Claire seems to understand charlie's feng shui theory.

I always feel that it makes some sense, but it also feels a little mysterious.

However, most of the time she was in awe of things she didn't understand, so she didn't raise any questions.

And charlie, who was beside her, was already a little nervous and uneasy in her heart at this time.

It wasn't that he was worried that he would be exposed to his grandfather's family at night, but he couldn't help himself, and he had a feeling of being close to the nostalgia.

In his heart, although he complained a little about what his grandfather's family had done back then, subconsciously, he still had a blood relationship with his mother's relatives.

Tonight, it will be the first time he has been so close to them in more than 20 years, and it is inevitable that he will be nervous.

At the same time, charlie's grandparents, with several children, had arrived at the Anbang Building in Manhattan.

Taking the elevator all the way to the top floor of the Anbang Building, the old man sighed and sighed repeatedly to his wife and children: "If only Lydia (Ava) ( Charlie's mom ) was still there... She put so much effort into this building, but this After the building was actually put into use, she never came here..."

The old lady said quickly, "You are just recovering from a serious illness, so don't think about those sad things. Don't forget what we are doing in New York today."

The old man asked blankly, "Why are you here?"

The old lady said helplessly: "I just told you again in the car! Let's come to New York today to see Charlie's fiancée's concert!"

"Oh..." The old man nodded and said, "I remember... Watching Charlie's fiancée's concert..."

After he finished speaking, he looked at the old lady and asked, "Where's Charlie? Is Charlie going too?"

The old lady rolled his eyes at him and said, "Charlie hasn't been found yet!"

The old man said angrily: "I thought it might be because I couldn't remember clearly, Charlie has come back, but I forgot..."

The old lady sighed and said sadly, "It would be great if it were like that."

While talking, the elevator reached the top floor.

A group of children and grandchildren, surrounded by the two of them, walked out of the elevator.

As soon as the elevator on the top floor of the Anbang Building came out, it was a hall with all floor-to-ceiling windows. At this time, you could even see a large cloud of clouds drifting past the window not far away.

This skyscraper was invested and constructed by Charlie's mother back then. The total height reached 370 meters, surpassing the Chrysler Building and the Bank of America Building in New York. It is the third tallest building in New York and the largest building in Manhattan. , the best and most expensive property.

At that time, Charlie's mom insisted on investing huge sums of money in the construction of Anbang Building, mainly hoping to use this landmark building to endorse the insurance and financial business she attaches great importance to.

Therefore, when she was only in her twenties at the time, she led the establishment of Anbang Group. In addition to this building, she also had an insurance company, a financial company and a commercial bank.

Insurance and finance are undoubtedly industries that require great trust, and Anjia's construction of the multi-billion-dollar Anbang Building in Manhattan is the best credit guarantee.

In this world, there are many insurance companies and many financial companies, but there are only a handful of insurance companies and financial companies that can build a skyscraper in Manhattan, where land is expensive.

Anbang Group is one of them.

Although An family made a fortune in Los Angeles, it really grew bigger and stronger from two other places, one of which is Silicon Valley and the other is New York.

Back then, Lydia (Ava) invested in a large number of companies with great potential in the future at very low prices in Silicon Valley. In order to better help these investments to do deeper capital operations, An Jia went to the financial center of the United States, New York, in the United States. This is where the core of the entire settlement is built.

Anjia has many group companies and has invested in countless companies, but the real core group of Anjia is Anbang Group.

After the establishment of the Anbang Group, Lydia (Ava) ( Charlie's mom ) merged the funds that invested in Silicon Valley into the Anbang Group, making Anbang Group the largest Internet venture capital enterprise in the United States, and the most important core enterprise of the entire Anjia.

Qishan, Charlie's external police officer, worked in the Anbang Building until he retired. Later, he handed over the management of the family business to Charlie's second uncle, Homula, so it became Homula's office. Place.

On weekdays, only Charlie's eldest uncle Asher, second uncle Homula, third uncle Olin, and aunt Tablita who accompany the old couple in Los Angeles all work in New York.

Some time ago, the old man's health was getting worse and worse, so the others temporarily put down their jobs and returned to Los Angeles to be with the old man.

The old man has been suffering from Alzheimer's disease since he left office, so he has hardly been here all these years. He suddenly came back here and was a little stunned. He walked to the floor-to-ceiling window, overlooking the Manhattan scenery, and sighed softly. : "The building is still this building, but the outside seems to have changed a lot..."

Asher knew that the old man's memory had gone back to 20 years ago, and Manhattan 20 years ago was naturally very different from now.

So he walked up to him and said, "Dad, Manhattan has changed a lot over the years."

The old man nodded, pointed to a taller building in the distance, and asked him, "Asher, what is that building, why is it so tall? I've never seen it before."

Asher hurriedly said: "Dad, that is the World Trade Center. It was completed and put into use a few years ago, and it is now the tallest building in New York."

"Oh..." The old man nodded slightly and said thoughtfully, "I have no impression at all..."

Asher said, "Dad, you haven't been to New York much in the past few years, and you probably haven't seen this building much."

The old man smiled bitterly: "My brain is not easy to use, even if I have seen it, I can't remember it."

After he finished speaking, he turned to look at Homula and instructed: "Homula, if charlie can be found in the future, this building will be given to him. After all, this is his mother's hard work."

Homula said without hesitation: "Okay dad, I wrote it down. After I find charlie in the future, I will hand over the property rights of this building to him."

The old man nodded and whispered in his mouth: "I don't know if charlie looks like his father or his mother now. I remember that charlie looked a little more like a seductress when she was a child?"

The old lady hurriedly said: "Actually, it still looks more like bruce. When I was young, I didn't grow, and my parents have shadows, but I feel more like bruce's charm, and when I grow up, I will definitely be more like bruce, definitely like his father, he is a handsome man. handsome boy."

The old man paused slightly and said with emotion: "Aiya... bruce, bruce... This bruce is good anywhere, but she doesn't know how to praise her!"

Speaking of this, the old man suddenly got a little excited and said: "You said, if he listened to me, he would happily enter the family and settle down with me, as An Qishan, as I do An Qishan's favorite daughter! I can make him Did bruce suffer any grievances in the An family?!"

The old man suddenly became furious, causing everyone to look at each other in dismay.

Everyone knows that this is a hurdle that the old man has been unable to overcome.

He never understood why bruce insisted on returning to Eastcliff with the strength and sincerity of the An family back then.

But others knew in their hearts that the old man's thoughts were too selfish.

When he faced bruce, he always had that kind of high-minded thinking.

It's like a big boss who wants to poach people. The other party can only make 1 million in another company, but he is willing to pay 10 million or even tens of millions.

All, in his opinion, the other party has no reason to reject him.

But how could he have thought that bruce was unwilling to accept his olive branch.

This made the old man very frustrated all the time, and even a little bit angry.

Originally, he admired bruce very much. Even though bruce's family strength was far less than that of An family, he could see that bruce was definitely a character, even better than his three sons.

It was precisely because he recognized bruce very much in his heart that he wanted to let bruce settle into her home.

Because he knew very well that among his children, only the eldest daughter, An Lydia (Ava) ( Charlie's mom ), was the most outstanding, and bruce was not only on a par with his own daughter, but they were also highly complementary.

If the two of them stay in the Anjia together, then the Anjia will definitely be able to soar, and in time, it may surpass the Saudi royal family and the Rothschild family and stand on the top of the world.

However, Bruce did not.

He has pride and ambition in his heart.

He doesn't want to stay in Anjia to pick up ready-made products, but he hopes to return to his motherland and his own family. Whether it is for a small family or everyone in the future, it is the most suitable for him to return to China for development.

One insisted on staying and the other insisted on leaving, which once made Mr. An very mad.

What made him even more unacceptable was that his daughter was determined to go with Bruce, which made him even more angry.

Originally, he wanted to keep Bruce, and Lydia (Ava) had the best of both worlds, but as a result, things were going to go in the direction of chickens and eggs. How could he bear it.

It is precisely because of this that the old man has always had a bad face towards Bruce, and the relationship between the two is like an enemy.

After An Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) and Bruce got married in Eastcliff, the old man became furious as soon as he heard the three words Bruce, and it has been like this until now.

The old lady on the side saw that the old man was competing with him again, so she quickly said with relief: "Go to Qishan, Bruce has been gone for so many years, if you are like this, don't say it again in the future."

The old man frowned and asked angrily, "He doesn't know how to praise! In the end, Lydia (Ava) was implicated! My daughter was killed by him, I can't scold him!?"

The old lady reassured: "Chose the road by herself, life and death, wealth and wealth are his own decisions, and it has nothing to do with others."

The old man said angrily: "You are completely self-deceiving asshole logic! Although Charlie's mom chose, Bruce, as her husband, should protect her! You should always think about her and think about her! Something happened to Lydia (Ava)!, how can he not be responsible as a husband?"

The old lady said anxiously with red eyes: "But Lydia (Ava) is no more! How do you know that he didn't protect him at that time? It's just that the matter was beyond his ability, and he even got into it, what else can you do to him? "

The old man said emotionally, "Can't I hate him when he's dead?"

After all, the old man looked around for a week, looked at a few children and asked, "You said, even if Bruce died, can I still hate him?!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4620 ( The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4620 )

The children also looked at each other in dismay at this time, not knowing how to answer.

The old lady sighed helplessly and reminded seriously: "Qishan, I have to make it clear to you, whether you hate Bruce or not, I can't control it, but your attitude towards Bruce must be changed in the future. !"

The old man's stubborn temper also rushed up, and said sternly: "I won't change it! In the future, when I die, even if Lord Yan calls the Jade Emperor and the Tathagata for a tribunal, my An Qishan's attitude towards Bruce will never change! "

The old lady said angrily: "Okay! You are capable! You don't change! When Charlie comes back in the future, the family mentions Lydia (Ava) and Bruce, if you dare to say these things in front of Charlie, Charlie will definitely cut off ties with you, Old and dead never communicate with each other! If you force away the great grandson I finally found, I will cut off relations with you too! If you don't believe me, just wait and see!"

The old man was angry just now, but when he heard this, the whole person suddenly felt like a deflated ball.

He knew that the old lady was naturally unlikely to cut ties with him, but if his grandson Charlie really came back, if he still had this attitude, then his grandson would definitely not forgive him.

After all, no one would accept others humiliating their deceased parents.

Thinking of this, the old man sighed deeply and said sullenly, "You are right... I will change... I will definitely change..."

After speaking, he sighed with some low emotion: "I don't know if I can see charlie again before I die..."

Seeing his attitude change, the old lady relaxed, and said comfortably, "Don't worry, I believe that charlie will be back soon."

The old man hurriedly asked, "Why are you so sure?"

The old lady said seriously: "Stefanie are here, and charlie will not be far away. God will definitely let charlie come back for the sake of Stefanie 's infatuation."

"God..." When the old man heard this, he couldn't help muttering, and he was dubious in his heart.

At this time, Asher, who was on the side, said, "Dad, you can survive without danger this time, and it all depends on charlie's fiancée. I think this is God's will. If God cares for you so much, he will definitely let you live to see Chen. Son."

When the old man heard this, he nodded thoughtfully.

At this time, a staff member walked over quickly and said respectfully, "Master, Madam, Detective Li of the New York Police Department is downstairs and said he wanted to come up to visit."

The old man said in surprise: "Yarin? Quick, let this kid come up!"

The old lady reminded from the side: "Yarin and Asher are not a few years apart, and this year is over fifty."

"Oh..." The old man suddenly came back to his senses. When he thought of Li Yalin just now, he thought it was twenty years ago.

Soon, Li Yalin, accompanied by the staff, took the elevator to the top floor of the Anbang Building.

As soon as he saw the old man, he hurriedly stepped forward and said respectfully, "Uncle An, are you in good health? I originally wanted to go to Los Angeles with Asher to see you, but there were a lot of things in the past two days, so I didn't leave. Open, please forgive me!"

The old man looked at Li Yalin and asked in surprise, "Are you Yalin?"

Li Yalin was stunned for a moment, looked at the other people, then looked at the old man, and nodded quickly: "It's me, Uncle An, I'm Yalin, Li Yalin."

The old man couldn't help but said: "You... why are you now like leaving with your father for the past two years, your aunt told me that you are over fifty this year, and I think you will be over sixty if you talk less, what's going on? How did you create this for yourself?"

Li Yalin said embarrassedly: "Hey... I have been busy with work all these years, overworked, and I don't pay attention to maintenance, but I am older than the average peer..."

After speaking, Li Yalin said again: "Oh, by the way, Uncle Li, don't think that I am only in my fifties and have already retired early."

The old man was even more puzzled, frowned and asked, "Why did you retire so early?"

Li Yalin said with a wry smile: "I planned to retire next year. I have neglected my wife and children for so many years. They were angry with me and moved to Houston two years ago. If I don't retire earlier to accompany them, I'm afraid I will have to accompany them in the future. I cut ties."

The old man couldn't help but ask: "I plan to retire next year, why did I retire early now?"

Li Yalin shrugged his shoulders awkwardly: "Uncle An, this is just because the child has no mother, it's a long story..."
