

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4901 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4901) -

Claire saw that Elaine had a firm attitude, although he was somewhat helpless.

But after a little thought, she also felt that it was indeed more convenient and comfortable for her mother to stay in the United States than to go back.

What's more, since she has to attend classes five days a week, she doesn't have much time to spend with her, so it will definitely cause trouble for charlie.

So, she said, "Mom, on Friday the day after tomorrow, we'll drive to New York after class, and I'll book you a ticket for Sunday."

"That's great!" Elaine suddenly became excited and blurted out: " Quickly help Mom to book the plane ticket, don't look back and sell out."

charlie on the side said at this time: "Mom, let me book it for you."

Elaine nodded hastily: "Okay, thank you good son-in-law!"

charlie was also straightforward, immediately took out his mobile phone, found the flight back from New York on Sunday, and immediately bought her a ticket.

Elaine soon received the ticket information from the airline. After seeing that the ticket had been confirmed, Elaine was very happy, like a wanderer who had been wandering for many years and finally had the opportunity to go home.

After that, Elaine carefully put away the goddess's dream necklace that charlie gave her, and then said to the two: "Oh, I also made an appointment to go to the Rampage team, and I'm going to be late soon, you guys The young couple hurry through the two-person world, I'll go out first!"

Said, before the two of them responded, they hurriedly changed into sneakers and left the room.

After Elaine left, Claire said to charlie with some doubts: "Husband, do you feel that my mother's state seems a little wrong?"

"What's wrong?" charlie asked curiously: "Where do you think my mother is? It's not quite right, I feel normal, she's just returning to her heart like an arrow."

Claire shook his head very seriously, and said with a slightly solemn expression: "It's not about returning to China, it's what you sent to your mother. A necklace, not quite right."

"Necklace?" charlie was even more puzzled: "The necklace was bought at the counter, so it can't be fake."

Claire hurriedly said: "Silly husband, of course I wouldn't suspect that you bought fakes, I just said I Mom's attitude towards your necklace is not right!"

She said with a serious analysis: "Husband, look, I know my mother's character best, but you should also know very well that this person's biggest problem is that he likes to show off. When you say you give her a necklace, you give her a valuable sofa. She can't wait to take it to the street, but you just gave her such a precious necklace, and she didn't put it on immediately, but put it on Put it away...this...isn't it weird?"

charlie heard Claire's analysis, and couldn't help but admire his stupid wife.

It seems that Claire really knows her mother very well. With Elaine's character, it is absolutely impossible to hide and tuck good things.

Therefore, Elaine carefully put away the necklace she gave her just now. This behavior is indeed a bit abnormal for her.

However, charlie knew very well why Elaine did this.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4902 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4902) -

The reason is nothing more than because I just said that the better the quality, the more valuable it is to sell second-hand.

It is estimated that Elaine is reluctant to wear it, and wants to take it back as a brand new one and sell it for a good price.

So, charlie smiled and said to Claire: "I analyze it, Mom may think that it is too late, even if she takes it out, others will not see it, and she is going to join the runaway team, and the exercise is more intense, so It's not suitable to wear jewelry, so don't think about it."

Claire shook his head and said seriously: "I don't think things should be that simple, you wait and see if my mother wears that necklace tomorrow, if she doesn't tomorrow Dai, then I guess she wants to sell this necklace."

charlie didn't expect that Claire could predict Elaine so accurately, so he smiled and said, "Oh, don't worry about it so much. , since it was given to Mom, what she does with it is her freedom, and we have no right to interfere."

"Besides, I don't think Mom would do such a thing. If you don't believe me, when we return to China, you'll know if she still has this necklace."

Claire couldn't help sighing and said helplessly: " I don't want to interfere with her affairs, but she is a person, sometimes it's really disappointing to do things, this necklace was given to her after all, I hope she doesn't sell it for profit."

charlie said with a smile: " Do n't worry, when we go back, this necklace will definitely be there."

Claire didn't know why charlie was so sure, but this kind of hypothetical issue is not easy to discuss too deeply, so he nodded and sighed: "I hope That's it..."

this moment, New York, the Fei family.

Since the plane that Fei Kexin and charlie took off from Hong Kong Island, Jian has been anxiously and eagerly looking forward to it at home. This hope is a whole day.

Although Jian relied on the half blood-saving heart pill given by charlie to successfully survive, he also knew very well that he was on the verge of death at the beginning, and more than half of the efficacy of the medicine was estimated to be spent on saving life, not prolonging life.

This is why, charlie said at the time, the half pill could give him an extra year, at most two years. It is precisely because of this that Fei Jian Center has already started to count down his own life. He pinned most of his hopes on the Huichundan auction next year.

He is no longer the head of the Fei family. When he was the head of the Fei family, he failed to successfully photograph Huichundan, but now that he has abdicated to become a sage, the situation next year is still unknown.

Although he did not doubt Fei Kexin's character and filial piety, he was worried that the price of next year's Huichundan would be even higher than this year, or even much higher.

If it is really much higher, even if Fei Kexin is willing to pay, I am afraid it is not enough.

Therefore, this time Fei Kexin went to Hong Kong Island to help Charlie solve Arman's matter, which gave Jian a glimmer of hope.

He thinks he knows Charlie's person well. Generally speaking, he doesn't owe other people's favor, and many times, he respects him by one foot, and he respects others by ten feet.

Fei Kexin, as the head of the Fei family, ran all the way here, thinking that Charlie should have something to say.

Jian didn't dare to expect Charlie to send Fei Kexin a rejuvenation pill, but if Charlie could give her half a blood-scattering pill, it would be an extra year or two, or even two or three for him. Years of Yangshou.

It is precisely because of this that he hadn't slept well last night, and all he thought about was the Blood Rescue Pill, and even today he didn't even think about tea and rice all day.

There were several times in the middle, he almost couldn't help but wanted to call or send a message to ask Fei Kexin, but when he thought that she should be with Charlie the whole time, he could only wait for Fei Kexin to come back and give it to himself. Reveal the answer.

The plane that Fei Kexin took first sent Charlie to Providence, and then flew from Providence to New York. They landed together, and the flight in the middle was delayed by almost forty minutes.

When he heard that Fei Kexin's plane had landed at JFK Airport in New York, Fei Jian Center was even more uneasy.

Originally, he really wanted to go to the airport to pick up the plane, so that the mystery could be solved as soon as possible.

However, when he thought that his granddaughter was very smart and was very good at observing details, he was afraid that his actions would make Fei Kexin aware of it, so he could only resist the impulse and wait at home anxiously.

When the butler came to tell him that the eldest lady's motorcade had entered the main gate, he couldn't hold back any longer, and quickly said to the butler, "Quick, help me outside to meet you!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4903 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4903) -

When Jian, with the help of the housekeeper, came to the gate of the main villa of the Fei family manor, Fei Kexin's motorcade just arrived.

The rest of the Fei family also followed.

After Fei Kexin got out of the car, when she saw her grandfather coming out to greet her in person, she immediately understood what her grandfather was thinking, and then she thought that she still had the blood-sweeping pill from Charlie in her close-fitting pocket, how much she felt in her heart. A little bit apprehensive.

She knew that her grandfather's expectations for Huichun Pill and Sanxue Rescue Pill had surpassed everything. As a granddaughter, she should have given this pill to her grandfather without hesitation.

But when she thought of Charlie's previous instructions, she could only endure the urge.

So, she hurriedly walked to the old man's side and said respectfully, "Grandpa, why did you come out in person?" The old man looked earnestly and said with a smile, "You are the head of the Fei family, and you have just come from such a far place. When you come back, of course, I will come out to greet you and clean up the dust for you."

After speaking, he hurriedly asked, "This time, it should be done well, right? I saw relevant reports on the news, that Liu Jiahui, it seems that Shake hands with Arman to make peace?"

"Yes." Fei Kexin nodded and said, "With Mr. Wade in charge, Liu Jiahui does not dare to do anything to Mr. Arman, and Mr. Wade has given him enough face this time. He is very happy to be out." "That's good." The old man said with a smile, "Mr. Wade is as generous to our Fei family as a mountain, and it is our honor to do a little for him."

At that time, the old man wanted to ask Fei Kexin if you had helped Charlie this time, did Charlie say anything.

But it was impossible for him to ask such a straightforward question, so he said with a smile: "Ke Xin, hurry into the room, and tell grandpa the details of this trip to Hong Kong Island."

Fei Kexin nodded slightly, greeted the others, and went to the study with Jian.

The study in the main villa of the Fei family was actually used by Jian all along.

The study area is more than 100 square meters, and the decoration inside is extremely elegant, even the imperial study of the ancient emperors is difficult to compare with it.

And here has always been the place where Jian pointed the country. Many important decisions affecting the Fei family were made here.

Right now, although Fei Kexin has become the head of the Fei family, she has not occupied the old man's place, and this is still the home of the old man.

But things are a little different today.

After Fei Kexin and the old man came in, they subconsciously prepared to sit down on the seat in front of the book desk, but the old man reached out his hand to stop him, and said to her, "Ke Xin, sit inside."

This photo of Jian The book case was bought at an auction at a huge price. This table is all made of top-quality Hainan Huanghuali wood, and the craftsmanship is extremely elegant. It has a history of more than 500 years. In the Ming and Qing dynasties, the inheritance was orderly, and it even went to the hands of the prime minister of the court, which was Jian's favorite.

On the inside of the bookcase, Jian visited a chair also made of Hainan huanghuali, which was his special seat, and on the outside of the bookcase, three slightly smaller chairs were placed.

Usually, in his study, there are only a limited number of people in the Fei family who can sit in front of this desk in his study. Fei Kexin came, and naturally chose one of the three chairs.

But today, Jian asked her to sit on the inside, which was something she had never seen before.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4904 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4904) -

Seeing Fei Kexin's surprised expression, Jian said with a smile, "Kexin, now you are the head of the Fei family, and it's right to sit in this position."

Fei Kexin said quickly, "Grandpa, this is yours. The study room and your book case, even if I am the head of the Fei family, I am just your granddaughter here. If I am in the group, I will sit in the chairman's office and do business on business, but at home, how can I sit in your seat? ..."

Jian waved his hand and said solemnly: "The Fei family is a family business, a home is a business, a business is a home, and you are the head of the Fei family. This identity is not only the chairman of the Fei family, but also the leader of the entire Fei family. Even if it's me, I will be under your command and follow your orders." After that, without waiting for Fei Kexin to speak, he first sat on one of the three chairs, and then said to Fei Kexin, "Ke Xin, please."

Fei Kexin felt a little stressed for a moment, but nodded lightly and said, "Thank you, Grandpa."

After speaking, she carefully sat opposite Jian.

Jian nodded with satisfaction and said with a smile, "Come on, tell grandpa about your trip to Hong Kong Island this time."

Fei Kexin didn't hide anything, she told almost everything before she and Charlie got on the plane, All told.

But there was one thing she didn't say, and that was the matter that Charlie gave Mia a blood-scattering pill.

The reason why I didn't say it was because I was worried that after my grandfather heard it, other thoughts would arise in his heart.

After all, she knew too much about Grandpa's desire to survive. If he was really hot and started with Mia's idea of scatter blood and save the heart, I'm afraid he would make a big mistake accidentally.

If nothing else, even if grandfather went to Mia to buy the blood-saving pill, if this matter spread to Charlie's ears, Charlie would definitely have a lot of criticism against him in his heart.

Therefore, she directly deleted the story of Sanxue Jiuxin Dan from the narrative.

After hearing this, Jian couldn't help but sigh: "Liu Jiahui is really lucky, if it weren't for his daughter, I think he would definitely not be able to pass the test!"

"Yes." Fei Kexin also agreed: "You haven't seen it. Mia is indeed a very immortal, well-behaved and moving lady, especially when she is crying, the pear blossom with rain is really pity to me, if I were a man, I would also be attracted to her."

Jian Tsk tut: "Oh, it's really a hero who is saddened by beauty. Rao is that Mr. Wade has such a skill that he can't help himself in front of beautiful women."

Fei Kexin shrugged and said, "Mr. Wade may have more empathy for Mia. Although the childhood experiences of the two are different, they also have many things in common. Love, when men and women of the opposite s*x find the same frequency in something very important, that kind of affection is uncontrollable."

Jian nodded, and added: "It seems that your trip to Hong Kong Island this time has indeed helped you. Mr. Wade has asked you to endorse Liu Jiahui, that is to see Mia's face and want to give Liu Jiahui a chance."

Fei Kexin smiled: "Actually, I didn't do anything, I just came forward and said it. A few words, but for a person of Liu Jiahui's size, the effect is indeed very big."

Jian asked again: "Then Mr. Wade should be very satisfied this time, right? Not only did it solve all the troubles of Arman, but also All his family was settled, and he met Mia, a confidante. Before he left, he saved a little face for Mia's father, did enough to appease him, and even solved the problem for Wanlong Palace for ten years. It seems that the tens of billions of dollars in funding was really expected and unexpected, and all aspects have been solved in place."

"Yes." Fei Kexin nodded and said, "Mr. Wade's trip to Hong Kong Island has indeed gained a lot. Jian said with a smile: "

That's good, that's good!"

After that, he paused for a moment, struggling for a moment, but still couldn't help asking: "By the way, Kexin, you helped this time." Mr. Wade, didn't he say anything?"
