

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5067

“Dragon and phoenix gown?” The young maid shook her head and said blankly, “Miss, I seem to... never heard of it...”

Ito Nanako said with a smile: “The dragon and phoenix gown is one of the traditional costumes of Chinese women. It is usually red or gold, and there are many very exquisite embroidery on it. It is very gorgeous and beautiful. There is also a Xiuhe that has been improved in recent years. , It’s also very good-looking, and it’s especially festive to wear.”

The maid said blankly: “Miss, we Japanese women get married... There is no need to wear a Chinese wedding dress... Wouldn’t it be too strange...”

Ito Nanako shook her head mischievously, and said shyly: “If you marry a Japanese, you will naturally wear a kimono, but if you marry a Chinese, you must wear a Chinese wedding dress to suit the occasion. Besides, as the Chinese saying goes, marrying The chicken follows the chicken, and the dog follows the dog, so it must be adapted to the man’s customs.”

“Ah?!” The maid said in horror: “Miss, adults are so traditional, if you want to marry a Chinese, he will be mad at you!”

After speaking, the maid realized that she had said something wrong, patted her mouth quickly, and said with remorse: “I’m sorry, I’m sorry, I’m just making an analogy...”

Ito Nanako smiled and said seriously: “If I really marry the person I want to marry, my father will probably be even happier than me.”

The maid couldn’t help but ask: “Miss...you say that, do you have a heart for it?”

Ito Nanako rolled her eyes at her with a smile, and said, “Don’t gossip like that. If you have time, learn more about Chinese traditional culture. It may be useful in the future.”

The maid nodded quickly and said, “Okay lady, I must study more...”

Ito Nanako nodded with a smile, and seeing that she was also tidying up, she said to her and another servant: “You guys go to the front hall to help first, and I’ll call my father.”

The two maids resigned respectfully, and Nanako Ito walked out of the boudoir alone and went to meet her father in her room.

In a traditional Japanese family, the rules between the elder and the younger are relatively strict. If Ito Nanako goes to her father’s room, she must respectfully greet , instead of knocking on the door in a carefree manner.

When she came to the door of her father's room, she found that Tanaka Koichi was sitting in a wheelchair at the entrance of the corridor not far from the door, and was wiping a very beautifully made pool cue in his hand.

Seeing Ito Nanako, he quickly straightened his body and said respectfully, "Miss."

Ito Nanako hurriedly made a silent gesture, stepped forward and asked in a low voice, "Tanaka-san, is father inside?"

Tanaka Koichi nodded respectfully and said, "My lord was a little tired just now, so he said he was going back to his room to rest for a while."

Nanako Ito asked him, "I heard from my aunt that Tanaka-san is playing billiards with my father. It seems that he hasn't touched the cue for a long time recently. How is it? Are you still having fun?"

Tanaka Hiroichi smiled bitterly and said, "It was fine at first, but in the middle of the fight, the adults suddenly said that it was stupid to run around the table with an electric wheelchair, so I didn't want to continue."

As he said that, he raised the pool cue in his hand and said helplessly, "My lord even dropped his favorite cue. Fortunately, it didn't break. This brand has long been out of print."

Ito Nanako nodded lightly and sighed: "Father, now, has become a strange old man with a quirky temper, but he just turned fifty..."

She knew her father, who was stubborn, hard-hearted, and had a high self-esteem.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5068

He is known to everyone in Japan, and is even regarded as an inspirational idol by many people. He single-handedly built the Ito family into one of the top families in Japan, and the age of 50 is also the age of the fight.

Originally, he should give full play to his ambitions. At this age, but suddenly losing both legs, becoming a disabled person who needs to be cared for at home, and has to rely on a wheelchair to go out, I am afraid that the gap in my heart will be difficult to fill in three to five years.

So, she said to Tanaka Koichi: "Tanaka-san, please come to the home tomorrow with the hard work of the manufacturer of the ball table, and let them see if there is any way to upgrade the table to make it more suitable for Father's current situation. For example, the height of the table should be adjusted as much as possible, and the legs supporting the table should be retracted as much as possible to avoid collision with the wheelchair.

As she said that, she thought of something, and quickly added: "By the way, let's also make an appointment with the manufacturer of electric wheelchairs.

Now the technology of electronic products is developing rapidly, sweeping robots can achieve autonomous obstacle avoidance, and electric wheelchairs should also be able to do their best.

It is possible to add more technology products that can be sensed to prevent the wheelchair from colliding with other things, and it would be better if the seat height can be adjusted quickly.

"Okay!" Hiroshi Tanaka agreed without hesitation, and said, "I'll do it tomorrow morning."

Nanako Ito nodded slightly and sighed softly: "In fact, Charlie has helped a lot. Although Tanaka-san and his father can't become normal people, at least their physical conditions have completely recovered, and the rest is the adaptation stage. "

"Yes." Tanaka Hiroshi couldn't help but sigh: "When I jumped off the bridge, I never thought that I would definitely survive. At that time, I thought that as long as I could save my life, no matter how miserable it was, it would be worth it. Looking at it now, it's really thanks to me. With Mr. Wade, except for the absence of legs, other aspects are the same as before, and even the physical condition is better than before."

After speaking, he said with a melancholy expression: "My mentality has been adjusted very quickly, it's just that the adults...you know, Miss, adults are strong all their lives, and I'm afraid I won't be able to adapt in a short time..."

Nanako Ito nodded lightly and said, "I will try my best to help my father get out as soon as possible, and Tanaka-san please help."

Tanaka Koichi bowed his head respectfully and said, "Don't worry, Miss, Tanaka will do his best!"

Ito Nanako smiled slightly and said, "Thank you Tanaka-san, I'll go and see my father first."

At this time, Ito Yuhiko was sitting in a wheelchair by himself, parked in the middle of his bedroom study.

Ito Takehiko's room is a suite with a bedroom and a study room. The interior decoration is a typical Japanese style, and the whole house is tatami.

On the wall hangs a brand new set of hakama, which he had a craftsman tailor-made for his 50th birthday last year.

At that time, he asked the craftsmen to make two sets, one set was prepared for the 50th birthday, and the other set was prepared for the marriage of his daughter Nanako.

For a traditional Japanese man like Takehiko Ito, his love for the hakama is more than that of the British aristocracy for bespoke suits.

It's just that now, looking at this set of tattooed hakama, he doesn't like it at all.

The reason is very simple. I have already lost my legs. No matter how I wear this kind of clothes, it is impossible to wear it out of its original flavor.

Even Takehiko Ito felt that his current self was simply not worthy of such a finely crafted patterned hakama. He felt that if he wore this patterned hakama, it would be like those worn by noble gentlemen in Europe. The suit only wears the upper part of the body, and the lower part of the body is just as funny and disrespectful as wearing pants with bare legs.

Therefore, even though he knew that it was time to change his clothes and go to the front hall to celebrate his birthday, he was still reluctant to let the servants help him get dressed.

Just sitting alone in a wheelchair, staring at the suit and crying silently.

At this moment, he suddenly heard a soft knock on the door, and then he heard his daughter's voice: "Father, Nanako came to see you, is it convenient to come in?"

Ito Yuhiko quickly wiped away his tears, and then operated the remote sensing of the wheelchair with his hands, causing the wheelchair to fall in one direction, facing the patterned hakama on the wall, and then pretended to be calm and said, "Oh, it's Nanako, Come in now."

Ito Nanako gently opened the door, left her slippers outside the door, and walked in barefoot.

Seeing Ito Nanako dressed up like a fairy, Ito Yuhiko couldn't help but proudly said: "Nanako, your father can't wait to see you when you get married. It must be even more beautiful than now, I am afraid that by then, all Japan will be amazed by you!"

Ito Nanako smiled and said with a smile: "Father, Nanako never thought of getting married too early."

“Oh...” Ito Yuhiko responded and said with emotion, “still can’t put charlie in heart?”

Ito Nanako didn’t hide it, and said seriously: “Going back to my father, it’s not that Nanako can’t let go of charlie, it’s that there is no place for anyone other than him. Even if he is let go, there will be no one else.”

Ito Yuhiko was stunned for a moment, and said with some distress: “Nanako, charlie is good, but you don’t know how long you have to wait for him.

The golden age of a woman is only ten years from twenty to thirty years old. Twenty-three years old, if I miss the golden period, I am afraid I will regret it for the rest of my life!”

Ito Nanako said with a smile: “How come, the golden period of a woman is here, whether you marry or not, it is the golden period, even if I can’t get married during this golden period, I will still let myself The year has been wonderful enough, and my father doesn’t have to worry about me.”

Having said that, Ito Nanako said again: “If you want to come, father will not want me to marry a person I don’t like in my best years, and then I will never smile in front of others, but I will cry secretly behind them all day long.”

Ito Yuhiko nodded solemnly and said, “You are right! In any case, father hopes that you can live a happy life every day.”

Nanako Ito smiled knowingly, looked at the set of hakama with patterns on the wall, and said with a smile: “Father, there is no other half in life, although it is also a kind of disability, but as long as you can adjust your mentality and plan A good life can still be lived wonderfully, which is the same as if you lost your legs, as long as you can adjust your mentality, you can still make your life more wonderful.”

As she spoke, she said, “Your patterned hakama is the best I’ve ever seen. Even if you lose your legs, I believe you will still look good after wearing it. I still think of you wearing this. After the pattern is applied to the hakama, I will take a photo with you, and then let the Japanese media who have been paying attention to the Ito family send it out.”

“Send it out?” Ito Yuhiko subconsciously refused: “No! Absolutely not! I will never allow the media to publish my appearance in a wheelchair, not even a half-length photo!”

Nanako Ito smiled and said seriously: “Don’t forget, Father, you are the famous Takehiko Ito. Countless young people in Japan regard you as an idol.

Many people know about your birthday today, and even launched a birthday celebration online for you. ‘s popular entry, they all want to see your inspirational appearance after the amputation, you must not let them down at this time!”

Saying that, Ito Nanako sighed and continued to coax him and said: “Think about it, if they can’t see your latest photos today, I’m afraid they will think that you are decadent now, in case they launch a consolation online Ito Takehiko, the entry for Ito Takehiko, when you see it, won’t you feel uncomfortable?”

Hearing this, Ito Yuhiko said without hesitation, “Let someone bring my prosthesis! I’m going to stand and shoot!”

Ito Nanako secretly smiled and said quickly, “Then wait a moment, I’ll have someone prepare it.”

After all, go out the door quickly.

Ito Yuhiko has always been more resistant to prosthetics, mainly because he was amputated at the thigh and very close to the ischial tuberosity. After such a high level of amputation, it is difficult to control even the best prosthesis, and the experience of using it will be worse.

If the calf is amputated, the part above the knee can still exert force normally, then wearing the prosthesis can basically walk normally or even run occasionally without any problem, but Ito Yuhiko has almost amputated the root of the leg, in this case, the prosthesis can only stagger two steps, and because it was too close to the base of the thigh, the abrasion and discomfort were also very strong. When I sat down, my butt could not be fully seated, and it was painful and numb within ten minutes.

Therefore, many times Ito Yuhiko would rather sit in a wheelchair than wear a prosthesis.

But now that he was coaxed by Ito Nanako, he lost his previous decadence and dissatisfaction with prosthetics.

Ito Nanako walked out of the room quickly, and hurriedly called the housekeeper over to help her father change clothes and put on a prosthesis.

As soon as Ito Nanako finished the order, the servant ran over with a mobile phone and said to Ito Nanako, “Miss, your phone number!”

Ito Nanako nodded, took the phone over and looked at it, and suddenly burst into joy.

Because there are three words written on the phone: charlie.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5070

So she hurriedly took the call, walked to the unoccupied corner to connect, and asked excitedly, “charlie, aren’t you in the United States? Why are you calling me?”

charlie smiled slightly and said, "Nanako, I have something very important to tell you."

Ito Nanako hurriedly said, "Mr. charlie, please speak!"

charlie instructed: "You immediately put down everything at hand, and bring your father and Tanaka Hiro to see me in New York, the sooner the better."

"Ah?" Ito Nanako asked in surprise and surprise, "Let me take my father and Tanaka-san to see you in New York? Now??"

"Yes." charlie said, "It's a long way to go, it's best to leave for the airport now, you don't need to bring luggage and the like, as fast as you can."

Ito Nanako just wanted to say, tonight is my father's birthday, can I leave two hours later, at least let my father finish his meal before leaving.

But she could hear charlie's tone. Although she didn't know why charlie was so anxious, she could also hear the meaning in his words, that every second counted.

So, Ito Nanako immediately made up her mind: if she doesn't eat, she will leave immediately.

Thinking of this, she said to charlie without hesitation: "Okay, charlie, I will arrange the convoy and plane to rush over as quickly as possible."

charlie instructed: "By the way, try to bring as few followers and servants as possible when you come. The fewer people, the better."

Ito Nanako hurriedly said, "Then I'll take my aunt and housekeeper with me. Both my father and Tanaka-san are physically disabled and need someone to take special care of them."

"Okay." charlie agreed and said, "Tell me your flight number before the plane takes off, and I will arrange for someone to pick you up."

"Okay charlie!"

charlie smiled and said, "Then let's meet in New York."

"Okay! See you in New York!"

After hanging up the phone, Ito Nanako immediately called her assistant and instructed her to prepare the business jet immediately and fly directly to New York.

At the same time, she was also asked to transfer the commuter helicopter that Ito Group had on the top floor. She planned to take her family to the airport by helicopter directly from home, which could greatly shorten the travel time in the middle. will be relatively congested.

Although the assistant didn't understand why she was going to the United States all of a sudden, she didn't dare to delay, and hurriedly started to coordinate arrangements.

Nanako didn't go to inform her father, but came to Tanaka Koichi first and said to him, "Tanaka-san, we are going to the United States soon. Charlie asked you to come over by name. Do you have anything to prepare?"

Tanaka Hiroshi was stunned for a moment, and then said: "I...I have nothing to prepare...just so suddenly, what are you going to do in the United States?"

"I don't know either." Nanako hurriedly said, "Since Tanaka-san has nothing to prepare, then I will inform my aunt and finally my father. He finally agreed to change his clothes, so let him change his clothes first, and then the time will come. Go straight away!"

After she finished speaking, she hurriedly turned around and left.

Tanaka subconsciously asked behind him, "Miss, what about the birthday party?"

Nanako said without looking back: "I don't want to eat it, I'll ask my aunt to take the cake and eat it on the plane!"
