Before Stella came, he also heard from Jovie about Elaine's situation. Knowing that she lives in Aurous Hill, she lives in a Tomson first-class product and drives a Rolls-Royce, so she is not too surprised.

She smiled and said to Elaine: "Don't you think that a car like Cullinan is a little too big for us women? I rarely drive when I go out, and I always let the driver drive the nanny car. Sitting in the middle row is much more comfortable and worry-free than driving by yourself."

Elaine said enviously: "We don't have a full-time driver or a nanny car in our family, otherwise I would also experience the feeling of a female boss. Stella said with a smile, "

Isn't that simple? If you don't have a nanny car, I'll send you one after a while. You know Lexus lm300. I ordered three from a parallel import car dealer some time ago. I wanted to keep one for my parents, but now they plan to settle in the United States and not go back, and there is nowhere to deal with the car when it arrives next month, so I'll just give it to you."

Elaine was overjoyed and blurted out. Said: "lm300...is it...is that the Raelfa with a price increase of tens or even millions?!"

"Yes." Stella nodded and said with a smile: "On the Internet, it is said that this is a wrong kind of car. , I think it's okay, anyway, the extra money is to buy a platoon, and the extra 1.8 million is not too much. To be honest, if he doesn't increase the price, the rich people won't buy it, don't increase the price. Where did he come from? It would be best if he could increase the price by 3 million in a unified way. In that case, as long as you drive to the street, others will know that this is a big loaf of 5 million, which is low-key and luxurious."

Elaine was full of admiration in her heart. , secretly thinking: "I think this is the way of life of the rich, everything is not cost-effective, but only for the face to be in place..."

Immediately, she couldn't help but secretly said: "This Stella is too generous, right? I'm going to give myself a Raelfa. The whole car is worth 3 million yuan, so should I keep it for myself, or sell it quietly?"

At this time, Stella said casually: "Parallel import car They all go to the port for customs declaration and then come in, and then I will directly ask the car dealer to declare the customs and send it to Aurous Hill by trolley, you can just get the car and get a license plate.

Elaine hurriedly said: “Oh...I...how can I be so embarrassed to accept such a precious gift from you...”

Stella said with a smile: “The car is already booked, and you will be free when you are idle, so you don’t have to follow me. You’re welcome, if you don’t drive the car, it’s completely a Trouble, not only to find a place to park, but also to do maintenance from time to time, it is not enough trouble, it can be considered to make the best use of it.

Elaine was extremely excited, and quickly said with a smile: “Oh, thank you so much!” “

”You’re welcome.” Stella smiled slightly, looked at the time, and said deliberately: “Oh, we are almost going to check-in, there is also a first-class lounge inside, and it’s the same to chat in the lounge after check-in. “

Elaine said quickly and without thinking: “Okay, then let’s go to check-in now. “

Speaking, she stood up, packed her suitcases and handbags, and prepared to leave the lounge with Stella.

At this time, Stella was already a little nervous.

Because she was about to implement it soon . She had carefully prepared a plan for a long time.

So, while slowly packing her things, she quietly tapped three times on a black plastic box in her pocket.

This plastic box is actually a built-in operator The one-way communication device of the sim card, from the moment she entered the door, her concubine and accomplice has been in the car in the parking lot, listening to the progress inside with her mobile phone.

And she tapped three times to receive The signal from the net.

When her accomplice received the agreed three taps, they immediately called Stella’s mobile phone.

At this time, Stella was pretending to be packing his luggage and handbag when the phone rang, when she saw the three words of Secretary Qin displayed in the address book, she deliberately pretended not to listen to it, so she turned on the speakerphone, put the phone aside, and said, "Secretary Qin, I'm about to board the plane soon. If I have anything to do, I'll talk about it after I'm on the throne. The other party's voice said very hastily: "Miss, the old lady has an accident!" "

Stella suddenly became nervous, and quickly asked: "What's the situation?" My mother what happened to her? "

The other party hurriedly said: "The old lady is riding with the young master today. I don't know what happened. The horse was startled and kicked the old lady. The old lady passed out and just sent her to the hospital. The doctor Said the situation is a bit serious."

Stella said anxiously: "What's the matter... How can I let my mother be kicked by a horse? What does the housekeeper eat? What does the manager of the racecourse eat? Let the manager of the racecourse eat immediately. Pack me up and get out! Take that horse

Go out and kill! It can kick my mom today, and it might knock my son off tomorrow! The other party said hesitantly: "Miss... that horse was bought from Turkmenistan for more than 8 million US dollars by the husband. It is a real sweaty BMW. If it is killed like this, will it be possible?" It 's too hasty..."

Stella said coldly: "If I ask you to kill you, kill it, I don't want a horse that can't be tamed, no matter how good it is! That's the price it pays to be wrong! Elaine on the side was dumbfounded, and couldn't help muttering in his heart: "The sweaty BMW bought for more than eight million dollars was killed because he kicked the old lady? This rounds up to nearly half a billion! As expected, I still don't understand the world of the rich..."

At this time, the secretary on the other end of the phone could only helplessly say: "Okay, Miss, then I will arrange for someone to do it later, but the old lady's situation is here. Not optimistic, would you like to come and have a look? "

Stella said helplessly: "That's definitely going to be seen... I'll have passed the security check half an hour later, I really can't help it..." After speaking, she quickly added: "I'll go back now, See you at the hospital! The other party said respectfully immediately: "Okay Miss, see you at the hospital!" After hanging up the phone, Stella said to Elaine extremely annoyed: "Elaine, I'm so sorry, my mother was kicked by a horse when something happened, and I have to go to the hospital to take a look, it must be today. Can't go. "

Elaine can't help but feel a little regretful. She still wanted to take advantage of this long-distance flight to get closer to the female local tyrant in front of her. Unexpectedly, she couldn't leave because of the sudden incident.

Elaine's mind suddenly turned and she quickly Said: "Oh, Stella, if the old lady was injured so badly, she must go to see it, or else I will not leave today, I will accompany you to the hospital to see the old lady, wait for the old lady After it's all right, let's go back home together! "

Actually, Elaine didn't really care about the old lady she had never met.

Not to mention Stella's mother, even her own mother, she didn't bother to ask, and seldom returned to her parents' home for so many years.

The reason why Elaine said this was mainly because he didn't want to waste his next trip to Hong Kong Island.

After all, she was still waiting to spend a few days at Stella's mansion on Shixun Road, Hong Kong Island, and enjoy it.

If Stella doesn't leave today, wouldn't his plan be in vain?

Stella didn't expect that Elaine would even offer to go to the hospital with her instead of leaving.

But where did she go to the hospital, she just wanted to quickly find a suitable excuse to lure Elaine to take the bait, while quickly smearing oil on the soles of her feet and slipping away.

So, she said to Elaine very seriously: "Elaine, in my suitcase, there are many things that Sister Jovie brought to her parents, some tonics, and some special effects that cannot be bought in China. I also promised Sister Jovie to help her take her to Hong Kong Island today. It just so happened that her younger brother was working on Hong Kong Island. She was going to go back to the mainland the day before yesterday, but it was only two days late to wait for these things. , If I can't bring things to them today, I will delay their business..."

Elaine quickly asked: "What should I do? Can't you leave?"

Stella nodded and said hurriedly: "I can't leave today, but you can go back first. I'll go to the hospital today to settle my mother. I guess she was kicked by a horse, and her body will indeed suffer a little, but it shouldn't be a big problem. , I'll be able to go back tomorrow as soon as possible." After speaking,

Stella said again: "So Elaine, you fly over by yourself first today, and by the way, do me a favor and bring Sister Jovie's things over there. , I will arrange my housekeeper on Hong Kong Island to pick you up at the airport, let him take you to my villa in Shi Xun Dao first, and then I will let Sister Jovie's brother go to the villa to find you to get things, then you can directly Just give him this suitcase, then you will wait for me at the villa, and I will be there tomorrow."

The reason why Elaine said to go to the hospital with Stella was because he was afraid that his trip to Hong Kong Island would be in vain, but since Stella said so, which means that he can go to her villa on Hong Kong Island first, and the big deal is to wait for her for a day.

Elaine actually didn't want to go to the hospital to see an old lady who had never met before. For her, Stella's suggestion was to kill two birds with one stone without delaying each other.

So, she nodded and said cheerfully, "Okay, then I'll go to Hong Kong Island with my things to wait for you!"

When Stella saw that Elaine was hooked, he immediately breathed a sigh of relief, and then smiled and said, "That's really hard for you, Elaine, you can check in all your luggage later, and I'll let the driver pick you up at the airport after you get there. The driver will help you with your luggage, so you don't have to be too tired. In addition, I will ask the driver to arrange the best spa massage therapist on Hong Kong Island to wait in advance at the villa. After you arrive at the villa, I will give you a full-body spa for you to relax. When

Elaine heard this, he immediately smiled and sighed: "Oh, Stella, your arrangement is so thoughtful, in fact, you don't need to be so troublesome."

Stella said seriously: "I don't like this person the most. You have helped me so much, how can I neglect you!" he said

she patted Elaine on the shoulder and said with a smile: "When you arrive on Hong Kong Island, enjoy it first, and ask the housekeeper to arrange for you to live in my room tomorrow night, I will There is a Hästens mattress worth more than 1 million in that room, which is almost the best one can buy in this world, you must experience it."

"Good!" He got up and said quickly, "Then it's settled, I'll go to Hong Kong Island to wait for you first!"

"Okay!" Stella nodded and said, "The old mother's situation is urgent, so I'll go first, and I'll be there in a while. I will push your phone number and WeChat to my housekeeper over there, and he will make arrangements in advance." Elaine said immediately, "No problem!"

Stella handed his suitcase to Elaine, He said gratefully: "Elaine, please leave these things to you!"

Elaine said with a smile: "Don't worry, wrap it on me!"

Stella nodded in relief, and then quickly left the lounge.

After she left, Elaine laboriously dragged the two large boxes and walked out slowly.

After Stella quickly left the airport, he immediately got into a car waiting in advance on the side of the road. The driver of the car was the accomplice who had been on the other end of the phone, listening to her conversation with Elaine.

After Stella got into the car, she started the car and asked with a smile, "The one Elaine took the bait?"

"Of course." Stella smiled and said, "As long as I go out, there are few mules that can't be dealt with. "

The man smacked his lips and said, "How many goods did the Elaine bring in this time?"

Stella said, "More than 5,000 grams are the latest high-end goods, which are very popular with high-end customers. As long as they can take them out. , you can definitely make a lot of money."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4930 ( The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4930 ) -

The man asked again: "How much can you share with us?"

Stella thought about it and said, "As long as I succeed in getting Elaine to bring the goods, whether it is successful or not, there will be five thousand dollars in hard work. If Elaine succeeds in bringing the goods, there will be about twenty or thirty thousand dollars. Okay .”

”Very good!” The man said with a smile: “After finishing this, let’s go to Las Vegas to relax and relax. Damn, I have been walking and reciting words in the first half of the year, and I have earned my hard-earned money. Basically, he vomited to the casino, and in the second half of the year, I have to let the casino vomit it back to me!

Stella said: “You can go to Las Vegas, but when you get there, don’t just focus on gambling, generally There are so many bad gamblers in that kind of place, and you have to find a way to fool a few people to go to Mexico.”

After speaking, Stella sighed: “I heard that Sister side is progressing very well, and there will be a successful match soon. I have gone to Mexico for surgery, and there is an old man who will return to China in two days. She has already developed it almost, and it is estimated that eight or nine times out of ten, she will be able to win, and she will make a lot of money this month.”

That man is good.

He asked curiously, “How much money can I make by getting a person to go to Mexico?”

Stella said, “It’s hard to say, it depends on whether you can match the right person. Client, if it is matched, dozens of millions of dollars are possible, maybe even more, I estimate that Sister can earn at least 100,000 for this order!”

”F*ck!” Red, he blurted out: “Damn, you can make a hundred thousand dollars by cheating one person?! With this business, who the hell would go to the airport to deliver mules every day! The airports all over the United States are running, and I’ve been running a long time ago. I’m bored!”

Stella said seriously: “When we go to Las Vegas next time, let’s explore the resources in this area and see if we can get him one or two orders!”

The man sighed: “I want to go Las Vegas, we have to wait for that Elaine to successfully arrive on Hong Kong Island...”

Stella said lightly: “Whether it is successful or not, we will know tomorrow night at the latest.” After speaking, she took out her mobile phone, Made a call.

The phone was quickly connected, and Stella asked her, “Has Elaine checked her luggage?”

The woman on the other end of the phone, who was pretending to be a passenger, was resting next to the check-in counter of the airline where Elaine took the flight.

She seemed to be playing with her mobile phone, but she was actually watching the check-in counter, waiting for Elaine to appear.

Just half a minute ago, she saw Elaine dragging two suitcases, so she kept following her movements.

For their group, there are two hurdles to pass through to deceive an amateur to help them bring contraband, one is the border inspection at the departure point, and the other is the border inspection at the destination.

And she stayed here to watch, just to ensure that Elaine arranged the consignment of their goods with her own eyes.

After all, they are also worried about encountering a situation where the black eats the black.

They have had this kind of thing before. Seeing that the other party handed over the suitcase to him, the mule was greedy and left the airport with the suitcase. The interface person at the destination waited for the plane to arrive and no one was there, and finally turned around to check, only to know that it was hacked.

Therefore, since then, Stella and others have changed their ways. They have tried their best to portray themselves as the top rich, promising each other various benefits, in order to try to dispel the other party's idea of running away with something.

As long as she watched Elaine hand over the luggage to the teller for check-in, it was impossible for Elaine to take it away. The rest was to pray that the border inspector would not find the contraband that they had carefully hidden when checking the luggage.

At this time, Elaine had already come to the VIP counter in the first class cabin. She handed over her passport. After the check-in service staff retrieved the ticket information, he immediately asked respectfully, "Ms. , do you have any questions? How many pieces of luggage need to be checked in?"

Elaine pointed to the two large boxes, and said lightly, "Both of them must be checked in."
