

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4913 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4913)

away the Elaine family, Jovie, the originally warm family of four, suddenly became a little silent.

Jovie's expression was a little grim, while the other three had a feeling that the performance was finally over and that they could finally rest and relax.

Jovie pulled her face back to the room, sat down on the sofa, raised her eyes to see Jase and Yosef, raised her hand and smashed a glass at the feet of the two of them, so that they both fell back in unison. Jump out of the way.

Immediately afterwards, Jovie scolded: "You two bastards, you f*cking know how to drink and drink! No matter what the f*ck, as long as you see wine, it's like seeing your father, and if you smell it, you will be taken away. Both souls have been hooked! Don't you two know what's the matter?! If you can't get rid of this stinking problem, just give it to me and go where it came from!"

She said, pointing to the three Hallie, who was about ten years old, scolded coldly: "And you! Just f*cking know how to play with your mobile phone with your head down, what's the fun in a f*cking broken mobile phone? Can you f*cking pay for playing with your mobile phone? ?!" The three of them were scolded by surprise, and the young Yosef explained nervously: "Aunt , don't we think that you and the man named Elaine are already talking about the same thing... Going out in person, the three of us have no other use except as a foil. It is better to talk less than to talk more safely..."

"F*ck you!" Jovie said coldly : "It would be better if Elaine came by herself this time. The key point is that she also brought her daughter and son-in-law. What if they both see something?! Customers from Japan and South Korea can't wait now. There are no other mules available, if Elaine goes wrong again, and the top blames you, I can't spare you!" The older Jase said quickly: "Sister, I think that Elaine was fooled by you. I'm stunned for a moment, this matter should be safe, and when the time comes, let Lao Xu work harder after meeting, and this will definitely happen."

Jovie said coldly: "I'm not worried about Elaine, I'm worried that her daughter and son-in-law will do bad things."

After speaking, Jovie added: "I always thought that this woman Elaine said she lived in Aurous Hill, Tangchen Yipin, Driving a Rolls-Royce is bragging, but when I saw her say this today, female son and son-in-law have no expression at all, and it should be true with a high probability.

Jase said in surprise: "If you can afford a first-class Tomson and a Rolls-Royce in a place like Aurous Hill, it proves that Elaine's family background is not ordinary. Let's use her as a mule. will it be okay? "

"Something happened?" what happened? "Jovie snorted coldly and said, "The lease term for our house is almost up, and the three-thirds of an acre in Providence can be considered as letting us play through it. Just like those nomads, a piece of pasture can be replaced after eating it." The next one will come back in ten or eight years. Besides, we are all using fake identities. Who can find us? "

"Yes! "Hallie, who has not spoken, said quickly: "And we are not the direct delivery person. The delivery is handled by Aunt . This is the firewall set up by Aunt for us. Even if something goes wrong, it will be Aunt first. Son. "

What's more, Aunt's family is all in the United States. If it really happened to her, she would definitely not dare to give us a point. Besides, except for first-degree murder, it is basically impossible to be sentenced to death for other crimes. If something really happened to her, she would be imprisoned for life at most. For the sake of her family, she would never give us up, or the above would definitely use her family as an example. "

Jovie nodded, her tone softened a little, and she said lightly, "It doesn't matter if something happens to Lao Xu, she doesn't know our true identity, and even if she investigates, it will be difficult to find us. Jase asked again: "Aunt , if that Elaine successfully brought the goods to Hong Kong Island, should we arrange for someone to tie her up again?" After all, her family is quite rich, so she can't let it go in vain! "

Jovie sneered: "That's natural, let her help us bring the inferior goods, it is only one million dollars if we succeed, if you tie her up, maybe you can knock out several million dollars!" But this has to wait until she successfully arrives on Hong Kong Island. If she is caught in New York, it will be useless. "

After that, Jovie stood up and said, "I'm going to the runaway team, and there's an old man over there who came to visit relatives in the United States. He's been flirting with me recently, and he's going back in two days. Take it, get ready, go to the Chinese area of Seattle to inspect and inspect to see if there is a suitable big house, and if there is one, rent it. When I get this old man, we will move to the west

. Yosef hurriedly said: "Aunt , Seattle is a bit too far, right?" This is thousands of kilometers from east to west..."

Jovie said coldly: "What do you know, every time you change places, you have to go as far as possible! After Seattle is done, I will leave the United States temporarily, go to Toronto and Vancouver for a while, and will not return to the United States within this year. "

After that, she stared at Jase and Yosef, and said coldly, "If you two become so addicted to alcohol, I won't take you in the future, you should go back to northern Myanmar!" The two hurriedly assured: "Don't worry, we will never be greedy for cups again..."

Jovie then glared at Hallie, who shivered in fright and said repeatedly, "Aunt , don't worry." , I will never play with my mobile phone again..."

Jovie saw that the three of them had made promises, her expression softened a little, and said coldly: "I'm leaving, you guys hurry up and clean up! At this time , Yosef suddenly received a message, opened it, and said quickly, "Aunt , last time the old lady Zhou's son's blood matching result came out. There is a patient in the United States who can match him." The buyer offered $500,000, but he asked for the transplant to be done as soon as possible. How do you arrange it? "

"With it?" Jovie's eyes lit up, and she said in surprise: "You told him that if it is urgent, you have to pay 800,000 US dollars and pay a deposit of 400,000 US dollars first. Next week, you can go to Mexico for surgery, and the remaining 400,000 will be operated on. Let the family pay before the stage. Yosef hurriedly said: "Aunt, although the buyer's economic situation is not bad, the 800,000 US dollars may be a little difficult..."

Jovie scolded with contempt: "Damn, there are difficulties Just go find a way! What he wants is the heart, not the kidney! In order to save him, the old lady had to take someone else's life in, and $800,000 was considered cheap for him! "

"And he wants so urgently. After the heart is removed, I'm not sure if other organs will be available in time. If he's not in a hurry, I can still look for a buyer for the liver and kidney, and we can do the surgery together. If you are in a hurry, then you have to give me damages, tell him, at this price, whether you like it or not!" With that, Jovie waved her hand and said coldly, "Call him now!"

Hearing Jovie's order, Yosef nodded quickly, took out his mobile phone, and found a contact named "Customer 15". Called the other party.

A weak voice came from the other end of the phone, and he opened his mouth and asked, "Hello, have you found a suitable match for me?"

Yosef snorted and said lightly: "The match has been found, and the other party is a forty A middle-aged person around the age of 20 years old, strong and strong, after a successful transplant, you will be guaranteed to have no problem for 20 to 30 years. If you want to transplant as soon as possible, you can go to Mexico for surgery next week for $800,000.

" Hearing this, he immediately said, "Didn't you agree on $500,000?"

Yosef said disdainfully, "The $500,000 is the price of carpooling, it's the price of a private car. It will take another month or two."

"This..." The other party became anxious and blurted out: "But I... I can't wait that long..."

"That's your problem." Yosef said coldly: "Anyway, I've made it clear to you, you can decide whether to do it or not. Anyway, you are not the only one in the queue, you can think about it slowly, and I will give the next one." Call the people in line." When the other party heard this, he panicked and said quickly, "Don't, I'll try to find a way to collect the money next week..."

Yosef snorted and said : "Tomorrow, you will prepare 400,000 yuan first. When the money arrives, I will arrange an operation time for you."

After that, he hung up the phone directly.

After hanging up, he immediately said to Jovie, "Aunt Mei, the client agreed."

"Okay."

As soon as the call was made, Jovie smiled and said to the other party, "Sister , you asked me to inquire, and now I have a reply..."

"Yes, the medical examination results are also out. Your son's results show that he Very healthy, no problem..."

"Adopt, you don't have to worry about this, isn't it still me!"

"I have already greeted my friend here, let him go in and ask the senior seaman Start doing..."

"Oh, no thanks, no thanks, why are you being polite to me? Really..."

"The salary... I heard it's monthly.

Starting from 5,000 US dollars, including various subsidies, you can get 6,000 US dollars..."

"Yes... you didn't listen. Wrong, it's six thousand dollars... It's a lot of money, but it's also hard work. I went out for ten or eight months without being home. Once the ship arrived at sea, I lost contact with my family. Suffering. "

Well, just don't be afraid of hard work. Their company will have a ship leaving the port next week. If there is no problem with your son, you can board the ship next week." "

"I will board the ship from Mexico next week. You wait for me for two days. I will give you an address. Then you can let him go directly to Mexico to report!" "

"Oh, I really don't need to thank me. We are all fellow villagers, and we should help. Just wait for my news!" After hanging up the phone, Jovie wiped a cruel smile on the corner of her mouth.

This old lady Zhou, she met at a restaurant in Providence. The old lady is quite old and cleans in the restaurant. She chatted a few times and learned that her son had been unemployed for more than a year and had not found a suitable job, so Jovie made up his mind.
