Elaine opened the door at once, and just wanted to make a quarrel outside the door, when he suddenly saw charlie standing outside the door, his stinky face immediately became extremely happy, and said excitedly: "Oh, good son-in-law! When did you come back? Why didn't you say hello?"

charlie said with a slight smile, "I was afraid that you might be worried and didn't say hello in advance."

Elaine said with a smile: "Mom knows, you This must be a surprise to Claire!"

Claire, who was inside, heard the movement and walked towards the door, while asking, "Mom, is charlie back?"

Elaine hurriedly turned her head and shouted inside. He wrote: "Daughter, the good son-in-law is back, come quickly!"

He said, seeing a waiter pushing a luggage cart behind charlie, and when he looked at the luggage cart, there were three suitcases, and he immediately felt Some couldn't help but asked excitedly, "Good son-in-law, I remember that you didn't seem to bring any luggage when you left. Why did you come back with so many things, is it a gift for your mother?"

charlie smiled . : "Most of them are souvenirs from friends, but I also prepared a small gift for you." When Elaine heard the gift, she couldn't contain her excitement and curiosity.

He knew that it was easy for charlie to show others Feng Shui to make money now, so he was very generous with his money, so he couldn't help but guess in his heart: "If charlie makes a little shot, how can it be a good thing of more than 100,000 yuan?"

At this time, charlie had brought the waiter into the presidential suite and instructed the waiter to unload the luggage aside.

After the waiter carefully carried the luggage, charlie took out a $100 cash and handed it to him, and the waiter thanked him and left.

At this time, Claire just came over, and when he saw charlie, he said happily: "Husband, why didn't you say hello when you came back? I want to pick you up at the airport!"

charlie smiled and said, "If I told you in advance, From the time my plane took off and landed, you must still be thinking about it, so I just didn't tell you and planned to give you a surprise."

It could be seen that Claire was really happy to see charlie back, but she still couldn't help but exhort: "Husband, compared to the surprise you gave, I would rather drive to the airport to pick you up in person, and see you next time. You must tell me about this kind of thing in advance, okay?"

charlie nodded and said with a smile, "No problem, next time."

After saying that, charlie took out the luggage on Hong Kong Island from his small suitcase. The two necklaces I bought, handed the two jewelry boxes to Claire and Elaine respectively, and said with a smile: "Claire, Mom, this is for you on Hong Kong Island.

A little gift you bought, you can open it and take a look. When

Elaine heard this, she reached out and took it without thinking. Seeing the Bulgari logo on the box, she only realized that this thing is definitely not cheap, so she said happily: "Oh, it's still me." The good son-in-law is the best! As soon as it is released, it is an international big name, either Hermes or Bulgari. Will it be Van Cleef & Arpels next time? charlie did n't expect that Elaine could still play a pun at a time like this. It seems that Elaine really wanted a piece of Van Cleef & Arpels jewelry.

So he smiled and said, "Mom Since You like Van Cleef & Arpels, I will buy it for you when I go out to see Feng Shui next time. Elaine clapped her hands happily, but said very politely: "

Oh, good son-in-law, Mom knows you are filial, but Mom can't keep making you spend so much money, that Van Cleef & Arpels thing is so fu*king expensive. ! As for their classic four-leaf clover necklace, one cost more than 400,000! I really want money like crazy!

Claire, who was beside him, immediately realized his mother's intention, and said quickly, "Mom ! Can you stop being so vain! Why do you have to let charlie buy you something as expensive as Van Cleef & Arpels..."

Elaine said aggrievedly: "I didn't say it, I mean that the brand of things is too expensive, there is absolutely no Cost-effective, how could a pragmatic person like me like something so cost-effective? After speaking, he did not forget to say to charlie, "

Good son-in-law, if you have this heart, Mom is already very satisfied, but you must remember, don't buy things indiscriminately!" "

charlie smiled and nodded lightly: "Okay mom, I see. "

Elaine's expression was somewhat melancholy, but he still flipped through the Van Cleef & Arpels article with interest, and quickly focused his attention on the jewelry box in his hand.

As she opened the box, she thought to herself: "I just bought a Bulgari Emerald Goddess's Dream Necklace a few days ago, and I don't know what kind of Bulgari jewelry charlie gave me this time. If it's the bracelet of the Emerald Goddess' Dream, it can be matched with my necklace, that would be great."

Thinking of her, he happily opened the box.

Then, the thing that caught her eye made her stunned.

"This...this..." Elaine looked at the familiar necklace lying quietly in the jewelry box, and couldn't help but said, "This...isn't this the necklace of the Emerald Goddess' Dream?"

" At the moment of this necklace, Elaine was very disappointed.

After all, she bought an identical necklace just before she came to the United States, so she was naturally a little depressed when she received such a gift again.

She is a person who loves vanity and face the most. Although this chain is very expensive, it is also very impressive, but two identical things can only be pretended to be a force after all.

Wearing this one today, wearing that one tomorrow, in the eyes of others, wearing the same one on both days.

But it's impossible to hang two necklaces on the neck at a time, so in her eyes, the necklace that charlie gave her basically means that she didn't give it.

At this time, charlie had already seen the unconcealed disappointment in her eyes, so he pretended to be surprised and asked, "Mom, you know this so well, but I didn't remember the name all the way. Stay."

Elaine sneered and said: "Hey, I'm just doing research!"

She said, she continued seriously: "Oh, you two don't know, it's souna, the poor even. I'm almost out of food, and she still drags me to visit these luxury stores every day, to be honest, if it weren't for her always in my ears, I wouldn't be able to remember so many brands."

Claire hurriedly asked: "Mom, have you been playing with souna again?"

Elaine explained: "It's not even playing together, it's mainly because after you all left, I lived alone in Tomson Yipin. It's so boring, she can be considered a companion to some extent, and she is a lot more honest now than before, so I have some walks with her."

After speaking, she looked at the Goddess' Dream Necklace in her hand. , more and more melancholy.

charlie smiled inwardly, it seemed that his move was indeed useful, and it could be seen that Elaine was already a little annoyed at this time.

Claire, who was on the side, didn't notice his mother's strangeness at all, but couldn't help but said to charlie: "Husband, thank you for the gift, but don't buy such expensive luxury goods in the future. It is said that such luxury The value retention rate of the jewelry is very poor, which is a bit too wasteful."

charlie heard the word retention rate, and suddenly had an idea, so he glanced at Elaine and deliberately said: "It seems that this goddess is a piece of jewelry. Dream, the second-hand market is still very valuable, if the packaged bills are complete and the maintenance is new enough, you should still be able to sell it with a 20% discount."

As expected by charlie, when Elaine heard this, the whole person immediately froze. The eyes and expressions also changed from the depression just now to a kind of extreme excitement!

Immediately, she suddenly opened her mouth and said to Claire, "Aiya, my daughter, my mother is suddenly so homesick..."

"Homesick?!"

Claire was stunned by Elaine's sudden appearance, and asked inexplicably, "Mom, Dad is in Korea, and charlie and I are in the United States. , what kind of home do you want?"

Elaine said with an embarrassed expression: "Mom misses Aurous Hill, it's really uncomfortable to live in this foreign country, it seems that Aurous Hill is the best for us, or you can take a look. If there is a flight ticket, book a ticket for me to go back."

Claire looked at Elaine in astonishment, and blurted out, "Mom, it's not that you can't sleep because of what we think, living alone at home and living in such a big place. The house can't stand alone, so you have to come to the United States to find us? It's just been a few days, and you want to go back to Aurous Hill again? Are you still alone when you go back to Aurous Hill? Are you still living in Tomson Yipin alone? What will you do when you are alone again? Are you flying to the United States again?"

Elaine said quickly: "Oh, my mother really thinks that you can't sleep, isn't this coming to see you? After reading your mother's heart When you are at ease, you can go back naturally."

Elaine will never tell his stupid daughter that the reason why he came to the United States to find her and charlie is not because he really misses them, nor does he really feel Lonely, she just spent all her money accidentally.

Without money, she lives in a big villa like Tomson Yipin, and even eating is a problem.

Although the Cullinan parked in the yard is extremely domineering, but she can't even get the money for gas, what's the point?

But now things are different!

charlie actually gave her the same dream of a goddess again!

What does this mean?

This means that she can fly back with this dream of the goddess, and then take out one of the two and sell it.

Both of these two goddess dreams are brand new. The one I have only worn for a day or two should be regarded as 99 new, and charlie's is brand new and has not been worn. According to the market price of 500,000, A 20% discount can also be sold for 400,000!

Moreover, the shop that bought the necklace by himself still owed him 72,000 cash back and did not receive it. If he waited for that money to arrive, wouldn't he have nearly 500,000?

Elaine thought of this, and her heart was already very surging: "When the money is in hand, Lainiang will definitely not buy things indiscriminately, and I will keep the flowers! I live in a luxury house and drive a luxury car,

With the dream of a goddess hanging around her neck and 500,000 pocket money in her pocket, this is the real life of a fairy, isn't it much better than living in the United States? "

Don't look at Elaine dancing in the square and going to the runaway team these days. In the final analysis, it is because of lack of money.

Only when there is no money in this situation, will he find something to do that doesn't cost money.

Moreover, in a place like the United States, although she lives in a top-notch presidential suite, this house is still much worse than her own Tomson first-class mansion.

What's more, in the United States, she does not have a top-quality Rolls-Royce Scullinan can drive.

There is no professional licking dog like souna to lick around.

So, no matter what you think, it is better to return to China.

charlie on the side smiled secretly at this time, it seems that Elaine's The style is indeed consistent, and he can always find her breakthrough easily.

In fact, for charlie, he did not want Elaine to stay here and disturb the two-person world between himself and his wife

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4900 ( The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4900 )

. The main reason for bringing Elaine over was because I was going to Hong Kong Island, and I couldn't bear to leave my wife here alone, so I deceived Elaine and asked her to take care of her during the few days she went to Hong Kong Island. Accompanying my wife.

Now that I'm back, there is no need to let Elaine stay here.

After all, Claire doesn't know Elaine's economic situation, but charlie can't be more clear. Elaine is cleaner than his face now. Without money, she will definitely stay in the United States and not leave until Claire finishes all training courses and returns to China. Therefore, it is charlie's top priority to let her leave quickly.

It is because of this that charlie deliberately said something about the second-hand value preservation rate.

In fact, I just want to remind Elaine that he owns two identical necklaces. Although he can only pretend to be a coercive, he can choose to sell the other necklace quietly while pretending to be cowardly.

Anyway, she has two identical ones, as long as she has one more in her hands, this matter will not be revealed.

Moreover, after doing all the calculations, she finally earned a necklace.

After charlie's reminder, Elaine really thought of this, so she became reassured almost immediately.

Varied

Mo Guang Dance Troupe, what Rampage Team, all go together, Elaine just wants to go home now.

So, seeing Claire's surprised face, Elaine couldn't help but said again: "Claire, what my mother said just now was from my heart, I really miss you, but I came back to see you, and I didn't want to. You guys, and then naturally start to miss home, the older you get, the more homesickness you have, and for Mom now, nostalgia is just a plane ticket away from you." After speaking,

Elaine added: "Besides, Mom doesn't want to disturb the world of the two of you. It's not comfortable for Mom to be a light bulb here, so you might as well let Mom go back early, don't you think?"

Claire was helpless. Said: "Then when do you want to leave?"

Elaine said without hesitation: "Of course, the sooner the better, why don't you see if there are any tickets for tomorrow?"

"Tomorrow?!" Claire said angrily. : "Mom, don't be so abrupt even if you want to leave. It's like you suddenly turned your face and don't recognize anyone. Didn't I say that I'll take you to New York for a weekend when I'm done with work? You're not going?"

"Ouch! I forgot about this..." Elaine suddenly remembered that she had finally made a trip to the United States, but she had never been to New York.

Originally, according to the normal process, when she came to Providence, she needed to go to New York before connecting, but she was lucky to win the 1.2 million prize arranged by Charlie, so she flew directly from Aurous Hill to Providence. Dens, never even set foot on New York soil.

So, Elaine thought: "My relatives and friends in WeChat all know that I came to the United States by private jet. If I go to New York to take a few photos and post a few more circles of friends, wouldn't this trip to the United States be in vain?"

"Anyway, Charlie's necklace has been given to me, and he won't run, so I might as well go to New York to play for two days, and then go back to Aurous Hill to sell the necklace!"

Thinking of this, she hurriedly said to Claire: "Claire, why don't you do this, buy a ticket for your mother to fly from New York on Sunday night, let's go to New York for two days on Friday afternoon, and on Sunday night, mother you and Charlie will drive back to Providence directly from New York, what do you think of this arrangement?"

Claire knew that Elaine's intention to leave was already decided, and it was impossible to keep her, so she nodded. He agreed and said, "Then it's settled, I'll set you a ticket for Sunday, and let's go to New York together on Friday!"
