

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4797 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4797)

Because he has not received a complete higher education, charlie understands the feeling of wanting to study but having no chance in his heart.

That's why he hopes to help Xue Shiyu continue to read until Xue Shiyu is unwilling to read.

Xue Shiyu was extremely grateful to charlie, so she said gratefully: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will work hard to finish my studies and I won't let you down..."

charlie said seriously: "You don't need to care about my feelings, as long as you don't let yourself down."

"I understand!" Xue Shiyu nodded heavily.

charlie asked her, "Since you plan to go back to school, then you don't have to stay on Hong Kong Island, right?"

"Yes..." Xue Shiyu said: "I have already received the admission notice, I just need to complete the registration process within the specified time, and then update the visa before going."

"Okay." charlie nodded and asked her again, "What major are you studying at Tokyo University?"

Xue Shiyu hurriedly said: "I am in the Faculty of Economics of the University of Tokyo, studying the Graduate School of Economics."

charlie said in surprise: "Economics, it needs to be combined with practice, not just study hard."

Xue Shiyu nodded: "If it wasn't for an accident at home, I would have planned to find a company for an internship."

charlie smiled and said, "That's right, there is a good opportunity for an internship right now."

After finishing speaking, charlie pointed at Zyaire and said, "You have seen this MR. Zyaire too. At first glance, he is from a grassy background who does not read much. Now that Mr. Mike wants to sell the company to him, I am afraid that he will not manage well. , you might as well help him manage the company during the period before school starts."

When Zyaire heard this, he nodded quickly and said, "Mr. Wade is too right. The next thing is that he has read too little and suffered from lack of education. Otherwise, he would not be reduced to being a young and dangerous boy."

However, Xue Shiyu said in a low voice: "Mr. Wade...you want to give me an intern position, I may be able to do it, but you asked me to help MR. Zyaire manage the company, I'm afraid I don't have the ability now, If I can only talk on paper, I'm afraid it will bring losses to the company..."

charlie waved his hand casually: "Then you don't have to worry at all, let alone have a psychological burden. For MR. Zyaire, it's just a company bought for 10,000 yuan. What if you mess it up? It's just the ten thousand yuan that has been lost, so you can use it to practice your hands normally, and you don't need any pressure."

Having said that, charlie said again: "What's more, I'm not making you fully responsible, I'm just helping MR. Zyaire complete the transition, and by the way, I'll help him sort out the management process."

Hearing this, Mike was heartbroken: "Although this company is going to sell to Zyaire for 10,000 Hong Kong dollars, the actual market value of this company is more than 2 billion! Just give it to a girl who just graduated from the undergraduate course to practice. , this surnamed wade seems to really not take money seriously..."

At this time, Zyaire also followed charlie's words, smiled and said to Xue Shiyu: "Miss Xue, what Mr. Wade said is quite right, I'm an old man who doesn't read much, and I'm from a grassroots background. Miss Xue, help a talented student like you!"

Xue Shiyu hesitated for a moment, then nodded and said, "Mr. Wade, then I will do my best!"

charlie nodded slightly and said to Zyaire, "Okay, MR. Zyaire, you and Mr. Mike still have a contract to sign, so hurry up and get down to business."

Zyaire hurriedly bowed and said, "Mr. Wade, then I will retire first!"

After all, he pulled Mike up, threw it to the younger brother behind him, and ordered, "Let me watch over him, and when you go out later, don't let him talk nonsense."

"As ordered, Sect Master!" The younger brother responded respectfully, and then the two of them supported Mike one by one and took them out of Liu Jiahui's office.

At this time, charlie said to Xue Shiyu and another girl: "You guys go back too, remember what you saw and heard today, and don't tell anyone."

Xue Shiyu nodded again and again, and the other girl beside her nodded like garlic.

Xue Shiyu was rescued by charlie twice, so naturally she would not tell anyone about charlie, and the other girl who was brought with her was also full of jealousy of charlie, so she didn't dare to offend charlie in the slightest. .

After the two girls left, Liu Jiahui couldn't help feeling: "Mike wanted to introduce two young newcomers to me today, which is really interesting, but I didn't expect that he would lose his company just by visiting... .."

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but sigh in his heart: "Yesterday, charlie called Abbas, the master of the Wanlong Palace, to Lan Kwai Fong. He could have completely crushed Zyaire, but in the end he turned aside and released Zyaire. Ma, it turns out that the real intention is here... After Zyaire came back from the gate of the ghost gate, he was not only absolutely in awe of charlie, but more importantly, he had become 100% obedient, leaving such a person on Hong Kong Island and Hong Kong The door, almost instantly gave charlie a huge foundation on Hong Kong Island..."

Thinking of Mike again, he sighed even more in his heart: "This guy Mike is really blind, but he took the initiative to send him to the door today and became the target of charlie's military training. It seems that if he wants to stay on Hong Kong Island in the future, he will only I can be a man with my tail between..."

Seeing that Liu Jiahui's eyes were rolling, charlie seemed to be thinking about something, so he asked with a smile, "What is Mr. Liu thinking, so absorbed."

Liu Jiahui came back to his senses and said hurriedly, "No...nothing, I just think that Mr. Wade's move of leaving Zyaire is really wonderful. This step alone will make your situation on the entire Hong Kong Island alive."

charlie smiled and shook his head: "Mr. Liu is a bit over-interpreted. To be honest, I never thought of playing chess on Hong Kong Island from the beginning to the end, leaving Zyaire, but just a dog that can bite Huzaifa all the time. This is to ensure that Wanlong Palace can get the funds provided by Huzaifa on time. As for today's events, I did not expect it. How could I have imagined that Mike would come to your office? The character of the gentleman should be disdainful of being in the company of such a person."

Liu Jiahui hurriedly waved his hand and said, "Mr. Wade misunderstood, I don't have much friendship with Mike..."

charlie smiled and said, "I won't mention these."

Speaking, charlie asked him, "Does Mr. Liu know why I handed over Mike's entertainment company to Zyaire?"

Liu Jiahui shook his head and asked subconsciously, "Mr. Wade thinks he is more controllable?"

charlie smiled and said, "No, I just don't care about the shabby entertainment industry."

After speaking, charlie said again: "As for Mike's business and the gossip inside, I have heard passively before, it is nothing more than a bunch of unsightly flies and dogs, I really put his business in my name, charlie. , is equivalent to taking a brothel woman as a concubine, I, charlie, really can't afford to lose that person."

"I would rather be close to a young and dangerous boy like Zyaire than have any contact with most of the stars in the entertainment industry who do not agree with each other, and, in my opinion, those who are rich immediately pay attention to them. And the rich people who stretch their hands and feet into the entertainment industry and hang out with stars of the opposite s*x all day long, the pattern is generally not enough, and the real rich people must know what it means to be clean."

Having said that, charlie looked at Liu Jiahui and said with a smile, "Mr. Liu should know better than me what the real entertainment industry is like."

charlie's words made Liu Jiahui's expression stunned.

It was the first time he had heard such remarks.

If it was someone else who said this, he would definitely sneer, thinking that the other party was just a hypocritical self-promotion.

On Hong Kong Island, where the entertainment industry is very developed, which man does not want to get involved in the entertainment industry and have some scandals with heteros*xual stars after he has money?

There are not a few people who even marry celebrities back home.

But charlie felt that it was a shameful thing for him to be related to the entertainment industry, which was obviously inconsistent with reality.

However, when Liu Jiahui thought about it carefully, he immediately discovered a very surprising fact.

That is, on Hong Kong Island, those who really like to mix with celebrities are often the rich second generation.

And the wealthy generation who are really self-made, most of them don't pay attention to the entertainment industry.

Even, this often happens on Hong Kong Island.

The son is crazy to pursue the big star in the entertainment industry, and even once wanted to marry the big star back home as his wife.

However, the head of the family did not give him any chance at all, and directly shut out the star.

Even some stars have given birth to a few children to the rich second generation, but in the end they have not been able to marry into the wealthy family.

The reason is that the wealthy generation who started from scratch are much stronger in ability, courage, knowledge and self-positioning than the second-generation rich with a golden key. Compared with the second-generation rich, they are not in the same rank at all.

In the eyes of the rich generation, the big stars who are infatuated by the rich second generation are simply unacceptable, let alone marrying home as their daughter-in-law.

From what charlie said just now, it can also be seen that charlie's rank is also much stronger than that of the rich second generation.

In charlie's eyes, the entertainment industry that everyone in the rich second generation likes has absolutely nothing to do with it.

After thinking about this, he said with a red face: "Mr. Wade, you are right... Really successful people really shouldn't get too close to the entertainment industry..."

charlie smiled slightly and said, "I almost forgot that Mr. Liu had a lot of interactions with the entertainment industry back then. I just said my personal opinion, Mr. Liu doesn't have to take it to heart."

Liu Jiahui smiled awkwardly, and quickly changed the subject: "Mr. Wade, let's talk about cooperation!"

charlie looked at the time and said with a smile, "It's almost noon, why don't we talk after lunch, what do you think?"

"No problem." Liu Jiahui hurriedly said, "Then it's not too late to talk after lunch."

charlie nodded, and the phone suddenly received a call from Fei Kexin.

So he said to Liu Jiahui, "I'm sorry, Mr. Liu, I'll take a call."

Liu Jiahui hurriedly said, "Please."

charlie pressed the answer button, put the phone to his ear, and said, "Hello, Miss Fei."

On the phone, Fei Kexin said respectfully: "Mr. Wade, I'm calling to report to you that the plane that Arman is taking will land at Hong Kong Island Airport in about two and a half hours, that is, at 2:00 pm local time on Hong Kong Island. , please be prepared to deal with it."

charlie glanced at Liu Jiahui, he and Liu Jiahui were sitting opposite each other, and the distance was relatively far. If he wanted to come to Liu Jiahui, it would be impossible for Liu Jiahui to hear the content of the phone, so he smiled and said: "Miss Fei is interested, I have arranged everything here. "Miss Fei can rest assured."

As he spoke, he heard the faint whistling of the aircraft engine on Fei Kexin's phone, so he asked, "Is Miss Fei on the plane now?"

"Yes." Fei Kexin said hurriedly: "I was just about to report to you. In order to ensure that Mr. Arman's repatriation is safe, I brought Master jay over here. Our plane is expected to arrive at Hong Kong Island at 2:30. Considering that Mr. Arman must go through the handover procedure at the customs, so although we landed half an hour later, we should go out of the customs one step ahead of Mr. Arman."

You must know that the Fei family is the second largest Chinese family in the United States. Its real strength is several times stronger than that of the Li family on Hong Kong Island. It belongs to the absolute top giants!

Thinking of this, he became even more determined to curry favor with charlie and strive to turn charlie into a son-in-law!

He thought excitedly in his heart: "I'm only worth 100 billion Hong Kong dollars, and I'm worth more than 10 billion in US dollars. In front of charlie's strength and connections, it's not even a hair! If this can catch up with charlie In this line, my network will expand to the world's top!"

Thinking of this, Liu Jiahui hurriedly said to charlie with a face full of pleading: "Mr. Wade, if you are going to pick up Miss Fei at the airport this afternoon, can you let me accompany YOU? To be honest, I have always wanted to meet the Fei family and the An family in the United States. People, it's just that these two families are much stronger than the next, and I haven't been able to find a suitable opportunity..."

The reason why charlie wanted to pick up Fei Kexin at the airport on the phone was to better fool Liu Jiahui to the airport. Unexpectedly, before he even opened his mouth, Liu Jiahui took the initiative to take the bait.

So, he smiled cheerfully and said, "Okay, it's a small matter. Since Mr. Liu wants to meet Miss Fei so much, come with me in the afternoon!"

charlie couldn't help sighing: "Miss Fei, you have already helped me a lot in this matter, there is no need to go so far in person and toss it so hard."

Fei Kexin said without hesitation: "Mr. Wade, you are serious. You are as dear to Kexin as a mountain. Kexin just did such a thing, so it's hard to talk about it."

In fact, Fei Kexin also knew that since charlie himself was on Hong Kong Island, he would be able to keep Arman safe and sound.

And although she said that she came to Hong Kong Island to ensure that Arman was safe, she actually wanted to come and meet charlie.

After all, she is her benefactor, and she is the one who she thinks of day and night. She also hopes to seize every opportunity to meet charlie.

And this time to come to Hong Kong Island, in her opinion, is the most suitable time to see charlie now.

charlie had never thought that Fei Kexin would come, but then he thought about it, Fei Kexin's arrival added a bit of drama to the matter.

So, he looked at Liu Jiahui, smiled deliberately and said, "Since Miss Fei has come so far, I must go to the airport to meet her in the afternoon. Let's meet at the airport in the afternoon."

Fei Kexin was originally worried that her unsolicited behavior would bring trouble to charlie and make charlie dissatisfied, but when he heard charlie said these words with a smile, there was a big stone in his heart. It disappeared without a trace in an instant.

She was so happy that she wanted to tell charlie that there was no trouble, but after thinking about it carefully, charlie would definitely be going to the airport to pick up Arman in the afternoon, and he was just dropping by.

So, she said with great joy: "That's hard work, Mr. Wade, see you at the airport!"

"Okay, see you at the airport!"

charlie deliberately made the three words "see the airport" very clear, and then he hung up the phone, and Liu Jiahui, who was opposite, asked, "Mr. Wade, do you have a friend coming to Hong Kong Island?"

"Yes." charlie smiled and said, "Miss Fei Kexin from the Fei family in the United States, I wonder if Mr. Liu has heard of it?"

Liu Jiahui was stunned and blurted out: "Fei...Miss Fei?! Is that Miss Fei who just took over the Fei family and became the head and chairman of the Fei family?!"

"That's right, it's her." charlie smiled slightly: "Miss Fei came to Hong Kong Island to help me with some errands, and will be here in the afternoon."

In Liu Jiahui's heart, his respect for charlie has risen to a new level.

He really did not expect that charlie is not only the master of Wanlong Palace, but also has a deep relationship with Yisu Shipping, and even has such close contacts with the Fei family!

He didn't even expect that charlie would have such a big face that Fei Kexin could fly over from the United States to help him in person!
