

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4953 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4953)

The efficiency of Wanlong Palace's investigation was very high.

After only one night, they had a clear idea of what happened. Abbas called Charlie and reported in detail: "Mr. Wade, according to my subordinate's investigation, the Chinese woman who has been in the relationship with your mother-in-law in the Providence Chinese Rampage is not called Jovie, but it's called Soleil.

"Soleil?" Charlie frowned and asked, "What is this Soleil from?" Abbas said, "This Soleil smuggled to the United States alone more than 20 years ago.

Originally, she hoped to go to the United States to work and earn money, to build a house for her two sons and marry a wife. After exhausting her family's savings and smuggling to the United States, she changed her name, blackened in the local Chinatown, and worked as a nanny for Chinese families.

"The reason why she used a pseudonym is because the smuggler who transported her to the United States told her that when she was in the United States, no one could let anyone know her true identity.

In this case, she would make money in the future, and she would be laundered." In the past, it is possible to use your real identity to get a green card again, but if someone finds out that he was an illegal immigrant, then trying to get a green card will be as difficult as going to the sky.

After speaking, Abbas added: "Soleil is here. Chinatown found someone to make a fake domestic ID card, under the pseudonym Huang Sanmei. In order to make her identity more credible, she also made up a Hakka identity background for herself without a teacher, saying that she was a family of four sisters at home.

Three, so her parents gave her such a simple and direct name, this set of rhetoric is really useful, plus she has a natural talent for lying and acting, so she was not noticed by the employer." Charlie asked him: "So how did this Soleil change from a nanny to a criminal who specializes in harming her compatriots?"

Abbas said, "Mr. Wade, the specific reason is still under investigation, because this Soleil has been in the United States for more than 20 years, and she spent most of the time in the United States as an illegal immigrant, so the experience during this period still requires in-depth investigation, but there is a clue that Soleil's first employer in the United States, they are in Meiyu. In the third year of Jane's arrival in the United States, she encountered a fire, killing three of her family of four. Soleil and her younger son, who was less than one year old, disappeared. We suspect that the fire must have been set by Soleil. She was taken away by her, and most likely she sold it.” charlie heard this, and asked coldly, “Did the American police not investigate and detect such a big thing?”

Abbas said: “Irresponsible The American police conducted a preliminary investigation after the fire and determined that the cause of the fire was that the male owner smoked in the living room and lit the sofa, which caused the fire in the living room. It was an accident.

As for the missing child, the American police did not give any details. correct statement. “I looked through the relevant files. At that time, a neighbor provided clues to the police, claiming that there had always been a nanny named Huang Sanmei in the employer’s house.

After the fire, the nanny and the one-year-old child were missing, so she was suspected. Very big;” “But after the American police made the confession, they did not conduct in-depth investigations into the matter on the grounds that no traces of arson were found in the fire and that the property was not lost;” “As for the so-called Huang Sanmei , because there was no image data about her at that time, the American police who were handling the case at that time just hung up such a name in the police system and asked the American police to assist in the investigation of an Asian woman named Huang Sanmei, but this did not matter. Below;” “Several states in the United States have indeed encountered Asian women named Huang Sanmei in the following two decades, but local police investigations found that the time these people came to the United States was related to the timeline of the incident at that time. It doesn’t match, so it’s gone. charlie asked him:

“How did you find out that the third sister Huang, who used a fake identity, is the current Soleil? “Abbas said: “Mr.wade, I found the outdoor surveillance video of Providence, repaired a high-definition photo of Soleil, and put it on the information network of Wanlong Palace.

There is one for us. The informant of the intelligence was the smuggler who brought Soleil to the United States. In his hand, he kept the identity information of all the stowaways over the years. ” charlie asked again: “Then what is this Soleil’s real identity now? Abbas explained: “Her real identity is a self-employed person who obtained a U.S. green card through investment immigration.

Around 2010, she passed the EB-5 investment immigration program in the United States and was in an area approved by the U.S. Immigration Service. The center invested one million US dollars and officially got the US green card. charlie said coldly: “An illegal immigrant who smuggled into the United States to work as a nanny can actually spend one million US dollars for investment immigration.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4954 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4954)

Over the years, she has no idea how much black money she has made by using this way of harassing her compatriots. ! “Speaking, charlie asked again: “abbas, have you investigated the situation of this Soleil’s family?

“Have! Abbas replied immediately: “Because Soleil immigrated to the United States alone, which is relatively rare, so I specially investigated Soleil’s family and found that all of her family members are currently living in China, and the family has opened a family.

The export trading company said that it was engaged in import and export trade between China and the United States, but the company actually had no business and was just an empty shell to hide people’s eyes. With that said, Abbas said again:

“However, the living conditions of her two sons are very good, each of them’s assets are tens of millions or even close to 100 million, and the family The people are prosperous, and the two sons have given birth to eight children in total. According to my informant investigation, her family’s money comes from their private exchange of currency.

” charlie said, “Please explain in detail. “Abbas introduced: “That’s right, what Soleil needs is to exchange the dollars she earned in the United States for Chaina coins, while some people in China want to exchange the Chaina coins for dollars, so they trade privately and domestically.

The exchanger of the exchange handed the equivalent Chaina coins to Soleil’s son, and Soleil handed the equivalent US dollars to the relatives of the other party in the United States.

Soleil has used this method over the years to send at least 30 million US dollars home. . “Thirty million dollars...” charlie said coldly, “The thirty million dollars, I don’t know how many people were trapped by her.

charlie paused for a moment and instructed: “Break the army, organize enough evidence chains, and report back to the domestic police in time.

Soleil’s family helped Soleil to hide, conceal and even use her illegal income abroad. This has definitely constituted a Money laundering is a crime. When all the evidence chains are taken out, all of her illegal gains should be seized. Isn’t this woman trying to make unscrupulous money to spend on her family?

Become a bubble! “”OK! Abbas said without hesitation: “Mr. Wade, rest assured, your subordinates will make arrangements!” ”(

At this moment, Soleil just woke up in the car. Jase and Yosef took turns driving overnight, and only drove 1,000 kilometers. Now they are more than 2,000 kilometers away from the US-Mexico border.

According to Soleil's plan, she asked the two to drive all the way to El Paso, Texas, and then from here into Mexico by land. Soleil, who had been rocking in the car all night, was still somewhat in a trance because she had not slept well.

She suddenly recalled when she first came to America. In the first two years of my arrival in the United States, although I used a fake identity, I was really conscientious. Although the money I made at that time was far from being rich in the United States, since I was a nanny, my employer covered the board and lodging, so almost all the money I earned was sent back to my home, not only did I quickly pay off the time I smuggled. The borrowed foreign debt has also greatly improved the poor living conditions of the family.

But as Soleil stayed in the United States for longer, she was subtly influenced by this materialistic society. Gradually, she began to feel dissatisfied with her treatment of illegal immigrants. In Chinatown at the time, there were two different situations for Chinese babysitters.

One is a nanny with legal status in the United States or a legal green card, while the other is a black nanny who is illegal immigrants and black in the United States like Soleil.

The price of the former is generally half or more higher than that of the latter. Sometimes, when the nanny meets with the nanny, and everyone talks about their situation, Soleil will complain about her meager salary. She always felt that the content of her work was exactly the same as that of others, and she didn't cheat or cheat, so why should her salary be only 60% of others' or even lower. Therefore, she gradually developed resentment towards her employer's family, and always felt that the other party was deliberately bullying and oppressing her, a poor woman who abandoned her husband and left her hometown. However,

Soleil ignored a very simple reality. The reason why her employer took the risk of taking care of her as an illegal immigrant is because the price of illegal immigrants is relatively low.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4955 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4955)

Considering their own limited conditions, employers have to make such a choice. If the price of two people is the same, all employers will not consider the latter. Most illegal immigrants can also understand this truth, but Soleil doesn't think so.

She doesn't realize the natural gap between herself and the legal nanny, she just keeps accumulating her own resentment in her heart, and even gradually rises to hatred. In the third year of Soleil's arrival in the United States, a fire broke out in her employer's house. The employer's family killed three of four members, a young couple in their thirties and their eldest daughter, who was five years old. Their youngest son, who was under a year old at the time, was missing in the fire. that scene The fire came from Soleil's hands. After Soleil set fire, she took her infant to another city in the United States. She entrusted a middleman to sell the child to a Chinese couple in their 40s who had been unable to have a child for $30,000. At that time, this transaction far exceeded the local market price, and the buyer was once persuaded by the high price. But Soleil is very smart.

She could see the couple's desperate hope for a child, and also saw that the one-year-old baby was somewhat similar to a man, so she described the child's appearance to the couple based on the child's facial features, saying that the child When he grows up, he must be very similar to the man. In addition, the astute Soleil also hit the most moving pain point: because they look alike, as long as they take the child to live in another place, when the child grows up, no one will doubt that the child is buying Come here, even if you bring it back to your hometown in China in three or five years, no one will doubt it if you say it is your own child. Moreover, she also told the couple that, unlike the adopted child, the child she brought is not yet one year old and will never have any memory of her original parents when she grows up.

In Soleil's words, as long as you buy this child, the family will be passed on in one step. So, the persuaded couple bought the child with $30,000, while Soleil got $25,000. At the time, the money was more than what she earned as a nanny for two years. Since then, Soleil has embarked on the evil road of "making quick money". In the early years, she assumed various identities and specially selected Chinese families with babies. Later, with the popularity of the Internet, many Chinese families did not dare to hire illegal immigrants as babysitters, so Soleil changed her career and started other businesses. Until she catches up with the current line. Over the years, Soleil has made more and more money. Her two sons live in large villas and drive luxury cars.

Her eight grandchildren are also healthy and sensible. The whole family is prosperous and prosperous. Leafy scenery. Because she has been away from home for too long and has many grandchildren, Soleil is more and more eager to return to China to reunite with them earlier.

In her own words, even if they are bad people, they should retire to take care of themselves. And she is now more and more eager to retire that day. But Soleil is also very clear in her heart that neither of her two sons is the material for reading, and they have no real skills other than spending money and playing with women, and her husband, who is only a farmer, has not lived with him for 20 years.

, and have nothing in common. In the final analysis, the entire family, one husband, two sons, two daughters-in-law, and eight grandchildren, have no ability to make money, and rely on her income in the United States to enjoy the benefits. life. Once she retires, the whole family will enter a stage of sitting and eating. So for Soleil, how to accumulate more money as soon as possible before retirement has become her most anxious thing now. Originally, she thought that after Elaine's business was successful, plus the big order from Mexico, she could earn at least $200,000, and she was one step closer to her success. But unexpectedly, something happened to Elaine.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4956 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4956)

So, to avoid the limelight for a while and to ensure that business in Mexico is not affected, she decided to go to Mexico in person. After the business in Mexico is done, she will have to come back with another identity. At that time, Jovie will no longer exist in the Chinese circle. Instead, she will have another identity.

Thinking back on this, Soleil couldn't help sighing softly, and at the same time made up her mind in her heart: "After returning from Mexico this time, I will try my best to make a fortune from him by changing my identity again, after that, I will leave the United States and never come back!" Speaking, she took out her mobile phone and found pictures of her grandchildren, and her faith in making money suddenly became firmer.

At this time, her eldest son suddenly called her, and as soon as the call got through, he asked flatteringly on the other end of the phone: "Mom, are you up yet?" Soleil said lightly, "Even if you don't get up, you will still be called by you. I woke up, tell me if you have something to say." The eldest son smiled and said quickly, "Mom, do you remember Brother Sun next door to our hometown?"

"Well." Soleil asked him, "What happened to him?" The eldest son smiled hesitantly and said, "That...he didn't do anything...just...just..." Soleil said coldly, "Speak up if you have something to say, and let it go if you have any farts. I'll hang up first."

The eldest son hurriedly said, "Don't, don't, don't hang up, Mom, I'll tell you the truth, I've made my grandson and his daughter's belly bigger, and it's been more than three months, I told you His daughter is 100,000 yuan, and she doesn't want to let her beat the child. She wants to give birth to the baby now, and asks me for 1 million yuan for the abortion fee.

I don't want to ask you a favor. I plan to give her 200,000 yuan. She can beat the child." Soleil angrily said, "Is it our family's seed?" "Yeah..." The eldest son quickly explained: "This is not Brother Sun's call during Chinese New Year and let me call his daughter. Arranging an internship in a big city, I thought that they were all old neighbors, and his daughter was also brought up by me, so I got her to my friend's company as an administrator..." Speaking of this, the eldest son added:

“She is unfamiliar here alone, I think his father is also my big brother, I always have to take care of it, and it happens once and for all...” He said, he He didn’t forget to add: “It’s really our family’s seed...” Soleil said lightly, “It’s our family’s seed, so there’s no reason to destroy it! I worked so hard to make money in the United States just to make our family flourish and people flourish! You let her give birth, I will give her this million! The eldest son was overjoyed and quickly said again: “Mom, you can’t let my brother and the others know about this.

If it gets to my wife, the family will be turned upside down...” Soleil said lightly: “I know, don’t worry. “Speaking, Soleil said again: “Have you thought about how to tell her father about this? You are more than ten years older than his daughter. If he wants to know, he must be messing around, right?

The eldest son explained: “Actually, Brother Sun already knows that the one million miscarriage fee is what Brother Sun means, and he didn’t make it difficult for me. Anyway, this matter is your own will, not me. He couldn’t do anything to me even if he wasn’t happy.

“Soleil sneered:” He is not happy? His daughter is pregnant with your s*ed, I think he will wake up laughing from a dream! Maybe this was planned by him, and I have already seen it clearly in his family.

The eldest son said helplessly: “Whether he planned it or not, I don’t know...” Soleil snorted and said, “I’ll give you $50,000 first when I turn around.

You give her the money and tell her to be at ease.” Raise the baby, give birth to the child, and do a paternity test after the child is born. As long as it is your seed, I will definitely give her the rest of the money. “Speaking, Soleil couldn’t help sighing again, and said: “You and your brother have 8 children,

I have no chance to pull and pull since childhood, this child is born, I should also retire and go back, then I will help you raise it.
