

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4997

That night, Chloe could only go back and forth between the bathroom and each single bed. She had to give everyone in the prison a foot massage for at least half an hour according to Elaine's request.

Don't say that you don't sleep this night, even if it's daytime tomorrow, I'm afraid you won't be able to relax for a moment.

As for her former minions, they were forced to toss and turn on the wet bed.

They didn't dare to lie in one position for too long, because their bodies simply couldn't be in contact with the wet bed for a long time, because after a while, the body in contact with the bed would become cold, biting and painful.

Therefore, the only thing they can do is to keep rolling on the bed, like a sausage on a sausage rack, constantly rotating and baking.

Surprisingly, Elaine, who finally turned over to be the master, didn't even fall asleep.

Early the next morning.

Elaine, who had not slept all night, seemed more energetic than anyone in the cell.

When she got up from the bed, Chloe was still trying her best to pinches the inmates' feet.

At this time, she had already realized what Elaine felt when she was so tired that her arms were about to break.

And this night, she finally understood what it was like to be bullied and bullied wantonly.

This night, she was so tired that she was about to collapse countless times, and subconsciously she had to stop the movements of her hands.

But when she thought that Elaine was a person who would retaliate, and she had to retaliate tenfold or a hundredfold, she subconsciously didn't dare to have any more lazy thoughts.

Elaine stretched and walked to Chloe's side, staring at her for a while without saying a word.

Seeing Elaine approaching, Chloe was both startled and scared, but after looking at her from the corner of the eye, he quickly lowered his head and continued to pinches his inmates' feet uneasy.

It's just that Chloe's arms are really sore and swollen now, and every time he exerts a force, the pain is piercing, and the speed and strength are unconsciously much slower.

At this time, Elaine suddenly raised her foot and kicked her to the ground. Then she heard Elaine scolding in a cold voice: "Damn, move faster! What are you dawdling about here?"

Chloe cried and said, "I... my arms and hands really can't use the strength..."

Elaine said contemptuously, "You deserve it! What are you forcing your grandma to squeeze her feet? Why don't you think about your grandma, who is in her fifties. Where did her arms and hands come from?"

Said, Elaine became angrier the more she thought about it, pointed at her and scolded: "You have to be worse and crueler than a b*tch like you, otherwise you won't be able to learn well in your fucking life!"

Chloe really regretted it, but it was too late to regret it now.

Throughout the day, Chloe spent almost all of the rest of the time pinching the inmates' feet, except to go out to eat and let out the air.

On this day, Elaine lived a refreshing day.

Except for the three female warriors in Wanlong Hall, almost everyone else surrounded Elaine and continued to show their hospitality.

For the first time, Elaine had a good impression of the prison. This condescending and respected feeling made her very satisfied in her heart.

So, all day, she didn't even call Charlie or Claire.

Originally, she planned to make at least three calls a day to urge her son-in-law, Charlie, to rescue herself quickly.

But today, she felt that there was no need to go out too early.

It's much more refreshing than going out to experience the feeling of being in a hurry.

Early the next morning.

Fei Kexin drove by himself and sent Charlie to New York Airport.

Knowing that Charlie was going to Mexico, Fei Kexin was somewhat worried.

She originally wanted to go with charlie, but charlie did not agree.

For charlie, it is much better to have no one around to help many times than to have someone to help.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4998

In the case of someone helping you, you have to take care of the other person yourself, which is far better than being alone.

What's more, when I went to Mexico by myself, I planned to go deep into the tiger's den. By the way, I would pretend to be a pig to eat a tiger, and bring Fei Kexin with me, so I would definitely be tied.

Fei Kexin didn't know what charlie was going to do when he went to Mexico at first. Hearing that charlie was going to replace a potential victim into the other party's death trap, she knew that if she followed, in addition to dragging charlie back, does not have any positive effect.

So, she could only give up.

The car stopped at the entrance of the airport, and charlie said to Fei Kexin, "You have a special status, so don't get out of the car."

Fei Kexin said hurriedly, "Then Mr. wade, you must pay attention to safety!"

charlie nodded slightly, and after saying goodbye to her, he pushed the door and got out of the car.

Then charlie took out a small suitcase from the trunk, and walked into the airport without looking back.

This suitcase contains some new daily clothes that I bought yesterday.

charlie didn't know what was waiting for him in Mexico, but this time he was going to pretend to be a person who was unprepared for danger, and he was going away, so naturally he had to bring some personal belongings.

After coming to the counter to exchange the boarding pass, charlie went through the security check alone and arrived at the designated boarding gate early.

Because he bought economy class this time, he could only find a vacant seat at the boarding gate and wait for the target to appear while waiting for boarding.

Ten minutes later, a middle-aged Asian man in his 40s hurried over.

charlie recognized the other party at a glance, he was Zhou Bihua's son, Trent .

Like charlie, Trent carried a 20-inch suitcase with him, but he had one more bulging shoulder bag than charlie.

Trent , who is in his 40s, looks a little old, not only has his hair gray, but also has a lot more wrinkles on his face than his peers.

From the state of the whole person, it can be seen that Trent should be at the lowest point in his life.

At this point, there were only five minutes left before boarding, and there were already some impatient passengers lining up at the boarding gate.

Trent also dragged his suitcases and lined up at the back of the queue.

Seeing this, charlie immediately stood up, pulled his suitcase and lined up behind Trent .

Afterwards, he pretended to be curious and asked Trent in Chinese, "Are you from China?"

"No." Trent shook his head and said to charlie very seriously, "I am a Chinese-American and have been naturalized for many years."

charlie frowned slightly. It seemed that Trent was more concerned about nationality, so he asked curiously, "Did you immigrate here for work?"

Trent tidied up the collar of his shirt and said proudly, "I am a public student, but because of my outstanding academic performance, the United States gave me a good opportunity to get a green card directly, so I chose to stay in the United States. ."

charlie nodded.

In fact, charlie has read all of Trent 's information, and the reason for asking again is that he wants to take the opportunity to get acquainted with him, and by the way, he also took the opportunity to learn about this person's character in the chat.

charlie saw that he was very concerned about nationality on the one hand, and on the other hand, he talked about his status as a public student back then and was very proud, and he couldn't help but feel a little disgusted in his heart.

In fact, he doesn't like this kind of person very much.

There are indeed many graduates of famous universities in China, as well as those who study abroad at public expense, and finally choose to stay overseas. It is said that there are tens of thousands of Tsinghua graduates who choose to stay in Silicon Valley in the United States.

Of course, the matter of going and staying is all voluntary, but Trent 's situation is very different from other people. After all, he is a public student who came to study abroad at the expense of the country. He should return to serve the motherland after he has achieved something , but he chose to stay in the United States directly. This kind of behavior is not kind in terms of character, so it is difficult for charlie to have a good impression on him.

Therefore, after a few words, he was somewhat disgusted with Trent .

However, he did not get too emotional, but deliberately complimented the other party: "The gold content of public students is said to be very high, you are really amazing!"

Hearing charlie's praise, Trent 's face was full of pride, but his attitude towards charlie was also a lot more friendly, he said with a smile: "In our time, the requirements for public students were indeed very high. There are only a few places in the school."

charlie nodded and asked curiously, "By the way, what are you going to do in Mexico? Is it business or business?"

Trent 's expression froze for a moment, and then he said unnaturally: "I...I'm going to work..."
