

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5063

Other warriors, for several years or even decades, can't wait for the opportunity to let their cultivation level break through another hurdle.

However, in just a few hours, Xion broke through two meridians one after another, and jumped from a three-star warrior to a five-star.

This kind of speed is almost unheard of in the field of martial arts.

Xion didn't expect that Charlie could give her such a good fortune. After all, she was able to upgrade from a two-star warrior to three-star, and it was because of Charlie's help, which was equivalent to Charlie's single-handedly pushing her from two-star to five-star.

Just when she was surprised and happy, and even more moved to Charlie, Charlie closed the door directly, locked herself in the bedroom, and began to refine and reshape the pill.

This kind of favor to Xion was just a little effort for him, and he didn't take it to heart.

Although the Sanxue Rescue Pill is consumed very quickly, it is not too difficult to refine. When the batch at hand is used up, the next batch can be refined, which is nothing more than consuming some medicinal materials and spiritual energy.

However, for Charlie, refining and reshaping pills is a real challenge.

Remodeling Dan is actually no longer a medicinal pill for ordinary people. Its significance is not only to allow people's limbs, internal organs, and six internal organs to regenerate. Its significance is that as long as the person's brain can No damage, remodeling Dan can make him alive, and it is completely restored to the original.

This point, Huichundan is far from being able to do.

Take Li Yalin's situation as an example, no matter how much Huichundan is given to him, he will surely die.

For that kind of comprehensive fatal damage, even the rejuvenation pill could not hold his breath.

Only the reshaping pill, which is not about martial arts, can save him.

Rejuvenation pills can make people go back in time and return to a younger state, but reshaping pills can make people reborn into nirvana. This is the real magic of reshaping pills.

The most amazing thing about Reshaping Pill is that it ignores the user's own strength, no matter how strong or weak, it can regenerate its nirvana.

Not to mention an ordinary person like Li Yalin, even an expert in the dark world like Abbas, in case one day he encounters a strong enemy and is seriously injured, as long as his brain is not damaged, he can use a Reshaping Pill to save him intact. return.

This is the real value of Reshaping Dan. It is like a heroic insurance with no upper limit. It can always guarantee that no matter how much loss you encounter, it will pay the full amount.

If you lose 100, it will pay you 100, if you lose 10 billion, it will also pay you 10 billion.

Therefore, once the Remodeling Pill is successfully refined, it will not only be of great use to Li Yalin and Yuhiko Ito, but also a very important insurance for charlie.

In order to refine the remodeling pill, he took out all the medicinal materials he needed from the box and placed them in front of him one by one according to his own needs. Then he took out the bracelet made of phoenix bone vine from his pocket and used spiritual energy as the Knife, cut off about a tenth of it from above.

These are all the materials that charlie needs to refine and reshape the pill this time.

According to the records in the book, these materials should be able to refine about 15 to 20 remodeling pills.

However, the most uncertain factor is that the reshaping pill consumes too much spiritual energy.

Although charlie didn't know how much he consumed, he knew that the spiritual energy in his body was definitely not enough.

So, just to be cautious, he took out two very precious Pei Yuan Dan. Keep these two Peiyuan Dans handy for emergencies.

In case, in the process of alchemy, he finds that the spiritual energy in his body is unsustainable. He immediately helped Peiyuan Dan to replenish his spiritual energy.

When everything was ready, charlie activated the small piece of phoenix vine with spiritual energy according to the method recorded in the "Jiu Xuan Tian Jing".

The phoenix bone vine is like nuclear fuel. Once activated, the medicinal properties rapidly increase, so almost in an instant, the powerful medicinal power surged out from the phoenix bone vine.

charlie immediately wrapped the powerful medicinal properties together with the prepared medicinal materials with aura.

Immediately afterwards, the phoenix bone vine, which was activated by the spiritual energy, completely penetrated its medicinal properties into all the medicinal materials like magma.

Just like nuclear radiation, these medicinal materials are also undergoing earth-shaking transformation under the action of Fengguteng.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5064

It can be said that all the medicinal materials in front of charlie have completed a certain degree of mutation at this moment, and the medicinal properties have also undergone a reborn evolution under the dual action of Fengguteng and aura.

What surprised charlie the most was that when the phoenix bone vine was activated, its powerful medicinal properties quickly formed an unimaginable law of operation in the aura wrapped in it.

It is like a gaseous planet, constantly rotating, expanding and collapsing towards the center under the action of aura.

And when it spins faster and faster, it is like a super powerful centrifugal pump, frantically extracting spiritual energy from charlie's body.

Originally, charlie controlled the output speed of the aura himself, but he soon discovered that the speed of the aura output was no longer within his control, and it soon changed from active output to being extracted.

It didn't take long for the spiritual energy in charlie's body to be drawn away, and the vortex, which was spinning as fast as a gaseous planet, began to rotate faster and faster, and the degree of collapse inward became more and more terrifying. The man quickly collapsed from a large ball with a diameter of more than one meter to the size of a football.

However, its density has grown exponentially at an exponential rate.

charlie felt that his spiritual energy was soon showing signs of being unsustainable, so he grabbed a Peiyuan Dan without thinking, and immediately stuffed it into his mouth.

The surging spiritual energy was just melted from the medicinal pill, and before it was warm, it was immediately sucked away by the swirling vortex.

charlie suddenly found that he seemed a little optimistic before.

Two Peiyuan Pills, I'm afraid they won't be able to hold this ghost at all.

So, he didn't dare to wait for the spiritual energy to be consumed, so he immediately swallowed another Peiyuan Dan.

And the speed at which the vortex rotates and collapses is still accelerating.

At this time, it has collapsed from the size of a football just now to the size of a baseball.

However, this thing shows no sign of stopping, and it seems to be turning more and more fierce.

And the aura in charlie's body soon showed signs of being unstoppable.

At this time, charlie was already a little horrified. He never imagined that this thing had such great power, it was almost equivalent to using a centrifugal pump to draw blood from his body, how could the blood in his body withstand such a violent pumping.

But now that he has opened the bow and has not turned back, he can only grit his teeth and take out another Peiyuan Dan, while putting it in his mouth, while praying in his heart: "Don't let me put another in it. Peiyuandan is me... Peiyuandan is me

The most useful pills right now, if you lose four or five or even more Yuan-boosting pills just for refining and remodeling pills, you will wake up crying from a dream..."

While thinking so, charlie bit his head and put the third Peiyuan Dan into his mouth.

Like the previous two Pei Yuan Dan, the spiritual energy of this Pei Yuan Dan was quickly drawn away, even faster than before.

Charlie felt exhausted, and couldn't help but gritted his teeth and scolded with difficulty: "Today is really a big loss!"

After saying that, he took out another Pei Yuan Dan, intending to swallow it and hold on.

And at this time, the vortex has already accelerated to the extreme.

charlie saw that it had collapsed into a ball with a diameter of only about five centimeters, and at an extremely fast speed, the ball would even set the air on fire, so hot that it emitted a dazzling white light, and the rolling heat waves in the air rushed to the face. It even caused the wooden furniture and floors in the room to expand and burst due to the heat wave, and the wooden floors even arched from the ground!

The huge flow rate of the air in the room has caused a strong tinnitus effect in charlie's ears, and the furnishings in the room have been messed up. It started to rotate while revolving around the sphere, like a star system.

charlie suddenly felt that what was in front of him at this time was not a pile of medicinal herbs and a pile of debris in the room, but a microcosm.

Xion outside the door was startled and wanted to come in to see what happened, but remembering charlie's exhortation, she could only control her impulse and wait anxiously outside the door.

And Xion could feel the scorching heat in the room through the door, and the whole door was like a radiator, burning her cheeks.

Just then, she suddenly heard an explosion from inside.

The white ball of light that was constantly spinning and collapsing finally exploded in front of charlie!

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5065

What charlie didn't expect was that the rapidly spinning white ball of light suddenly cracked.

The moment the light ball exploded, the strong airflow in the room seemed to stop abruptly.

Immediately afterwards, a pile of medicinal pills with a diameter of about one centimeter and a golden yellow body rolled to the ground. What is even more incredible is that these rolled medicinal pills did not spread out, but all gathered in the middle.

Seeing Dan Cheng, charlie sighed in relief and quickly held these medicinal pills in his palm.

After counting, he found that these medicinal pills were not too many or not, and they were just 20 pills.

However, charlie was not too happy at this time. After all, in order to refine these batches of remodeling pills, he took in three precious Yuan-boosting pills.

Peiyuan Pill can be eaten to replenish spiritual energy, but remodeling Pill has no effect.

Afterwards, charlie carefully put away the medicine pill, stood up and walked out.

When Xion outside the door saw him come out, he hurried forward to meet him, and asked with concern, "Mr. Wade, are you alright, I heard a lot of noise inside just now..."

charlie smiled slightly: "I'm fine."

After speaking, charlie said again: "By the way, Xion, you can call your sister and ask her to arrange a private jet now to take off from Aurous Hill to New York."

Xion asked in surprise, "Mr. Wade, are you going to let Sister Zara come over?"

"No." charlie said, "Just ask her to prepare the plane. After you confirm with her, call your mother and ask her to pack up her personal belongings immediately. After the plane is ready, let her set off and come here. New York."

"Let my mother come?" Xion was suddenly a little surprised. She couldn't figure out why charlie suddenly wanted her mother to come to New York. After all, he already had a lot of loyalists from Wanlong Palace, and those people were much stronger than his mother. What's more, my mother is disabled.

charlie didn't tell her the specific reason directly, but said seriously: "Not only do you want your mother to come over, but also your dad to come with you."

Right now, Zayne is under house arrest in Aurous Hill according to charlie's request, and the person in charge of taking care of him is Xion's mother, Kairi.

charlie also wanted to fulfill the two of them. If Zayne could really figure it out and walk with Kairi for the second half of his life, he would also give Zayne a chance because of their many years of stumble.

However, it was naturally impossible for charlie to say such things, so he could only create opportunities for the two of them through various means.

Although Xion didn't understand why charlie suddenly wanted both parents to come to the United States, he subconsciously thought that he could not disobey charlie's request no matter what, so he said without thinking, "Okay, Mr. Wade, I will give it to you now. Sister zara make a call, and then call my mother."

"Okay." charlie nodded and said, "I also want to go back to the house and make a call."

After that, he turned back to the bedroom and closed the door again.

At this time in New York, the skyline has already revealed a hint of morning light.

At this time, Tokyo should have only just entered the evening.

So, Charlie took out his mobile phone and prepared to call Ito Nanako.

And Tokyo on the other side of the world.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5066

A few minutes ago, Ito Nanako had just finished a day's work and returned to her home in Tokyo by car.

Since taking over the Ito family not long ago, Ito Nanako has been working overtime during this period of time, so that she can adapt as soon as possible and be promoted to the role of the helm of the Ito family.

Under normal circumstances, she usually waits until after 9 p.m. to get home from get off work.

The reason why I came home after six o'clock today is mainly because today is her father Yuhiko Ito's 50th birthday.

She left work early to celebrate her father's birthday.

In the past, on the birthday of Ito Yuhiko, not only the collateral members of the entire Ito family would come to celebrate the birthday, but even the heads of many famous families in Tokyo would come to congratulate him.

However, since Ito Yuhiko amputated both legs, he has been very resistant to such crowded occasions, so this year's birthday dinner, he closed the door to thank guests, and simply stayed at home with his daughter, sister, and loyal servant Koichi Tanaka, etc. When a person eats a meal, it counts as a birthday celebration.

When Ito Nanako entered the door, aunt Ito Emi just brought her servants and prepared a table of sumptuous delicacies in the center of the main hall, and specially prepared two bottles of the top fourteenth generation Longquan sake for Ito Yuhiko.

Seeing Ito Nanako coming back, Ito Emi smiled and said, "Nanako, go to your father's room and tell him to come out. The food is ready, you are back, you can start."

"Okay aunt." Ito Nanako nodded lightly, and then asked in a low voice, "Aunt, is your father feeling okay?"

"It's okay." Ito Emi smiled and said, "I was a little gloomy at noon, but in the afternoon Tanaka came to accompany him to feed the koi, and the two of them played billiards. Rest in the room for a while, and say that you will call him after you come."

"Okay." Ito Nanako sighed softly and said, "Then I'll go and call him."

Ito Emi instructed: "Go and put on the kimono first. Don't forget your father's character. Today, the entire mansion has changed into Japanese-style clothes."

Ito Nanako patted her forehead: "I almost forgot... I'll change my clothes now!"

The nation of Japan, in some ways, is a paradox of water and fire.

In the whole of Asia, Japan is the most westernized country. Office workers in this country wear suits and ties all year round, even in the hottest weather, but they are also one of the countries with the most thorough preservation of traditional culture.

Take Yuhiko Ito, for example, he is almost always dressed in suits and leather shoes in public, and even pays more attention to Western etiquette than the British. However, when he leaves the business field, he likes to live in a traditional Japanese manor the most, and when it comes to major festivals, he only wears it at home. The pattern is woven with a hakama.

Like the kimono worn by Japanese women, the hakama is the highest-ranking traditional clothing in Japan.

Whether Nanako used to go to school, competes, or now works, most of the time she dresses in a normal modern western style, but because of family traditions, she also has to change into kimonos on major festivals to show her traditions.

Back in her room, Nanako chose a pure white kimono, and with the help of two personal maids, she dressed the kimono and matching decorations neatly.

After all, she is the No. 1 beauty in Japan known as Yamato Nadeko. When Nanako puts on a traditional Japanese kimono, Yamato Nadeko's unparalleled beauty and quiet virgin temperament are vividly highlighted.

The maid who tied her waist couldn't help sighing: "Miss is so beautiful in a kimono. If she gets married in a kimono in the future, she will surely amaze the whole of Japan!"

Looking at herself in the mirror, Ito Nanako couldn't help but shyly said, "Why do you have to wear a kimono to get married?"

The maid said in surprise: "My lord is so obedient to tradition, if you don't wear a kimono to get married, he must be very angry, right? Besides, I always think that we Japanese women look better in kimonos than in wedding dresses, after all, we are The traditional clothes that have been passed down from generation to generation are not only tailor-made for us, but also more in line with the temperament of our Japanese women."

Ito Nanako's pretty face blushed slightly and said, "Did you know that there is a wedding dress in China called a dragon and phoenix gown, which is also very beautiful."
