

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4681 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4681)

Regarding going to the United States, although Elaine had already made up his mind, he didn't know how to talk to charlie and Claire for a while.

Of course, she didn't dare to directly say that she had spent all her money, and now she has no money to live, and she just won a prize to fly to the United States for free, so she flew over to join her daughter and son-in-law.

Therefore, she made up her mind to find her daughter Claire first to sell it.

However, it was already two o'clock in the morning in the United States at this time, Elaine hesitated for a moment, and decided to wait until the evening on the China side and the morning on the American side to make a video with Claire.

At the same time, charlie, who was in the United States, after confirming that Claire was asleep, put a little spiritual energy into Claire's mind to ensure that she could sleep more steadily, then got up and dressed and left. Shangri-La Hotel.

He was going to see the man whose limbs were cut off by him.

Find out who the other party is.

At the door of the hotel late at night, a low-key black Cadillac has been waiting here for a long time.

Abbas sat alone in the driver's seat, and when charlie came out, he was about to push the door and get out of the car to open the door for charlie.

charlie waved his hand at him, quickened two steps, opened the co-pilot's door, and sat in directly.

As soon as he got in the car, Charlie asked, "How is that guy?"

Abbas replied respectfully: "Mr. Wade, that person has been safely controlled, and there are special people watching at all times. In order to ensure absolute safety, I have all his teeth pulled out. He has no hands or feet. It's impossible to commit suicide."

"Okay." Charlie nodded with satisfaction, and asked again, "Did you find anything when dealing with the corpses of the gangsters?"

"Yes." Abbas said: "We roughly checked, and there are a few points to report to you."

Having said that, Abbas paused for a moment and continued: "First of all, their weapons and equipment are very advanced. The cost of individual soldier equipment is several times more expensive than that of the individual soldier equipment of the US special forces. The bullets are all specially made dummy bullets. When the bullet hits the human body, it will produce a powerful cavity effect. Once a hole is hit, the key point is that the gangsters also specially increased the amount of gunpowder in the bullet, raising the power of the bullet to a new level."

"It's amazing that an eight-star warrior can carry dozens of bullets with this kind of power. Normal people, even those of the level of boxing champion Tyson and Dwayne Johnson, would definitely be killed by one shot."

Having said this, Abbas continued: "Secondly, although these people are not martial arts people, they seem to have strengthened their bodies in some way, not to mention their physical strength is very strong, definitely not very human.!"

Charlie asked curiously: "How did you find out that their physical strength is very strong? When I faced them, I didn't find any cultivation base or anything special about them."

Abbas said: "Judging from the amount of gunpowder of their bullets, when fired, the recoil of the gun will become very large, and the recoil is comparable to a large-caliber sniper rifle. In this case, even a well-trained special forces soldier, when firing, you must also lie on the ground and use your shoulders to firmly press the butt of the gun to resist the recoil. If you stand up and shoot with the gun, it is generally impossible to suppress the muzzle, and your arms can be shaken with one shot. Going numb, it's even more impossible to fire with a gun, and they can stand up and quickly empty the entire magazine, which proves that their physical strength is extraordinary."

"Moreover, my people reported that their flesh and bones are much stronger than ordinary people, and they are even better than martial arts masters."

Because their meridians are not open, they rely on the strength of their flesh and bones to improve their combat effectiveness.”

After speaking, Abbas said again: “I suspect that they should have other ways to greatly improve the physical fitness of these gangsters. After all, the continuous shooting of this intensity is enough for the three-star warriors to be stable and stable, and they can finish the fight quickly. The entire magazine can still look unchanged, and the strength is at least above the four-star warrior.”

charlie couldn't help frowning, and said coldly: “These people are well-armed and well-trained, and they are methodical and well-prepared for martial arts masters. Even if they are not martial arts masters, they must know martial arts masters very well and know martial arts masters. Where are the shortcomings, and then develop targeted tactics.”

“Yes!” Abbas said seriously: “No matter what organization they are, their method of greatly improving the physical fitness of ordinary people is really terrifying. Although there are tens of thousands of mercenaries under the Wanlong Palace, they are truly terrifying. There are only a few hundred people who can practice martial arts, and the rest do not have this qualification at all, and most of these hundreds of people will never break through the height of three-star warriors in their lifetimes, and these people can actually use it. There is a known way to raise ordinary people to this level, and if they can achieve mass coverage, their strength must not be underestimated!”

charlie frowned subconsciously, and said, “I've never heard of this method for ordinary people...”

With that said, charlie asked him, “Have you heard of it?”

“Mr. wade, there are none of my subordinates.” Abbas said: “I know that there are also some martial artists outside who have joined some mercenary groups, but today is the first time I have encountered this, and there is no direct clue yet, but, Before those corpses were disposed of, I had them collect their faces, fingerprints, and DNA. When the time came, I would find a way to compare them in databases all over the world. Let's start with the identities of these people, as long as the identities of the members are confirmed, You can dig up more clues along with it.”

"Okay!" charlie nodded and exhorted, "These people may be very dangerous, and the real strength of the organization behind them may be above the Wanlong Palace. When you investigate the identities of these people, you must pay attention to concealment. , don't expose it, now is not the time to face the enemy."

Abbas said solemnly, "Okay, Mr. wade, your subordinates understand."

charlie nodded and said, "Go to Long Island, you will meet that guy."

Twenty minutes later.

A black Cadillac drove into the manor on Long Island, New York.

When charlie stepped into the basement, he saw the leader of today's group of gangsters, who was being fixed on a chair at this time. He was extremely sluggish and was dying.

His amputated limbs were wrapped in bandages, and his mouth was full of blood. Above the severed arm, someone had put an infusion needle on him, and a packet of medicinal liquid was hanging above it, which was being continuously delivered to the body.

Abbas said to charlie, "Mr. wade, this guy has always resisted very strongly. I had someone give him a tranquilizer, and he should be in a coma now."

charlie nodded, stepped forward, reached out and lightly placed his hand on the opponent's head.

Immediately afterwards, I saw the man's body trembling slightly, and then he slowly raised his head.

The man opened his eyes and saw charlie in front of him with a panicked expression, and blurted out, "It's you..."

charlie sneered: "What? Are you surprised to see me?"

The man thought that charlie could cut off the legs of himself and more than 20 subordinates with a single move, and blurted out in horror, "You... Who are you!"

charlie said indifferently: "It's not your turn to ask me questions now."

With that said, charlie stared at him and said sternly: "Listen to every word I'm going to say next, my method, I believe you have already learned it, so I won't say much, from now on, you must ask questions. If you make me feel that you are fooling me, I will make your life worse than death, and I will not give you a second chance, do you understand?!"

charlie's words made the man in front of him extremely frightened.

He couldn't help thinking of the bloodbath a few hours ago, when charlie turned him and his subordinates into cripples by himself.

He had never heard of this kind of terrifying power like this.

What's even more terrifying is that he never saw charlie make a move!

Even charlie had no physical contact with them at all.

This is the point that disappoints him the most.

With his knowledge of martial arts masters, even a dark realm master would not be able to achieve such a strange long-range strike!

The internal strength and infuriating qi of a martial arts master can only achieve the so-called bullying from the air at most, and the distance is extremely limited, and the power will be greatly reduced.

Like charlie, who can burst out such lethality without contact at all, in his opinion, the strength may have reached a demigod!

And he still clearly remembered that when he crushed his dentures and the venom penetrated his whole body with his blood, charlie was able to use a mysterious force to withdraw all the toxins from his body.

Even now, he can clearly feel that the venom is still intact in his belly, and that mysterious power tightly wraps all the venom, so that the venom is completely isolated from his body.

Therefore, at this time, charlie, in his eyes, was like a god of death wielding a sickle.

Frightened, he blurted out and pleaded, "Sir, please give me a treat...kill me..."

"Do you want to be happy?" charlie sneered and said lightly: "To tell you the truth, the people you are going to kill today are my grandparents' family, do you think I will give you happiness? Since you want to be happy, then I just want to make you suffer, and suffer for a lifetime."

After all, charlie stared at him and said coldly: "I think you are only in your thirties. Although you have no limbs, it should not be a problem to live for a few more decades. It just so happens that I still have some elixir that can prolong life. It should be easy for you to live another sixty or seventy years. It just so happens that there are more high-tech now, and there are some drugs that can make your nervous system amplify the pain hundreds of times. The combination of the two will make you For the rest of my life, every day will have a new experience!"

Hearing this, the man suddenly smiled, shook his head and said, "Impossible... Even if you don't give me a good time, in a few days, I will definitely die..."

charlie couldn't help frowning, and asked coldly, "What? Do you think you can still kill yourself now?"

The man shook his head and said with a wry smile: "I'm like a ghost, how can I still have the ability to commit suicide."

After that, he smiled miserably and said, "For us people, we have only seven days to live after we come out. Once the seven days are up, if we can't return to our lives, our skin and muscles will burst and die. By then, I will rot here and become a puddle of flesh and blood. Don't be too surprised when it's muddy."

“Seven days?” charlie snorted coldly when he heard this, stepped forward and put his hand on the top of his head.

Immediately afterwards, a spiritual energy flowed into his body from the Tianling Gai.

It was only at this time that charlie discovered that this person’s physique was indeed different from ordinary people.

None of the eight extraordinary meridians are connected, but the strength of the body is not inferior to that of the five-star warrior, just like steel and iron bones.

Moreover, even though his limbs have been chopped off, under the existing muscles, the sense of strength is also very surging, the heartbeat is much stronger than ordinary people, and every beat is like a high-pressure pump, pumping blood violently to the blood vessels throughout the body.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4684 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4684)

It’s just that right now he’s losing too much blood. Although his heartbeat is strong, his blood vessels are a little shriveled.

In addition, what surprised charlie even more was that this person looked like steel and iron, but he was not really steel and iron, but completely relied on the surging power hidden under his flesh and blood.

This power seems to be only temporarily stored in his body to help him strengthen his body, but it was not tamed by him, but was forcibly bound in his body by some force.

Because, charlie found that this force has been trying to attack outwards.

With the continuous impact of this force, the force that binds it is also gradually weakening, but each time it only weakens a little bit.

In this way, after a few days, this force will indeed break through this bondage, and at that time, it is estimated that his body will likely be smashed to pieces by this force.

At this time, charlie finally understood why, after begging himself to give him a happy ending, he acted like he was accepting his fate.

It seems that even if he doesn't give him a good time, he will surely die in a few days.

charlie smiled slightly at this time and said, "Don't worry, you can't die with me here."

After all, he used his spiritual energy to directly seal the force in his body that had been pounding outwards.

In terms of the strength of that power, after charlie's aura sealed it, even if it could keep hitting without any attenuation, it would not be able to rush out in 10,000 years.

The man's expression before was still very sullen. At this time, he immediately looked at charlie in horror, and blurted out: "You... what did you do to me?"

charlie sneered: "The power in your body that you can't control yourself has been completely sealed by me now, so you can live a hundred years! Maybe ten years in hell."

After he finished speaking, he turned to look at Abbas and said sternly, "abbas, if he doesn't explain honestly, use all the means you can think of, if he doesn't explain honestly in the past few days, take him with you. Go to Syria, build a special cellar to keep him in it, strip him naked and throw him in an iron cage, then power up the iron cage, and inject him with enough drugs, so that his feelings are amplified 7×24 hours a day What is it like to have a hundred times the electric shock!"

When the man heard charlie's words, he trembled violently in horror.

Seeing that charlie's expression was extremely cold, he knew that what charlie said just now had absolutely no moisture.

If you really refuse to cooperate, I am afraid that you will experience eighteen layers of hell-like pain for the rest of your life...

He is not afraid of death.

Those brothers with him are not afraid of death.

He is also not afraid of torture.

After all, he has been severely trained for so many years, and he has an extraordinary ability to endure all kinds of torture.

However, he was afraid of endless, endless torture.

Thinking of this, he said emotionally: "I said! I will say everything! As long as you promise to give me a treat after I finish speaking, I will know everything!"

charlie said coldly: "You are not qualified to talk to me about conditions. If you want me to give you a good time, just answer my question properly!"

The man nodded fearfully and said, "You ask, I know, and I will definitely answer!"

charlie asked coldly, "What organization are you?"

"Organization..." The man hesitated for a moment and said, "I don't know what organization we are... I only know that people like us are called dead men in the organization."

charlie asked, "What is a dead man?!"

Hearing charlie's question, the man, like a conditioned reflex, widened his eyes and shouted hoarsely, "Those who live for the sake of death and are willing to go to the dead for the British Lord at any time are the dead ones!"
