be possible to let him go back to New York alive?"

Li Yalin blurted out, "Damn, the blame lies here! I went to Fei's house at night, and Mr. Fei was there! And what's even more weird is that Zaki actually took the owner of the house. He has given up his position!"

"He has given up?" Asher asked, "Could it be that he returned the position of the head of the family to Mr. Fei?" "No." Li Yalin said

, "It's even more incredible than this!"

After that, he said again: "Do you know Fei Kexin, the youngest granddaughter of Mr. Fei?"

"Yes..." Asher asked, "What happened to her?"

Li Yalin said: "The new head of the Fei family is her. !"

Asher was dumbfounded for a moment, he thought about it quickly in his mind, and blurted out: "It's not right! It's not just this thing that's wrong! Everything that happened recently in the Fei family is not right!"
