

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4821 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4821)

Liu Jiahui's whole spirit and will has long been destroyed by charlie, and now he can no longer consider gains and losses, his only wish is to avoid death.

Therefore, no matter what conditions charlie proposed, he was willing to agree without hesitation in his heart.

Seeing that Liu Jiahui had completely surrendered, and achieved his purpose of punishing him, charlie said coldly, "Liu Jiahui, listen carefully, the first thing I want you to do is to make you pay according to the salary of the highest professional manager on Hong Kong Island. , pay Uncle Arman's salary for 20 years, and then double the compensation, one of which is for Uncle Arman's youth loss, and the other double is for the spiritual loss of Uncle Arman's family."

Speaking of this, charlie added: "That is to say, you have to pay Uncle Arman's salary for 60 years according to the salary of the highest professional manager on Hong Kong Island at one time. Do you have any objection?"

"I don't!" Liu Jiahui blurted out almost without hesitation. How dare you have any objection.

According to charlie's request, he would have to pay a maximum of 6 or 7 billion Hong Kong dollars, which is less than 1 billion US dollars.

Arman on the side quickly said: "Master WADE, I can't accept this money..."

charlie said seriously: "Uncle Arman, this money has two main purposes, one is to make up and the other is to punish, even if you don't need. He must pay the price even if you donate the money."

Arman nodded lightly when he heard this.

charlie said to Liu Jiahui again: "The second thing I want you to do is to buy the Huo family's villa next to your Shi Xundao mansion and give it to Uncle Arman's family, and then personally ask Uncle Arman's family to move there. When you move, you have to invite the best emcee on Hong Kong Island to preside over the grandest housewarming ceremony!"

Lau Ka Fai was speechless in shock.

He really didn't expect that charlie would make such a request to himself.

Arman was originally a hurdle in his heart. For so many years, he wanted to get rid of it, but now, instead of getting rid of him, he had to become a neighbor with him...

For Liu Jiahui, this request was indeed unacceptable.

Arman did not expect that charlie would make such a request.

For him, he also doesn't want to be neighbors with Lau Ka Fai every day in the future. This kind of feeling feels a bit strange when he thinks about it.

But charlie has his own ideas.

He felt that for a villain like Liu Jiahui who did not believe in his words, he must not be allowed to experience only this one pain today.

The best way is to keep the alarm bell ringing deep in his heart.

At this time, Liu Jiahui was extremely depressed, but he didn't dare to provoke charlie, so he could only think to himself: "Damn, I won't live there in the future! I have countless properties all over the world, as long as I move out of Shi Xun Dao, won't you be out of sight or upset?"

Thinking of this, he hurriedly said, "Okay, Mr. Wade, I will do it according to your request..." But how did he know that charlie seemed to be able to read minds , opened his mouth and said, "In addition, I would like to remind you that from now on, you will have to live in your Shi Xundao mansion for at least 200 days every year."

Liu Jiahui was stunned.

It's okay to be neighbors with Arman's family, and he has to live for 200 days a year. Isn't this murderous?

charlie continued at this time: "In addition, adjust your driver to another post, I will transfer a soldier from Wanlong Palace to be your bodyguard and driver, and he will also help me monitor your daily itinerary, if You will be fined US$100 million if you spend less than one day in Shi Xun Dao a year." Lau Ka Fai was speechless in tears.

He really didn't expect that charlie could be so damaged, pressing his face to the ground and rubbing it repeatedly.

However, no matter how depressed he was, he didn't dare to refute charlie, so he could only nod his head angrily and said, "Mr. Wade don't worry... I'll do it next time... I'll do it..."

charlie said again: "Oh yes Now, I, the soldiers of Wanlong Palace, will serve you as bodyguards and drivers. This will also cost money. At that time, I will let Abbas select four soldiers to serve you in rotation every quarter, and you also have to pay every The monthly salary of two million US dollars, do you understand?"

Liu Jiahui could only say honestly: "I understand, the two million US dollars per month must be paid on time!"

charlie nodded and said lightly: "The third thing, immediately take away the property rights of the snack street near Hong Kong University from your current group structure, and set up a separate company, and the company's shareholders can only be Miss Mia's People!"

When Mia heard this, she looked at Charlie in amazement, she didn't know, Why did Charlie put the snack street here and say it.

At this time, Charlie continued: "All the decision-making power of this snack street in the future must be handed over to Miss Mia. If you dare to develop it without authorization, no matter when I find out, I will let your driver interrupt as soon as possible. Your legs!"

"If you were sitting in the car, I would have the driver pull over, pull you out, and break your legs;"

"If you were sleeping in the bedroom, I would have let the driver break into the door directly, pull you off the bed and break your legs! Do you understand?"

Liu Jiahui was frightened, he knew that his desire to develop a snack street angered Charlie, so he quickly expressed his position: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will never re-develop this snack street..."

Charlie waved his hand: "This snack street will not be yours in the future, you are not qualified to say such things, you all you need to do is hand over all the property rights of the snack street to Miss Mia."

Having said that, Charlie remembered that Mia's snack street was losing money every year, so he said: "Oh, by the way, when the property rights are stripped, remember to you are going to inject 100 million US dollars into Miss Mia's new company as operating capital. In the future, you will only have to pay for this company, and you will not have any decision-making power. Do you understand?"

"I understand!"

Charlie nodded slightly and said, "Besides these few things, there is one last thing."

Liu Jiahui suddenly became nervous.

He knew that the few things charlie said just now revolved around Arman and his daughter Mia, but charlie had not yet given a way to punish him when he went back on his word with bruce Wade.

So, this last thing must have something to do with bruce Wade.

So, he looked up at charlie and said nervously, "Mr. Wade...you...you please order..."

charlie's voice became cold, and he said word by word: "The 20 billion dollars in ten years that I said before, I don't ask for it anymore because of Miss Mia's face, but you violated the promise you made to my father back then. So I want you to fly to Eastcliff immediately after Uncle Arman's family moves in and repent for three months at my father's grave. During these three months, you are not allowed to leave Yeling Mountain for food and lodging. After the expiration of March, you are allowed to return to Hong Kong Island!"

After hearing charlie's last request, Liu Jiahui breathed a sigh of relief.

At this time, he really felt what is called the afterlife.

Since this was the last thing charlie asked him to do, it meant that he not only saved his life, but also saved his $20 billion in property in the next ten years.

Compared to this, the compensation that needs to be paid to Arman is almost a drop in the bucket.

As for the villa, it was just a drizzle for him.

Although it was said that he was going to Eastcliff to repent for three months, for Liu Jiahui, who had just received death threats, it could be regarded as extrajudicial and lenient treatment.

Therefore, he naturally did not dare to have any dissatisfaction in his heart.

On the contrary, he was finally able to relax.

So, he immediately expressed his attitude to charlie and said sincerely, "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will finish other things as soon as possible, and then leave for Eastcliff immediately!"

charlie nodded and said, "By the way, I ask you One sentence, from today onwards, your net worth and life are closely related to Uncle Arman's family. If Uncle Arman's family is safe, then you can be safe, but if they encounter any accident, even if it is just an accident, I will ask you to bear it. Joint responsibility, do you understand?"

Liu Jiahui, such a shrewd person, how could he not understand the meaning of charlie's words.

charlie wanted to make sure that from now on, he would never dare to threaten Arman again, so he tied his own personal safety to Arman.

In this way, not only did he not dare to find an opportunity to murder Arman, he even dreamed that Arman would have some shortcomings.

So, he said without hesitation: "Mr. Wade, I understand below..."

"Okay." charlie nodded and said, "Now I want you to take back your previous secret flowers from Hong Kong Island."

"Yes yes yes!" Liu Jiahui immediately took out his mobile phone and said, "I'll do it!"

This kind of thing has existed since ancient times.

Compared with the simple and rude buying and killing, it has a little more traditional sense of ritual.

On Hong Kong Island, not everyone can release secrets casually, and not everyone who releases secrets wants others to know who he is.

When a person wants to release a secret flower, he doesn't just say a word. After killing someone, no matter how much money he gives, a large group of killers will swarm.

The secret flower, only if it is released through a designated middleman, will it be recognized by the killer.

And this middleman must be authoritative enough for everyone to trust.

Therefore, in this field, there is a set of traditional and strict industry regulations.

Lau Ka Fai released a secret flower of 30 million US dollars, and must pay 33 million US dollars in advance to Middleman.

Among them, 30 million is the reward of the secret flower itself, and the other 3 million is the benefit of the middleman.

After the middleman receives the money, they will turn to release the secret flower to the entire underground world, because they have a very high prestige and influence in the underground world, so once they release the secret flower, all killers will not have any doubts.

Moreover, the intermediary is not just as simple as being a transaction intermediary. Sometimes the secret flower is too large, which can easily lead to many people vying for it. In the end, it may even lead to disputes because it is impossible to determine who is the real winner.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4824 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4824)

At this time, an intermediary also needs to come forward, and the intermediary will make an objective judgment to determine the true ownership of the secret flower.

Liu Jiahui immediately called the middleman, turned on the loudspeaker in front of Charlie and the others, and said, "I want to take back the $30 million secret flower I released earlier." The other party asked, "Mr. Liu, Are you sure you want to take back this secret flower? Your secret flower is the highest amount of money on Hong Kong Island over the years. Many killers have been dispatched today. If you take it back at this time, if you release it in the future, I am afraid everyone will not be so enthusiastic. It's over."

Liu Jiahui said without hesitation: "I'm sure to take it back, immediately, immediately!"
The

other party was silent for a moment, and then said, "Mr. Liu, if you decide to take it back, the 3 million handling fee will not be refunded. You have no objection to this, right?"

Liu Jiahui He blurted out: "No objection!"

"Okay, I'll release a message now, informing everyone to withdraw the secret flower, and the 30 million US dollars will be refunded in the same way within 24 hours."

At this moment.

Just outside the Hong Kong Island International Airport, there are already many killers waiting anxiously.

Most of these killers don't know each other, but they are hiding near the airport at the moment, all in order to get the 30 million U.S. dollars in secret, so they can't hold back one by one. When Arman came out of the airport, he immediately attack.

Some people had already set up sniper rifles in the dark, others were disguised as tourists, waiting outside the airport exit with their pistols in their hands, and some even parked on the side of the road, planning to drive directly into Arman when he came out.

Just when they were gearing up and waiting for the top spot, they suddenly received a message, the content of which was very simple, with only four words: "Dark Flower withdraws."

"Go!"

"What the hell!"

"I'm hitting your lungs !"

These killers, who were waiting for an opportunity like poisonous snakes, were all cursing at this time.

The 30 million secret flower was withdrawn, and the opportunity to get rich immediately disappeared in an instant.

Although they were very upset in their hearts, they also understood in their hearts that their displeasure was meaningless.

Even if you kill someone, you won't get any money.

As a result, most of the killers immediately began to evacuate.

The killer disguised as a tourist stopped the car and drove away. The killer who was parked on the side of the road drove away. The killer who was hiding in the dark and prepared to snipe Arman also immediately put away their firearms and prepared to leave.

However, there were still several killers who did not leave at this time.

One of them was hiding in a room on the 18th floor of the Aviation Hotel opposite the airport. While locking the exit of the airport with the scope of a sniper rifle, he cursed in his mouth: "I lost it, you Liu Jiahui really deserved it! I'll give you a cuckold. Twenty years later, his people finally came back, but you suddenly gave up, f*ck, amuse me? Do you think I don't need to pay for work? Do you think I don't need to pay for renting this hotel?!"

Said, He gritted his teeth and said coldly, "I will help you kill Arman today, and then I will ask you to collect the money! If you f*cking dare to renege on your debt, I will kill you too!"

Several other people hiding in the dark The killer, at this time, is also holding the same mentality.

Although the publishers of the 30 million secret flowers did not leave their names, they all knew that the secret flowers must have been released by Liu Jiahui, so their idea was to kill the secret flowers regardless of whether they were withdrawn or not. Ask Lau Ka Fai for an explanation, even if it is extortionate, you will have to knock it down from Lau Ka Fai.

Just when the man was staring at the exit of the airport, he felt a cold and hard object suddenly pressed against the back of his head.

He was terrified all of a sudden, because he didn't hear any movement at all, and he couldn't understand why someone suddenly appeared behind him and pointed a gun at the back of his head.

So, he asked nervously: "Brother, you pointed a gun at me, don't know what kind of hatred there is between us?"

The killer thought he was a colleague, and quickly said: "Everyone must want to get the secret flower, why don't we join forces, or I can help you kill that Arman, what do you think?"

The man behind him snorted and said, "No. I'm sorry, I'm from Wanlong Palace, I've been staring at you for a long time, if you got the news just now, get out, and I can spare your life, but unfortunately, you didn't leave after giving you a way to live!"

The man was terrified. He couldn't understand why the people in Wanlong Hall were staring at him.

So he turned his head subconsciously, looked at the young man behind him, and asked subconsciously, "dam Wanlong Palace... actually put this kind of dark flower in his eyes?"

The war general of Wanlong Palace sneered. : "We came to Hong Kong Island, not to get the secret flowers, but whoever wants to get the secret flowers, we will do whoever!"

After that, he immediately grabbed the man's collar, and even brought a gun to him directly from the hotel. The window of the building was thrown out!
