

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4685 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4685)

After the man shouted, he realized that he was now a prisoner, and the whole person suddenly slumped again and stopped talking.

However, seeing charlie's eyes was full of awe.

charlie asked coldly, "Who is your so-called hero?"

The man looked up at charlie, and said in a trance: "I...don't know..."

"You don't know?!" charlie said coldly: "You keep saying that you can die at any time for him, now tell me you don't know who He is?! Do you think I am a three-year-old child?!"

The man said with great fear: "I really don't know... From the day I can remember, I know that I want to dedicate everything to the Lord, but I really don't know who the Lord is, and I have never met the Lord. ..."

charlie frowned: "Who told you to dedicate everything to the Lord?!"

The man hurriedly said, "My parents..."

"Parents?!" charlie asked coldly, "What role do your parents play in this organization?"

The man said: "My father, like me, is also a dead man... He died in a glorious battle thirty years ago... As for my mother... She is the daughter of other dead soldiers, and was given to my father by the British Lord... ... After my father died, she committed suicide by taking poison at the request of the British Lord..."

charlie was shocked when he heard this!

Sounds like this, the structure of this organization seems to have exceeded my imagination.

So he continued to ask: "Your father is a dead man, and your mother is the daughter of another dead man, does that mean that all the boys born to the dead man have been raised into the next generation of dead men since childhood, and died A girl born to a soldier will be married to another dead soldier and continue to raise the next generation?"

"Yes..." The man nodded and said: "This is the case with every dead man, starting from the first generation and has been passed down to the present, one generation is the dead man, the next generation is the dead man, and the dead man is the dead man. Women, the only choice is to marry the dead man, have children for the dead man, and reproduce the offspring. If you want to leave the dead man in the future, you can only have the chance to be promoted if you make military exploits..."

charlie was horrified.

From the perspective of the reproduction of the dead, it can be concluded that this is a mysterious organization with a long history, and the structure of the organization is extremely strict, even so strict that it can cultivate the dead from generation to generation!

Moreover, this person's father cannot be the first generation of dead men, because his mother is the daughter of other dead men, that is to say, he is at least the third generation of dead men.

What is the concept of three generations? Judging from his age in his thirties, each generation has a span of twenty years, and the time span of these three generations is at least seventy years!

Abbas on the side was also stunned.

Even he had never heard of such a terrifying mysterious organization.

charlie asked at this time, "What generation of dead are you?!"

"I..." The man said in a trance, "I am the tenth generation dead man..."

"Ten generations..." charlie was dumbfounded!

Ten generations of dead men, spanning more than two hundred years...

Abbas on the side couldn't help but exclaimed: "Mr. wade, if you look at it this way, there is no need to check the faces, DNA and fingerprints of this group of people today, because it is impossible to find..."

The man also smiled bitterly and said: "There is really no need to investigate, the dead are the slaves who are supported by the organization. They will never intermarry and never escape, so we people, in any national database in this world, There is no record, let alone fingerprints, faces, and even DNA has long been locked. After ten generations of reproduction, our DNA is basically no longer related to any ethnic group with anyone in the outside world. To put it bluntly , we are the slaves that no one knows in this world, no one knows when we live, no one knows when we die..."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4686 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4686)

For the first time in charlie's heart, he felt an indescribable tension.

This tension is not derived from fear, but from a fear of unknown giants.

The mere existence of the dead man has subverted his three views.

He couldn't imagine how huge this organization really was.

Immediately, he saw that the person's expression was slumped, and he didn't seem to be absolutely loyal to the organization, so he asked, "According to what you said, you seem to have a lot of criticism about this organization and the British Lord?"

"Criticism?" The man laughed miserably, "I wish I could kill all the people in this organization to avenge my father, my grandfather, and my ancestors from the past nine generations!"

Speaking of this, he smiled bitterly again: "But I don't have the ability... We have been shackled by the organization since we were young. The organization has given us superhuman power, but that power is also a bomb hidden in our bodies. , every seven days, we have to take a drug that suppresses that power, otherwise we will burst and die, so we can't escape, we don't dare to escape, and we don't dare to resist, because everyone's life is organized firmly in control, not just of me, but also of my wife, and my two children..."

charlie raised his eyebrows and asked, "You already have a child?"

"Yes." The man nodded, with a rare hint of tenderness between his eyebrows, and said, "The dead man is the age of marriage when he is twenty years old, and he will marry a woman of the right age among the descendants of the dead man according to the requirements, for the dead man to reproduce, my wife is also the daughter of a dead man, and she gave birth to two sons for me, the elder is thirteen years old and the younger is ten years old."

charlie asked again, "Then who will raise your two sons?"

The man said: "In life, it is raised by my wife, and the other time is trained by the older dead soldiers. After reaching the age of sixteen, they will become the next generation of dead soldiers and begin to perform tasks for the organization. If you die, you can stay and be a mentor to young people."

charlie asked, "Have the dead man ever thought about resisting?"

"Of course." The man said: "Every generation of dead people want to resist, but it doesn't make any sense. We leave the organization and our life is only seven days. There were people who didn't believe in evil in the past and always felt that they could fight against the power in their bodies, but none of them did. The exceptions are all dead."

Speaking of this, the man added: "The organization still has strict rules, one person defecting, the whole family sits together, if I want to escape, let's not say whether I can live for seven days, my wife and children will all be killed, so we are like they were slaves who were controlled by white people back then and had no chance to resist."

charlie asked curiously, "Do you still know about white people and slaves, and have you learned these?"

"I did." The man nodded: "We had a lot of courses to learn when we were young, and we have a certain cultural foundation."

charlie asked him, "Where do you usually live? Which country?"

"I don't know..." The man shook his head and said, "As far as I know, we have lived in an underground base since my grandfather's generation of dead men. In this underground city, every time a mission is about to be released, the organization will make a mission list, and then inject drugs to everyone on the list."

After the injection, we don't know anything, and when we wake up again, it's time to where the mission is."

After speaking, he paused slightly and continued: "Like this time, after we injected the drug underground, we woke up and arrived in New York."

charlie frowned and asked, "Then how did you perform the task? Who gave you the task? Who guided you to the stadium?"

The man blurted out, "It's the guide."

"Guide..."

charlie whispered something in his mouth and asked, "Have you met the guide?"

"No." The man explained, "I don't know who the guide is. When we came to New York this time, when we woke up, we were already in a closed garage, where the organization left the equipment needed for the mission. As well as some information, the information lists the target, the kinship of the target, and the social relationship, as well as the masters around them. Because we know that there will be several high-level warriors, we specially prepared enhanced weapons for us. It also reminded us what to pay attention to and what tactics we should adopt, and then gave us a certain amount of time to familiarize ourselves with the information, and then we waited for the departure notice.

charlie asked, "What do you mean by transfer?"

The man said: "The organization does not allow any form of direct contact between us and the guide, so the guide will connect the situation to her contact person in the organization, and then the contact person will pass the message to me."

Charlie asked him, "How does your contact person pass the information to you?"

The man replied: "They left us with communication equipment, but only my equipment can hear the voice of the docking person."

charlie asked again, "Is your contact person male or female?"

The man shook his head: "With a voice changer, I don't know if it's a male or a female."

charlie said at this time: "So, my third aunt should be your guide. She reported the appropriate attack time to your docking person, and your docking person will then direct you to attack."

The man nodded and said, "It should be, I saw that the woman who was taken out seemed to have committed suicide by taking poison. She must be someone from the organization."

charlie asked him, "Then the order you received was to kill all the people inside, or to keep some people alive?"

The man said, "The order is not to let us leave any alive."

charlie frowned: "Wouldn't that even kill the guide? Does the guide know that?"

The man shook his head: "I don't know if she knows."

charlie asked him, "Do you know anything about the guide?"

"I don't know much." The man shook his head and said, "Guide and dead man are just different identities in the organization. Among them, the news of dead man is the most obscure, because we have been under the strict supervision of the organization, which is equivalent to prisoners, so There is almost no way to get additional information, we know what the organization tells us to know, and we have no way of knowing what the organization doesn't let us know."

charlie nodded lightly, and asked him again, "If your task is completed, what will be the follow-up process?"

The man said: "After the task is completed, we will withdraw to the garage and receive drug injections there. We don't have to worry about the rest, and the organization will take us back."

charlie looked at him and asked, "Your subordinates have committed suicide by taking poison. How will your organization treat your family?"

The man said: "We have failed our mission this time. The organization will define us as loyal to the British Lord, so they will not embarrass our family. On the contrary, they will treat our family better."

charlie said lightly: "No wonder you and your subordinates are very decisive when taking poison to commit suicide."

"Yes." The man nodded and said, "For the vast majority of the dead, they basically don't have a good death, and most of them die tragically. If they die faithfully, there is no pain. If you can exchange better living conditions for your family, you can be regarded as a well-deserved death."

Charlie asked again, "How big is the scale of your dead soldiers?"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4688 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4688)

"The scale of the dead soldiers?" The man thought for a while, then shook his head and said, "I don't know either... The dead soldiers camp we are in has a total of 1,110 households, 1,900 dead soldiers, the total population, men and women, old people Together, there are probably several thousand people."

charlie asked in surprise: "So, your organization is not only your part of the dead?"

"Yes." The man nodded and said, "There are death camps all over the world, but I don't know how many there are."

charlie was more and more shocked, thought for a moment, and asked again: "You said that you were injected with drugs before you came, and you were in New York when you woke up. Do you know how long you have been in a coma?"

"I don't know." The man shook his head and said, "In the camp of the dead, no one is allowed to know the date and time. We can't see the sunrise or sunset, just the lights are on and the lights are off. Moreover, I have quietly calculated that our daily routine in the death camp does not seem to follow 24 hours a day. They seem to deliberately make a slight deviation in the time of each day. Today is longer than yesterday, and yesterday is longer than the day before yesterday."

Over time, even if we know the exact time when we set out on the mission, after a period of time, the records will be biased.”

charlie asked him, “How did you calculate the time deviation?”

The man said: “I made a very fine hole at the bottom of the bowl, filled it with fine sand, started from the time the bell rang on the first day, and leaked until the bell rang the next day, and then drained the fine sand again. Once again, when the bell rings on the third day, the fine sand will sometimes leak out ahead of time, and sometimes it will not leak out in time, so I guess that the time inside is different from the time outside, so after a long time, we don’t know the end of the outside. What year and month?”

charlie asked curiously, “Are you doing so many things quietly to find a chance to escape?”

“It doesn’t count.” The man smiled wryly and said, “Even if there is a chance to escape, it will inevitably be a death. I would like to know more about the mechanism of the dead man’s operation. If there is a chance to escape, put it in the dead man’s camp. If everything was exposed, it would be great if I could destroy the dead man’s camp so that no one would repeat my mistakes in the future.”

charlie nodded and said lightly: “It seems that you have not been completely brainwashed by the organization.”

“Brainwashing?” The man shook his head and said, “The organization disdains to brainwash us. Our own lives and the lives of our families are in the hands of the organization. It doesn’t matter whether we are brainwashed or not. Slave, from this point of view, we can be regarded as the people who hate them the most in the world, but they don’t care, because they know that we have no guts and no ability to betray the organization.”

charlie nodded slightly, knowing in his heart that what this person knew was almost finished.

At this time, Abbas asked, “You should know where the garage you woke up from?”

“I know.” The man said truthfully, “The garage we woke up in is in Brooklyn, New York.”

Abbas looked at charlie: "Mr. Wade, this is the only place where they and the organization have intersected. Those people set up the garage in advance and will definitely leave a message. If we use this as a clue to check back, we should be able to check. to some clues!"

charlie waved his hand and said lightly, "No need to check."

Abbas hurriedly asked, "Mr. Wade, this is the only clue!"

charlie said seriously: "Then there is no need to investigate. Since the other party is so cautious, the clues that should be dealt with have already been dealt with. When we go there to investigate at this time, we will only expose ourselves, and even if we find any clues, we will It doesn't make any sense. We are far from having the strength to compete with such an organization. All we know now are the dead soldiers and the guides, and we don't know how many dead soldiers, how many guides, and more. I don't know, apart from the dead soldiers and the guide, what other organizational structures they have, maybe the real strength of the other party is greater than we imagined."

Abbas hesitated for a moment, but nodded slightly.

Even charlie said that, and he didn't dare to act rashly.

charlie looked at the man and said lightly, "You cooperated well today, but I'm not ready to kill you for the time being."

After finishing speaking, he said to Abbas: "Abbas, I'm leaving, you secretly bring him to Syria to take good care of him, and don't let anyone outside the core members of Wanlong Palace know of his existence."

Abbas nodded without hesitation: "Don't worry, Mr. Wade, I will arrange it!"

charlie looked at the man again and asked, "What's your name?"

The man said gratefully: "Mr. wade, let's go to May 47!"

charlie asked him, "Which five? Wu of Wushu, or Wu of Shan Liren?"

"Neither." The man smiled bitterly: "It's a number, I don't have a surname or a first name, and even my ancestors didn't know what their original surname was. We were just born and given a number by the organization, and then we used this number. Just for the name."

charlie had mixed feelings in his heart, was silent for a moment, nodded lightly, and said seriously: "You live well, I will let you see this organization completely perish with your own eyes!"

In the eyes of May 47, an unprecedented light of hope suddenly flashed, staring at charlie, and respectfully asked: "Mr. Wade, I have answered so many questions from you, I hope you can consider it for the sake of your cooperation and tell me. Next, how did you completely seal the power in my body?"

charlie smiled coldly and said, "My strength is far stronger than it!"
