

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4601 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4601)

"It should be." Arman said earnestly, "Look at that woman and those two policemen who acted in such a big show just now, in fact, they just wanted to take away the surveillance video in my store. It took so much trouble, there must be something else. picture."

charlie asked curiously: "Uncle Arman, how did you judge that the woman and the two policemen were acting?"

Arman explained: "As soon as the store opened this morning, a middle-aged Chinese came to the store. After sitting down in the store, he absentmindedly ordered a meal, and then kept staring at the three surveillance cameras on my first floor. Keep watching, think about it, when a serious person goes to a restaurant to eat, who would pay attention to the surveillance situation? So I guessed at the time that he was either a gangster trying to grab some cash from me, or a plainclothes policeman."

Charlie asked, "What about after? He left after eating?"

"Yes." Arman said, "That guy quickly finished his meal, paid the money, and left in a hurry. As soon as he left, I quickly removed the hard disk in the DVR."

charlie nodded and said seriously: "Since the other party is ruled out as a gangster who intends to grab some cash, then eighty percent are the police."

"Yes." Arman said, "I was afraid that the police went around in such a big circle because they wanted to find the surveillance video about you and Miss sun, so I destroyed the hard disk first, and just now there was a sudden commotion at the door. The drama of grabbing the mobile phone, these two things are connected, and the other party's motive is very clear, he must be looking for an opportunity to remove my hard drive and go back to investigate, so I gave you a wink and asked you to stay away first."

charlie suddenly realized, and couldn't help but ask: "Uncle Arman, to be honest, if you hadn't winked at me, I really didn't see anything wrong with this matter. How did you judge it?"

Arman smiled slightly: "The script of their play is good, but the director and actors are still a bit clumsy in the arrangement. To put it bluntly, you don't pay attention to details. A place to wear."

After speaking, Arman said again: "It's as if people say that there is no real perfect crime in the world, but in my opinion, although it can't be absolutely perfect, it can be relatively perfect, as long as the murderer's heart is more powerful than all other crimes. The police must be meticulous, so even if his crimes are not absolutely perfect, they will not be discovered."

charlie nodded with a teachable face, and couldn't help but ask very curiously, "Uncle Arman, how did you find out that there is something wrong with this woman?"

Arman said: "You may not know much about it. In fact, in a place like Chinatown, although public opinion is mixed and the overall situation is relatively chaotic, generally no Chinese dare to loot in the street here. After all, everyone is Chinese, and it is easy to find out. Who did it, not to mention that there are several Chinese gangs entrenched in Chinatown. They charge protection fees here in the zoning area, and they also set a lot of rules. Ordinary petty thieves really dare not do it in Chinatown in broad daylight, so this It doesn't make sense for a woman to be robbed at the door of my store in broad daylight. Combined with the person who came to the store in the morning, I can basically be sure that there is something wrong with her."

"Besides that, there's another thing that's not right, that is, in places like Chinatown, when the police call is called, it is impossible for the police to come over within half an hour. This time, it came in less than ten minutes. It looks like they are already prepared. ."

charlie asked inexplicably, "The location of Chinatown is so good, and the police call didn't come for half an hour?"

"Yes." Arman said, "In the United States, wherever there are a lot of ethnic minorities, the police generally don't care much. On the one hand, there are many gangs and a high degree of autonomy, so the police are generally unwilling to get involved, on the other hand It is because no one in the jurisdiction has sponsored the police, so the police force in this area itself is small, and the response speed will naturally not be very fast."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4602 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4602)

After speaking, Arman added: "In this part of the United States, everything is market-oriented, and the same is true for the police. Every wealthy district in New York has a New York Police branch. The salary of the police in these branches is not the city government, but the rich. The wealthy people in the crowded area are responsible, and the cars they use for patrolling are also donated by the wealthy people in the wealthy area. In this kind of place, not only are people on duty 24 hours a day, but there are also police patrols 24 hours a day. In places where the police are generally not seen at all.”

charlie nodded lightly and sighed: “So that’s the case, for someone like me who doesn’t understand the situation, I can’t see anything abnormal here.”

charlie admired Arman’s sensitivity to details, and couldn’t help but praised: “I guess they must feel that they have performed very well, but I didn’t expect to avoid your eyes.”

Arman waved his hand and said humbly, “Young Master wade has praised me so badly, I can’t be considered a shrewd eye, but I have been in Chinatown for so many years, and I am too familiar with this place. If there is something abnormal about this place, I immediately can be noticed.”

After Arman finished speaking, he smiled slightly, and added: “It is no exaggeration to say that after staying in one place for a long time, even if the barking of the dog next door changes a little more than usual, you can still hear it.”

When Arman said this, he asked charlie with concern: “Master wade, why are the police following you? Did they have any clues at Wanlong Palace?”

charlie shook his head and said, “Wanlong Palace didn’t leave any clues, but I had something to think about myself, so I asked a girl with a more sensitive identity to send the Fei family grandfather and grandson to New York, and I did. I didn’t want to be so detailed, I just naturally asked the girl to bring people over, but ignored the clues she would leave after entering the country.”

With that said, charlie added: “Li Yalin has already led someone to block the headquarters of the Fei Group, fortunately I received the news in advance and let the girl go first, otherwise, if the New York police really find it, things will be really tricky. already.”

Arman hurriedly asked: “Master wade, what is the specific situation, can you tell me in detail?”

charlie had nothing to hide from Arman, so he told Arman about the whole process of asking Xion to escort the Fei family grandson and grandson to Syria, and then temporarily asking her to send them to New York. .

After Arman heard it, he nodded slightly and said, "This matter is indeed a little ill-considered, but it is understandable that you have dealt with it very well as a whole, and it is normal for you to omit one or two small details."

Speaking of this, Arman sighed: "Li Yalin is a little bit ill-considered this time! If you can't find anyone in such a big way to block the Fei Group, his good days will come to an end."

"Yes." charlie nodded and said, "I didn't expect that he would act so impulsive."

"It's understandable." Arman said: "He used to be very smooth, almost all his own cases were solved, and he helped others in cases that others could not solve. He also successfully solved cases one after another. But something big happened, which affected the reputation and image he had worked hard for half his life, and at this time, his mentality would definitely be greatly affected."

With that said, Arman said again: "It's like a professor in the field of mathematics, who has never been able to stump him with any problems in his life. He could have retired with a victory record, but at this time, he couldn't solve it after more than a dozen courses in a row. He has opened a puzzle, and everyone is under the podium to see how he solves the problem, it must be difficult for him to control his mentality in this situation."

"Yes." charlie nodded in agreement and said, "This matter is indeed unfair to him."

Arman smiled slightly and said, "Time is also fate. Not everyone can have smooth sailing. There will always be some setbacks. It's just a matter of time."

After that, he asked charlie: "Mr. Wade, since you said that Wanlong Palace did not reveal any clues about you, why did the police find me here?"

charlie thought about it and said, "It should be because of my uncle..."

charlie thinks about it now. At that time, he heard the news that his grandfather was critically ill on the second floor of the restaurant, and then immediately asked Stefanie sun to go to Los Angeles with Sanxue Jiuxin Dan.

Therefore, as long as the uncle's trajectory from Stefanie sun to Los Angeles starts to reverse, he will definitely focus on Uncle Arman's roast goose shop.

Arman saw charlie's helplessness and knew what he was thinking, so he comforted him: "Master wade, your life is at stake, you had no other choice at the time, fortunately your uncle probably hadn't noticed yours. exist."

charlie sighed: "I went to your store with Stefanie. If he finds the surveillance video, he will probably recognize me. I guess Li Yalin sent someone to find your surveillance video, and he also wanted to find out who Stefanie was with. What's special about being together."

Arman smiled slightly and said, "You can rest assured about this, there are not many surveillance cameras outside Chinatown. There used to be some, but when they were installed, they were smashed. There is no surveillance camera outside the main entrance of the store, and even if there is one in the opposite store, it is impossible to capture me here because of the angle."

After saying that, Arman said again: "We don't dare to hang the camera outside the store, so generally the outermost camera is also installed on the top of the inside of the door, and then it is inclined to cover the entire store entrance. , but because the angle of the camera is 45 degrees diagonally downward, it can only be arranged on the sidewalk on your side at most, and you can't take pictures of the motor vehicle lane, and you can't take pictures of the opposite side, so you don't have to worry about it."

When charlie heard this, he nodded slightly: "That would be the best."

Arman said with some melancholy: "Master wade, since you don't want to expose yourself, you should try not to come here in the future... Your uncle and Li Yalin have their eyes on this place, and they will definitely pay attention to me here in the future. "

"Yes." charlie nodded and said seriously: "After the concert tomorrow, I may not come to New York for a short time. This place is full of gold and ruins. Behind the financial capital of the drunken gold fans, no I know how many dirty things are hidden, so I don't have a good impression of this place."

Arman smiled, nodded with a little melancholy and said, "It's rare to find a second city like New York that breeds so many crimes, whether it's the glamorous Wall Street, or the filth. Dirty slums, full of gang-specific evil;"

"The evil of the slums is to go straight, violence, shootings, poisoning, and human trafficking, but the evils of Wall Street are far more terrible than the slums. Those successful people sitting in the skyscrapers of Wall Street, just sitting together and smoking a cigar, It can decide the life and death of tens of thousands, hundreds of thousands, or even millions of people in a certain third world country, and in the face of interests, it treats human life like a mustard.”

Seeing that Arman was also quite emotional, charlie couldn't help but ask, “Uncle Arman, you have been in the United States for so many years, have you ever thought about going back?”

Arman was slightly startled, then looked up at charlie, and said seriously: “Master wade, to be honest, I want to go back, although my old father is gone, but my mother is still alive, now she is too old, I also want to be at her old man's house. filial piety around...”

Speaking of this, Arman sighed softly: “It's just that when Mr. sun made peace with Liu Sheng, I promised Liu Sheng in front of both of them that I would not return to Hong Kong Island in this life.”

charlie said lightly: “Uncle Arman, Liu Sheng from Hong Kong Island, I really don't care about. As long as you want to go back, I will solve all this for you.”

Arman stood up, clasped his fists in both hands, cupped his hands and said, “Young Master wade, you are very powerful, not to mention one person named Liu, even if there are ten people named Liu, they will never be your opponent...”

Speaking of which, Arman said in a very ashamed manner: “However, Young Master , as a gentleman says, it is hard to chase after a horse! I, Arman, are not afraid of death, but I am afraid that others will poke me in the spine and say that I am a villain who goes back on his word...”

So... Please don't put pressure on the surnamed Liu for the next thing, since he kept his promise and stopped chasing me, I should also abide by the promise and never return to Hong Kong Island in this life!”

charlie was slightly stunned when he heard it. He felt that Arman was bright and upright, but also felt that he was too decent and set too high a moral benchmark, and it was only himself who was tormented.

However, charlie could see the firmness in his eyes at this time, and knew that this matter could not be forced according to his own ideas. If he wanted Arman to let go of the things of the past and move forward, he still had to follow the words of his ancestors. The bell must also be tied to the ringer.

Otherwise, even if he asked Wanlongdian to escort Arman back to Hong Kong Island and used his strength to force the surnamed Liu to bow to his knees, Arman would still feel that he was a little shorter in his heart.

In fact, Charlie didn't think about changing his rhetoric with Arman. Although he had an agreement with the surnamed Liu that he would not return to Hong Kong Island, he did not make an agreement with the surnamed Liu that he could not return to the mainland, so if he could not go back to Hong Kong Island, he could follow. When I went back to the mainland and worked in the Wade Group, with the support of the Wade Group, even if the surnamed Liu knew, it would not be possible for him to come to Ye Jiaxing to question him.

However, when the words came to his lips, Charlie finally didn't say anything.

He knew that as a person of Arman, he would definitely not refuse his request for the sake of his father's kindness and life-saving grace for him.

But he also knew that that incident and the people involved in that incident were a knot in Arman's heart.

He shouldn't let him devote himself wholeheartedly to the business of the Wade Group before the knot in his heart is opened.

Therefore, Charlie decided that after his wife Claire's master class in the United States was over, he would take some time to go to Hong Kong Island and have a good chat with the man surnamed Liu. It was best to let him take back the original. The request to Arman allows Arman to return to Hong Kong Island freely.

After he returned to Hong Kong Island and his mind was over, he threw an olive branch to him.

As soon as he thought of this, Charlie stood up and said to Arman, "Uncle Arman, I understand what you mean, don't worry, I assure you that I will never do anything to force the other party. If I, Charlie, have this ability, I will convince the surnamed Liu to come to New York and invite you back, if I don't have this ability, I will not use my strength to force the surnamed Liu to submit."

When Arman heard this, he wanted to say something, but after hesitating for a moment, he endured it again.

Immediately, he looked at Charlie, nodded gratefully, and said seriously, "Thank you, Young Master Wade, for your understanding!"

charlie looked at the time and said, "Uncle Arman, I still have some things to deal with, so I won't bother you. Stefanie sun should invite you to go to her concert tomorrow, right? If you have time, we will see you then. ."

Arman shook his head and said, "Master , I won't go to miss sun 's concert. Your uncle should still be in Los Angeles today, and Li Yalin's attention will be on the Fei Group for the time being. As for the matter at hand, it is estimated that you will come to me and ask about Miss Fei."

"As long as Li Yalin didn't recognize that I was with miss sun when Jamura disappeared that day, I can still say that miss sun came to the store just by chance for a meal, and I was only concerned with making a living all day long, and I didn't care about it. I know some big stars, so I didn't notice;"

"If they didn't have the clue that I knew miss sun , they would probably be able to prevaricate this time, but if they found out that I went to miss sun 's concert tomorrow, it would be difficult to explain this matter, maybe Li Yalin will remember me."

charlie nodded understandingly, and said, "Uncle Arman, since that's the case, I'll come to see you next time I have a chance to come to New York!"
